THE CITY OF NEW YORK
OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
NEW YORK, NY 10007

July 2016

Dear Friends:

Welcome to the 2016 edition of the New York City Youth Guide to Summer Fun!

With sprawling green parks, refreshing beaches and pools, festive street fairs, world-class music and sports venues, and so much more, the five boroughs has something to offer everyone to enjoy summer in our city. The months of July and August also give young people a chance to continue learning and discovering outside of the classroom. This summer's youth offerings include everything from astronomy and global fashion to learning Italian and kayaking.

My administration remains committed to ensuring that residents and visitors alike have access to the cultural, recreational and educational opportunities that make New York City an international summer hotspot. The NYC Department of Youth and Community Development in collaboration with other City agencies has put together this handy guide with information about free and low-cost events in all five boroughs, and I wish you many fun-filled days as you explore our great city this summer.

Sincerely,

Bill de Blasio
Mayor

Dear Fellow New Yorkers:

It's that time of year again—summer in New York City!—and the Department of Youth and Community Development is pleased to present the 2016 New York City Youth Guide to Summer Fun.

Whether you plan to cool down in the Rockaways or heat things up at the New York City Fire Museum, gaze at the sky or watch a movie under the stars, take in jazz at Bryant Park or celebrate Summer on the Hudson, you can find them—and many other free and low-cost opportunities—in this convenient guide. DYCD would like to thank the City agencies, museums, youth groups, libraries, arts organizations and cultural institutions that play a role in compiling this information each year.

On behalf of the entire staff of DYCD, I wish you a memorable summer of fun.

Sincerely,

Bill Chong

7:00pm – 10:00pm

Observing on the High Line

The High Line is a spectacular setting, with a very low horizon to the west. It overlooks the Hudson River. The nearest subway station is the 14th Street, Eighth Avenue stop on the A, C, and E trains. From there it's only a block-and-a-half walk to 10th Avenue. There is also a 14th Street crosstown bus. If you're planning to drive, keep in mind that the area around the High Line is very busy at night—lots of restaurants, etc. Parking on Friday or Saturday evenings is nearly impossible. We encourage anyone wishing to bring a telescope or binoculars to do so. This event is likely to be canceled if the sky is cloudy.

Bronx Culture Trolley

Hostos Community College
450 Grand Concourse near 149th
5:00pm – 9:00pm

A program of the Bronx Council on the Arts (BCA), the First Wednesday Bronx Culture Trolley was initially conceived as the first action toward creating the South Bronx "Cultural Corridor," an arts-related economic development plan positioning the lower Grand Concourse as a "Gateway to the Arts in the Bronx." The trolley provides people with a fun way to get around and attend cultural venues that they might not otherwise have visited.

GrowNYC Markets

Our markets are as diverse as the city itself! No matter where you are in NYC, you can find a bustling space filled with neighbors, families, office workers and chefs all shopping side-by-side for the freshest of products. Regardless of their size, each market is an anchor to its community providing not only fresh, locally-grown food, but a gathering place where neighbors can come together, share recipes, watch a cooking demonstration, take a tour with a chef and learn about local agriculture. For more specific location information, call 311.

Harlem Meer Fishing Central Park

Charles A. Dana Center, located on the north shore of the Meer

Catch and Release Fishing

Monday-Saturday: 10:00am - 4:00pm

(poles must be returned by 4:00pm)

Sunday: 10:00am - 2:00pm

(poles must be returned by 2:00pm)

Catch-and-release fishing at the Harlem Meer is a favorite family and community pastime. Fishing poles are available to borrow at the Charles A. Dana Center, located on the north shore of the Meer. Picture ID required; instruction and bait (corn kernels) are provided with the poles. The Harlem Meer is a thriving aquatic ecosystem that supports a wide variety of fish, waterfowl, turtles, plants and microorganisms. Some of the fish living in the Meer include largemouth bass, pumpkinseed sunfish, bluegill sunfish, carp and chain pickerel.

Bloomingdale Park

693 Ramona Avenue (Lenevar Avenue)
Staten Island, NY 10309

Staten Island's newest addition to its vast park inventory, Bloomingdale Park provides the first ball fields ever built on parks property south of Richmond Avenue. Most of the 138-acre park was left natural and passive for wildlife. Walking trails have been included for hiking enthusiasts, as well as scenic waterways. A portion of the park has been re-shaped to offer a baseball field, softball field, soccer field, basketball courts and a playground. A comfort station is also part of the amenities included in the new Bloomingdale Park, with stainless steel toilets and a modern ventilation system.

Clay Pit Ponds State Park

83 Nielsen Avenue, Staten Island, NY 10309
(718) 967-1976

The 260-plus-acre park holds a mixture of swamps, bogs, ponds, sand barrens, mature woodlands and spring fed streams. The abundant water supply supports a plethora of wildlife including many species of birds, reptiles, amphibians, and mammals. Facilities include hiking paths, horse trails and an administration building. Free environmental education programs are offered on Saturday. The park is open year-round.

Walker Park

88 Delafield Avenue, Staten Island, NY 10301

Walker Park holds a distinguished place in the history of New York cricket and tennis. Initially known as Livingston Park, the name was changed in 1934 to honor Lieutenant Randolph Walker Jr., who died in World War I. Walker was a distinguished member of the local cricket club, and was a good friend of Eugenius H. Outerbridge (1860–1932), the first chairman of the Port Authority (served 1921–1924).

The change was the result of a petition sent to Alderman Dennis V. Corcoran by the officers of the Randolph Walker Post of the American Legion.
