minutes : To the Acting President of the Board of Police, New York City : SIR – Herewith I beg to return the communication of Marcus Otterbourg, Esquire, Police Jus-tice, addressed to Captain Michael Foley of the Tenth Precnct, directing said Captain to report on and return any warrants which have been issued by said Justice to officers of said precinct, and which now remain unexecuted, and to say that in my opinion, said Justice has no authority to require such report and return, inasmuch as "the warrant of a Magistrate is not returnable at any particular time, but continues in force until it has been fully executed and obeyed, though it were seven years, pro-vided the Magistrate live so long ;" and as other proceedings and methods are specifically provided for inquiring into and punishing any neglect of the officers to whom such warrants were executed.
