of the amount required to pay the expenses of conducting the public business of the City and County of New York, in each Department and branch thereof, and the Board of Education, for the next ensuing financial year, to wit, the year eighteen hundred and eighty-two (1882), in which is included such sum as is necessary for the payment of the interest on the bonds of the said city and county, which become due and payable within said year, and also such sum as is necessary to be raised by tax to pay the principal of any bonds and stocks which become due and payable during the said year; also the amount to be raised by tax annually, which will be sufficient, with the accu-mulations of interest thereon, to pay the bonds and stocks, payable from taxation, issued after June 3, 1878, pursuant to chapter 383, Laws of 1878; and also so much as may be necessary to pay the pro-portion of the State tax required to be paid by the City and County of New York, in said year, as follows: follows :

"It shall be the duty of the Board of Aldermen, of the County of New York, to include in any and every ordinance passed by them, imposing and levying taxes for any purpose or purposes author-ized by law, within the City and County of New York, such sum in addition to the aggregate amount required for such purposes as they shall deem necessary, not exceeding three per cent, of said aggre-gate amount, to provide for deficiencies in the actual product of the amount imposed and levied therefor."

Your Committee have conferred with the Comptroller relative to the sum necessary to cover defi-ciencies in the collection of taxes of the present year, and would recommend that for this purpose the sum of $250,395.70 be added to and included in the amount required to be raised by tax for the sup-port of the Government of the City and County of New York, and for other purposes, in and for the year 1882.

By section 8 of chapter 361 of the Laws of 1881, it is provided that the personal estate of cer-tain corporations, joint-stock companies or associations, doing business in the State of New York, "shall hereafter be exempt from assessment and taxation for State purposes, except upon their real estate and as herein provided; but they shall, in all other respects, be liable to assessment and taxation as herein fore."

taxation as heretofore." Under the provisions of this statute such corporations, joint-stock companies or associations, doing business in the City of New York and assessed upon the tax books or rolls of said city on their personal estate, the valuations of which amount in the aggregate to the sum of $29,547,074, are subject to taxation on said personal estate for all purposes for which taxes are required to be raised, collected and paid according to law in the City and County of New York for the year 1882, other than for the purpose of paying the quota of the State tax imposed upon said city and county for said year, are subject to a rate of taxation proportionately less than the rate to which all other real and personal estates are subject and personal estates are subject. The rate of tax upon the aggregate assessed valuations of real and personal estates, amounting to $1,203,929,324.33 of 2.25 per centum, together with the rate of 2.0152 per centum upon the aggregate assessed valuations of personal estates of such corporations, joint-stock companies or associations as are subject to local taxation thereon, amounting to the sum of $29,547,074, as

The President laid before the Board the following message from his Honor the Mayor : MAYOR'S OFFICE, NEW YORK, September 16, 1882.

To the Honorable the Board of Aldermen :

I return, without my approval, the resolution of the Board of Aldermen, adopted September 5, 1882, to regulate, grade, etc., Ninety-first street, from Eighth avenue to Riverside Drive, for the reason that the work would involve the adjoining property in a heavy assessment, from which the property owners should, at this time, be relieved, as the charge upon their property is already very burdensome. I think the interest of the property owners west of the Boulevard should be protected by amending the ordinance so as to limit the work between Eighth avenue and the Boulevard.

W. R. GRACE, Mayor.

Resolved, That Ninety-first street, from the westerly curb of Eighth avenue to the easterly curb of Riverside Drive, be regulated and graded, curb-stones set and sidewalks flagged a space of four feet wide through the centre thereof, where not already done, under the direction of the Com-missioner of Public Works; and that the accompanying ordinance therefor be adopted. Which was laid over, ordered to be printed in the minutes and published in full in the Crry empt, and all needed information will be given. Those who have not answered as to their liability, or proved permanent exemption, will receive a "jury enroll-ment notice," requiring them to appear before me this year. Whether liable or not, such notices must be an-swered (in person, if possible, and at this office only) under severe penalties. If exempt, the party must bring proof of exemption; if liable, he must also answer in person, giving full and correct name, residence, etc., etc. No attention paid to letters.

giving full and correct name, residence, etc., etc. No attention paid to letters. Persons "enrolled" as liable must serve when called or pay their fines. No mere excuse will be allowed or interference permitted. The fines if unpaid will be entered as judgments upon the property of the delinquents. All good citizens will aid the course of justice, and secure reliable and respectable juries, and equalize ther duty by serving promptly when summoned, allowing their clerks or subordinates to serve, reporting to me any attempt at bribery or evasion, and suggesting names for enrollment. Persons between sixty and seventy years of age, summer absentees, persons temporarily ill, and United States and District Court jurors are not exempt. Every man must attend to his own notice. It is a mis-demeanor to give any jury paper to another to answer. It is also puntshable by fine or imprisonment to give or receive any present or bribe, directly or indirectly, in rela-tion to a jury service, or to withhold any paper or make any false statement, and every case will be fully prose-cuted. GEORGE CAULFIELD, Commissioner of Jurors.

The person or persons to whom the contract may be awarded will be required to attend at this office with the sureties offered by him or them, and execute the contract within five days from the date of the service of a notice to that effect; and in case of failure or neglect so to do, he or they will be considered as having abandoned it, and as in default to the Corporation; and the contract will be re-advertised and re-let, and so on until it be accepted and executed.

and executed. Bidders are required to state in their estimates their names and places of residence ; the names of all per-sons interested with them therein ; and if no other per-son be so interested, the estimate shall distinctly state the fact ; also that the estimate is made without any connec-tion with any other person making an estimate for the same work, and that it is in all respects fair and without collusion or fraud ; and also that no member of the Com-mon Council, Head of a Department, Chief of a Bureau, Deputy thereof, or Clerk therein, or other officer of the Corporation, is directly or indirectly interested therein, or in the supplies or work to which it relates, or in any partion of the profits thereof ; which estimate must be verified by the oath, in writing, of the party making the estimate, that the several matters stated therein are in all respects true. Where more than one person is in-terested, it is requisite that the verification be made and subscribed by all the parties interested. Each estimate shall be accompanied by the consent, in tersted, it is requisite that the verification be made and subscribed by all the parties interested. Each estimate shall be accompanied by the consent, in writing, of two householders or freeholders in the City of New York, with their respective places of business or residence, to the effect that if the contract be awarded to the person or persons making the estimate, they will, on its being so awarded, become bound as his or their sure-ties for its faithful performance; and that if said person or persons shall omit or refuse to execute the contract, they will pay to the Corporation of the City of New York any difference between the sum to which said person or persons would be entitled on its completion, and that which said Corporation may be obliged to pay to the person to whom the contract may be awarded at any subse-quent letting ; the amount, in each case, to be calculated upon the estimated amount of the work to be done in each class by which the bids are tested. The consent above mentioned shall be accompanied by the oath or affirma-tion, in writing, of each of the persons figning the same, that he is a householder or freeholder in the City of New York, and is worth the amount of security required for the completion of the contract, over and above all his debts of every nature, and over and above his liabilities as bail, surety and otherwise; and that he has offered himself as surety in good faith and with the intention to execute the bond required by law. The adequacy and sufficiency of the security offered, will be subject to the approval of the Comproller of the City of New York, after the award is made and prior to the signing of the con-tract.

The award is made and prior to the signing of the con-tract. No estimate will be received or considered unless accompanied by either a certified check upon one of the National Banks of the City of New York, drawn to the order of the Comptroller, or money, to the amount of five per centum of the amount of security required for the faithful performance of the contract. Such check or money must not be enclosed in the sealed envelope con-taining the estimate, but must be handed to the officer or clerk of the Department who has charge of the Estimate-box, and no estimate can be deposited in said box until such check or money has been examined by said officer or clerk and found to be correct. All such deposits, except that of the successful bidder, will be returned by the Comptroller to the persons making the same, within three days after the contract is awarded. If the successful bidder shall refuse or neglect, within five days after notice that the contract has been awarded to him, to execute the same, the amount of the deposit made by him shall be forfeited to and retained by the City of New York, as liquidated dimages for such neglect or refusal; but if he shall execute the contract within the time aforesaid the amount of his deposit will be returned to him by the Comptroller.

Bidders are informed that no deviation from the speci-fications will be allowed, unless under the written instruc-tions of the Engineer-in-Chiet.

No estimate will be accepted from, or contract awarded to, any person who is in arrears to the Corporation, upon debt or contract, or who is a defaulter, as surrety or otherwise, upon any obligation to the Corporation.

The right to decline all the estimates is reserved, if eemed tor the interest of the Corporation of the City of deemed for New York.

Bidders are requested, in making their bids or esti-mates, to use the blank prepared for that purpose by the Department, a copy of which, together with the form of the agreement, including specifications, and showing the manner of payment for the work, can be obtained upon application therefor at the office of the Department.
