APPROVED PAPERS.

AN ORDINANCE to regulate the sale of sawdust in the streets of the City of New York. The Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York do ordain as follows: Section 1. Hereafter it shall not be lawful for any person to sell or offer for sale, in any of the streets, avenues or public places within the corporate limits of the City of New York, any sawdust, except in bags, securely tied, which shall neither be filled or emptied, nor the contents thereof permitted to be scattered or blown about in any such street, avenue or public place, under a penalty of twenty-five dollars for every violation of the provisions of this ordinance.

Sec. 2. All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent or conflicting with the provisions of the ordinance are hereby repealed. Sec. 3. This ordinance shall take effect immediately.

Adopted by the Board of Aldermen, July 7, 1890. Approved by the Mayor, July 15, 1890.

Resolved, That licensed venders be and they are hereby authorized and permitted to stand with their wagons every Saturday evening until midnight, on both sides of Ninth avenue, in the carriage-way, and without obstructing the intersecting streets, between the north side of Thirty-eighth street and the south side of Forty-second street, until otherwise ordered by the Common Council, provided the streets be cleaned thoroughly by said venders immediately after 12 o'clock every Saturday night.

Adopted by the Board of Aldermen, July 1, 1890. Received from his Honor the Mayor, July 15, 1890, without his approval or objections thereto; therefore, as provided in section 75, chapter 410, Laws of 1882, the same became adopted.

Resolved, That horses suitable for use in the Police Department of this city shall be furnished for the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonality of the City of New York by purchase by the Board of Police from time to time as the same are needed, not by contract founded on sealed bids.

Adopted by the Board of Aldermen, July 15, 1890. Approved by the Mayor, July 18, 1890.

THE BOARD OF PUBLIC CHARITIES AND CORRECTION

THE BOARD OF PUBLIC CHARITIES AND CORRECTION RESERVES THE RIGHT TO REJECT ALL BIDS OR ESTIMATES IF DEEMED TO BE FOR THE PUBLIC INTEREST, AS PRO-VIDED IN SECTION 64, CHAPTER 410, LAWS OF 1882. No bid or estimate will be accepted from, or contract awarded to, any person who is in arrears to the Cor-poration upon debt or contract, or who is a defaulter, as suffety or otherwise, upon any obligation to the Corpora-tion.

tion. The award of the contract will be made as soon as practicable after the opening of the bids. Any bidder for this contract must be known to be engaged in and well prepared for the business, and must have satisfactory testimonials to that effect; and the person or persons to whom the contract may be awarded will be required to give security for the performance of the contract by his or their bond, with two sufficient sureties, each in the penal amount of ONE THOUSAND ($1,000) DOLLARS.

THOUSAND ($1,000) DOLLARS. Each bid or estimate shall contain and state the name and place of residence of each of the persons making the same ; the names of all persons interested with him or them therein ; and if no other person be so interested, it shall distinctly state that fact; also that it is made without any connection with any other person making an estimate for the same purpose, and is in all respects fair and with-out collusion or fraud ; and that no member of the Com-mon Council, Head of a Department, Chief of a Bureau, Deputy thereof, or Clerk therein, or other officer of the Corporation, is directly or indirectly interested therein or in the supplies or work to which it relates, or in any portion of the profits thereof. The bid or estimate must be verified by the oath, in writing, of the party or parties making the estimate, that the several matters stated therein are in all respects true. Where more than one person is interested, it is requisite that the VERIFICATION be made and subscribed by all the parties interested. Each bid or estimate shall be accompanied by the con-sment, be approved by the Comptroller of the City of New York. No bid or estimate will be received or considered unless accompanied by either a certified check upon one of the State or National banks of the City of New York, drawn to the order of the Comptroller, or money to the amount of five per centum of the amount of the security required for the faithful performance of the contract. Such check or money must NOT be inclosed in the sealed envelope containing the estimate, but must be handed to the officer or clerk of the Department who has charge of the estimate-box, and no estimate can be deposited in said box until such check or money has been examined by said officer or clerk and found to be correct. All such deposits, except that of the successful bidder, will be returned to the persons mak-ing the same within three days after the contract is awarded. If the successful bidder shall refuse or neglect, within five days after notice that the contract has been awarded to him, to execute the same, the amount of the deposit made by him shall be forfeited to and retained by the City of New York, as liquidated damages for such neglect or refusal; but if he shall ex-ecute the contract within the time aforesaid, the amount of his deposit will be returned to him. Should the person or persons to whom the contract within five days after written notice that the same has been awarded neglect or refuse to accept the contract within five days after written notice that the same has been awarded to his or their bid or proposal, or if he or they accept but do not execute the contract and provide such proper security as has been herefore stated to be requisite, he or they shall be considered as having abandoned it, and as in default to the Corporation, and the contract will be readvertised and relet, as provided by law. Bidders will write out the amount of their estimate in addition to inserting the same in figures.

No. 34 CHAMBERS STREET, New York, June 2, 1890. TO THE PEOPLE OF THE CITY OF NEW Tyork: The comes my duty as Commissioner of Public Works and custodian of the many and immense interests in-volved in the City's water supply, to briefly present to the people of the City the present condition of the supply, and the extreme necessity for care and economy in the use of the water. To ra number of years past and up to the present thave delivered in the City all the water which they are capable of carrying, the supply thus remaining station-ary when the City has been constantly growing in popu-lation, buildings, manufactures and commerce, creating means the the care that a certain seasons of the year, not-ably in extreme cold weather, when the habit of wasting water from faucets to prevent freezing in the pipes pre-vals, and in warm and dry weather, when various netheds of waste are in vogue, the daily consumption exceeds the supply which can by any possibility be prevented through the old Aqueduct and the Bronx river conduit, the excess of consumption being drawn from the pressure in the distributing mains. There is no possi-bility of increasing the water supply received in the pressure in the distributing mains. There is no possi-bility of increasing the water supply received in the pressure in the distributing mains. There is no possi-bility of increasing the water supply received in the pressure in the distributing mains. There is no possi-bility of increasing the water supply received in the should continue for any length of time, the pressure in the distributing mains would be so reduced that it would be impossible to deliver water in thousands of uses located on high ground, and in some other cations even in the basements or cellars. Therefore, most earnestly appeer all citizens, be careful and economical in the use of water, in justice to themselves, to the people at large, and especially to themselves, to the people at large, and especially to themselves, to the people at large, and especially to then
