Meet the Sanitation Models! NYC Sanitation Launches 2023 Calendar

And There's More: DSNY Hoodies, Baby Onesies, Trucker Jackets and DOGGIE VESTS Available, too!

WHAT:

Come meet the models! The New York City Department of Sanitation is launching its 2023 Calendar with a meet-and-greet and autographing opportunity at the NYC City Store.

The 2023 Calendar features just a handful of Department employees who help keep New York City clean, safe and healthy. From Metal Work Mechanic to Sanitation Worker to Supervisor to Director, all Sanitation employees work together for the same goal in service of our City.

WHO:

Models from the 2023 NYC Sanitation Calendar
Sanitation Commissioner Jessica Tisch

WHERE:

NYC City Store
David N. Dinkins Municipal Building
1 Centre Street

WHEN:

Monday, December 19
Models available for signing 10:00 a.m. – noon
Commissioner Tisch available at 10:30 a.m.

OTHER STUFF:

To help New Yorkers represent their favorite City agency, DSNY, the City Store will also debut a new line of merchandise emblazoned with the Sanitation logo or a Sanitation collection truck. A limited run of pullover hoodies, baby onesies, vintage-style t-shirts and quilted "trucker" jackets along with a high-viz doggie vest will be available while supplies last.

Media planning to attend are requested to RSVP to pressoffice@dsny.nyc.gov.

About the New York City Department of Sanitation

The Department of Sanitation (DSNY) keeps New York City healthy, safe and clean by collecting, recycling and disposing of waste, cleaning streets and vacant lots, and clearing snow and ice. The Department operates 59 district garages and manages a fleet of more than 2,000 rear-loading collection trucks, 450 mechanical brooms and 705 salt spreaders. The Department clears litter, snow and ice from approximately 6,500 miles of City streets and removes debris from vacant lots as well as abandoned vehicles from City streets. The Department runs a portfolio of programs and facilities to help New Yorkers more sustainably manage waste.
