MESSAGES FROM HIS HONOR THE MAYOR.

The President laid before the Board the following message from his Honor the Mayor:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, NEW YORK, June 2, 1886.

To the Honorable the Board of Aldermen:

GENTLEMEN—It is my sad duty to announce to you, for appropriate action, the death of the Hon. John Kelly, a prominent citizen of this city, successively an Alderman, Congressman, Sheriff and Comptroller.

Mr. Kelly's personal rectitude of character has received ample tribute from the press and from his most bitter opponents generally. He was a man of strong and forcible characteristics, and has undoubtedly impressed himself not only upon the history of this city, but upon the political history of the country itself. He successfully administered the offices which at various times it was his fortune to fill, and his conduct of all of them was marked by the energy and ability which were among his strongest characteristics.

His prolonged sickness, which compelled his active retirement from public life, has in a measure prepared the way for the loss which his death brings with it, but the impress which he has made is deep and abiding.

W. R. GRACE, Mayor.

Whereupon Alderman Ryan offered the following:

Whereas, It is with profound sorrow that this Common Council has learned that John Kelly died at his residence in this city yesterday, Tuesday, the 1st instant; and

Whereas, The death of an ordinary friend or acquaintance occasions gloom and sorrow, but when death strikes down one of the most prominent and influential men of his day and generation—a man universally known, beloved and admired—one whose name is associated with all that is manly, brave and honorable, whose word was his bond—sadness and gloom give place to the deepest grief, the most profound sorrow. John Kelly has been prominently before the people of this city for more than one-third of a century: He was an Alderman of his ward; twice a member of Congress from his district; twice Sheriff of this county; Comptroller of this city and an Assessment Commissioner, and he performed the duties incident to these various positions and others of minor importance with singular intelligence and fidelity, deservedly earning the commendation and praise of grateful constituencies. Through all this time and amid all these changes he retained the name bestowed upon him, when but ten years old, by his first employer, James Gordon Bennett the elder, that of "Honest John Kelly." He was a self-made man in the highest and broadest acceptance of that honored term. He began his career when but ten years of age as an office boy, and by patient application to business by day, and to study by night, combined with industry, energy and perseverance, he attained, step by step, the exalted position he held at the time of his death—the leader of the oldest political organization in the country—an organization co-eval with the organization of our government—and became also recognized as a counsellor and guide to the great Democratic party as well of this State as of this Republic; and

Whereas, When such a man dies it is incumbent upon this Common Council to take such measures as will best testify the sorrow of the people and government of this, his native city, for his death, to manifest respect for his memory and to sympathize with his stricken family and sorrowing friends; be it therefore

Resolved, That the members of this Common Council, for themselves and the people they represent, do most sincerely lament the death of John Kelly, and we hereby tender to his bereaved family—his stricken wife and her fatherless children—our heartfelt sympathy in their affliction, and we feel assured that the sympathy of the people of this city also goes forth to them, and that it is the universal prayer that He who "tempers the winds to the shorn lamb" will take them into His holy keeping; and be it further

Resolved, That out of respect for the memory of John Kelly the public offices of the Corporation be closed and no public business be transacted on the day appointed for solemnizing the funeral rites, Saturday, June 5, 1886 (except in the offices specially required by law to be kept open), that the flags on the City Hall and the other public buildings be displayed at half-staff from sunrise until sunset on said day, and the owners or occupants of private buildings and the owners or masters of vessels in our harbor are hereby requested to display their flags at half-mast on that day, and that a committee of five, of whom the President shall be one, be appointed by the Chair to take such other action and make such other and further arrangements as to them may appear more impressively to manifest sorrow for the death and respect for the memory of the illustrious deceased; and be it further

Resolved, That, as an additional mark of respect for the memory of John Kelly, this Board do now adjourn.

In seconding the adoption of the preamble and resolutions, the President and Alderman Quinn paid glowing tributes of respect to the life, character, and public services of the deceased.

The President put the question whether the Board would agree to adopt all but the last resolution.

Which was decided in the affirmative unanimously.

The President appointed as such Committee Aldermen Ryan, Hunsicker, Quinn, and Smith.

The President then put the question whether the Board would agree with the last resolution.

Which was decided in the affirmative.

And the President announced that the Board stood adjourned until Wednesday, the 9th instant, at 1 o'clock P. M.

FRANCIS J. TWOMEY, Clerk.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN, be verified by the oath, in writing, of the party or parties making the estimate, that the several matters stated therein are in all respects true. Where more than one person is interested, it is requisite that the verification be made and subscribed by all the parties interested.

Each bid or estimate shall be accompanied by the consent, in writing, of two householders or freeholders in the City of New York, with their respective places of business or residence, to the effect that if the contract be awarded to the person making the estimate, they will, on its being so awarded, become bound as his sureties for its faithful performance; and that if he shall omit or refuse to execute the same, they shall pay to the Corporation any difference between the sum to which he would be entitled on its completion, and that which the Corporation may be obliged to pay to the person or persons to whom the contract may be awarded at any subsequent letting; the amount in each case to be calculated upon the estimated amount of the work by which the bids are tested. The consent above mentioned shall be accompanied by the oath or affirmation, in writing, of each of the persons signing the same, that he is a householder or freeholder in the City of New York, and is worth the amount of the security required for the completion of this contract, over and above all his debts of every nature, and over and above his liabilities as bail, surety or otherwise; and that he has offered himself as a surety in good faith and with the intention to execute the bond required by section 12 of chapter 7 of the Revised Ordinances of the City of New York, if the contract shall be awarded to the person or persons for whom he consents to become surety. The adequacy and sufficiency of the security offered to be approved by the Comptroller of the City of New York.

No bid or estimate will be considered unless accompanied by either a certified check upon one of the National Banks of the City of New York, drawn to the order of the Comptroller, or money, to the amount of five per centum of the amount of the security required for the faithful performance of the contract. Such check or money must not be enclosed in the sealed envelope containing the estimate, but must be handed to the officer or clerk of the Department who has charge of the Estimate-box, and no estimate can be deposited in said box until such check or money has been examined by said officer or clerk and found to be correct. All such deposits, except that of the successful bidder, will be returned to the persons making the same within three days after the contract is awarded. If the successful bidder shall refuse or neglect, within five days after notice that the contract has been awarded to him, to execute the same, the amount of the deposit made by him shall be forfeited to and retained by the City of New York, as liquidated damages for such neglect or refusal; but if he shall execute the contract within the time aforesaid, the amount of his deposit will be returned to him.

Should the person or persons to whom the contract may be awarded neglect or refuse to accept the contract within five days after written notice that the same has been awarded to his or their bid or proposal, or if he or they accept, but do not execute the contract and give the proper security, he or they shall be considered as having abandoned it, and as in default to the Corporation; and the contract will be readvertised and relet as provided by law.

The quality of the articles, supplies, goods, wares, and merchandise must conform in every respect to the samples of the same, respectively, at the office of the said Department. Bidders are cautioned to examine the specifications for particulars of the articles, etc., required, before making their estimates.

Bidders will state the prices for each article, by which the bids will be tested.

Bidders will write out the amount of their estimate in addition to inserting the same in figures.

Payment will be made by a requisition on the Comptroller, issued on the completion of the contract, or from time to time, as the Commissioners may determine.

Bidders are informed that no deviation from the specifications will be allowed, unless under the written instruction of the Commissioners of Public Charities and Correction.

The form of the agreement, including specifications, and showing the manner of payment, can be obtained at the office of the Department.

THE BOARD OF PUBLIC CHARITIES AND CORRECTION RESERVES THE RIGHT TO REJECT ALL BIDS OR ESTIMATES IF DEEMED TO BE FOR THE PUBLIC INTEREST, AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 64, CHAPTER 10, LAWS OF 1882.

No bid or estimate will be accepted from, or a contract awarded to, any person who is in arrears to the Corporation upon debt or contract, or who is a defaulter, as surety or otherwise, upon any obligation to the Corporation.

The award of the contract will be made as soon as practicable after the opening of the bids. Delivery will be required to be made from time to time, and in such quantities as may be directed by the said Commissioners.

Any bidder for this contract must be known to be engaged in and well prepared for the business, and must have satisfactory testimonials to that effect; and the person or persons to whom the contract may be awarded will be required to give security for the performance of the contract by his or their bond, with two sufficient sureties, in the penal amount of fifty (50) per cent. of the estimated amount of the contract.

No bid or estimate will be considered unless accompanied by either a certified check upon one of the National Banks of the City of New York, drawn to the order of the Comptroller, or money, to the amount of five per centum of the amount of the security required for the faithful performance of the contract. Such check or money must not be enclosed in the sealed envelope containing the estimate, but must be handed to the officer or clerk of the Department who has charge of the Estimate-box, and no estimate can be deposited in said box until such check or money has been examined by said officer or clerk and found to be correct. All such deposits, except that of the successful bidder, will be returned to the persons making the same, within three days after the contract is awarded. If the successful bidder shall refuse or neglect, within five days after notice that the contract has been awarded to him, to execute the same, the amount of the deposit made by him shall be forfeited to and retained by the City of New York, as liquidated damages for such neglect or refusal; but if he shall execute the contract within the time aforesaid, the amount of his deposit will be returned to him.

Should the person or persons to whom the contract may be awarded neglect or refuse to accept the contract within five days after written notice that the same has been awarded to his or their bid or proposal, or if he or they accept, but do not execute the contract and give the proper security, he or they shall be considered as having abandoned it, and as in default to the Corporation; and the contract will be readvertised and relet as provided by law.

The quality of the articles, supplies, goods, wares, and merchandise must conform in every respect to the samples of the same, respectively, at the office of the said Department. Bidders are cautioned to examine the specifications for particulars of the articles, etc., required, before making their estimates.

Bidders will state the price for each article, by which the bids will be tested.
