BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

February 21, 1905.

Present—Messrs. Walter Cook, Warren A. Conover, Charles Brendon, Charles G. Smith, Edward F. Croker, Lewis Harding and William J. Fryer, Chairman.

Meeting called to order at 2 P. M.

On motion, minutes approved as read.

Appeal 8—F. S. C. 2 of 1905, Nos. 82 and 84 Fulton street, Manhattan; Wilson, Baker & Wilson, appellants.

On presentation of report and on motion appeal was approved.

Appeal 9—N. B. 104 of 1905, coal pocket, Nos. 427 to 435 East One Hundred and Ninth street, Manhattan; Geo. Haiss Manufacturing Company, appellant.

"No. 1. Proposed frame construction is unlawful within the fire limits. Section 143 of the Code."

The "Code" makes no direct provision for such structures, the nearest reference thereto being for "grain elevators" on tide water or adjacent to the river front.

That the rules and regulations of the President of the Borough and the provisions of the law do not apply.

That the provisions of the "Code" may be so modified as to permit the erection of this, practically, one-story heavily-timbered coal pocket.

The location of this coal pocket is such that it is practically isolated from and does not come in among buildings that are used entirely for residential purposes.

That it is located in close proximity to East river, a highway of commerce, and in a neighborhood of trade and traffic where the coarser and heavier freight predominates.

That the construction of other than wood coal pockets becomes prohibitive owing to cost, and this in connection with the fact that the competition is fierce from adjacent cities where there are no restrictions, and that coal is handled at a close margin, make it important to grant this permit.

Mr. J. F. Swinnerton appeared before the Board.

On motion, referred to Chief Croker for examination and report as to surroundings.

Appeal 10—F. S. C. 3 of 1905, No. 623 East Fifth street, Manhattan; Horenburger & Straub, appellants.

Appeal 11—F. S. C. 4 of 1905, No. 20 Suffolk street, Manhattan; H. Claman, appellant.

On motion, referred to Chief Croker for examination and report, with recommendation.

Adjourned.

THOMAS F. DONOHUE, Clerk.
