- Win More Contracts, at nyc.gov/competetowin

“The City of New York is committed to achieving excellence in the design and construction of its capital program, and building on the tradition of innovation in architecture and engineering that has contributed, to the City’s prestige as a global destination. The contracting opportunities for construction/construction services and construction-related services that appear in the individual agency listings below reflect that commitment to excellence.”

HHS ACCELERATOR

To respond to human services Requests for Proposals (RFPs), in accordance with Section 3-16 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules of the City of New York (“PPB Rules”), vendors must first complete and submit an electronic prequalification application using the City’s Health and Human Services (HHS) Accelerator System. The HHS Accelerator System is a web-based system maintained by the City of New York for use by its human services Agencies to manage procurement. The process removes redundancy by capturing information about boards, filings, policies, and general service experience centrally. As a result, specific proposals for funding are more focused on program design, scope, and budget.

Important information about the new method

- Prequalification applications are required every three years.
- Documents related to annual corporate filings must be submitted on an annual basis to remain eligible to compete.
- Prequalification applications will be reviewed to validate compliance with corporate filings, organizational capacity, and relevant service experience.
- Approved organizations will be eligible to compete and would submit electronic proposals through the system.

The Client and Community Service Catalog, which lists all Prequalification service categories and the NYC Procurement Roadmap, which lists all RFPs to be managed by HHS Accelerator may be viewed, at <http://www.nyc.gov/html/hhsaccelerator/html/roadmap/roadmap.shtml>. All current and prospective vendors should frequently review information listed on roadmap to take full advantage of upcoming opportunities for funding.

Participating NYC Agencies

HHS Accelerator, led by the Office of the Mayor, is governed by an Executive Steering Committee of Agency Heads who represent the following NYC Agencies:

- Administration for Children’s Services (ACS)
- Department for the Aging (DFTA)
- Department of Consumer Affairs (DCA)
- Department of Corrections (DOC)
- Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DOHMH)
- Department of Homeless Services (DHS)
- Department of Probation (DOP)
- Department of Small Business Services (SBS)
- Department of Youth and Community Development (DYCD)
- Housing and Preservation Department (HPD)
- Human Resources Administration (HRA)
- Office of the Criminal Justice Coordinator (CJC)

PUBLIC-PRIVATE IMPACT INITIATIVE RFEI - Request for Information - PIN# 9517 - Due 12-30-22 at 11:59 P.M.

Since its inception, New York City Economic Development Corporation (“NYCEDC”), has leveraged a wide range of public-private partnerships, to help make New York City a better place to live and work. Some of these partnerships were driven by economic trends and rapid technological advancement, while others were developed in response to natural disasters and public health crises. Regardless of the impetus, NYCEDC has always relied on its deep ties to private and non-profit partners to craft thoughtful solutions to pressing problems. As new challenges arise and the City’s priorities evolve, NYCEDC remains open to innovative and impactful project ideas and ways of working with outside partners to seize future opportunities.

In an effort to catalyze the development of projects that advance NYCEDC’s strategic priorities, NYCEDC is issuing this unique Request For Expressions of Interest (“RFEI”), to facilitate submission and review of partnership ideas that fall outside the scope of NYCEDC’s other active solicitations. Through this RFEI, private sector and non-profit organizations can propose NYCEDC partnerships for a wide variety of projects, which may include but are not limited to:

- Programmatic initiatives
- Technology pilots
- Capital projects
- Impact investment opportunities
- Improvements to NYCEDC operations

NYCEDC encourages respondents (“Respondents”, each a “Respondent”), to propose creative, economically viable and financially sustainable projects, that directly benefit the people and businesses of New York City. Although NYCEDC may be able to provide limited amounts of targeted seed capital to initiate a project with a demonstrated need, this RFEI is primarily focused on sourcing proposals that thoughtfully leverage NYCEDC’s in-kind, non-financial resources to drive impact. Examples of resources that Respondents could benefit from include but are not limited to:

- Access to NYCEDC asset(s)
- Marketing and publicity support
- Technical assistance and project management support
- Community and network building assistance
- Targeted seed capital (in exceptional cases)
- Other types of strategic partnership support

Proposals submitted through this RFEI will undergo a tiered evaluation process, allowing NYCEDC to provide feedback on the project concept before either party has committed to an in-depth due diligence process. Strong proposals may then be implemented in a variety of ways, depending on the nature of the idea, availability of resources, and NYCEDC procurement policies. Respondents may be awarded a contract directly through this RFEI, a subsequent competitive procurement or an alternative partnership structure.

NYCEDC plans to select a consultant(s) on the basis of factors stated in the RFEI which include, but are not limited to, the submission's Proposal Profile, Financial Profile and Impact Profile.

It is the policy of NYCEDC to comply with all Federal, State and City laws and regulations which prohibit unlawful discrimination because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, marital status and other protected category, and to take affirmative action in working with contracting parties to ensure certified Minority and Women-Owned Business Enterprises (M/WBEs) share in the economic opportunities generated by NYCEDC's projects and initiatives.

Companies who have been certified with the New York City Department of Small Business Services as Minority and Women-Owned Business Enterprises ("M/WBE") are strongly encouraged to apply. To learn more about M/WBE certification and NYCEDC's M/WBE program, please visit <http://edc.nyc/opportunity-mwdb>.

An optional information session will be held virtually (with telephonic access) at the following time:

- Thursday, May 6th, 2021, at 12:00 P.M. E.S.T.

Those who wish to attend this session should RSVP, by email, to ppii@edc.nyc, no later than 4:00 P.M. E.S.T., on Wednesday, May 5th, 2021. Meeting information will be emailed to those who RSVP for the session.

NYCEDC reserves the right to host additional information sessions in the future. Any additional information sessions will be announced on the NYCEDC web page.

Potential Respondents may submit questions and/or request clarifications from NYCEDC on a rolling basis, beginning on April 19th, 2021. Questions and clarification requests should be directed, to ppii@edc.nyc.

NYCEDC will post answers to questions received between April 19th, 2021 and May 15th, 2021, on the NYCEDC web page, by May 28th, 2021.

After the initial May 28th, 2021 posting, NYCEDC will post answers to questions every three months (the "Rolling Three-Month Q&A period"), by the final business day of every third month. To have questions answered in NYCEDC's next website posting, potential Respondents must submit their questions by the 15th of the third month of the Rolling Three-Month Q&A Period.

Note: NYCEDC may update the list of questions and answers on the web page more frequently.

Detailed submission guidelines and requirements are outlined in the RFEI, available as of Monday, April 19, 2021. Statement of Basis and Purpose of Proposed Rule

Local Law 64 of 2018 enacted a new chapter 18 of title 26 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York ("Act"). The Act requires HPD to create and maintain a "Housing Portal" website, through which information about "Affordable Units" must be submitted by owners and may be accessed by the public and through which such affordable housing units may be marketed. The Act provides that HPD shall promulgate certain rules related to the administration and enforcement of the Act. HPD is proposing a new chapter 58 of title 28 of the Rules of the City of New York ("Housing Portal Rules") to implement the Act.

The Act requires HPD to promulgate rules to establish the manner by which Affordable Unit information shall be provided to HPD and the manner by which a user of the Housing Portal verifies that such user is a lawful leaseholder or owner of an Affordable Unit. The Act also requires HPD to promulgate rules establishing the criteria for determining whether a complaint that an owner has violated the Act is credible and the manner by which HPD verifies the allegations in such a complaint. The Act also authorizes HPD to specify by rule additional categories of information that must be submitted concerning Affordable Units. Furthermore, the Act provides that HPD may establish the manner in which Affordable Units may be offered for rent or sale through the Housing Portal. The proposed rules would provide for all of the foregoing.

HPD's authority for these rules is found in sections 1043 and 1802 of the New York City Charter and chapter 18 of title 26 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York.

New material is underlined.
[Deleted material is in brackets.]

"Shall" and "must" denote mandatory requirements and may be used interchangeably in the rules of this department, unless otherwise specified or unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.
