NIST	NIST has a long-standing and on-going effort supporting small business cybersecurity. This is accomplished by providing guidance through websites, publications, meetings, and events. This includes a Small Business Cybersecurity Corner website that puts a variety of government and other cybersecurity resources for small businesses in one site. NIST coordinates its small business activities with the Small Business Administration, the National Initiative For Cybersecurity Education (NICE), National Cyber Security Alliance, The Department of Homeland Security, the FTC, and others. Small businesses also may find Small Business Information Security: The Fundamentals a valuable publication for understanding important cybersecurity activities. It is recommended as a starter kit for small businesses.
