DEPARTMENT OF PARKS.

Report for the Quarter ending March 31, 1904.

Department of Parks,
Arsenal, Central Park,
New York City, March 31, 1904.

Hon. GEORGE B. McCLELLAN, Mayor:

Sir—I have the honor to make the following report, pursuant to the provisions of section 1544, of the operations of the Department of Parks, Boroughs of Manhattan and Richmond, for the quarter ending March 31, 1904.

Very respectfully yours,

JNO. J. PALLAS, Commissioner of Parks,
Boroughs of Manhattan and Richmond.

March 31, 1904.

The condition in which the Park Department of the boroughs of Manhattan and Richmond was found by the incoming administration January 1, 1904, surprised me beyond measure. Every day of added experience in connection with the Department has increased my astonishment that any administration could have permitted its affairs to reach such a condition of inefficiency and confusion. In reaching this conclusion, I seem to be supported by the results of an examination by the Commissioners of Accounts, and by the complaints made by the Civil Service Reform Association.

The mere statement that the weekly pay-roll of laborers in this Department for the last week of December, 1903, reached the amount of $11,104.13, indicates an almost hopeless condition of inefficiency and extravagance. No possible work of construction or maintenance could justify such a pay-roll at that season. To this incontestable fact must be added the further criticism that the force under this extravagant pay-roll was without effective organization or responsible outside superintendence. Its chief purpose seemed to be the making of time and the drawing of pay. A most flagrant instance was the case of a Foreman, under whom many men received full time, and made no pretense of doing any work at all. Cases were found of men who carried their own time books and turned in their own time, but concerning whose work no one could give any information, not even themselves.

The following table, showing the figures of the last week in December for six years, enables the inexcusable extravagance of this weekly pay-roll to be seen at a glance:

1898	1899	1900	1901	1902	1903
$4,492 10	$4,780 05	$4,729 45	$5,715 16	$5,524 74	$11,104 13

This weekly pay-roll reached during the year 1903 a high-water mark of $16,000, but even when figured on the basis of the last week in December's figure of $11,104.13 it calls for an annual expenditure of $577,414.76. To this amount, it should be remembered, there must be added some $75,000 or $80,000 for the purchase of supplies and provision for a two-weekly pay-roll, which I found running at a rate which would call for $190,000 annually.

To sum up this shows that the Department was found in the dullest week of the year, when all park work was at its lowest point, and when construction and improvement were entirely out of the question, running at a rate which called for an annual expenditure of about $847,415.

The provision which was left by the previous administration to meet expenditures running upon this extravagant scale consisted of the annual appropriation of $439,822.50 and a balance of the proceeds of bond issue for the improvement of parks, parkways and drives. This bond account was reinforced in November, 1903, by a bond issue, aggregating $500,000, but the out-going administration, under contracts awarded up to December 31, 1903, and by wasteful pay-roll expenditures, used up nearly all this half million dollars. There was a nominal balance on the books of $175,442.33. If this amount could have been added to the annual appropriation, and used for the general purposes of the Department, the funds for the year 1904 would still lack about $235,000 of being sufficient to continue the extravagant organization of the force found at the close of the year. The part of the $11,000 weekly pay-roll charged against the bond account, if continued until the season of the year when the work of construction and improvement could be resumed, would have used up this whole amount without accomplishing any of the purposes for which the bond issues were authorized.

In connection with the pay-roll charges against the bond issues, the Commissioners of Accounts, in their examination, report that the administration of the Department in 1903 "included in the amount of the labor pay-rolls, so charged against the bond issues, many items, which, strictly speaking, were properly chargeable to the appropriation for Labor, Maintenance and Supplies."

The financial mismanagement of the Department was matched by the record of violations of the requirements of the Civil Service Law. Under the title of "Assistant Gardeners" and "Mowers" many appointments were made under which details for various classes of clerical and inside work were allowed. Men were drawing pay under the title of "Mowers" who would not know a scythe if they saw one, and others under the title of "Assistant Gardeners" who did not possess the simplest knowledge of gardening. Steps were immediately taken to remedy this condition and comply with the requirement of the law that the pay-roll designation should indicate the character of work done by those who drew pay from the City. Considerable progress had been made in this direction when a complaint was received from the Civil Service Reform Association on the subject. While at first it seemed peculiar that this association, which had been blind to the violation of the law two years, and only awoke to make complaint after the work of remedying it was in progress, it subsequently developed that officials of the previous administration, themselves responsible for the development of the abuse, had instigated these complaints against their successors while the latter were doing their utmost to remedy the matter.

The severity of the long, hard winter was the cause of a great deal of damage to the parks, but at the same time it enabled the Department to make an unexampled provision for the pleasure of the great part of the public devoted to winter sports.

The Commissioner, as the result of negotiations with the Hon. George E. Best, Bridge Commissioner, has arranged to take charge of and improve for park and recreation purposes all the space of ground about and under the approach to the new Williamsburg Bridge on the Manhattan side. It is expected that considerable provision for fresh air and exercise for the children of the neighborhood will thus be secured.

The maintenance work and restoration under direction of the Superintendent of Parks was made unusually difficult by the severity of the winter season. At Riverside Park and One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street the 10-inch sewer, which was broken and washed away by one of the tremendous storms of last year, was replaced, covered over and the cut refilled with good earth. At Riverside Park and One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street over three hundred loads of soil were carted and filled into the washouts.

The construction and setting of eight drinking fountains in and about the tennis grounds in Central Park was begun.

The gardening force was reorganized into three sections, each under a Foreman Gardener. One section comprises Central Park; another the other parks north of Fifty-ninth street, and the third, the parks south of Fifty-ninth street. Considerable work was done during the quarter, cleaning up the herbaceous beds, attending to bedding and planting and all the gardening work suitable to the season.

The arboricultural work has also been divided into three sections under charge of three Arboriculturists. The removal of dead trees, pruning, planting, etc., have been attended to and a very creditable showing made.

In the working force on maintenance a return was made to the old subdivisions that were in use for years until 1902. Under this system Central Park was divided into seven sections, each under the charge of a Foreman, and the City park forces were divided into five sections, each with a Foreman. By this arrangement a more efficient and satisfactory force can be maintained. Extensive masonry repairs were made to the washouts on bridge leading out of Central Park at One Hundred and Tenth street and Eighth avenue. Ten feet of curbing on each side of the drive with the necessary backing and filling, resetting of the large stones at the ends of the bridge and the repaving of the gutters was rendered necessary by the wash-outs, which were undermining the drive at that point. The rebuilding of the wall at One Hundred and Tenth street and Lenox avenue, removed in connection with the construction of the subway tunnel in Central Park, was begun.

In the City parks south of Fifty-ninth street a considerable part of the mechanical force has been kept busy in repairs on cottages, urinals, toilets, fountains, hydrants and walks.

Advantage was taken of the low winter level of water in the lakes in Central Park to clean their shores thoroughly. The Ramble has also had a thorough cleaning, including the stream and pond. New platforms were built at the large lake and at the Fifty-ninth street pond for the safety of persons using the boats.

The severe weather and frequent snow and sleet storms made the care of the drives a particularly difficult task. By the constant use of pin harrows the smooth icy surface was kept roughened, and travel over the drives was attended with very little danger to horses. The bare portion of the drives and smooth places along the edge were kept covered with snow and very little sand or gravel was used. The bridge roads received constant attention and were kept in condition for use. This condition was taken advantage of to a surprisingly large extent. The snow and ice was removed from the park walks and streets surrounding Central and other parks, and particular attention was paid to the removal of snow and ice from the walks of the City parks.

The big sewer at Japanese Point, emptying into the large lake in Central Park, which extends some one hundred feet or more across the drive and under Webster statue, and the sewers at the Schiller statue in the Ramble and opposite Seventy-third street on the West drive, were cleaned while the water in the lake was at its low winter level. This work was done at an expense of great difficulty and considerable time, as the material to be removed had to be passed in pails from man to man. The material amounted to over two hundred loads.

A house was built at the Seventy-ninth Street Yard in Central Park, for the protection of the steam roller, which had been left without shelter or care at the close of last season's work.

At St. Nicholas Park and at Colonial Park the sidewalks were cleaned and washouts repaired. The construction of a stairway at One Hundred and Thirtieth street and St. Nicholas avenue, was commenced and completed.

About twenty-five hundred loads of manure were hauled and spread on lawns from the Department manure pile in addition to several thousand loads spread by the contractor for this work. A large accumulation, amounting to many hundreds of loads of ashes, resulting from the burning of brush, etc., was hauled and distributed on the slopes just south of the Ninety-seventh Street Transverse road.

The outside of the Jumel Mansion was painted, as well as portions of the interior. Grounds were cleaned up, shrubs pruned, and arrangements made to keep the building open to the public from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.

The shrubs in Park avenue Parks, from Sixty-sixth to Ninety-sixth street, were pruned, and brush hauled away.

At the new park, Thirty-fifth to Thirty-sixth streets, First to Second avenues, a small house was erected by the department employees for use of the Engineers.

At Morningside Park the necessary excavation was made for water supply, and pipes, etc., were laid in connection with the new comfort station.

The iron urinal at Ninety-seventh street and the East drive, and the wooden comfort station at Ninety-eighth street and West drive, were removed.

The platforms and houses at the large lake and at Harlem Meer were put up for the accommodation of skaters and removed at the season's close.

The Conservatory has been kept in excellent condition and has attracted a very large number of visitors. The Easter Sunday floral show has been prepared, and a very comprehensive and interesting display will be ready for this occasion. There are two large trees of the Royal Palm, over thirty feet high, bearing seeds in the form of a rain of red berries. There are specimens of the Chinese Fan Palm, from the leaves of which the palmleaf fans of export are made, also bearing fruit, which resembles big clusters of green grapes. There is a large specimen of the cocoanut palm, and a variety of other palms also very attractive in appearance. There are several banana plants of striking beauty, two of them bearing fruit, one of the red variety and the other yellow, and both bunches of extraordinary size and beauty. There is a huge specimen of the rubber tree and several large tree ferns, a cane bamboo tree, a coffee tree, a lemon tree in fruit, and an orange tree in blossom, and a pineapple plant which is also in fruit.

The display includes the pitcher plant and the sensitive plant as among objects of great popular interest. The display of blossoming plants will include the Rhododendrons, Easter Lillies, Amaryllis, Narcissus, Tulips, Hyacinths, Japanese and Baby Primroses in delicate mauve tints. Chinese Primroses in deeper pinks, Lady Washington Pelargoniums in many beautiful colors, yellow and white Marguerites, Bottlewashers, Cinerarias in glorious blaze of maroon, purple, rose, white and magenta, Acacias all dotted with mustard yellow. Among others is a group of Bleeding Hearts, the Azalea Mollis, a hybrid plant bearing a wealth of flowers tinted in a combination of pink and canary yellow of the most delicate shades, the Indian Azalea, also very attractive, Carnations in various colors, Japanese Spireas with their feathery white flowers, the Orchids with their brilliant shades and rich colors, a large number of foliage plants in all colors and tints, Roses and Hydrangeas in full blossom, Clerodendrons, Allamandas, Dutchman's Pipes, Passion Flowers and other climbing vines.

The work under the supervision and in the office of the Chief Engineer, boroughs of Manhattan and Richmond, was as follows:

Removal of the Forty-second Street Reservoir and Building Foundations for New York Public Library.

Although the work under the contract for removing the old reservoir and building the foundations for the new Library was completed late in 1903, the work of completing the quantities for final estimate, payment on acceptance of work was taken up, and independent recalculation of the entire quantities embraced in each item of the contract was prosecuted to completion during the quarter. The factors were used by the architects in the preparation for acceptance of payment.

DeWitt Clinton Park.

Construction of park proper.

On February 3, contractors were ordered to commence work on the contract for constructing DeWitt Clinton Park. Owing to the severe winter, and the season unfavorable for prosecuting work in general, but very little was done during the quarter. The work done during the quarter follows:

200 yards of rock excavation.
20 walk basins built.
5 surface basins built.
1,000 linear feet of sewer pipe trenches excavated.
300 cubic yards of rubblestone for walk foundations delivered and stored on site of the work.

The general delivering of supplies necessary for construction work.

Central Park.

New parapet wall at the entrance to Museum of Art, Eighty-second street and Fifth avenue.

Work on the construction of the parapet wall, which was suspended on January 7, owing to unfavorable weather conditions, was resumed the latter part of March. The work that has been accomplished during the quarter follows:

135 running feet of granite base course set.
50 running feet of limestone wall built.
Pipe sewer from Mineral Springs to sewer near Dairy.

On March 8 the contractors in the matter of constructing a pipe sewer from the Mineral Springs to the sewer near Dairy, with such appurtenances and branches as may be necessary in Central Park, began work, and up to the close of the quarter the following work was done:

350 linear feet of 15-inch pipe laid.
99 linear feet of 8-inch pipe laid.
200 linear feet of trench in earth and rock opened and under excavation.

St. Nicholas Park.

Work on the contract for furnishing all the labor and materials required to build bluestone steps and rubblestone foundations, suspended in the early winter of 1903, was resumed on March 16. From that day to the close of the quarter the work done follows:

34 yards of rubblestone foundation built.

Park Bounded by First Avenue, Second Avenue, Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth Streets.

The contractors were ordered to begin work on this contract on March 10. Owing to the severe winter and the frozen condition of the ground but little could be accomplished. The work of general excavation and removal of rubbish was prosecuted and the taps were removed from the Croton water mains, and the holes left by their removal were properly plugged in Thirty-fifth street and in First avenue.

Asphalt Roadways, Walks, etc.

The asphalt roadways over which this Department has jurisdiction were kept in good general repair under a maintenance contract during the quarter. The amount of work done follows:

504 square yards of asphalt repairs made.

Owing to the general severe winter and the suspended condition of the work the construction report must necessarily be brief. The various corps were, however, engaged on specifications, estimates, plans, etc., for new work, and preparing the statements, acceptance of work on contracts closed as follows:

Field work, grade arrangement, construction maps in the matter of laying asphalt gutters on the Central Park drives.

Specifications and forms of contract for removal of house connections surrounding DeWitt Clinton Park.

For specifications and forms of contracts for repairs to asphalt roads on which guarantee has expired.

Specifications for repaving West Seventy-second street.

Construction plans for DeWitt Clinton Park.

Construction plans for park between Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth streets, First and Second avenues.

Estimates of cost in the matter of repaving Mail street.

Estimate of cost in the matter of repaving Fifth avenue, between Fifty-ninth and Sixtieth, and between Ninetieth and One Hundred and Tenth streets.

Estimate of cost for resurfacing playgrounds in down-town parks.

Laying out drainage in connection with comfort station, Morningside Park.

Surveys and estimate of cost in the matter of repairing slopes in Riverside Park damaged by severe storms in October, 1903.

Surveys and map as to proposed park entrance, East River Park extension at Eighty-sixth street.

General inspections of pavements, building materials and tests of cement.

The Assistant Superintendent of Parks in charge of the Harlem River driveway faced weather conditions unexampled in the history of that popular pleasure resort. By constant attention and hard work over fifty consecutive days of sleighing were provided on the Speedway. Even upon the heels of every snow-storm the roadway was promptly put in splendid condition for speeding as well as for ordinary driving.

Time was also found in which to make many absolutely necessary repairs and improvements along the driveway and adjacent thereto, which should have received attention long before. An enormous accumulation of rubbish around the driveway stables and sheds was removed, and the winding road leading down from Amsterdam avenue and One Hundred and Seventy-fifth street to the Speedway was remade. Upwards of five hundred double truck loads of clinker ashes were used in this work, the Superintendent having secured them without any expense to the Department. This road is of great importance as an entrance to the Speedway for drivers who cross the Washington Bridge from the Borough of The Bronx, or for those who come from the upper Washington Heights section. The hillside walks leading down from Amsterdam avenue and High Bridge Park were also covered with clinker ashes, making a substantial surface.

It was found that a serious mistake was made last autumn when the driveway was resurfaced with up-State loam at an expense of more than twenty thousand dollars. This loam was never properly screened, but placed upon the roadway as it was received from the barges. The results of this neglect were made apparent daily when the snow and ice melted away. Countless thousands of small and some large stones worked up through the surface of the drive, to the consternation of the drivers of valuable horses. By the slow and expensive process of hand-picking, following the use of rakes whenever possible, about fifty double truck loads of the stones were removed, and it is impossible to say when the end will be reached. For many days it was necessary to keep four Laborers constantly patrolling the driveway with pails, picking up these dangerous pebbles. The few bright days of the early spring showed indications that the loam would prove difficult to handle and unsuitable to the purposes for which it was intended. A tendency to bake and pack is very noticeable.

The force of the Entomologist of the Department was drafted for the work of snow removal on many occasions, when the exigencies of the work required it. The entire remaining time was given to ridding the trees of cocoons, egg masses, scale insects and debris from the trees of down-town parks, including Bryant, Madison Square, Union Square, City Hall and Battery Parks.

DEPARTMENT OF PARKS, BOROUGH OF THE BRONX—QUARTERLY REPORT THREE MONTHS ENDING MARCH 31, 1904.

Hon. GEORGE B. McCLELLAN, Mayor of The City of New York:

Dear Sir—I beg to submit the following report of the operations of the Department of Parks, Borough of The Bronx, for the quarter ending March 31, 1904:

Bronx Park.

On the bridge over the Bronx river, at the crossing of the Bronx and Pelham parkway, Joseph Gallo, contractor, work on the foundations, to the amount of fourteen thousand one hundred and twenty-six dollars ($14,126), has been done, and payments rendered; in addition to which, all stone facings have been cut and delivered, and all steel is on the ground ready to be set.

The barn and shed in the rear of the police station, near Lorillard Mansion, have been completed and are now in use.

A bridle path 16 feet wide, leading from the Bronx and Pelham parkway to a point near the old mansion, has been laid out and about half completed. But the work has been stopped on this path during the last three months on account of the severity of the weather.

At the greenhouses, the necessary work of watering, caring of plants and fires; five thousand (5,000) cuttings and seedlings started and potted to go out in the parks.

Paths were cleared of snow and ice; culverts and drains were kept in good condition; wash-outs repaired; paths and steps at Lorillard Mansion strewn with sand and ashes on slippery days; deadwood and brush removed.

During the skating season the lake was kept clear of snow and in as good condition as possible.

The stables—Horses taken care of; wagons washed and cleaned; deliveries made to the various parks of gravel and screenings. Wood hauled from Van Cortlandt to the greenhouses. Ashes taken from the greenhouses and police station and brought to other parks to be used on walks. Trees and logs were cut up for saw mill.

Excavation begun for part of water-main, and excavation for foundation of saw mill and shed were completed.

The roads, catch-basins, drains and culverts in the botanical gardens were cared for, as well as the various paths, walks, catch-basins, culverts, drains and buildings throughout the entire park.

Bronx Park Shops.

Mechanics were sent to the various parks where their services were required for the most important work, as follows:

A new shed was built over the saw mill; sprinklers were repaired and painted; squirrel traps and seed boxes were made at the shops and delivered where required; signs made for various purposes. The benches in the various parks were repaired and painted. Sharpening of all tools brought in from the various parks; repairing of pipes which had burst in the various comfort stations.

Zoological Park in Bronx Park.

The antelope house has been completed, and final payment has been rendered. On the small mammal and ostrich house the masonry work is about completed. The iron work has all been set and part of the fireproofing has been put on the roof. The ornamental wood brackets are now being set and the work is ready for the rough plumbing.

On the bird house the foundation walls are all built, the granite work finished, and the first tier of beams has been set. The rough plumbing work is in, but has not been tested. Some of the iron uprights have been set and the iron work is now being set and the limestone laid.

The work on the antelope and elephant enclosures, around the antelope house, Page Woven Wire Fence Company, contractors, was delayed somewhat, by reason of the inclement weather, but the work has now been completed, and final payment was rendered on March 23.

Plans were prepared for an iron fence around the seal pool, and the contract was let to William Horne & Co., on March 17, but the work has not yet been begun.

Bronx and Pelham Parkway.

The bridge over the tracks of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad has been completed, but final payment not yet made.

Melrose Park.

Contract for the erection of a fence along three sides of this park (Bart Dunn, contractor), has been completed.

Walks and paths kept clean and sanded on days when such was necessary.

Crotona Park.

The old contract for regulating, grading and paving this parkway, made with John H. Devlin, was abandoned, and new contract has been entered into for the completion of the improvement by George I. Bailey. The work on this contract is now progressing rapidly, and most of the filling and rock excavation has been completed, and a preliminary estimate has been rendered.

There were fifty-six days of skating this year, and the Lake was at all times kept clear of snow.

Gutters and culverts were kept open and clear and the walks cleaned of snow during snow-storms. Special attention was given to the steps at the Municipal Building, and on slippery days they were always strewn with sand and ashes, to prevent accident. Twenty-five loads of ashes were used in repairing the different wash-outs.

Mosholu Parkway.

Working plans have been completed for abutments to the bridges over the railroad tracks, and over Webster avenue at the entrance to Bronx Park, and for a complete lay-out of the tract from Webster avenue to Jerome avenue. Excavation for three of the abutments has been completed; one of the abutments has been three-fourths completed and one is half finished.

The contract for the superstructures has been let to the American Bridge Company. About three-fourths of the rolling of the material in the mill has been completed and the shop work begun. The material will be ready for erection as soon as the masonry can be completed.

The work of the remainder of the improvement of the parkway has been let to R. C. Hunt, and the filling has been started and the work well under way.

Claremont Park.

A comfort house has been erected in this park, and plans prepared for an addition to the same, the work to be done by Park Department labor.

Walks and paths kept clear of snow and ice, and the roads and driveways at all times kept in good condition. When found necessary, sand and ashes were spread over the walks and paths. Office building kept clean and heated.

Twenty-five gray squirrels were caught and placed in this park in suitable boxes on trees.

Macomb's Dam Park.

The filling in of all portions of the low lands of this park has been completed, with the exception of putting on the top-soil.

A concrete walk has been laid under the Macomb's Dam Bridge for a distance of 950 feet.

About 85 loads of earth were used in repairing the walks and wash-outs and 30 loads of steam ashes were required to repair roads and walks during the snow-storms, and on slippery days ashes and sand were strewn over them, to prevent accidents.

Van Cortlandt Park.

A road has been completed in this park, leading from Mosholu avenue to Van Cortlandt avenue, in Yonkers, and telford has been laid on its entire length, 4,950 feet. All of the necessary grading, drainage, etc., has been completed.

Plans and surveys were made during the latter part of 1903 for the reconstruction of the Gun Hill road. The road has been laid out from a point near the Colonial Garden to Mosholu avenue, and the work of cleaning the lake was commenced. Nearly 12,000 cubic yards of mud were removed from the lake, and 800 linear feet of retaining walls constructed along the southerly shore. But nothing has been done to this road, owing to lack of funds. The work will be resumed again just as soon as the necessary funds are available.

A connecting road was laid out, to connect the road leading to Yonkers with a new street now being cut through by the City of Yonkers. This work has been nearly completed, but nothing has been done to it since January 1, owing to the severe weather. The work will be rapidly pushed to completion just as soon as the weather conditions will permit.

Plans have been prepared for a shelter shed to be built in the Nursery.

Plans have also been prepared for erecting additional lockers in the Golf House, as the present number of lockers has been found entirely inadequate to supply the demand, which is constantly increasing.

A contract was let on March 31 to the R. H. Sweeney Sporting Goods Company for placing a number of canoes on the lake in Van Cortlandt Park, and plans are being prepared for the erection of a new canoe house, 100 feet by 30 feet.

A map was prepared for the use of the Landscape Architect, for the improvement of the marsh lands south of the road leading from Van Cortlandt Station to Broadway. This plan contemplates the construction of a lake in these marsh lands and the improvement of the lands surrounding it, together with the realignment and regrading of the road leading from Van Cortlandt Station to Spuyten Duyvil parkway.

Some trouble was experienced with the lake during the skating season, as the ice was in a very bad condition in the early part of January. It was found necessary to plane some off, and after considerable work parts of the lake were made accessible to skaters.

Snow was removed from the roads, paths and walks, and sand was spread on walks when necessary.

Culverts, drains and gutters were cleaned, and wash-outs repaired as they occurred.

Along the road inside of the golf links, about 3,000 feet of gutter was dug and graded. All the hazards on the golf links were repaired. Soil from the lake was graded and placed into holes on the golf links. Repaired and rolled the putting greens.

Baseball diamonds repaired by filling in the holes with soil excavated for cellar of Tremper House.

St. Mary's Park.

The walks in the park were kept clear of all snow and ice, and on days when ice was formed sand and ashes were strewn over them, to prevent accidents.

One hundred and seventeen loads of steam ashes were hauled to this park, to be used for repairing the wash-outs.

The comfort house was repaired and kept in good condition. Gutters and culverts were repaired and maintained in proper shape.

Twenty-five gray squirrels had been caught and placed in St. Mary's Park in suitable boxes on trees.

The Various Small Parks and Unnamed Parks.

Snow was removed from walks and kept in good condition.

The shrubbery in all the different parks was pruned where required, and lawns covered with manure, about 2,000 loads in all.

Three hundred acres of woods was cleared on Twin and Hunter Islands. Similar work was done on 200 acres, which was the first done since acquired by the City seventeen years ago.

On account of the severe weather, a large number of evergreens that have stood for eight or ten years, have been killed, as also were a number of shrubs.

About two thousand loads of manure was spread over the different parks in the borough.

Specifications have been prepared and contracts let for the following supplies: Coal, oats, bran and straw; grass seed, seed oats and fertilizer; canoes; cement and sand; broken stone and screenings; red cedar; tools, iron and hardware; horses, harness, and horse boots; lawn mowers; sprinkling wagons, trucks, carriage and carts; paints and oils; lumber, brick and lime; vitrified drain pipe.

Your attention is also respectfully called to the following contracts under way, or completed, during the last three months, as well as to the following contracts for supplies:

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM P. SCHMITT, Commissioner of Parks,
Borough of The Bronx.

Office of the Department of Parks,
Boroughs of Brooklyn and Queens,
Litchfield Mansion, Prospect Park,
Brooklyn, July 1, 1904.

Hon. GEORGE B. McCLELLAN, Mayor of The City of New York:

Sir—I have the honor to submit to you herewith, in accordance with the provisions of section 1544 of the Charter, a quarterly report of the proceedings and finances of the Department of Parks, Boroughs of Brooklyn and Queens, from April 1 to June 30, inclusive, 1904.

Very truly yours,

M. J. KENNEDY, Commissioner.

STATEMENT OF WORK PERFORMED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF PARKS
OF THE BOROUGH OF BROOKLYN AND QUEENS, DURING THE THREE MONTHS FROM APRIL 1 TO JUNE 30, 1904.

The work of planting and pruning trees and shrubbery for the summer season was completed early in June, and the entire force of the Department was occupied in repairing the roadways in the various parks and parkways and laying out flower beds, sodding bare and worn places, seeding lawns and otherwise beautifying the parks under my jurisdiction.

Prospect Park.

Prospect Park, the largest developed park in this borough, has received special attention and a great part of the employees were put to work here as soon as the weather permitted to make good the damage occasioned by the severe winter. It was found necessary to make extensive repairs along the edges of the walks and drives as well as along the brook line in the centre of the park. Several thousand cubic yards of loam were carted into the park and deposited at spots where the earth had been washed away during the winter and spring months. In the neighborhood of three thousand trees and shrubs were planted to replace those perished during the severe weather last winter. The slope facing Ocean avenue, south of the Willink entrance, and the territory adjoining Lincoln Road entrance was graded, soiled, planted with trees and shrubs, the grounds seeded and the edges along the walks and fence-line sodded, about thirty-four thousand linear feet of sods having been laid through the park. The roadways and drives had also severely suffered and a considerable force of men and a number of steam rollers were put to work early in April in order to repair the damages and to renew the worn surfaces as early as possible. It was found that the West drive, between the Fifteenth Street and Main entrances had to be resurfaced in its entire length and width, and work thereon is now progressing. The display of spring and early summer flowers in the Flower Garden, Vale of Cashmere and Rose Garden was a very fine one, and was enjoyed by multitudes of people. The asphalt walks in the park have suffered greatly from the severe weather and are in urgent need of repairs. Specifications have been drawn for the resurfacing of a large area of the walks, and it is also contemplated to construct a number of new walks which have become necessary on account of the number of visitors to this park increasing largely from year to year. It is expected that this work will be completed early in the fall. The lake system of this park has been a source of annoyance to former administrations and complaints have been loud and numerous about its filthy condition. Last year the Board of Health made recommendations as to changes in the drainage system, etc., connected with the lake, but on account of the lack of large sewers in the vicinity of the park which could be used in draining the lake, nothing could be done to obviate the conditions complained of. This spring the vegetable growth in the large lake which had been noticed for a number of years, became so apparent and obtrusive that it was next to impossible to row, and I have had plans and specifications prepared to give the lake a thorough cleaning as well as to make much needed repairs along its shores. It is expected that this work will be started at once and completed before the end of the summer.

The quarters wherein is located the menagerie have proven insufficient to accommodate all the animals in our possession and work is now under way to erect a new bear cage and make other additions to the animals' quarters.

The new Grecian shelter, located on the South Lake drive, overlooking the Parade Ground on one side and the park lakes on the other, work upon which was started last year, is rapidly nearing completion and will be thrown open to the public about August 1.

Work on the new gateway in course of construction at the entrance of the park, located at the intersection of Ocean and Parkside avenues, was somewhat delayed on account of the inability of the builder to secure large enough stones for the foundation of the gateway. The stone finally arrived late in June, and a large force of men are now employed by the contractor in cutting the stone and pushing the work to completion. It is expected to have this structure fully completed by August 15.

The tennis fields have been enlarged and the locker room considerably augmented, thereby giving room for twenty-five additional sets.

Parade Ground—The baseball diamonds on this popular ball ground have been repaired and renewed. The bare spots have been sodded and the whole field put in first class condition. It was opened to the public on April 23, and was enjoyed by a large number of people. A building accommodating the ball players, which was put up as a temporary structure some twenty years ago, and maintained since, is now in such an unsanitary and dilapidated condition that I have decided to replace it with a modern structure containing all sanitary arrangements required, as well as a number of shower baths and other conveniences. It is proposed to begin work thereon at the close of the ball season this fall.

The bowling green which was constructed last year was gone over, repairs made, the grounds rolled and the adjoining waste places soiled and planted with shrubbery. It is now declared to be the best ground of its kind in the country.

All the buildings in the park, including the Litchfield Mansion, which is the office building of the Department, and the Police Station of the Seventy-third Precinct have been thoroughly repaired, painted and otherwise improved.

Institute Park.

This is one of the recent additions to the system, and contains about fifty acres. The Brooklyn Museum of Arts and Sciences is situated on the northerly side of this park, and it is the aim to have this magnificent structure surrounded by a park worthy of it. The large mounds have been sodded, the lake in it has been cleaned, necessary repairs made and some required filling has been provided. When the proposed approach to the Willink Entrance, for which the property will soon be acquired, is completed, it will form practically a part of this park. Plans for the plaza are in readiness, and a magnificent approach to that important entrance of Prospect Park is contemplated. The flowers and young trees in this park have thrived, and now the park looks at its best.

Fort Greene Park.

Fort Greene Park, one of the oldest of the smaller parks, and situated in a thickly populated section of the city, requires great care in its maintenance. Its main features are a level plateau of an elevation of some forty to fifty feet above the adjoining streets and in some places sloping rapidly toward the sidewalks. That suffered very severely during the storms of last winter and spring, and required extensive repairs. Some six thousand sods were laid, large areas covered with top-soil and seeded, and a number of trees, shrubs and flowers planted. The work of repair was practically finished at the end of May, and the park now presents a fine appearance. This park contains one of the several historic spots in Brooklyn. The Martyrs' Tomb, wherein are collected the bones of the Prison Ship Martyrs, is located on its northerly slope, and frequent memorial patriotic services are held on the grounds facing it. The sanitary arrangements in the present comfort house, a structure erected some thirty years ago, are sadly out of repair, and the whole structure is bordering on dilapidation. It has been decided to replace the same with a modern structure containing all the requisite sanitary arrangements, and plans are now in course of preparation to that end.

Sunset Park.

Sunset Park, situated in the southern portion of the borough, was acquired some twelve years ago, but no work of any permanent character has been done there until 1902, when a comprehensive plan was mapped out and work begun. The plan approved by the Landscape Architect included the purchase of two additional blocks to the south of the older portion, bounded by Fifth avenue, Seventh avenue, Forty-third street and Forty-fourth street. This land has been recently purchased by the City, and as soon as the formalities can be completed the Department intends carrying on the improvements according to the original plan, and completing the same at the earliest possible date. Considerable work has been done in this park during the last three months, notably the grading and forming of the slope on the Forty-first street side of the park. This work is now nearly completed. The lake has been cleaned, its borders defined and a large amount of sodding has been done on the slopes. Twelve hundred cubic yards of top-soil was purchased and delivered in this park for the purpose of completing the high slope fronting on Fifth avenue. The laying of a cement sidewalk on the Fifth avenue front, from Forty-first street to Forty-third street, has been completed. This walk will be extended this summer to Forty-fourth street, so as to complete the walk on the Fifth avenue side. Plans have been drawn to complete the surrounding of this park by a substantial and ornamental stone retaining wall; two sides of the park, namely, that on Forty-first street and on Fifth avenue to Forty-third street were completed early this spring.

Seaside Park and Concourse, Coney Island.

Contrary to expectations, the park did not suffer very greatly from the storms of the winter and spring, and repairs where needed were completed early in May. A large number of summer flowering plants and shrubs have been planted and the park otherwise beautified. Twelve additional commodious tents were purchased for the accommodation of children playing in the sand, bringing their number up to forty-eight, and several hundred additional park benches were placed along the sands. The comfort houses adjoining the large open shelter, which had been partly demolished by storms last March, was moved to safe ground and refitted. The walks in the park were resurfaced with limestone screenings.

Highland Park.

Highland Park, a comparatively recent addition to the system, is a park of much natural beauty. It is a rolling section of twenty-six acres, adjoining the Ridgewood Reservoir. New roads are being made, flower beds are being laid and other works necessary for its beautification are being done with the regular force of men employed there. A lake about one-half acre in size, provided with a fresh water supply and an overflow, has been built in the hollow in this park, where usually during the rainy season a stagnant pool was formed. This pool was a source of much annoyance to the visitors of the park, and it was deemed best to eradicate it. The lake has a paved shore and the bottom is puddle. The banks adjoining it were graveled, graded, seeded and sodded and planted with rhododendrons. Another low-lying section, which usually filled up with water during rain storms, has been drained, and it is expected to transform it into a flower garden during the summer.

Forest Park.

Forest Park, the largest park in the system, while not developed to any great extent, promises to take rank among the best in the country. Considerable work has been done this year, and I intend to make a number of improvements during the summer. This park is famed for its golf links, and thousands of people from all parts of the city visit it to play at the sport. A fine building to house the players and to provide lockers and baths for the golfers is contemplated. Plans for the same have been prepared and are now before the Art Commission of The City of New York for its approval. Baseball diamonds have been laid out during the past two months and a nursery for trees, to be used in all the parks, has been established. I regard the latter as a great innovation. Heretofore it has been necessary to buy all the young trees required, and many were damaged in transit and in planting. It will not be long before all the trees, plants and shrubs required can be furnished from this nursery.

The golf links have been extended and improved, adding nine new holes, thus making it an eighteen-hole course, and probably the best in the metropolitan district.

Dyker Beach Park.

But little work has been done in this park beyond the repairing of the roadways and the cutting of grass and weeds. The bridge or causeway across the swamp has been provided with a new plank foot-path. The Bureau of Sewers is now building a large trunk sewer through the upper portion of this park, and nothing can be done in the way of improvements until this work is completed.

Small Parks.

The small parks under the jurisdiction of this Department have received the usual care; the trees and shrubs have been pruned and sprayed with a poisonous solution, against the attack of caterpillars and other insects. So far this has proved effective, as no damage has been done in any of the parks.

Playgrounds.

The playgrounds in the Williamsburg Park have been kept open as usual. Many new games and other attractions have been provided, and both are in as flourishing a condition as the small space allotted to them will permit.

The park and playground under the Williamsburg Bridge has been so far completed as to permit of the erection of the apparatus and the completion of the running track. The plans and specifications for the apparatus, etc., have been drawn and will be let early in August. It is expected to have the playground opened to the public by September 1. The parks adjoining the same have been opened since June 20.

Parkways.

Ocean Parkway—This parkway has received considerable attention during the quarter just past. The sodding along the bicycle paths has been attended to and the paths themselves have been put in good condition, rolled and partly covered with limestone screenings. The traffic road is very much out of repair, and steps have been taken to resurface the same from end to end. Work on this improvement has been started at Twenty-second avenue going north, while plans and specifications have been drawn to rebuild the portion from Twenty-second avenue south to Kings Highway.

The plaza at the foot of the parkway adjoining Seaside Park which was so severely damaged by the storms last winter and spring has been put in thorough repair, covered with a thick layer of trap-rock and screenings, rolled and now presents an attractive appearance. The Speedway has been kept in the usual good condition, and soil for its resurfacing has been secured by contract. The work of resurfacing will not be begun until September.

The main roadway has been repaired and rolled where necessary. The construction of two trunk sewers on the cycle path and one across the parkway at Foster avenue has materially interfered with our work, but it is expected that this improvement will be finished by the middle of August when we will be enabled to make some contemplated further improvements.

Shore Road—In my last report and in subsequent communications, I have called attention to the condition of the Shore road, conceded to be one of the finest driveways in the world. It skirts the lower harbor from Bay Ridge, around to Fort Hamilton, commanding a fine view of Staten Island, the Narrows and the ocean. Several millions of dollars have already been expended, but parts of the road were left unfinished or in such condition as to make it dangerous. Instead of a uniform width of fifty feet as provided for in the original plans, parts of the roadway measure but twelve to fourteen feet in width. Through the action of the Board of Estimate, concurred in by the Board of Aldermen, two hundred and fifty thousand dollars in Corporate Stock was allowed in this Department recently. With part of this money I propose to make some necessary improvements on the Shore road, for which plans and specifications are already prepared. This will by no means complete the work, but will temporarily make it safe for pedestrians and drivers. It is used largely by automobiles and carriages, and being mostly on a bluff, an accident would doubtless prove disastrous, as there is no retaining wall on the water side.

Eastern Parkway—The sidewalks on both sides of this parkway, work on which was begun late last year, are now completed and add materially to the attractiveness of this parkway. Work on the large water-main which the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity are laying along the traffic road of this parkway was begun in May and is now in progress. No work beyond cleaning and maintaining the roadways could be done on this parkway until the laying of the water-main was completed, when it is expected to put the same in good condition.

Eastern Parkway Extension—The macadam part of the roadway of this parkway has been picked up with steam rollers and resurfaced with a layer three inches in thickness of trap rock, topped off with a course of trap screenings. It has been thoroughly rolled and presents a fine appearance. The work so far has progressed from Bushwick avenue to Fulton street, and it is expected to complete the work as far as it is necessary by August 1.

The dilapidated brick pavement on Bushwick avenue, from the extension to Jamaica avenue has been taken up and replaced with an asphalt block pavement. The work has been completed, is entirely satisfactory and greatly appreciated by those who are compelled to travel along Bushwick avenue.

Fourth avenue, which was turned into a parkway a year ago, and extends nearly five miles, has likewise been improved. In order to protect the grass, young trees and shrubbery which have been planted on the different plots, each plot is surrounded with a wire fence to keep off intruders. The fences, while not ornamental, do not detract from the general appearance. Until the plots were fenced in the children were wont to destroy the grass, trees and shrubbery, and in some instances did more or less damage. It is to be regretted that a large amount of the work so successfully accomplished on this parkway will be undone when the Rapid Transit Commission proceed with building the underground railway along Fourth avenue.

Pitkin and Glenmore avenues, in the Twenty-sixth Ward, have been repaired, thoroughly cleaned and otherwise improved wherever needed.

Bay Ridge parkway, which is practically the beginning of the Shore road, is being improved. Large mounds are being constructed and sections set apart for planting. With the acquisition of Owl's Head (the Bliss property) for park purposes, which is strongly recommended, that entire neighborhood will be well provided with parks and parkways.

Music.

The concert season began on May 20, with a concert by the United German Singing Societies of Brooklyn, assisted by the Twenty-third Regiment Band. It was attended by about thirty-five thousand people, who thoroughly enjoyed the fine music.

Concerts are given every Saturday and Sunday afternoons in Prospect Park by regimental bands.

Arrangements have been made for concerts in the smaller parks, beginning on July 4 and extending to the latter part of September. These are given at as frequent intervals as the appropriation for that purpose will admit. I had hoped that more money would have been provided, to the end that concerts could be given in all the smaller parks regularly. With the means at hand I am trying to make a fair division, so that every section of the city will be looked after.

Contemplated Improvements.

Among the contemplated improvements are shelter houses for a number of the smaller parks. The present ones in some cases have become dilapidated, are unsanitary, and repeated repairs have been of little avail. It has been decided to erect suitable shelter houses in Carroll Park, in Bedford Park, in Bushwick Park and in Cooper Park and Fort Greene Park. Plans for the above have been prepared and are now before the Art Commission of The City of New York for approval. All are of suitable design, and special attention has been paid to sanitary arrangements. The lavatories, closets and plumbing are to be of the best, and the interior generally in keeping with the exterior and the surroundings. The same plans can be used for two or more parks in different sections of the borough. These shelter houses, while ornamental, useful and substantial, are to be constructed at small cost. In no case will the price exceed fifteen thousand dollars. I have been able to arrange for the erection of these shelters by reason of the money which was authorized by the Board of Estimate and the Board of Aldermen.

It has been suggested by the Society for Improving the Condition of the Poor, during the month of June, to build a bathing establishment where sea baths could be furnished at a nominal figure on the sands fronting Seaside Park at Coney Island. I have made a study of these establishments conducted by private enterprises in Coney Island, as well as the public ones in and near Boston, and have come to the conclusion that it would not be wise to undertake any scheme of that magnitude this year, as it could not be completed so as to be available before the end of the season. I have also opposed the erection on this beach of a temporary structure for the purposes above indicated, on the grounds that this sandy strip is the only one not encumbered with buildings on the sea front at Coney Island, is largely patronized by mothers with their children, as well as invalids, and that the erection of a bathing house would drive these people from the beach. I propose, if the necessary money is provided by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, to erect three public bathing establishments on lands under the control of this Department; one at Dyker Beach, where the Department owns one-half a mile of beach front; one on the Shore road and one at Canarsie Park, which is contiguous to the thickly populated and rapidly growing section of Brooklyn known as Brownsville. I believe that the establishment of public baths at these places will prove sufficient to accommodate all those who desire to make use of them.

Revenue from Parks and Parkways.

PROPOSALS FOR BIDS AND ESTIMATES FOR THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS

The person or persons making a bid or estimate for any services, work, materials or supplies for The City of New York, or for any of its departments, bureaus or offices, shall furnish the same in a sealed envelope, indorsed with the title of the supplies, materials, work or services for which the bid or estimate is made, with his or their name or names and the date of presentation to the President or Board or to the head of the Department at his or its office, on or before the date and hour named in the advertisement for the same, at which time and place the estimates received will be publicly opened by the President or Board or head of said Department and read, and the award of the contract made according to law as soon thereafter as practicable.

Each bid or estimate shall contain the name and place of residence of the person making the same, the names of all persons interested with him therein, and, if no other person be so interested, it shall distinctly state that fact; also, that it is made without any connection with any other person making an estimate for the same purpose, and is in all respects fair and without collusion or fraud, and that no member of the Board of Aldermen, head of a department, chief of a bureau, deputy thereof, or clerk therein, or other officer of The City of New York, shall be or become interested, directly or indirectly, as contracting party, partner, stockholder, surety or otherwise in or in the performance of the contract, or in the supplies, work or business to which it relates, or in any portion of the profits thereof. The bid or estimate must be verified by the oath, in writing, of the party or parties making the estimate that the several matters stated herein are in all respects true.

Each bid or estimate shall be accompanied by the consent in writing of two householders or freeholders in The City of New York, or of a guaranty or surety company duly authorized by law to act as surety, and shall contain the matters set forth in the blank forms mentioned below.

No bid or estimate will be considered unless, as a condition precedent to the reception or consideration of any proposal, it be accompanied by a certified check upon one of the State or National banks of The City of New York, drawn to the order of the Comptroller, or money to the amount of five per centum of the amount of the bond required, as provided in section 420 of the Greater New York Charter.

The certified check or money should not be inclosed in the envelope containing the bid or estimate, but should be either inclosed in a separate envelope addressed to the head of the Department, President or Board, or submitted personally upon the presentation of the bid or estimate.

For particulars as to the quantity and quality of the supplies, or the nature and extent of the work, reference must be made to the specifications, schedules, plans, etc., on file in the said office of the President, Board or Department.

No bid shall be accepted from or contract awarded to any person who is in arrears to The City of New York upon debt or contract, or who is a defaulter, as surety or otherwise, upon any obligation to the City.

The contract must be bid for separately.

The right is reserved in each case to reject all bids or estimates if it is deemed to be for the interest of the City so to do.

Bidders will write out the amount of their bids or estimates in addition to inserting the same in figures.

Bidders are requested to make their bids or estimates upon the blank forms prepared and furnished by the City, a copy of which, with the proper envelope in which to inclose the bid, together with a copy of the contract, including the specifications, in the form approved by the Corporation Counsel, can be obtained upon application therefor at the office of the Department for which the work is to be done. Plans and drawings of construction work may also be seen there
