

Friday, March 31, 2006

Buildings Department and Consumer Affairs Conclude Safety Inspections on the World Famous Wonder Wheel and Cyclone Roller Coaster

Buildings Commissioner Patricia J. Lancaster, FAIA and Consumer Affairs Commissioner Jonathan Mintz today announced the final safety inspections for two amusement ride icons in Coney Island. After days of thorough examination by Buildings Department inspectors, both rides were issued final safety inspections cards signifying the beginning of the amusement ride season in New York City.