LAW DEPARTMENT,

OFFICE OF THE COUNSEL TO THE CORPORATION, NEW YORK, January 8, 1877.

Hon. JOHN KELLY, Comptroller :

Hor DOTAGE OF THE COUNSEL TO THE COUNCATION, NEW YORK, January S, 1877.
Hor, JOHN KELLY, Comptreller:
SIR—In your letter to me of the gith instant, you state the following facts: On December 23, 1876, a judgment against the Mayor, etc., for $30,744.90, obtained in the Supreme Court by William C. Conner, late Sherifi, for the balance due on a contract for regulating, etc., Third avenue, in the late town of Morrisania, was liked in the Finance Department. That under the provisions of section 9, of chapter 320, of the Laws of 1874, your predecessor in office received sixty-five bonds, issued by the Trustees of said Town of Morrisania of $1,000 enduties to $1000 the $1,000 of bonds is based. That the $05,000 of the $1,000 of bonds is obsed.
That the trustees of and town issued bonds for this purpose amounting to $74,000, in pursuance of chapter 545 of the Laws of 1872; that the Commissioners for the improvement of Third avenue expended $9,000 of the $57,000 of bonds is oissued. That the $05,000 of bonds is obsed.
That the store of the $100 of bonds is obsed.
That the store of the $100 New York, leaving $24,000 or said canceled bonds, for which bonds of the City of New York, leaving $24,000 is and canceled bonds, for which bonds of the City of New York have not been issued.
The quest my opinion, whether the Comptroller has the authority to now issue.
The super 545 of the Laws of 1872 audiorized the following provision : "Such sums of money as he necessary to make, grade, drain, and otherwise improve said avenue, to an extent not exceeding $50,000 of the tax of 1872, and in pursuance of a writ of mandamus issued by the Board of trustees of the Town of Morrisania.
The town of Morrisania, upon the faith and credit of said town, to be issued by the Board of trustees of the town of Morrisania.
The town of Morrisania, upon the faith and credit of said town, to be issued by the Board of trustees of the Town of Morrisania issued the $74,000 million provision

After the transfer to your predecessor of the $65,000 of bonds referred to in your letter, he re-quested the opinion of this Department as to whether he could lawfully issue the full amount of $65,000 of bonds of the City of New York in the place of the said $65,000 of bonds of the town of Morrisania.

The question as to whether the act of 1872 restricted the issue of bonds by the town of Morrisania to $50,000, was fully considered, and the opinion was given, dated , advising your predecessor that said act of 1872 did not limit the issue of bonds to the amount of $50,000; to $50,000, was fully considered, and the opinion was given, dated , advising your predecessor that said act of 1872 did not limit the issue of bonds to the amount of $50,000; that the whole amount of $74,000 had been lawfully issued by the Trustees of the Town of Morrisania, and that the Comptroller could issue $65,000 of bonds of the City of New York in place of an equal amount of the bonds of the town of Morrisania, which had been transferred to him. Your predecessor did not act in accordance with such opinion, and declined to issue, as stated in your letter, more than $41,000 of bonds of the City of New York. Subsequently, an action was brought by the Bowery Bank against James Hall, the contractor for the improvement of Third avenue, and to whom a balance was owing upon his contract for such improvement. In that action an attachment was issued, and subsequently, to enforce such attachment, the action was brought by the late Sheriff, which is referred to in your letter, and in which action judgment has been obtained against the city of $50,744.90. This judgment must, of course, be paid, and the only question is, whether it should be paid out of the ordinary appropriation to pay judgments obtained against the city, or whether it should be paid in part out of the proceeds of the $22,000 of bonds referred to in your letter. I have no doubt that the Comptroller has full authority and that it is his duty to issue said $24,000 of bonds, and to apply the proceeds, so far as they will go, to the payment of said judgment. As above stated, the $74,000 of bonds were issued in pursuance of a mandamus from the Supreme Court of this city of New York succeeded to the rights and obligations of the town of Morrisania, the question as to the legality of the issue of said $74,000 of bonds, was res adjudacota, and directed judgment for the plaintiff.

The question as to whether the Comptroller could issue the full amount of $65,000 was, more-over, at his request fully considered by this Department, and he was advised that he could lawfully issue that amount. In the opinion so given, I concur. The fact that a judgment has been obtained, does not alter the case The moneys raised by taxation appropriated to pay judgments, should not be diverted from the purpose for which they are appropriated, and used to pay claims, for the payment of which provision has otherwise been made by law.

The act of 1873 above referred to, gives full and express authority to the Comptroller to issue said $24,000 of bonds, and I think that they should be issued, and their proceeds applied to the part said $24,000 of bonds, and 1 think that the payment of the judgment in question. Respectfully yours, WM. C. WHITNEY, Counsel to the Corporation.

WM. C. WHITNEY, Counsel to the Corporation.
