MESSAGE FROM HIS HONOR THE MAYOR.

The President laid before the Board the following message from his Honor the Mayor:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, NEW YORK, August 5, 1886.

The Honorable the Board of Aldermen:

I have been informed that a special meeting of your Body has been called for the purpose of taking appropriate action on the death of Samuel J. Tilden, former Governor of the State of New York. Such a tribute of respect to his memory is emmently fitting from the local authorities of this great city, not only because of the distinguished services which he has rendered the State and the nation at large, but also because of those particular services which he rendered to the citizens of New York in his preserving fight against the services which he rendered to the citizens of New retail of the only because of those particular services which he rendered to the citizens of New York in his masterly fight against the corruptionists of the Tweed regime.

Governor Tilden can easily be said to have been the foremost man in the Democratic party. He was a politician in the highest and noblest sense of the term. Whatever political ambition he may have had was guided by a stern and uncompromising adherence to principles, which admitted no place to corrupt methods in politics. He attacked dishonest Democrats with even more zeal than dishonest Republicans, and indeed had a greater abhorrence of the former than of the latter. His industry was untiring. He left no stone unturned, neglected no proper method to achieve such ends as commended themselves to his wisdom, and his judgment in the selection of means to the attamment of ends was well nigh infallible. His mind was broad and comprehensive. He was never swayed by petty prejudices, nor influenced in his judgment by motives other than disinterested. He was capable of grappling with the broadest and most intricate public questions, and brought to their discussion a fund of information and a supply of facts gathered by long and patient industry, which made his expositions the most convincing. He possessed the rare attributes of a great Statesman in an eminent degree. Above all, he was animated by a lofty patriotism remarkable in the annals of this or any other nation, which subordinated personal ambition to the best interests of his fellow-citizens and deprived him of a distinguishing honor which justly belonged to him. An honored citizen, a learned lawyer, a wise counsellor, an incorruptible and untiring official, his death is a loss which will be felt not only by his party but even by the people of these United States regardless of party. United States regardless of party.

W. R. GRACE, Mayor.
