OFFICIAL JOURNAL.

VOL. VII.

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1879.

NUMBER 1,737.

DEPARTMENT OF DOCKS

NEW YORK, February 25, 1879.

At a meeting of the Board of Docks, held this day, it was ordered that the following minute be entered on the records of the Department and transmitted to the family of the late Jacob A. Westervelt:

This Board has learned of the death this day of its late President, Hon. Jacob A. Westervelt, with feelings of profound sorrow. A long and most honorable career has closed. He led a business life of upwards of half a century of unceasing and useful activity. He served his city in many subordinate capacities and as its chief magistrate, and always with honorable distinction. In all relations, public and private, his great distinguishing trait was his unbending integrity.

No man who knew Mr. Westervelt ever doubted that in every act of his life he did exactly what he believed to be right. This purpose was the great central fact of his character.

In addition to this appreciation of what was the dominating force of his life, it is permitted to his colleagues and associates in this Department to indulge in many tender recollections of his unvarying courtesy and kindness in all our relations.

We feel a sense of personal bereavement, and ask to be permitted to mourn with his family the loss of one who had become dear to our hearts. We would remind them that in time sweet consolation will come to them in the recollection that this life of his was one of usefulness and honorable service, and that he died when full of years and honors, leaving behind to them and to us all the legacy most valuable and enduring—the record of a life worthily and usefully spent.

Resolved, That as a token of respect for the memory of our deceased President, the offices of the Department be closed until after the funeral services, and that all work be suspended on the day of the funeral, that the officers and employees may have an opportunity to attend the services.

EUGENE T. LYNCH, Secretary.

Whether liable or not, such notices must be answered (in person, if possible, and at this office only) under severe penalties. If exempt, the party must bring proof of exemption; if liable, he must also answer in person, giving full and correct name, residence, etc., etc. No attention paid to letters.

Persons "enrolled" as liable must serve when called or pay their fines. No mere excuse will be allowed or interference permitted. The fines, received from those who, for business or other reasons, are unable to serve at the time selected, pay the expenses of this office, and if unpaid will be entered as judgments upon the property of the delinquents.

All good citizens will aid the course of justice, and secure reliable and respectable juries, and equalize their duty by serving promptly when summoned, allowing their clerks or subordinates to serve, reporting to me any attempt at bribery or evasion, and suggesting names for enrollment. Persons between sixty and seventy years of age, summer absentees, persons temporarily ill, and United States and District Court jurors are not exempt.

Every man must attend to his own notice. It is a misdemeanor to give any jury paper to another to answer. It is also punishable by fine or imprisonment to give or receive any present or bribe, directly or indirectly, in relation to a jury service, or to withhold any paper or make any false statement, and every case will be fully prosecuted.
