

New York City Department of Correction
Summary of Discharges of Persons in Custody with Federal Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) Detainers
Fiscal Year 2025

This report provides information regarding Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) detainers that the New York City Department of Correction (“DOC” or “the Department”) is required to report pursuant to New York City Administrative Code §9-131. This period is from July 1, 2024, to June 30, 2025.

1. The total number of civil immigration detainers lodged with the department:

595

Civil immigration detainers by the reason given by federal immigration authorities for issuing detainers<sup>1</sup>, including, but not limited to:

i. A final order of removal against the person:

197

ii. Pendency of ongoing removal proceedings against the person:

143

iii. Biometric confirmation of the person’s identity and records check of federal databases that affirmatively indicate, by themselves or in addition to other reliable information, that the person either lacks immigration status or notwithstanding such status is removable under US immigration law:

547

iv. Statements made by the person to an immigration officer and/or other reliable evidence that affirmatively indicate the person either lacks immigration status or notwithstanding such status is removable under US immigration law:

46

2. The number of persons held pursuant to civil immigration detainers beyond the time when such person would otherwise be released from the department’s custody, disaggregated to the extent possible by the reason given by federal immigration authorities for issuing the detainers, including, but not limited to:

- 0 individuals were held for extra time as a result of a civil immigration detainer.

---

<sup>1</sup> In some instances, a civil immigration detainer may include multiple reasons for issuing the detainer.

New York City Department of Correction
Summary of Discharges of Persons in Custody with Federal Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) Detainers
Fiscal Year 2025

- 9 individuals with a civil immigration detainer experienced prolonged discharge processing times. The discharge for each such individual was not delayed as a result of their civil immigration detainer, but rather due to such factors related to internal DOC processes. No such individuals were transferred to ICE custody.

i. A final order of removal against the person:

0

ii. Pendency of ongoing removal proceedings against the person:

0

iii. Biometric confirmation of the person's identity and records check of federal databases that affirmatively indicate, by themselves or in addition to other reliable information, that the person either lacks immigration status or notwithstanding such status is removable under US immigration law:

0

iv. Statements made by the person to an immigration officer and/or other reliable evidence that affirmatively indicate the person either lacks immigration status or notwithstanding such status is removable under US immigration law:

0

3. The number of persons transferred to the custody of federal immigration authorities pursuant to civil immigration detainers:<sup>2</sup>

DOC transferred 19 individuals to federal immigration authorities.

4. The number of persons transferred to the custody of federal immigration authorities pursuant to civil immigration detainers who had at least one conviction for a violent or serious crime:

See response under question #3.

---

<sup>2</sup> DOC policy is to cooperate in transferring custody to ICE authorities, without additional detention, if ICE requests an individual who is "a person convicted of a violent or serious crime or identified as a possible match in the terrorist screening database," pursuant to NYC Administrative Code § 9-131(h)(1)(i), and the request is supported by specific documentation of probable cause.

New York City Department of Correction
Summary of Discharges of Persons in Custody with Federal Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) Detainers
Fiscal Year 2025

5. The number of persons transferred to the custody of federal immigration authorities pursuant to civil immigration detainers who had no convictions for a violent or serious crime and were identified as possible matches in the terrorist screening database:

0

6. The amount of state criminal alien assistance funding requested and received from the federal government:

0

7. The number of persons for whom civil immigration detainers were not honored pursuant to subdivision b of this section:<sup>3</sup>

405

8. The number of persons held pursuant to civil immigration detainers beyond the time when such persons would otherwise have been released from the department's custody who were not transferred to the custody of federal immigration authorities either because of the expiration of the forty-eight hour hold period provided in 8 C.F.R. § 287.7 or because federal immigration authorities disavowed an intention to assume custody:

0

9. The number of requests from federal immigration authorities concerning a person's incarceration status, release dates, court appearance dates, or any other information related to such person in the department's custody, and the number of responses honoring such requests by the department, disaggregated by:<sup>4</sup>

---

<sup>3</sup> A detainer received during a reporting period may not be reviewed by DOC during that same reporting period in every instance. For example, individuals for whom detainers are received during this reporting period may remain in DOC custody on their state charges as of the date of this report.

<sup>4</sup> DOC received no requests from federal immigration authorities concerning a person's incarceration status, release date, court appearance dates, or any other information related to such person in DOC custody. However, DOC received 26 requests for the transfer of custody of individuals who were originally in the custody of federal immigration authorities, were transferred temporarily to local custody to allow them to face state criminal prosecution and resolve their criminal charges and are then returned to the federal immigration authorities' custody. These individuals' transfer to federal immigration authorities' custody are made pursuant to an intergovernmental transfer practice designed to ensure that individuals in federal custody do not evade standing trial in state court, and are not made pursuant to detainer requests for such individuals.

New York City Department of Correction
Summary of Discharges of Persons in Custody with Federal Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) Detainers
Fiscal Year 2025

- i. The number of responses to federal immigration authorities concerning a person with no convictions for a violent or serious crime, disaggregated by the number of such responses that included incarceration status, release dates, court appearance dates, or other types of information, and whether the department facilitated the transfer of such persons to the custody of federal immigration authorities:

0

- ii. The number of responses to federal immigration authorities concerning a person with at least one conviction for a violent or serious crime, disaggregated by the number of such responses that included incarceration status, release dates, court appearance dates, or other types of information, and whether the department facilitated the transfer of such persons to the custody of federal immigration authorities:

0

- iii. The number of responses to federal immigration authorities concerning a person with no convictions for a violent or serious crime who was identified as a possible match in the terrorist screening database, disaggregated by the number of such responses that included incarceration status, release dates, court appearance dates, or other types of information, and whether the department facilitated the transfer of such persons to the custody of federal immigration authorities:

0