City of New York,
Office of the President of the Borough of Manhattan, City Hall,
December 15, 1904.

Hon. GEORGE B. McCLELLAN, Mayor, City of New York:

Dear Sir—I transmit herewith, pursuant to section 1544 of the Greater New York Charter, reports of the various bureaus under my control for the quarter ended September 30, 1904, to which I respectfully call your attention.

Yours very truly,

JOHN F. AHEARN,

President of the Borough of Manhattan.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WORKS, QUARTER ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 1904.

Offices of Commissioner of Public Works,
Borough of Manhattan,
Nos. 13 to 21 Park Row,
New York, November 25, 1904.

Hon. JOHN F. AHEARN, President, Borough of Manhattan:

Dear Sir—According to section 1544 of the Greater New York Charter, I present the following report of the business of this Department for the quarter ended September 30, 1904:

The following contracts were entered into: Seven sewer contracts, estimated cost $39,756.30; six regulating and grading contracts, estimated cost $76,010.10; three paving and repaving contracts, estimated cost $98,429.50; two miscellaneous contracts, estimated cost $15,201.60, and six special contracts, estimated cost $1,943, making a total of twenty-four contracts entered into at an aggregate estimated cost of $231,340.50.

Contracts were completed as follows: Thirty-eight paving and repaving contracts, cost $731,181.06; three sewer contracts, cost $22,338.33; one regulating and grading contract, cost $45,087.77; four special contracts, cost $1,542.73; three miscellaneous contracts, cost $19,345.35, making a total of forty-nine contracts completed, at an actual cost of $819,495.24.

The principal items of work done under the regulating, grading and flagging contracts are as follows: 34,833 cubic yards rock excavated; 32,728 cubic yards earth excavated; 6,862 cubic yards filling furnished; 4,010 linear feet curbstones furnished and set; 34,510 square feet flagging furnished and laid; 1,068 square feet bridgestone furnished and laid; 1,000 square yards macadam pavement laid; 5,400 cubic yards concrete furnished and laid; 1,110 cubic yards rock-faced coursed granite ashlar furnished and laid; 1,017 cubic feet hammer-dressed granite for coping, moulding, etc., furnished and set; 2,000 cubic feet hammer-dressed granite for quoins, belt courses, etc., furnished and laid; 93,000 feet B. The work completed during the quarter includes the regulating, grading and paving of Fort Washington avenue, from One Hundred and Eighty-first street to a street about one mile north; the laying of crosswalks in Columbus avenue, at Sixty-seventh and Sixty-eighth streets, and the fencing of vacant lots on the north side of One Hundred and First street, between Third and Lexington avenues.

The following are the areas of new pavement laid during the quarter: Sheet asphalt, 10.32 miles; block asphalt, 1.22 miles; granite block pavement, .94 of a mile; wood block pavement, .66 of a mile, making a total of 12.24 miles.

The repair force took up and relaid about 84,108 square yards of stone block pavement.

Permits were issued as follows: To construct vaults, 56; to repair vaults, 44; to place guy posts, 17; to place kettles on streets, 136; to place boilers on streets, 177; to place banner poles, 69; to repair pavement at expense of applicants, 5, making a total of 504.

The receipts for vault permits amounted to $76,586.16.

Sixty-four thousand one hundred and seventy-one linear feet of electric main conduits, 13,636 linear feet of gas-mains, and 966 linear feet of refrigerating mains were laid, and 22,026 linear feet of gas-mains were overhauled. Seven thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine linear feet of long services, over 100 feet each, for electricity, were laid, and the total length of trenches opened for mains was 108,788 linear feet, or 20.602 miles.

Private corporations made 2,861 openings to lay and overhaul electric mains, and to lay and repair electric services; 2,141 openings to lay and overhaul gas-mains, and to lay and repair gas services; 128 openings to lay and overhaul steam-mains and to lay and repair steam services; also 7 openings for other purposes.

City Departments made 711 openings to lay and overhaul water-mains and 43 openings to lay and overhaul sewers, and plumbers made 228 openings to lay and repair water services and 198 openings to lay and repair sewer services; 652 openings were made to construct and repair railways, making a total of 6,969 openings, not including openings made in pavements by the Bureau of Highways, and by asphalt paving companies to repair defects caused by wear and tear, nor openings to repair sidewalks, etc.

The Division of Streets and Roads has maintained macadamized and unpaved streets in the upper section of the City as well as could be done with the appropriation available during the quarter.

One thousand five hundred and twelve linear feet of sewers and two receiving-basins were constructed, and at the close of the quarter there were 507.10 miles of sewers, with 6,224 receiving-basins in the Borough of Manhattan.

Work is now in progress on eleven sewer contracts, payable by assessments, involving a total expenditure of about $302,000. In addition to this there are eight sewer repair works in course of construction, at an expenditure of about $101,000.

Two hundred and thirty-two permits for new sewers and 277 permits for repairs to sewers were issued.

The repair force relieved 114 receiving-basins; cleaned 2,619 receiving-basins; relieved 192 manholes; cleaned 122,409 linear feet of sewer; relieved 65,176 linear feet of sewer; laid 108 linear feet of culvert, and 18 feet of spur pipe; reset 21 manhole heads and 13 basin heads; put on 118 manhole covers, 31 basin covers; put in 51 basin hoods and 115 basin grates; built 2,217 cubic feet of brick work; relaid 139 square yards of pavement excavated, and refilled 285 cubic feet of earth, and removed 8,004 cart loads of dirt.

The Bureau of Incumbrances received and attended to 685 complaints of obstructions; made 194 seizures and removals of obstructions; issued 828 building material permits; 180 permits to cross sidewalks with horses and carts; 132 permits to erect temporary sheds over sidewalks; removed 171 loads of dirt, stone and rubbish, and 55 fallen trees, dangerous stumps and posts; also served six notices to repair defective vault covers.

The report of the Superintendent of Public Buildings and Offices gives details of articles furnished to, and work done in the Criminal Court Building, the County Court-house, City Hall, the Brownstone Building, West Fifty-fourth Street Court-house and other buildings under his charge.

The report of the Superintendent of Public Baths and Comfort Stations shows the number of bathers to have been 1,851,029 males and 957,468 females, making a total of 2,808,497.

At the Rivington Street Bath the number of bathers is estimated at 184,284 males and 122,202 females, making a total of 306,486.

Little progress has been made toward getting West Forty-first Street Bath in proper condition for use. The delay has been caused by the failure to get a sufficient supply of pressure of water to reach showers on the second floor. On account of strikes little progress has been made on the East One Hundred and Ninth Street and Allen Street Baths, and the same may be said of the baths in East Eleventh and West Sixtieth streets. Satisfactory progress is being made on the East Seventy-sixth Street Bath.

Ground has not yet been broken for the East Twenty-third Street Bath. Work on the Hanover Square, Greeley Square, Long Acre Square, Chatham Square and Battery Park Public Comfort Stations is still in progress.

For further details of the work accomplished by the Department during the quarter, I refer you to the accompanying reports hereto appended:

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC BATHS AND COMFORT STATIONS.

City of New York—President of the Borough of Manhattan,
Offices of the Commissioner of Public Works,
Bureau of Public Buildings and Offices,
Superintendent's Office, Nos. 13 to 21 Park Row,
New York, October 1, 1904.

Hon. WILLIAM H. WALKER, Superintendent Public Buildings and Offices:

Dear Sir—I hand you herewith the third quarterly report for 1904, months of July, August and September, on the Free Floating Baths, the Interior or Permanent Baths and the Public Comfort Stations of the Borough of Manhattan, showing their present condition and the work performed during the past quarter.

Free Floating Baths.

These were taken from their positions in winter quarters and put in commission in better condition for service than they have been for many years, and were placed at their berths in the following order, viz.:

Battery Bath, No. 2, June 13.
East Ninth Street Bath, No. 7, June 15.
West Fifty-first Street Bath, No. 10, June 16.
West Eighty-second Street Bath, No. 6, June 17.
East Third Street Bath, No. 15, June 17.
West Thirty-fifth Street Bath, No. 11, June 19.
East One Hundredth Street Bath, No. 9, June 20.
West Ninety-seventh Street Bath, No. 14, June 22.
East One Hundred and Twelfth Street Bath, No. 5, June 25.
Corlears Street Bath, No. 3, June 25.
East Twenty-fourth Street Bath, No. 4, June 26.
East Thirty-first Street Bath, No. 8, June 12.
Pike Slip Bath, No. 12, August 6.

Bath No. 1 has remained at the winter quarters all summer, no dock having been assigned where we might put her. Very much delay and difficulty was experienced in obtaining suitable berths for some of the other baths. Some plan, it seems, should be found to overcome this difficulty in the future, inasmuch as the Charter provides that the Dock Department shall assign positions or docks for use of the baths as near as may be to the places selected by the Bureau of Public Buildings and Offices, or the Commissioner of Public Works. Would it not be well if some agreement could be reached between the Dock Department, Health Department and Commissioner of Public Works whereby the public baths might be assigned as far as possible to permanent berths and thus avoid the delay and shifting of docks every season.

The weather this summer has not been excessively hot, consequently the bathing has not reached the proportions which it does some seasons. The number of bathers is approximately as follows:

Males	1,851,029
Females	957,468
Total	2,808,497

This has been accomplished with but one serious accident, and that was caused by diving in violation of the posted rules. The public baths, notwithstanding every prejudice and all that can be said against them, supply a need along the river fronts in the summer time which can in no other way be provided. There is very little bathing now, and the baths will be taken to winter quarters at your earliest convenience.

While in particular instances the Bath Attendants have not given such service or attention to duty as has been satisfactory, upon the whole, there have been fewer complaints than for many years past.

The United States Volunteer Life Saving Corps, J. Wesley Jones, president, has furnished the City valuable service in the way of furnishing swimming teachers, life saving apparatus, lessons to the Attendants in first aid to drowning persons, etc. They have thus furnished gratuitously to the patrons of the baths swimming lessons on each bath which have been the means of teaching many hundreds to swim and care for themselves in the water, who otherwise might have remained for life ignorant of the art. They have very successfully performed the work dropped by the Board of Education, and in such a way as should receive our most hearty commendation, encouragement and support. I trust they may long find the means to continue their charitable and beneficent work of giving swimming lessons, saving life and teaching others to do the same.

Interior Baths.

Rivington Street Bath is in a decidedly improved condition as compared with last year, the interior having been thoroughly cleaned and painted, much of the steam fitting overhauled, etc. This bath, both as to building and attendants is doing its work well. Complaints from patrons are now an exception. The number of baths given is approximately as follows: Males, 184,284; females, 122,202; total, 306,486. This number would be largely increased were it possible to accommodate all applicants. The floating baths at Corlears street and Third street are a great relief to the Rivington Street Bath in the summer months.

Conditions at the West Forty-first Street Bath are discouraging. Very little progress seems to have been made in the past three months toward getting this building in shape for practical use. The delay is caused by the failure to get a sufficient supply or pressure of water to reach showers on the second floor. The remedy is a direct connection with the supply, cutting out all superfluities and obstructions.

East One Hundred and Ninth Street and Allen Street are hardly making perceptible progress. Contractors excuse themselves by quoting strikes as the cause.

East Eleventh Street is making but little headway. West Sixtieth Street is away behind what it should be. East Seventy-sixth Street is making good progress. East Twenty-third Street has not broken ground yet. Concerning this bath building I wish to say that I am still of the opinion that its erection after the present plans will prove to be a very serious mistake.

Comfort Stations.

Borough Hall Park, East One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Street and Sheriff and Delancey Streets are open to the public and give as good results as can be reasonably expected. Hanover Square, Greeley Square, Long Acre Square, Chatham Square and Battery Park are still in course of construction, being inclosed, and interior progressing very slowly. A considerable saving to the City might easily be made in all these buildings, and at the same time all reasonable requirements served in a sensible and substantial manner if less attention were given to high polish and exquisite finish.

Before closing this report I would call your attention to a great and growing need of some kind of printed statistics and information concerning the free public baths of the City. They are in great demand throughout the country, and we should have something to supply the demand for this information without having to answer personally by letter these inquiries. We can give but unsatisfactory replies to such in this manner. As soon as possible I shall bring this subject before you in different form for your action upon it.

Respectfully submitted,
W. W. WEEKS,

Superintendent, Public Baths and Comfort Stations.

BRANCH WORKHOUSE—HART'S ISLAND.

December 31, 1904.

Hon. FRANCIS J. LANTRY, Commissioner of Correction:

Sir—I have the honor to transmit herewith the customary statistics of admissions, discharges, etc., labor performed, interments and laundry output for this institution for the three months ending December 31, 1904.

During the past quarter, apart from the duties entailed from day to day, the principal work performed has been as follows:

Pavilion No. 1—Intended for occupation as the "New York Reformatory for Misdemeanants," has been and is in course of adaptation for that purpose, the principal alterations called for being the reinforcement of doors with sheet iron and the addition of specially constructed iron bars and locks; likewise the repainting, etc., of the interior.

The late Women's Prison Building has undergone extensive alterations, so as to be fitted for the reception of male occupants, i. e., the former inmates of Pavilion No. 1; the kitchen has been enlarged and the general dining-room for employees transferred; a cellar has likewise been dug underneath the building.

A sudden demand on all the available labor on the island was made by the recent fire which destroyed the laundry and general kitchen, likewise for the time rendering useless the steam and electric plants. The former of these plants, for heating and cooking, was restored within forty-eight hours by the digging of a trench and laying of a long stretch of pipe, and the latter was made available for the complete lighting of the island a few days afterwards. The most needed repairs have been effected to the roof of the kitchen and boiler room, to supply materials for which certain condemned buildings on the hill have been torn down.

For the reception of the women remaining on the island, a portion of Pavilion No. 4 has been repainted and fitted up, and provided with specially prepared toilet room fixtures, a contract for which was awarded.

Of additional work may be mentioned the filling of a part of the river at the "neck" or narrowest part of the island, whereby about an acre of new ground has been made.

The routine duties of prisoners, as housing vegetables, burying the dead, clearing roads of snow, unloading coal, conveying supplies from the boats, stone breaking, etc., have been performed in the customary manner.

Very respectfully,

THOMAS F. KANE, Head Keeper.

Reports Laid Over.

The President announced for consideration the report of the Committee on Elementary Schools, relative to corporal punishment in the public schools. (See Journal, pages 2768, 2769 and 2880.)

In connection with the foregoing Mr. Wilsey presented the following minority report, signed by four members of the Committee on Elementary Schools:
To the Board of Education:

The undersigned members of the Committee on Elementary Schools respectfully submit the following report on the matter of the discipline and truancy of the schools, which was referred to the Committee for consideration:

In October, 1903, the Male Principals' Association, Manhattan and The Bronx, and the Principals' Association of The City of New York, presented to the Board of Education the following report of a joint committee of the two associations:

October 20, 1903.

Report of the Male Principals' Association, Manhattan and The Bronx, and Principals' Association, City of New York.

Your special committee on discipline and truancy respectfully submit the following report:

As a general rule, Teachers are disinclined to take the initiative in matters which ultimately require the sanction of their superiors. There are, however, occasions, of which the present is an example, when silence would argue a lack of interest and of loyalty, and an expression of opinion becomes a duty.

The subject of discipline, which in our opinion is of the most vital importance to the welfare of our public school system, calls most urgently for a modification of the laws governing it; for it is our belief, based on observation and experience extending over a number of years, that the means at our command for disciplining the unruly pupils of our public schools are inadequate.

We therefore beg leave to submit:

I.—We are in accord with the general spirit of the laws governing punishments of refractory pupils; at the same time we must confess that there are children in our public schools upon whom the prevailing method of discipline has not the corrective influence it is intended to have.

II.—We feel justified in recommending for these pupils sterner measures, for the following reasons:

1. Every child, no matter how perverse he is, has the right to demand of us, as the chief element of his future welfare, that we train him to a wholesome respect for the law. Training implies power to enforce obedience.

2. The child's right is our duty, from which we are not absolved by the mere plea of sentiment.

3. Aside from other considerations, the aim for which discipline has been instituted must determine the nature of the punitive measures that should be adopted. If the above holds true, and the ordinary method of discipline is found inadequate, other means should be substituted that will realize the aim.

4. It is unjust repeatedly to subject the well-behaved children to the contaminating influences of one or two of their classmates; for each act of disobedience or of unseemly behavior leaves its impress upon the minds and characters of the youthful observers of it. The orderly children have certain rights which the disorderly should be taught to respect.

5. The unruly children of the class taking advantage of the limitations upon the powers of the teachers, waste the time of the other pupils, make class management a difficult task, and in many instances conduct themselves toward teachers in a manner that would not be tolerated outside of a public school building.

III.—The present means for disciplining refractory pupils are inadequate.

IV.—We would, therefore, respectfully recommend:

That any pupil who, upon trial by the proper authorities, is adjudged unamenable to the prevailing method of discipline, shall thereafter be deemed subject to corporal punishment, to be administered by the Principal or by some Teacher designated by him.

In regard to truancy, it is our experience that the past operation of the law has been ineffective, and that under it the evil has increased rather than diminished.

A very small proportion of the truants are committed to the Truant School, and of these a very few are reformed. The small proportion of committals has left many cases wholly unchecked, and these have, by example, so infected others that the number of truants has been constantly increasing. The period of restraint is generally less than that during which the habit of truancy was being acquired, and this has proved insufficient to prevent a relapse. Moreover, the mere recruiting of the ranks of truancy from those who are not strong enough to withstand temptation is not the final or the worst result. Familiarized with the unpunished violation of one law, the truants in our schools too often become violators of others, finally appearing at the bar of the criminal court.

The correction of truancy in cases where the substitution of other interests fails to operate demands:

First—The prompt removal of the culprit from his environment of temptation and association, before the habit shall have become fixed by months or years of exercise.

Second—His retention in the truant school for a period long enough to effect a thorough change of habit.

Third—A discipline while under restraint sufficiently vigorous to make him hesitate if afterwards tempted to take the risk of a second committal.

There are, however, many cases of truancy for which the responsibility rests not so much upon the child, as upon the parents by reason of connivance or neglect. For these some means of punishment which can and will be inflicted upon the parents is required.

Up to the present time these requirements have not been provided. The investigation of cases reported to the Attendance Officers often remains unclosed for days or even weeks. A truant is committed only after long continued violations of the law, and then by a process usually consuming much time, during which the truancy continues. The committal accomplished, lack of accommodations prevents the sufficiently long restraint of the truant. The penalty prescribed by law for offending parents has been practically unenforced.

To remedy these defects we submit:

I.—That a sufficient number of Attendance Officers should be provided to admit of the prompt investigation of every case reported.

II.—That the entire magisterial powers in cases of truancy should be lodged with the City Superintendent, who should have power:

To commit for a hearing on charges by the Principal or other person.

To commit after a hearing with or without the parental consent, provided due notice of a hearing has been given to the parents.

III.—That permanent provision should be made for the accommodation of at least fifteen hundred truants, and that the existing institutions of correction should be used as a temporary resource to supply the present or any future deficiencies.

Your Committee has collected data from 269 boys' and mixed schools of the City, representing a register of 174,628 pupils, and these data seem entirely to substantiate the statements of the report.

Only 19 schools report present forms of discipline sufficient.

6,779 pupils are reported as not amenable to present forms of discipline.

2,748 pupils, a percentage of 1.58, are reported as habitual truants.

For the period extending from September 8, 1902, to the date of the report, averaging about May 15, 1903, 185 pupils are reported committed to the Truant School.

25 pupils are reported as returned reformed.

409 pupils are reported as known to have been arrested by the police.

Your Committee respectfully recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That this report on discipline and truancy be respectfully presented to the Board of Education and to the Board of Superintendents.

JOHN DOTY,
BERNHARD CRONSON,
HENRY CASSIDY,
JOHN WALSH,
ELIJAH D. CLARK,

Committee.

This communication, reciting conditions observed at first hand by those in direct control of our schools and in daily contact with the operation of the regulations governing discipline and truancy, as well as suggesting means of relief, demanded and has received the fullest consideration by your Committee.

All through this consideration the first of the recommendations contained in the Principal's report—that for the establishment of corporal punishment as an additional means of discipline in our schools—took precedence, occasioned the most discussion, and caused the difference of opinion in your Committee. It is that of which this report will treat.

By discussion among the members of your Committee, and conferences with the Superintendents and others, through public and private comment, every means of enlightenment and every kind of opinion on the question raised by the Principals' report was sought. To this end, also, a public meeting of the Committee was held in May, 1903, to which were invited all persons who desired to express their views on the matter.

In the serious consideration which the subject will receive from every member of this Board, it is well to bear in mind just what the recommendation contained in the Principals' report—that corporal punishment may be inflicted by the Principal, or by some Teacher designated by him. It is not to be used at the will of the Teacher at all, nor is it to be inflicted upon pupils indiscriminately, for any or all offenses, but only upon such pupils as are adjudged unamenable to the prevailing methods of discipline, generally found effective in the control of pupils.

From the expressions used by those in opposition to the establishment of corporal punishment one would suppose that it was proposed to have the Teachers provided with whips or rattans, to use at will upon innocent and guilty, orderly and disorderly, without restraint, and it appears to be taken for granted by some opponents that our Teachers and Principals are of so coarse a nature that physical punishment would at once be instituted to replace all the usual methods of control.

One reading of the Principals' report will show how far from the facts such statements are.

After a careful consideration of the subject, we believe and recommend that as an additional means of discipline corporal punishment be permitted under the restrictions proposed.

Against it have been presented the following objections:

1. It is liable to abuse. To this may be answered that under the proposed operation the possibility of abuse is extremely remote, that in all the time during which corporal punishment was permitted in the schools of Brooklyn complaint of its abuse, or of its improper or unjust administration, was rarely, if ever, made, and it is reasonable to suppose that the same result will follow in the other boroughs, if it be permitted, now that all the boroughs are under one management. Besides, the same methods of investigation and correction now employed to prevent its use would serve to prevent its abuse.

2. It is likely to be unjustly administered; some innocent pupil may be punished, and so injustice be done. In our opinion, the restriction of the punishment to those found not amenable to the ordinary methods of discipline will fully protect the innocent pupil.

The objection of the possibility of injustice in its administration can as well be made against all laws. There is never guarantee that human agents will not err in the execution of laws, yet laws are not refused passage on that account.

If corporal punishment, as proposed, is opposed because some pupil may possibly have injustice done him, how about the existent injustice to 96 per cent. of our pupils because of the misconduct of their fellows, unrestrained by present methods of discipline, who disturb the work of the class, dissipate the energy of the teacher, waste time that should be devoted to fruitful instruction, and are a bad example to others? Are the possibilities of its injustice to the few—even if there be such possibilities—to weigh against the realities of injustice at present done to the many? We think not.

3. Again it is urged that it is an improper mode of punishment, that it is an insult to the child, that it lowers the one who inflicts it in the esteem of the pupils.

Punishment of every kind must consist of pain of body or of mind. As one writer says: "Why is the body so peculiarly sacred that it must feel no pain in punishment?" but we are wholly unable to see why it is not a perfectly proper mode of punishment in the school, or in the family, when it is deserved, when it is given in a proper measure and in a proper way."

Again, physical pain is nature's mode of punishment. Says Spencer: "These natural reactions which follow the child's wrong actions are constant, direct, unhesitating and not to be escaped. No threats, but a silent, rigorous performance. If a child runs a pin into its finger, pain follows. If it does it again, there is the same result; and so on perpetually. In all its dealings with surrounding inorganic nature it finds this unswerving persistence which listens to no excuse, and from which there is no appeal; and recognizing this stern but beneficent discipline, it becomes extremely careful not to transgress."

As our Principals state: "Every child, no matter how perverse he is, has the right to demand of us, as the chief element of his future welfare, that we train him to a wholesome respect for the law. Training implies the power to enforce obedience." And however much we may quibble about it, in ultimate analysis back of this power to enforce obedience, back of all authority is the "big stick," however velvety may be the covering. For these considerations we believe that corporal punishment is a proper mode of discipline and is entitled to a place in our schools.

It is unfair to state that its administration is an insult to the child to whom appeal of every other kind generally effective in discipline has been made, and whose only avenue of sensibility is through his integument. So far from being an insult, it might rather be called a courteous attention, to which such a child is entitled.

That it will degrade the one who inflicts it and lower him in the esteem of his pupils to have his authority respected by those who flout it needs no refutation. Its bare statement is sufficient for that. His degradation and disesteem are complete at the first exhibition of his impotence to control those who refuse submission to the ordinary means of government, and who base their refusal on the knowledge that neither principal nor teacher is permitted to use the only means to which their nature will react.

4. Occasionally opposition to corporal punishment, even in its proposed much modified form, is made by some because, in their families, there has never been any necessity for its use, forgetful of the fact that their children were amenable to other means of discipline, and were all the while, however, conscious of the power held in reserve by the parent, and usable should occasion require. At present no such reserve is held by any person nor under our by-laws could such a power be exercised, even if the parent desired it and gave consent to its use. In a word, we expect our teachers to do with children in mass and with lessened power in their hands, actual or in reserve, what many parents are unable to do in family. Give some one in the school the full authority of the parent, and the corrective and deterrent effects of the best home training will be extended and enjoyed by many now in want of them. Were it known among pupils that the Principal of the school had the power of the parent at home, as it is now known that neither he nor any one else has or can have at present, such knowledge would act as a deterrent to the rise and growth of disorder which so often culminates in rebellion, requiring the removal of pupils from school and their proper home associations. Were corporal punishment permitted to be inflicted by the Principals of our schools upon pupils found unamenable to the ordinary method of discipline, does any one doubt that there would be a repression of the tendency to disorder on the part of these pupils, and a cultivation of the will to do right, with the consequent growth of a habit of obedience? Children speculate on the probability of punishment, its nature and amount, and act accordingly. A speaker at our public meeting quoted from Herbert Spencer's autobiography, in which that eminent thinker says that, presuming on his father's disapproval of corporal punishment, he was often encouraged to transgress by the expectation of either escaping altogether or suffering no greater evil than hard words. Our boys, knowing existing conditions, reason like the boy Spencer, but their circumstances of training are by no means like his, to insure no ungrateful result from continued disobedience.

The present means of punishment are censure, marks, detention after school hours, complaint to parents, and possible transference to other schools or to the truant school. Of the inadequacy of the truant school it is unnecessary to speak. That the other means of punishment are insufficient in the opinion of the Principals of our schools, as well as their attitude on the question before you, is set forth in the following table, made up from answers to a series of questions submitted to the Principals individually and answered over the signature of each Principal. These questions were sent out by the Principals' Association, and the tabulation of the answers was submitted to your committee by the officers of the association. The Principals answering have boys' classes in their schools.

Groups.	Number of Principals Replying.	Register of Schools from Which Replies Have Been Received.	Number of Principals Reporting Pupils in Need of Other Discipline.	Number of Principals in Favor of Corporal Punishment.	Number of Principals Opposed to Corporal Punishment.	Number of Principals Doubtful as to Use of Corporal Punishment.	Number of Pupils Requiring Other Discipline.	Percentage of Pupils Requiring Other Discipline.

Totals	269	174,628	234	223	39	6	6,779	3.88

From this table it appears that out of 269 Principals having boys' classes in their schools, 234, or 87 per cent. of them, believe that other discipline than at present exists is needed, and that 3.88 per cent., nearly 4 per cent., of the pupils require this additional discipline. Out of 269, 223, or 83 per cent., favor corporal punishment, 15 per cent. oppose, and 2 per cent. are doubtful.

Such a preponderance of opinion in favor of a matter of school management among those in direct control of our schools, and familiar with existing conditions, should have great weight with this Board.

Were it expressed on a matter with less sentimentality attached than that under consideration, there is little doubt of what the result would be.

Frequently the statement has been made that to institute corporal punishment is to take a backward step, that many cities have abolished it, and that New York City should be progressive, not retrogressive in this matter. That such a statement is not in strict conformity with the facts is demonstrated by the subjoined extract from the report of the United States Commissioner of Education for the year 1903, vol. II., pp. 2385-2386. In this report, the Commissioner, Dr. William T. Harris, gives the regulations governing corporal punishment in cities of the United States of over 100,000 inhabitants.

(Remarks in brackets not in report, but added in explanation.)

From this report we see how extremely few are the cities of our country that have taken this so-called backward step. Even in the few systems in which corporal punishment has been prohibited in the schools, two transfer the troublesome boys to special schools in which such punishment is permitted, acknowledging thereby this necessity as a means of discipline. Were it permitted in the schools, might there not be less occasion for the reformatory schools, with all the possibilities for evil that a term in them means to many pupils? Of those cities in which corporal punishment is permitted in the schools, many give a far greater latitude in its administration than is requested by the principals' associations of our city, teachers, as well as principals, having the right to inflict it. Are our teachers and principals more lacking in good judgment and calm temperament, less patient and sympathetic than those of the cities cited in Dr. Harris's report?

It should be borne in mind that, though New York City is put down as having abolished corporal punishment, the abolition is of very recent date. Previous to consolidation in 1902 of the school systems of the separate boroughs comprising the City, under one head, corporal punishment was prohibited in Manhattan, The Bronx and Queens. In the other boroughs not only was it permitted, but no attempt was made by them to take the so-called progressive step made by Manhattan, The Bronx and Queens years ago. While there was borough autonomy in school management, Brooklyn and Richmond refused to accept the opinion of the other three boroughs on this matter, and followed the rule made when they were distinct political entities. It may be said that since consolidation these boroughs have seen the error of their ways, but this perception of new light is not discernible in the opinion of their principals as expressed in the principals' report here submitted.

Dr. Harris's report may be a revelation—instructive if not to their liking—to those who class the advocates of the institution of corporal punishment as non-progressive and reactionary, for it forces an inclusion in the indictment of the great majority of the school systems of the country. The report also demonstrates that the opinion that as a means of discipline in schools corporal punishment has a place practically prevails throughout the country, and that in asking for its institution here under existing conditions we are in line with the general school administration of the land.

In accord with the practice of the schools in the country and the opinion of the undersigned are the views of writers on school management. Appended are a few opinions:

Emerson E. White, "School Management," p. 208: "When a child rebels against the authority of the parent or the teacher, the use of the rod to compel obedience may be justifiable. Open insubordination may not only justify, but may even make necessary, a resort to proper corporal chastisement."

Same work, p. 209—"It is true that open insubordination in school may be met by suspension—a natural punishment—but this is not feasible in the family; and, in our judgment, small boys ought not to be suspended from school. What they specially need is to be controlled in school, control being every child's birthright. In the case of pupils, say, twelve years of age, suspension from school should certainly be the last resort, not the first; but when pupils are over fourteen years of age—old enough to know the value of school privileges—suspension may wisely be the first resort in case of insubordination. The decisive fact is that insubordination and rebellion cannot be tolerated or trifled with in any school. On the contrary, so long as a pupil will accept the penal consequences of his wrong-doing the teacher has no occasion to use the rod. This, if used at all, is for the insubordinate and rebellious."

Tompkins' "School Management," pp. 173-175—"Are there not pupils whose integument is the only avenue to the mainsprings of conduct? Some appeal must be made; and if no other motive to action is available, sensations must be resorted to. This, then, is not a new mode of punishment, but only one of the methods of appeal made necessary because of the absence of higher motives to action. The disgrace is not in the fact of such punishment being a painful physical operation—if so, amputation of a limb would be still more disgraceful—but in the degradation implied in assuming the absence of anything but animal sensibilities. The pupil must be taken on the plane of his present life. Punishment, as well as instruction, must follow the law of apperception. The whole question is this: The instincts, passions and motives of some pupils being as they are, can effective appeal be made without some form of corporal punishment? * * * A teacher can readily imagine a hundred instances in which hands must be laid upon the pupil. All of which may be most improbable, but it serves to prove that the application of physical force is a proper thing in itself. But aside from such special outbreaks, are there not cases now and then among young pupils in which a kindly corporal chastisement might save society from having to inflict more barbarous punishment later in life?"

"Suppose in all such cases the teacher is forbidden to use physical persuasion; somebody must do it. Society has yet found no way to avoid laying hands on some individuals. However squeamish we may be about the matter, the individual must yet have corporal punishment by some authorized agency of social welfare. The moment a school board forbids the teacher to lay hands on a pupil by way of punishment the need arises for someone outside the regular teaching force whose duty it is to perform the objectionable task. * * * If a boy is not decently switched in school by the teacher he may have to be indecently cudgelled by the police after expulsion from school. * * * In fact, a teacher should not expect to use corporal punishment—should even be resolved not to do so, if you wish—but that he may render the most efficient disciplinary service, no school board should tie his hands by publicly forbidding its use."

Baldwin's "School Management," p. 140—"Grant the right but avoid the use. For half a century this expresses the prevailing attitude of educators."

Dr. W. T. Harris's opinion, quoted in Baldwin's "School Management," p. 141—"It is better for the teacher to abolish corporal punishment than for the laws of the city to prohibit it unconditionally. There are many pupils, who, through bad previous training, have come to order their lives in the fear of punishment. These pupils would demoralize a school if the practice of corporal punishment is prohibited unconditionally."

Salmon's "Art of Teaching," pp. 37-38—"Weak parents and Sunday school teachers who are not able to rule, and amiable theorists who have never tried to rule, say that children should be ruled by love, and not by fear. Discipline rests on authority and love—Authority which depends on superiority of mind, love which never degenerates into undue indulgence."—Herbart. We consider the coachman kind and skilful who can manage his horses without using the whip, but we should consider him foolish if he refused to use the whip when the horses could not be made to move without it. Love is a higher motive than fear; when it is too weak to affect conduct, it must be reinforced by fear. Good children may do right to please a good teacher, but the best children ought to be afraid of displeasing the best teacher."

Fitch's "Lectures on Teaching," pp. 138-139, quotes a principal of an excellent school which Fitch was to report on and in which no corporal punishment was used—"But the master, when I was reporting on the school, begged me not to mention this fact. 'I do not mean to use it,' he said, 'but I do not want it in the power of the public or the parents to say I am precluded from using it. Every boy here knows that it is within my discretion, and that if a very grave or exceptional fault occurred I might exercise that discretion.'" Fitch then says: "I believe that to be the true attitude for all teachers to assume. They should not have their discretion narrowed by any outward law, but they should impose a severe law upon themselves."

E. C. Hewitt, President of the Illinois State Normal University, in "Pedagogy," pp. 146-147—"In reality, it will be found that any valid arguments against corporal punishment are valid against all punishments. To punish is to inflict pain—an operation from which every right feeling person shrinks—but an operation which should never be abolished until the offences cease which make punishment proper. Often in schools where corporal punishment is not allowed, something worse is resorted to. Proper punishment is not cruel, even though it makes the body sting—taking far-reaching consequences into account, it may be the bitterest cruelty to withhold it. Nor should corporal punishment be the last form of punishment. Expulsion may properly come later. If a rude, turbulent boy can be kept in school and judiciously whipped into decent behavior, will anyone say that it is not better for him and for all concerned than it would be to turn him into the street?"

"Is such punishment proper? Why not? There is no government without law; there is no law without possible punishment; there is no punishment without pain of some kind; hence, there is no possibility of government without a possibility of some pain to follow it. Can there be any pain but pain of body or pain of mind? Why is the body so peculiarly sacred that it must feel no pain in punishment? * * * But we are wholly unable to see why it is not a perfectly proper mode of punishment in the school or in the family, when it is deserved, when it is given in a proper measure and in a proper way."

The request for the establishment of corporal punishment in our schools is reasonable, and, in our opinion, should be granted. As a means of discipline, it is in operation in the great majority of our cities, it is supported by the opinion of most writers on school management, and the experience of our own principals under existing conditions, expressed in their report to this Board, justifies its use. It will not be a cure-all for the troubles of the teachers. Its indiscriminate application will not be permitted nor is it asked for. It will not correct all the tendencies and manifestations obstructive to school discipline and to the development of moral character in pupils, and due so much to heredity and outside environment, but it will add one more means of effective discipline to those now in operation. It will correct to some extent and deter to greater those pupils whose presence now in the schools distracts attention, wastes the time and the energy of the other pupils and the teacher; whose troublesome conduct, now ineffectively restrained, is a bad example to their fellows and an evil to themselves, with possible consequences of danger to the community. By its introduction, we believe, less need will be had for reformatory institutions, and more effectiveness given to the moral training in our schools. The accomplishment of these results, in ever so small a degree, justifies its establishment.

GEORGE D. HAMLIN,
JOHN C. KELLEY,
GEORGE E. PAYNE,
Of the Committee on Elementary Schools.

Reports of the Executive Committee.

The President presented the following:
To the Board of Education:

The Executive Committee, to which was referred the communication from the Board of Superintendents, dated November 19, 1904 (see Journal, page 2839), nominating the following named District Superintendents to succeed themselves:

John H. Haaren, whose term of office expires on December 31, 1904;
Edward B. Shallow, whose term of office expires on December 31, 1904,
—respectfully reports that it has considered the same, and has decided to approve said nominations and to recommend the appointment of the persons above named to succeed themselves.

HENRY N. TIFFT, Chairman, Executive Committee.

A. Emerson Palmer, Secretary, Board of Education.

Mr. Harkness moved that the Secretary be instructed to cast one ballot for Messrs. Haaren and Shallow as District Superintendents, to succeed themselves.

Adopted.

The Secretary cast one ballot as instructed.
The President thereupon announced that Messrs. John H. Haaren and Edward B. Shallow had been duly elected District Superintendents for terms of six years each, beginning January 1, 1905.

On motion, the matter of electing an Associate City Superintendent to succeed Mr. Algernon S. Higgins, whose term of office expires on December 31, 1904 (notice of such election having been given in the call for this meeting), was taken up.

Mr. Warburg moved that the election of an Associate City Superintendent be postponed until the next meeting of the Board, and that before said meeting a report be presented by the Board of Superintendents stating what Mr. Higgins' special work during his last term has been that entitles him to re-election.

The motion was seconded by Mr. Harkness and adopted.

The President presented the following:

To the Board of Education:

The Executive Committee respectfully reports that at its meeting held on December 21, 1904, the Special Committee of Five to consider the reduction of the Budget of this Department, presented the following report, which was approved for presentation to the Board of Education at the meeting to be held on December 28, 1904:

"To the Executive Committee:

"The Special Committee of Five to consider the reduction in the Budget of this Department for 1905, made by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, appointed in pursuance of a preamble and resolution adopted by the Board of Education on October 26, 1904 (see Journal, page 2784), respectfully reports that it has given very careful consideration to the same, having held a number of meetings, and having given a hearing to representatives of the Interborough Council of Teachers' Associations. Your Committee recommends that the General School Fund be divided as shown in the statement given below. "Mr. President—I deem it my duty to ask the Board to take official notice of the death of Thaddeus Moriarty. Originally appointed a School Commissioner by Mayor Smith Ely, in 1878, he served the City in that capacity for many years. Broad-minded, liberal and just, he gave freely of his time and thought to further the public school interests of our City. I therefore offer the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Board of Education hereby expresses its regret for the death of Thaddeus Moriarty, and places on record its appreciation of his faithful and exemplary services as a Commissioner."

The resolution offered by Mr. Lummis was seconded by Mr. Wilsey and adopted by a unanimous vote.

New Business.

The President presented the following duplicate copy of a communication addressed by him to his Honor the Mayor, in response to a request for information regarding the work of the Department of Education during the year 1904, which was ordered to be printed in the Minutes:

Department of Education, City of New York,
Park avenue and Fifty-ninth street, New York,
December 15, 1904.

HON. GEORGE B. McCLELLAN, Mayor of The City of New York, City Hall, New York City:

Dear Sir:—On behalf of the Board of Education, and in compliance with your request under date of November 16 last, that you be furnished with—

"A summary giving generally the work done in this Department during the year, together with a general statement as to the conditions now existing there,"

I have the honor to submit the following:

As the quantity of work done in this Department during the year depended largely upon the amount of money allowed for its purposes, we will consider first the Auditor's Department.

The Budget requirements for all purposes, fiscal and calendar year 1904, were	$23,235,472 30
The appropriations allowed by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment were.....	21,229,361 49
Making a reduction of.....	$2,006,110 81

This Budget reduction was met generally as follows:

On the physical side, by limitation of all expenditures to the actual sums allowed; by deferring the execution of repairs so far as the same could be done without great detriment to property interests; by limiting the quantity of supplies and text-books furnished, and by refraining from establishing additional workshops, cooking rooms, kindergartens, etc.

On the educational side, by reducing salaries in evening schools; by curtailing the number of sessions and limiting the number of Teachers employed; by reducing the number of vacation schools, playgrounds and evening recreation centres, as well as free lectures, etc.

The above appropriation being the fund with which the activities of this Department have been carried on, we will now proceed to the work of the Building Bureau.

January 1, 1904, there were in course of construction:

New buildings	22
Additions to old buildings.....	13
Total.....	35

Of these the greater number have been so far completed as to permit of occupancy, affording accommodations for 57,025 pupils.

Since January 1 contracts have been let for:

New buildings	19
Additions	29
Excavation and foundation.....	1
Total.....	49

—at a cost of $5,993,473.

These will afford accommodations for 49,550 pupils. Contracts have also been let for the equipment of new buildings and additions with sanitary, electric, heating and ventilating, furniture work, etc., amounting to $1,196,841.

Progress in the completion of all contracts, both for buildings and equipment has been slow, due to the continued labor troubles, which, while not extending to all branches of the building trades, yet affected certain of them, which sooner or later tied up the work upon almost every building.

In order to overcome the overcrowding, owing to delays caused by strikes and other matters, and to endeavor to keep pace with the tremendous increase in school population, contracts have been let for the erection of six one-story buildings in Manhattan beneath the Williamsburg Bridge. These will accommodate pupils in number about 2,100.

We have just received permission to use two other plots at the same point, and contracts will be immediately let for two other buildings to accommodate 950 additional pupils, but there is still an imperative necessity to acquire additional sites in the neighborhood most speedily.

Notwithstanding all this work of progression, the Board has been steadily engaged in maintaining in serviceable condition the school buildings throughout the City, of which there are upwards of 550. This is a task of no small magnitude, when one remembers that, besides the daily use of these buildings by 650,000 children attending the day schools, many of the buildings are also used for night schools, lectures, summer schools, vacation playgrounds, club meetings, etc., making constant wear of the hardest kind.

In this connection it must not be forgotten that the larger number of our buildings, to wit, those erected before 1891, were never designed for such use as they are now receiving, and this is especially true of the majority of the buildings in The Bronx, Brooklyn, Queens and Richmond, where many are frame structures, and the matter of maintenance and repairs becomes a hard problem year by year.

During the year, of new high schools, There have been completed and occupied..... 3 And there are contracted for or under way..... 4

Total..... 7

Owing to the fact that the sites owned by the Board have been exhausted, it has been compelled to suspend active operations in this line for the past few weeks, and await the consummation of condemnation proceedings, but meantime is not idle, as the preparation of plans and specifications for buildings to be erected on these sites, when acquired, has been actively pushed and it is now ready to let contracts aggregating sittings in number about 23,000 as rapidly as title to the various parcels is vested.

Additional moneys from issues of Corporate Stock will be necessary early in 1905, for the acquisition of additional sites urgently needed, especially in the lower East Side of Manhattan and the rapidly growing sections of The Bronx, Brooklyn, Queens and Richmond, for the erection thereon of buildings, as well as for the equipment of buildings now under construction.

Such being a concise statement relative to the building operations for the past year, we will now consider the use made of such buildings and others under the control of the Board in fulfilling its primary purpose of providing an education for the children of this great city.

Elementary Schools.

The average attendance for the school year ending: July 31, 1903, was..... 439,928 July 31, 1904, was..... 466,571

An increase of..... 26,643

An increase of..... 49,859

The total register was:

The total average attendance was:

An increase of..... 45,529

The total number of part-time pupils was:

October, 1903..... 91,709 October, 1904..... 72,087

A decrease of..... 19,622

Appointments of Principals and Teachers.

In the elementary schools there has been, during the year 1904, but a very slight increase in the number of principals, which has been due to the fact that smaller schools have been consolidated and the excess principals transferred to vacancies.

The number of supervisors of special branches has been decreased by two, and no increase in this respect is contemplated.

The number of special teachers has remained stationary, with the exception of a slight increase of teachers of shopwork, cooking and German.

The great increase has been in the number of regular class teachers, the number engaged in the instruction of classes being at the end of:

1903..... 11,417 1904..... 11,815

An increase of..... 398

—which is a small increase when compared with that of 1903 over 1902, of 775, and 1902 over 1901, of 624, and was probably due to two causes:

First, the increase in registration in 1904 was less than any previous year, and, second, a very large number of classes were consolidated.

In this connection, I am advised that it would be unwise to take this abnormally low increase in 1904 as a basis for an estimate for 1905, because no further consolidations can be made, and that it is not at all probable that the rate of increase in registration will continue as low as in 1904.

For the year 1905 it is stated that an increase of six new principals will probably be required, and about three times that number of assistants to principals; that about fifty new teachers will be needed in shopwork, cooking and German, and that a conservative estimate of the number of new teachers for new classes to be formed during 1905 should not be lower than 600.

Compulsory Education.

The Department of Compulsory Education was well organized and in good working order with the beginning of the year, but we have lost the services of ten attendance officers by resignation or death, and only two of these vacancies have been filled. Progress has been made in establishing a system of co-operation for the enforcement of the Compulsory Education Law and the Newsboy Law, between this Department and the Board of Health, the State Department of Child Labor and the Children's Courts. The New York and Brooklyn Truant Schools have been improved.

There are two Truant Schools, one in Manhattan on East Twenty-first street, with a capacity of 65 boys, the other in Brooklyn, on Jamaica avenue, accommodating 148 boys. Both of these institutions are inadequate, and a large number of boys have necessarily been transferred to the Catholic Protectory, New York Juvenile Asylum and the Westchester Temporary Home, in the enforcement of the above-mentioned laws.

The establishment of a school capable of accommodating 1,000 or more truants has been advocated for a number of years, and a site has been acquired in the Borough of Queens for the establishment of such a school. It is intended that such school shall provide for a number of cottages; also facilities for the cultivation of a farm, in order that the boys may receive instruction in agriculture and gardening, and to provide for their own support. It is also intended to establish shops for the training of boys in the rudiments of various industries, and to provide them with necessary physical training and athletics.

It is necessary to secure an appropriation of $150,000 for the erection of the necessary buildings, and the equipment of the same on such site. Additional attendance officers to enforce the Compulsory Education Law more thoroughly in day and evening schools, and to provide means for the more efficient enforcement of the Newsboy Law will also be required in 1905.

Class Libraries.

A system of class libraries in the elementary schools was authorized by the Board of Education in 1902, and in this connection a fund is administered by the Bureau of Libraries, which was established in February, 1903. One-half of this fund is raised by the city, the other half being given by the State.

As a result of the expenditure of this fund and its additions, there are now in the elementary schools:

Class libraries numbering..... 7,981 Containing books to the amount of..... 246,148 Of schools provided with a reference or teachers' library, there are..... 484 Containing books to the number of..... 113,412 Making the total number of books in the libraries of elementary schools..... 359,560

At the close of school in June, a report on the circulation of class library books shows that 2,308,601 books have been issued for home use, these figures not including use for reference in school.

Evening Schools.

This department comprises:

High schools..... 10 Elementary schools..... 72 Pupils registered during the past season..... 78,386

No person attending a day school is permitted to enroll in an evening school.

Among the pupils enrolled last season, there were:

Non-English-speaking persons..... 26,850

The number enrolled this term is far in excess of this amount.

Vacation Schools and Playgrounds and Evening Recreation Centres.

These are opened only in the summer season, and comparing the work in these branches of the service with those of 1903, we find the following:

Vacation Schools.

Number Open— 1904..... 39 1903..... 46

Average Attendance— 1904..... 17,446 1903..... 18,927

Number of Teachers— 1904..... 601 1903..... 760

Playgrounds.

Number Open— 1904..... 88 1903..... 91

Average Attendance— 1904..... 69,497 1903..... 64,870

Number of Teachers— 1904..... 386 1903..... 442

The growing popularity of these recreation centres is clearly revealed by an analysis of these figures.

In spite of the reduction in the number of vacation schools and playgrounds operated, and the number of Teachers employed, the average attendance in the schools did not decrease proportionately, while in the playgrounds the average attendance actually increased.

During the summer of 1904 the aggregate attendance at the vacation schools was..... 523,399

And at the playgrounds..... 3,335,851

—which figures would seem to demonstrate the large usefulness of these branches of service.

The evening recreation centres now number 21, although all are not open nightly, and this is two less than were operated in January, 1904.

The aggregate attendance at these places in January and October is about the same, 156,000.

In the vacation schools there were classes in bench work, fret-sawing, whittling, knitting and crocheting, cooking, housekeeping and nursing, elementary sewing, advanced sewing, millinery, embroidery, nature study, art study, girls' basketry, boys' basketry, chair caning, leather, burnt wood, venetian iron, city history, kindergarten and connecting classes.

In the vacation playgrounds there were athletics and gymnastics, library work, quiet games, kindergarten, and basketry classes.

In the evening recreation centres there were athletics and gymnastics, reading, quiet games, rooms for study, library, and debating clubs, and in some, raffia work.

The importance of these activities, which offer as a substitute for the amusements of crowded streets, or other less desirable meeting places, the clean playgrounds and classrooms of the schoolhouses, which otherwise would be idle at such times, cannot be overestimated. This economical use of the municipal plant for the benefit of the citizens should be encouraged in every possible way.

School Exhibit at St. Louis Exposition.

An exhibit of the work of the public schools was had at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, and made possible a comparison of what our pupils do in the school, with that accomplished in other cities. The merit of our system is attested by:

A grand prize for the collective exhibit.

Four gold medals for exhibits of manual training, drawing, and domestic science—vacation schools and evening schools—and physical training.

Grand prize for the collective exhibit relative to high schools—several gold and silver medals to individuals connected with the system.

High Schools.

During the year new buildings have been opened for the Morris High School in the Borough of The Bronx, for the Bryant High School in the Borough of Queens, and for the Curtis High School in the Borough of Richmond.

Besides new buildings have been begun or contracts let for the DeWitt Clinton High School, Borough of Manhattan; Commerical High School, Borough of Brooklyn; Erasmus Hall High School, Borough of Brooklyn; Stuyvesant High School, Borough of Manhattan (established and opened in the building, No. 225 East Twenty-third street, September 12, 1904).

In addition, a new building has been authorized for the Eastern District High School, Borough of Brooklyn, and plans are being prepared.

The new building for the Manual Training High School, Borough of Brooklyn, is nearly ready for occupancy.

Needs of High Schools.

A new building is needed for the Girls' Technical High School, Borough of Manhattan, which is now housed in four different buildings, one of which is rented, and one partially occupied by an elementary school.

The examination for graduation from high schools for admission to training schools, etc., was held in January, when the number of candidates examined was 1,913 and in June, when the number of candidates examined was 2,576.

Total..... 4,489

Training Schools.

The work of the Training Schools for Teachers continues satisfactorily, the increase in the registration this year over last being about 40 persons.

Bureau of Lectures.

No expansion of the work of the Free Lecture Department was possible in 1904 over that of the year preceding.

On January 1, 1904, lectures were given in 143 different centres, distributed as follows: Manhattan 61, The Bronx 19, Brooklyn 34, Queens 22, Richmond 6; and among these there were three centres where lectures were given in Yiddish and three in Italian.

In March, owing to the curtailment of the appropriation, seventeen of these centres were closed, and at four the number of lectures was reduced one-half. I am informed this reduction met with very great disapproval on the part of those attending, and petitions for their reintroduction were received by the Board.

Since October, 1904, 140 centres have been again established.

The attendance in all boroughs:

October and November, 1903, was..... 355,492
October and November, 1904, was..... 376,649

An increase of..... 21,157

During the year, from October 1, 1903, to October 1, 1904, the total attendance was 1,134,000.

Owing to the reduction in the appropriation for the year 1905, I am informed it will probably be necessary to close up several centres, and to make other reductions, which will have a tendency to prevent the expansion of the work commensurate with the increased demands.

Nautical School.

This is conducted on board the Schoolship "St. Mary's," and no material changes have been made this year in the workings of the school; the routine, bill of fare and instruction carried on in various departments remains practically unchanged.

One feature this year has been an effort to destroy the prevailing erroneous impression that the "St. Mary's" is in some respects a reformatory. In order to disabuse the residents of The City of New York of this idea, the Superintendent is, under the supervision of the Supervisor of Lectures of the Board of Education, visiting various educational centres and lecturing to the people, the subject being the Nautical School, setting forth its aims and objects and the results there sought to be accomplished.

This year an extra appropriation was made in order to make certain essential repairs on the "St. Mary's" and to cover other necessary items.

Bureau of Supplies.

Advertising for supplies necessary for the schools was had earlier this year than last, and lists for text-books and general supplies are now in the hands of the Principals, who will thereby be enabled to make out their requisitions more intelligently; this is a step far in advance of the work done in 1903, and it is expected that a further improvement will be made for 1905.

Because of the lack of proper facilities for delivering supplies during the year 1904, a system known as a "direct delivery system" for text-books, copy-books and such items, was perforce adopted, and while this method increased the expense, the extra cost was more than offset by what was considered a matter of greater importance, to wit, the necessity of having the books on time.

Every means to keep down this expense was taken, and at the same time the establishment of a proper Supplies Bureau urged, resulting in the procuring of a building at No. 418 East Sixty-eighth street, which, while it has relieved the pressure, is totally inadequate for the needs of the Department.

All general supplies are now stored in this building, and because of this centralization we have been enabled to give up the depositories in both the boroughs of Brooklyn and Queens, in so far as these depositories have to do with the receipt and delivery of regular supplies.

About $100,000 worth of summer school supplies were scattered all over the City in cellars of the school buildings, without any proper supervision; the larger amount of these are now stored in the Brooklyn depository, so that the Committee can give them proper supervision; a portion still remains stored in the basement of the building of the Board. By proper systematizing and arrangement, it is hoped that all these supplies can be located, assorted and arranged in Brooklyn, so that when it comes time to purchase summer school supplies for the year 1905, it is expected that little will be needed, because it will be known then, for the first time, what supplies are on hand, and they can be turned to advantage.

In view of the expenses attending the "direct delivery system," it was thought best to use the depository at Park avenue and Fifty-ninth street for the delivery of text-books, and we are now stocking up, and hope to be able to deliver these supplies as promptly as by the "direct delivery system," and expect to save the city at least $50,000.

In the matter of delivering supplies to the schools, many obstacles have been overcome, great progress has been made, and general satisfaction appears to prevail throughout the system.

Improvements are contemplated, and progress is being made in the bookkeeping of the department, which is in much better shape than it was in 1903, and, it is expected, will be still better in 1905.

During the current year, extreme care has been exercised in the receipt and delivery of coal, the quality of that furnished being of a superior character, and 2,240 pounds to the ton, and bought at a lower price than by any private concern or any other city.

A plan is under way having for its object proper supervision and a comparison of schools of equal size to determine whether the janitor or engineer is careful in the use of coal.

Because of this supervision, when the budget for coal was made for the year 1905, $122,000 less was asked for than that allowed for the current year, although the demands upon us will be greater.

In addition to this, when advertising for coal for the ensuing year, bids were thrown out, because admitted excessive, and for other reasons, resulting in the creation of a competition which caused a saving of from $12,000 to $13,000; that is, the last bids received were that amount less than the first.

The total number of items on all lists published during 1904 was over 16,000. Of these items, less than 1,500 passed directly through the Bureau of Supplies, and received the supervision which was deemed necessary.

Because of securing the depository in East Sixty-eighth street, an increase to 6,000 in the items passing through the Supply Bureau during the year 1905 is expected, and there they will receive proper consideration and examination.

Further, at least 4,000 items, that is, the text-book items, ought not to be advertised for. They are controlled by certain publishers, from whom they must be purchased either directly or indirectly; if directly, at low prices; if indirectly, at higher prices.

The Committee on Supplies, seeing that besides the matter of printing a great waste of time occurred each year, deemed it advisable to make a contract for text-books to cover five years. Such a contract, if made, would result in a considerable saving, representing thousands of dollars, not only from a printing standpoint, but from a clerical standpoint as well, it being necessary to take employees from their regular duties in order to have the work connected with this branch of the service properly performed, resulting in a congestion in their usual work.

This contract gives the Board of Education the privilege of revising the lists at any time, and in this particular, it is believed, a far greater saving than in either of the methods above-mentioned will result. Heretofore many text-books were stricken from the lists without regard to the number of these particular books that were in the schools at the time, thus, as it were, throwing the latter out of use and making them only of value as paper, whereas, owing to this five-year contract, the Board of Superintendents will be furnished with the purchases for the five years, and will then be able to judge of the demand for books and the number that should be in the schools, and with proper care in this particular there should be no waste of text-books.

All these considerations lead to the suggestion that there should be a proper Supply Bureau centrally located, so that all Boroughs would be easy of access, instead of the present system, where a portion of the staff is located in the Borough of Brooklyn, another portion in Sixty-eighth street and another at Fifty-ninth street. It is utterly impossible for an executive, however capable, to properly manage a department where his force is so widely scattered.

In addition, the question of proper receipt and delivery of supplies is an important one, and, without going into further details at this time, it is deemed proper to suggest that a building sufficiently large to carry on all the work connected with the receipt and delivery of supplies for this great system, should be procured, not only large enough to cover present needs, but also to permit of natural growth, the excess of space meanwhile being utilized by other departments.

Further, we are compelled each year to furnish a large quantity of chemicals and apparatus to our high schools and departments. This material if we had proper place for storage, could be imported free of duty at a great saving to the city, because, I understand, all items for educational purposes are allowed to enter duty free. It is true, we do import a large number of items at the present time, but our schools have to wait several months before they are received.

It is hoped, if present plans under consideration can be carried out, that a saving of at least $30,000 to $35,000 on general supplies will be made this year, in addition to which a saving on text-books estimated at $50,000 is looked for; but, of course, these are only estimates, and the results may be far different.

I am informed that in many cities visited by our Superintendent of Supplies they had far better facilities for delivering supplies than exist in The City of New York, which should not be. Some of the other cities use their own trucks for delivering, with very satisfactory results, whereas in New York we let out the contract for such purpose each year, and the results are not satisfactory.

While the method of our own delivery might be somewhat more expensive, the results attained by it, in promptness and exactness, would more than compensate for the additional expense.

There are other utilities connected with this question of a proper Supply Building, thoroughly equipped, which probably will appear in the Annual Report, so that further space is not taken here.

In conclusion, it may be stated generally, that this resume of the work of the entire Department of Education during the past year, and of its needs for the future, is at best but a slight indication of the numerous activities carried on by it, as well as the immense amount of thought, care and detail expended and existing in the administration of this great school system, and of the many requirements for its proper expansion to meet the many and constantly increasing demands upon it.

Very respectfully,

HENRY N. TIFFT,

President of the Board of Education, The City of New York.

The consideration of the question of corporal punishment in the public schools, postponed earlier in the meeting was then taken up.

Mr. Donnelly moved that the minority report be adopted.

Discussion ensued, participated in by Messrs. Wingate, Lummis, Jonas, McGowan, M. S. Stern and Donnelly.

Mr. Adams moved the previous question.

Adopted.

The President thereupon put the question whether the Board would adopt the minority report in the matter of corporal punishment in the public schools, and it was decided in the negative by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Barrett, Barry, Cunneen, Dix, Donnelly, Everett, Greene, Haupt, Higgins, Jonas, John C. Kelley, Payne, Schmitt, Vandenhoff, Wilsey and Wingate—16.

Nays—The President, and Messrs. Adams, Aldcroft, Collier, Eppig, Francolini, Frissell, Harkness, Harrison, Higginson, Ingalls, Jackson, John P. Kelly, Lummis, McGowan, Man, Marks, Partridge, A. Stern, M. S. Stern, Warburg and Winthrop—22.

The president put the question whether the Board would approve the report of the Committee on Elementary Schools in the matter of corporal punishment and adopt the resolution attached thereto (see Journal, pages 2768-69) and it was decided in the affirmative by the following vote:

Yeas—The President, and Messrs. Adams, Aldcroft, Collier, Eppig, Francolini, Frissell, Harkness, Harrison, Higginson, Ingalls, Jackson, John P. Kelly, Lummis, McGowan, Man, Marks, Partridge, A. Stern, M. S. Stern, Warburg and Winthrop—22.

Nays—Messrs. Barrett, Barry, Cunneen, Dix, Donnelly, Greene, Haupt, Higgins, Jonas, John C. Kelley, Payne, Schmitt, Vandenhoff, Wilsey and Wingate—15.

The following reports, preambles, resolutions, etc., were also adopted:

Whereas, The immediate proximity of a Police Court and jail on a site north of Public School 137, Borough of Manhattan, is injurious to the welfare of the pupils attending that school; and

Whereas, The situation of Public School 144, in part facing Allen street, a thoroughfare of the elevated railroad, is unfavorable for school purposes, though adapted to the purposes of a Police Court and jail; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Board of Education favors the acquisition of the site north of Public School 137, Borough of Manhattan, now occupied by a Police Court and jail, for school purposes, and the surrender of the site occupied by Public School 144 in exchange therefor; and be it further

Resolved, That negotiations be undertaken by the Board of Education with the appropriate county and municipal authorities with a view to the exchange of the sites above mentioned.

Referred to the Committee on Sites.

The matter of establishing an Educational Museum in this City, with the exhibit from the St. Louis Exposition as a nucleus, was referred to a Special Committee of Five, to be appointed by the President, and the standing committees of the Board, to whose attention this matter was brought by the Board of Superintendents, were discharged from further consideration of the same.

Requesting the Committee on Buildings to make the following changes in the basement of the Morris High School, namely, the erection of partitions in the room known as the girls' bicycle room and the installation of an extra heating coil.

Whereas, Rule XIII. of the Municipal Civil Service Commission, subdivision 2, provides that "absence without leave for a period of five days, unless it be subsequently shown that such absence was unavoidable, shall be construed as a resignation"; and

Whereas, John Emerich, employed as Waiter at the Brooklyn Truant School, has absented himself from duty for more than five days, and has failed to show that his absence was unavoidable; therefore be it

Resolved, That said John Emerich be considered as having resigned from his position in the Department of Education, in accordance with the Municipal Civil Service rule above quoted.

Selecting and determining as a site for school purposes the following-described lands and premises on Forsyth and Stanton streets, in Local School Board District No. 6, Borough of Manhattan, the assessed valuation of which, as shown by the books of record on file in the Department of Taxes and Assessments, is $202,000:

To the Board of Education:

The Committee on Finance, to which was referred the communication from the Corporation Counsel, dated October 17, 1904, in reference to the lighting of public school buildings (a copy of which communication is annexed to this report), respectfully reports as follows:

Until the year 1901 the control of the lighting of the public schools was exercised by the Board of Education without question, and in all respects at all times.

In 1902, Commissioner Dougherty, then Commissioner of the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity, claimed, under the Charter of the Greater City, the right of control of the lighting of all the City Departments, including the public schools.

In an opinion dated November 6, 1902, a copy of which is annexed to this report, the Corporation Counsel unfortunately conceded this claim without having heard the Board of Education in opposition, basing his judgment particularly upon the following sections of the Greater New York Charter:

Section 469, which provides, among other things, that the Commissioner of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity shall have cognizance and control of the use * * * and transmission of * * * electricity for all purposes in, upon, across, over and under all streets, roads, avenues, parks, public places and public buildings.

Section 519 of the Charter, which confers upon the same Commissioner power in the matter of the inspection of electric lights furnished to the City.

Section 530, which provides that the Commissioner shall prepare terms and specifications under which contracts shall be made for lighting the streets, public buildings and parks of said City.

This opinion of the Corporation Counsel was rendered before the decision of the Court of Appeals, made in October, 1903, in the case of Walter B. Gunnison, which decision is later herein referred to.

In accordance with this opinion of the Corporation Counsel, the control of the lighting of the school buildings has been taken from the Board of Education, and assumed by the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity. In the opinion, dated October 17, 1904, now referred to this Committee, the present Corporation Counsel has adhered to the opinion of his predecessor.

The officers and employees of the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity have, since its assumption of control, made regulations in regard to the use of lights in the school buildings, which are independent of the regulations previously existing by authority of the Board of Education, and which have already interfered with educational work, in a number of instances which may be specified, and the Inspectors of the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity have given many directions to teachers and janitors in relation to the use of light.

The amount of money likely to be required for school lighting each year cannot always be estimated with accuracy in advance, but when necessary the Board of Education has been able to supplement the original estimate by transfers from other funds. This course cannot always be expected from the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity, nor can that Department be relied upon always to recognize or provide in advance for the requirements of each year in accordance with the judgment of the Board of Education. While the Committee on Finance recognizes the fact that the Corporation Counsel is the legal adviser of the city government, it believes, as has been stated, that the important bearing of this subject upon school management was not clearly explained to that officer before the rendering of his opinion in 1902; that the decision of the Court of Appeals in 1903 has not since been taken into full consideration, and that the surrender of the right out not to be acquiesced in by the Board of Education without the most careful consideration of the fact and the law in every respect. The Committee believes that several important considerations should be applied when construing the sections quoted from the Charter by the Corporation Counsel.

In the opinion of the Corporation Counsel, it is to be noted that he has exempted from the control of the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity, the Department of Docks, basing said exception upon the fact that the lighting of the public docks is paid from special funds. This exception, however, would seem to be inconsistent with the claim of the absolute control of lighting "for all purposes in, upon, across, over and under all streets, avenues, parks, public places and public buildings," to use the language of section 469. Other exceptions have also been made in the cases of the Normal College, the College of The City of New York, and the Appellate Division Court-house.

The same provisions quoted in the opinion of the Corporation Counsel give jurisdiction in similar language over the use of gas, electricity, steam and water. Yet the Board of Education is still required to pay the bills for electricity used for ventilating and sanitary apparatus, for gas used for gas engines and for instruction in cooking, for electricity used for power purposes in the manual training workshops, and for gas and electricity used in experimental and scientific work in the several high schools, etc.

If control over all these should hereafter be assumed, in like manner, by the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity, it is easy to see how the work of conducting the schools will be still more seriously interfered with; but, to be consistent, it would seem that this control must, under the opinions of the Corporation Counsel, be assumed.

It seems to the Committee that the Board of Education should be permitted to continue the exercise of its unrestricted judgment in these regards to the full extent enjoyed from the beginning down to the year 1902. Even before the decision of the Court of Appeals in the Gunnison case in 1903, it is difficult to see how the Board of Education could have been adjudged to be simply a department of the city government, in the same way as are the Departments of Street Cleaning and Public Works, etc., but the clear and unmistakable opinion of the Court in the case referred to, in respect to this Board, has absolutely defined its independence as a State and not a city agency. (See the decision printed in the "Journal," 1903, pp. 2878-9.)

The point involved in the Gunnison case was whether or not the Board of Education, in its capacity as a corporation, possesses full control of the public schools in all respects, and whether in suits at law in regard to school matters The City of New York was the proper party to be sued or the Board of Education.

The Court of Appeals decided, by unanimous vote, that the Board of Education was the proper party to be named in the suit, and the opinion clearly and conclusively seems to establish beyond question the absolute independence of this Board of Education in all school matters and its right to perform any and every function, whether educational or physical, incidental and necessary to the management of the schools.

In its opinion the Court states: "The only purpose for which the Board of Education was created a corporate body was to conduct a system of public education in a designated division of the State, and to manage and control the schools therein. It is not a city agency nor a political division of The City of New York, but an independent municipal corporation; nor is public education a city function."

"The settled policy of the State is to divorce the business of public education from all other municipal interests or business and to take charge of it, as a peculiar and separate function."

Again the Court says: "The policy of this State for more than half a century has been to separate public education from all other municipal functions, and to intrust it to independent corporate agency of its own creation, such as school districts and boards of education, with capacity to sue and be sued in all matters involved in the exercise of their corporate powers."

The Committee believes that the function of lighting the public schools, to be efficiently and properly carried out, must necessarily devolve upon the Board of Education, and that its employees should not be subject to the control of those of a city department which is foreign to its work, and which has only limited means of judgment in the matters. The curtailing and restriction of the lighting in the elementary day schools, without the consent of the Board of Education has, during the past year, worked a number of hardships and tends to interfere with both learning and instruction, and even with safety. In these days of rapid and lofty building unexpected additional requirements for light are likely to arise. With increased attendance in the evening schools, additional light from time to time becomes necessary, and the management of the schools in these respects should not be left at the mercy of inspectors of the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity.

The Committee believes that it was not the intention of the law to occasion interference with the work of the schools, and that the evils which have already resulted and are likely to result should be emphatically pointed out at the present time, so that the function and regulation of lighting the schools may be permitted to remain with the Board of Education just as it has the power of erecting, furnishing and repairing school buildings, of renting school premises, of purchasing school supplies, of the cleaning of buildings, the purchasing of fuel, and all other functions.

The Committee believes that the term "public buildings," as used in that portion of the Charter referring to the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity, does not refer to school buildings; otherwise that portion of the Charter, in the chapter on education, which gives the Board of Education entire care and control of the school buildings, would be rendered nugatory and the decision of the Court of Appeals would be in this respect of no account.

The Committee is of opinion that the Board of Education should take action to preserve intact the autonomy in every degree of the functions which have been so long vested in it.

The Committee believes that it would be a step of retrograde nature to assent to a departure from the policy of the past, namely, that education is a State function, and not a mere appendage of City administration, and that it would be contrary to public policy and law.

The control of lighting in the schools includes:

1. The right and power to determine the number and location of lights and to change or alter them at will to suit changing conditions, and to give direction to Janitors, Principals and Teachers in respect thereto.

2. Power, without restriction to determine the volume or extent of use of such lights, and to contract therefor, and to formulate each year and present to the Board of Estimate an estimate of the amount of money needed for such purposes for the ensuing year.

3. Power to settle and adjust claims of the various lighting companies.

As a means of relief it is suggested:

1. That the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity be requested to refrain from further interference in the respects mentioned with the Department of Education, and that the Board of Estimate and Apportionment be requested to transfer to the care and control of the Board of Education all funds applicable to the lighting of the public schools.

2. That, failing relief in the manner hereinbefore indicated, an appeal be made to the State Commissioner of Education, whose decision will be final and conclusive upon all parties concerned.

3. That for the purpose of considering the advisability of taking this or any action in the premises, a Special Committee be appointed by the President, which Committee shall contain among its members the Chairmen of the Committees on Buildings, Care of Buildings, Supplies, Special Schools, Lectures, By-laws and Finance, and such other members of the Board as the President may in his judgment deem proper.

To the Board of Education:

The Committee on Supplies, to which was referred a communication from the Secretary of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, returning, in accordance with action taken by said Board on November 18, 1904, seven reports and resolutions adopted by the Board of Education on October 26, 1904 (see Journal, pages 2720-21 and 2737), relative to fixing the salaries of sundry officers and employees of the Board of Education, respectfully reports, as follows:

Said reports and resolutions were adopted by the Board of Education on October 26, 1904, confirming action taken by the Committee on Supplies on August 25, 1904. The salaries specified therein were all included in the Budget of the Department of Education for 1905, and a sufficient amount was allowed in the account "Salaries of Officers, Clerks and Other Employees" to pay these salaries for 1905; and there is a sufficient amount in the appropriation for the current year to pay said salaries from August 25 to December 31, 1904.

Your Committee therefore recommends that said reports and resolutions be returned at once to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, with an earnest request for prompt action thereon.

The reports and resolutions above mentioned relate to the fixing of the salaries of the positions of Superintendent of School Supplies, Assistant Secretary, Deputy Superintendent of School Buildings, Examiner, Clerk, Orderly and Bookkeeper. The following resolutions are submitted for adoption:

Resolved, That the reports and resolutions adopted by the Board of Education on October 26, 1904 (seven in number), relative to fixing the salaries of sundry positions in the Department of Education, which were sent back to this Department by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment on November 18, 1904, be returned to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment for its action.

Resolved, That the Board of Estimate and Apportionment be and it is hereby earnestly requested to take immediate action in reference to the above-mentioned reports and resolutions.

On motion, all absent members were excused for non-attendance at this meeting.

On motion, the Board adjourned at 7.10 o'clock P. M.

PROPOSALS FOR BIDS AND ESTIMATES FOR THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS.

The person or persons making a bid or estimate for any services, work, materials or supplies for The City of New York, or for any of its departments, bureaus or offices, shall furnish the same in a sealed envelope, indorsed with the title of the supplies, materials, work or services for which the bid or estimate is made, with his or their name or names and the date of presentation to the President or Board or to the head of the Department at his or its office, on or before the date and hour named in the advertisement for the same, at which time and place the estimates received will be publicly opened by the President or Board or head of said Department and read, and the award of the contract made according to law as soon thereafter as practicable.

Each bid or estimate shall contain the name and place of residence of the person making the same, the names of all persons interested with him therein, and, if no other person be so interested, it shall distinctly state that fact; also, that it is made without any connection with any other person making an estimate for the same purpose, and is in all respects fair and without collusion or fraud, and that no member of the Board of Aldermen, head of a department, chief of a bureau, deputy thereof, or clerk therein, or other officer of The City of New York is, shall be or become interested, directly or indirectly, as contracting party, partner, stockholder, surety or otherwise in or in the performance of the contract, or in the supplies, work or business to which it relates, or in any portion of the profits, thereof. The bid or estimate must be verified by the oath, in writing, of the party or parties making the estimate that the several matters stated herein are in all respects true.

Each bid or estimate shall be accompanied by the consent, in writing, of two householders or freeholders in The City of New York, or of a guaranty or surety company duly authorized by law to act as surety, and shall contain the matters set forth in the blank forms mentioned below.

No bid or estimate will be considered unless, as a condition precedent to the reception or consideration of any proposal, it be accompanied by a certified check upon one of the State or National banks of The City of New York, drawn to the order of the Comptroller, or money to the amount of five per centum of the amount of the bond required, as provided in section 430 of the Greater New York Charter.

The certified check or money should not be inclosed in the envelope containing the bid or estimate, but should be either inclosed in a separate envelope addressed to the head of the Department, President or Board, or submitted personally upon the presentation of the bid or estimate.

For particulars as to the quantity and quality of the supplies, or the nature and extent of the work, reference must be made to the specifications, schedules, plans, etc., on file in the said office of the President, Board or Department.

No bid shall be accepted from or contract awarded to any person who is in arrears to The City of New York upon debt or contract, or who is a defaulter, as surety or otherwise, upon any obligation to the City.

The contract must be bid for separately. The right is reserved in each case to reject all bids or estimates if it is deemed to be for the interest of the City so to do.

Bidders will write out the amount of their bids or estimates in addition to inserting the same in figures.

Bidders are requested to make their bids or estimates upon the blank forms prepared and furnished by the City, a copy of which, with the proper envelope in which to inclose the bid, together with a copy of the contract, including the specifications, in the form approved by the Corporation Counsel, can be obtained upon application therefor at the office of the Department for which the work is to be done. Plans and drawings of construction work may also be seen there.
