Law Enforcement and Public Safety Agencies Announce Security Restrictions for the 2015 Papal Visit to New York, N.Y.

(New York, N.Y.) – Today, Law Enforcement and Public Safety Agencies announce the Security Restrictions for the 2015 Papal Visit to New York, N.Y.

The U.S. Department of Homeland Security has designated the 2015 Papal Visit to New York, N.Y. as a National Special Security Event (NSSE). When an event is designated as an NSSE, the U.S. Secret Service assumes its role as the lead federal agency for the design and implementation of the operational security plan. The New York City Police Department, New York City Emergency Management, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Federal Emergency Management Agency, the U.S. Coast Guard, as well as a number of other local, state and federal agencies, will play a critical operational role in securing these events.

This plan provides the general outlines for security screenings, airspace restrictions, maritime restrictions, and prohibited items at Papal events. Additional information is available online for residents of New York through the social media accounts listed at the end of this release. Additions - 2 - may be made prior to the start of events and will be updated on these accounts and associated websites. The New York City Police Department will issue specific traffic information for Papal events and the U.N. General Assembly.

Security Screenings: All attendees, including general public and ticketed guests, will be subject to a thorough security screening before entering the Papal motorcade route or designated Papal events. Please allow for additional time for these security screenings, as it is expected that lines may be long.

General Prohibited Items: As a security precaution, the following items will be prohibited from entry into Papal events in New York City:

Aerosols

Ammunition

Animals other than service/guide dogs

Backpacks exceeding size restrictions

Signs exceeding size restrictions

Signs cannot be made of anything except cardboard, poster board or cloth

Air Security: An interagency airspace security plan will be implemented to provide secure airspace over the New York City metropolitan area. A Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) advisory listing enhanced restrictions was released on September 4th, 2015. The enhanced airspace restrictions can be accessed online at the Federal Aviation Administration web page at www.faa.gov. Pilot inquiries should be directed to 202-267-8276.

The Notice to Airmen (NOTAM) discussed in the September advisory may change with little or no notice. Pilots are advised to check NOTAMs frequently for possible changes prior to operations in the New York City area. Pilots are strongly advised to contact a Flight Service Station at 1-800-992-7433 prior to flight to check for all current NOTAMs.
