

STATEN ISLAND BOROUGH PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

DIVERSITY AND EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY PLAN

FISCAL YEAR 2022

I. Introductory, Commitment and Accountability Statement by the Agency Head

As Borough President of Staten Island, I believe that my staff is among Borough Hall's greatest assets. Therefore, as a non-mayoral agency, we are committed to the recruitment, development, and retention of a diverse and inclusive workforce. In an effort to build a strong team and drive optimal performance on behalf of our constituents on Staten Island, we value diversity of perspective, experience, and background. I expect all managers and supervisors to promote a work environment that is fair and safe for all Borough Hall employees—and one that regards equity, inclusion, and respect for all.

I hold the EEO Officers, human resources professionals, legal professionals, managers and supervisors at Borough Hall accountable for ensuring that the Agency does not discriminate against employees, or applicants for employment—and for supporting diversity and inclusion consistent with EEO rules and regulations. All Agency staff members are accountable for the effective implementation of the City's EEO Policy and the FY 2022 Diversity and EEO Plan.

I will issue a Commitment Statement annually to affirm the principles of diversity, inclusion, and equal employment opportunity. This will serve as regular guidance to managers and supervisors across all levels, as well as communicate the focus and commitment of our agency to all employees. I will drive accountability by directing that the EEO Officer be integrated in critical human resources decisions regarding workforce changes that might negatively impact any protected EEO group, including recruitment strategies, vacancy projections, succession planning, selections for training/career development opportunities, and strategic planning.

My leadership team will implement the objectives and actions of this plan, and work to promote diversity and inclusion at Borough Hall based upon guidance provided by the DCAS Office of Citywide Equity and Inclusion—and review our performance throughout the year.

The Agency will report, upon request by DCAS, on the steps undertaken to comply with Executive Order No. 16 of 2016 and the provisions of the various Executive Orders and laws (e.g. Local Law 92, Section 201g of the New York State Labor Law, Local Law 101 and Local Law 93) prohibiting employment discrimination in New York City. The Agency will also continue to disseminate and post policies and required posters.

Because the fiscal year overlaps with the end of my term, the goals, commitments, and timelines set forth in this plan may not extend to the incoming administration. While we will cooperate fully to ensure a seamless transition, the current outgoing administration is not responsible for any future changes or adherence to this plan after December 31, 2021.

That being said, I remain committed to maintaining a workplace free from all forms of harassment and discrimination as prohibited by the City's EEO Policy. The Agency EEO Officers, Anthony T. Esposito and Marie Carmody-LaFrancesca, will serve as a resource for Agency managers and supervisors by providing guidance in addressing any identified EEO issues. The Agency EEO Officer's contact information will be prominently available to all employees in order to address any questions, inquiries, concerns or complaints Agency staff may have regarding EEO rights and the New York City's efforts to protect them and any allegation of violation of the EEO Policy.

This statement is the same as last year.

*Only change to statement concerns the end of term transition, highlighted in yellow.

II. Recognition and Accomplishments

- The agency conducts regular reviews of the CEEDS workforce reports and the summary dashboard sent to the EEO Officer by DCAS’ Office of Citywide Equity and Inclusion (OCEI) to provide demographic data and trends. The review includes an analysis of workforce composition by job title, job group, race/ethnicity and gender for all employees; new hires, promotions and separation data; and utilization analysis.

D. 55-a Program

Section 55-a of the New York State Civil Service Law allows a qualified person with a certified mental or physical disability to be hired into a competitive civil service position without having to take a civil service examination. The City encourages agencies to use the 55-a program as a tool to build a diverse workforce and create greater access to City employment for qualified candidates with disabilities.

1. Please discuss plans to utilize the 55-a Program to hire and retain qualified individuals with disabilities.

Agency uses mostly non-competitive titles which are not eligible for the 55-a Program.

Agency does not use the 55-a Program and has no participating employees.

2. Indicate the goals of your 55-a Program Coordinator for FY 2022. Also include your agency plans to do the following: participate in career and job fairs; use internship, work-study, co-op, and other programs to attract a pool of diverse 55-a program applicants; and promote and encourage 55-a program participants to take civil service examinations.

The agency uses the 55-a Program to hire and retain qualified individuals with disabilities and plans to utilize the 55-a Program to hire and retain qualified individuals with disabilities in FY 2022.

Currently, there are ____ [number] 55-a participants.

There are ____ [number] participants who have been in the program less than 2 years.

Last year, a total of ____ [number] new applications for the program were received and ____ participants left the program due to [state reasons] _____.

If there have been no new participants in the program for less than two years, please indicate initiatives taken to hire new 55-a employees.

The agency will actively educate hiring managers about the 55-a program and the benefits of hiring individuals with disabilities.

- Based on the June 7, 2016, 55-a memorandum, issued by DCAS, the agency will carefully evaluate each request by longtime provisional employees for designation under §55-a to serve non-competitively in a competitive title position to ensure that the request is not made solely to avoid the consequences of Civil Service Law §65(3). In addition, the agency will reiterate to provisional staff that 55-a certification should not be used as a substitute for passing a civil service exam. The agency will encourage 55-a participants to take civil service examinations.

- The agency plans to participate in career and job fairs and use internship, work-study, co-op, and other programs to attract a pool of diverse 55-a program applicants.

Additional Goals, Initiatives, and Comments:

During this time, however, the Agency Personnel Director has made, and continues to make, herself available to fulfill requests from Agency staff surrounding various matters including, but not limited to, career opportunities. Moreover, in the past, the Agency's Career Counselor has explained the civil service process to staff and has assisted with the process. As a continued effort, the Career Counselor will continue to be a key reference for individuals seeking a new job or information on the civil service process in FY 2022.

- Monitor the results of action plans for any changes in the agency workforce including increases or decreases in applications of qualified applicants and selection rates.

Additional Comments:

C. Selection Process

Identify the steps that are taken to ensure that selection process is objective and job related.

During FY 2022, the agency will do the following:

- Ensure that hiring managers are trained in structured interviewing techniques to avoid unintentional biases in the hiring process.
- Assess the manner in which candidates are selected for employment, to determine whether there is any adverse impact upon any particular racial, ethnic, disability, or gender group.
- If adverse impact is discovered, determine whether the criteria being utilized are job-related. If the criteria are not job-related, the agency will discontinue using that method.
- Engage in a collaborative effort between EEO, HR and managers where necessary, develop action plans to eliminate identified barriers.
- In conducting job interviews, ensure nondiscriminatory treatment by conducting a structured interview, where the same questions are asked of all applicants for a particular job or category of job and inquiring about matters directly related to the position in question.
- Use a diverse panel of interviewers to conduct the interview.
- EEO Officer is asked to review the interview questions.

Additional Comments:

D. Review of Hiring, Promotion and selection Practices

For FY 2022, what steps will your agency take to review the positions filled during the year?

- A. Discuss your current practice in utilizing the NYCAPS Applicant Interview Log reports to identify applicants by gender and race/ethnicity.

 - Identify at least two or three people from diverse gender and racial\ethnic backgrounds to review received applications.
 - Ensure hiring panels are composed of staff from diverse backgrounds (e.g., diversity based on experience, gender, age, race and ethnicity).

- C. When identifying groups of subject matter experts to assist the DCAS test development team in creating civil service exams, please describe efforts that will be taken to select a diverse and inclusive group of individuals in the test development process:
 - The agency will identify a diverse group of subject matter experts (e.g. race, gender, age, assignments location, etc.) when requested by DCAS.
 - The agency will use objective job-related criteria to identify the subject matter experts who will participate in test development.
 - The agency will make an effort to ensure different staff members are given the opportunity to participate in test development.

Additional Comments:

Although the Agency does not use the NYCAPS Applicant Interview Log Report, DCAS should note that the Agency is working to develop a tracking system for future use.

E. EEO Role in Hiring and Selection Process

Briefly detail which stages of selection involve your EEO Officer (pre- and post-selection).

In FY 2022, the agency EEO Officer will do the following:

PRE-SELECTION:

- Collaborate with the Director of Human Resources to ensure that an updated listing of sources for diverse applicants, including schools and professional organizations, is maintained.

- Perform advisory role to Human Resources in the selection process and conduct post-audit review.
- Review hiring package to evaluate that the selection process was conducted in accordance with EEO best practices.
- Other: _____

Additional Comments:

EEO Officers will be provided with hiring package for post-selection review when necessary

F. Layoffs

During periods of layoffs, terminations, and demotions due to legitimate business/operational reasons, what is your protocol for analyzing the impact of such actions based upon gender, race and age? It is most useful to conduct this analysis prior to finalizing the list of titles that will be impacted. Ensure that the Agency General Counsel and the Law Department are involved in the review.

- The agency will use the DCAS Layoff Procedure as guidance, should there be any layoffs, terminations and demotions due to legitimate business/operational reasons in FY 2021.
- The agency will analyze the impact of layoffs or terminations on racial, gender, age groups, and people with disabilities.
- Where layoffs or terminations would have a disproportionate impact on any of these groups, the agency will document that the targeted titles or programs were selected based on objective criteria and justified by business necessity.
- The Agency Personnel Officer, EEO Officer and General Counsel will be involved in making layoff or termination decisions. It should be noted that layoffs must be conducted by seniority in compliance with civil service law (for competitive titles) and union contract (for non-competitive and labor class titles).

VII. Training

Please refer to Section IX to ensure the agency complies with training requirements under local laws and Executive Orders.

Training Topic	Type of Audience (e.g. All Staff, Front-line Employees, Managers, Supervisors, etc.)	Target Number of Participants	Targeted Dates

*Training timelines are predicated on the release of DCAS online trainings and modules.

VIII. Reasonable Accommodation

Please indicate the actions your agency will take to ensure that the process of reviewing reasonable accommodation requests is compliant with the EEO Policy as well as the applicable federal, state, and local laws. Additionally, please detail any best practices currently implemented in this area. Lastly, please describe your current appeal protocol.

- Managers, supervisors, human resources personnel and discipline personnel are required to report to the EEO Office any reasonable accommodation requests and needs that are received, observed, learned about or suspected, so that the EEO Office may facilitate discussions, research appropriate accommodations, and assist with the resolution of the matter.
- The agency provides reasonable accommodation for disability, religion, victims of domestic violence, sex offense and stalking, pregnancy, childbirth or a related medical condition.
- The agency follows the City's Reasonable Accommodation Procedure.
- The agency grants or denies request 30 days after submission or as soon as possible.
- The Agency Head or designee must review and grant or deny the appeal fifteen (15) days after submission of appeal.
- If the review and decision on appeal is not done by the Agency Head.
Provide the name and title of the designee¹ : Jason Razefsky, Chief of Staff
 - The designee reports directly to the Agency Head.
- The agency will input the Reasonable Accommodation activity on the DCAS Citywide Complaint and Reasonable Accommodation (CAD) Database and update the information as needed.
- The agency analyzes the reasonable accommodation data and trends.
- The agency has posted/will circulate the Reasonable Accommodations at a Glance sheet for the workforce.

<http://extranet.dcas.nycnet/eo/diversityeoo/media/19647/reasonable-accommodation-procedural-guidelines-lc-12116.pdf> (p17).

Briefly describe procedures and speed of resolution, including the protocol for deciding appeals of Reasonable Accommodation decisions. Does the agency analyze statistics with regard to volume, trends, and speed of disposition of EEO complaints and reasonable accommodation requests and appeals?

The Agency adopted and implemented New York City's Reasonable Accommodation Procedural Guidelines as well as the City of New York's Equal Employment Opportunity Policy. The agency believes all reasonable accommodation request should be granted or denied within 30 days – if not sooner. In the event there is an appeal, we have adopted the City of New York's appeal process; thus, all appeals' decisions will be made within 15 days. If, however, a decision cannot be made within the 30 days, the Agency will notify the requestor as to why the delay is taking place and provided an estimate as to when a decision will be rendered.

IX. Compliance and Implementation of Requirements Under Executive Orders and Local Laws
