Know all men by these presents, that,

Whereas, John B. McDonald, the contractor, has by assignment, dated October 10, 1900, assigned to The City of New York the bond of John Shields, one of the subcontractors for the construction of the Manhattan-Bronx Rapid Transit Railroad, as principal, and the Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland as surety, in the sum of one hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars ($175,000), for certain work on the said Rapid Transit Railroad, which bond bears date May 21, 1900, together with all moneys due or which should thereafter become due thereon, for the purpose that the said City should hold and apply the moneys, claims, interests and property thereby assigned as additional security, as provided in the contract of February 21, 1900, between the said City and the said contractor modifying the contract for construction and operation of even date therewith; and

Whereas, The contractor, the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, and the sureties upon the bonds of the contractor given in accordance with the said contract for construction and operation have requested that the said bond be reassigned to the contractor, which request has been approved by the Chief Engineer;

Now, therefore, in consideration of the premises, The City of New York, acting by its Board of Rapid Transit Railroad Commissioners, has bargained, sold, assigned, transferred and set over, and by these presents does bargain, sell, assign, transfer and set over unto the said John B. McDonald, contractor, his executors, administrators or assigns, the said bond of the said John Shields, as principal, and the Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland, as surety, in the sum of one hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars ($175,000), bearing date the 21st day of May, 1900, together with the moneys due and to grow due thereon.

Counsel presented a continuing bond for $1,000,000, as follows:

John B. McDonald and Interborough Rapid Transit Company, principals, and Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland and United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, sureties, to The City of New York—Continuing bond $1,000,000, January, 1904.

FORM OF BOND.

Know all men by these presents, that John B. McDonald and Interborough Rapid Transit Company (hereinafter called Interborough Company) (the said John B. McDonald and Interborough Company being hereafter called the principals) and the Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland and United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, both corporations of the State of Maryland, carrying on business in the State of New York, and having their respective offices and usual places of business at No. 35 Wall street and No. 66 Liberty street, in The City of New York (hereinafter called the sureties), are held and firmly bound unto The City of New York (hereinafter called the City) in the penal sum of one million dollars ($1,000,000), lawful money of the United States of America, to be paid to the City, for which payment well and truly to be made the said John B. McDonald binds himself, his executors, administrators and assigns and Interborough Company binds itself and its successors, and the said sureties bind themselves, their successors and assigns, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, as follows:

The said principals to be so held and bound in the full amount of the said one million dollars ($1,000,000) and each of the said sureties to be so held and bound, and bound only in the sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).

In witness whereof, John B. McDonald has hereto set his hand and seal and Interborough Company and the sureties have caused these presents to be duly executed by their respective officers thereunto duly authorized and their respective corporate seals to be hereunto affixed this 7th day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and four (1904).

Whereas, The City, by its Board of Rapid Transit Railroad Commissioners (hereinafter called the Board) heretofore entered into a contract with John B. McDonald, bearing date the 21st day of February, 1900, for the construction and equipment, and after such construction and equipment shall be complete, then for the lease and operation of the Rapid Transit Railroad in The City of New York, particularly described in said contract, which contract was thereafter modified by certain amendatory and supplemental agreements; and

Whereas, Upon entering into such contract the said John B. McDonald gave a bond to the City, with Perry Belmont as surety thereon, known as the Continuing Bond, and deposited with the City as collateral security therefor certain securities of the value of more than one million dollars ($1,000,000); and

Whereas, On the 10th day of July, 1902, the said John B. McDonald duly assigned to Interborough Company so much of said contract as provided for the maintenance and operation of the said Rapid Transit Railroad (including the equipment thereof) together with the right or obligation to maintain and operate the said road or roads in the Rapid Transit Contract described for and during the remainder of the term of years specified in such contract, and all rights with respect to such maintenance and operation or included in the leasing provisions of such contract, subject to all the terms and conditions therein stated, together with all obligations assumed by said McDonald in and by the said Rapid Transit Contract with respect to the equipment of said railroad; and

Whereas, By such assignment, Interborough Company assumed all the obligations whatsoever of the said McDonald in respect of the portions of the contract affected by said assignment and agreed to carry out and perform the same and also covenanted with the said City that the said McDonald should fully perform all the obligations and comply with all the provisions and terms of the said contract which were not assigned to and assumed by Interborough Company, as above set forth; and

Whereas, The said contract has been modified in writing from time to time in other respects with the consent of both of the parties thereto and of the surety upon said Continuing Bond by the amendatory and supplemental agreements above referred to; and

Whereas, The said contract has been especially and by agreement between the City, acting by the Board and the said John B. McDonald and Interborough Rapid Transit Company with the consent of Perry Belmont, dated the 24th day of November, 1903, modified so as to provide that the City by the Board may consent to the surrender and cancellation of the said bond originally given as aforesaid with Perry Belmont as surety thereon, and may also surrender to the contractor and the Interborough Company the securities, amounting in value to at least one million dollars ($1,000,000), deposited as aforesaid (but such surrender to be made with the written consent of the Rapid Transit Subway Construction Company, which originally made the deposit as aforesaid) and to accept this bond in lieu of such original bond and of such securities; and

Whereas, The sureties on such continuing bond have requested the City by this Board to surrender such original bond and securities; and

Whereas, The City, by the Board, has accordingly consented to so surrender the said bond and securities amounting in value to at least one million dollars ($1,000,000) deposited as aforesaid, and to accept this bond, in lieu of said bond and securities; and

Whereas, Such consent has been given, and such surrender of securities will be made upon and only upon the faith and security of this bond;

Now, therefore, the condition of this obligation is such that if John B. McDonald and Interborough Company shall promptly pay the amount of the annual rental specified in said contract and shall also faithfully perform all the conditions, covenants and requirements therein and in any modifications thereof, specified and provided, and in case of default on the part of Interborough Company or on the part of the said John B. McDonald, as provided in section 34 of the Rapid Transit Act, Interborough Company or said McDonald shall pay the amount of the deficiency therein mentioned, then this obligation shall be null and void, but else it shall remain in full force and virtue.

It is expressly agreed between the City and the sureties and it is upon such agreement that the City accepts this bond, that the sureties will and do waive any and every notice of default on the part of Interborough Company or of said McDonald; that they will and do permit the City to extend the time of Interborough Company or of said McDonald to make any payment or do any act; that no omission on the part of the City to give any notice or extension of time granted by or on behalf of the City shall be availed of by the sureties as a defense upon this bond; that the sureties shall not set up or have any defense upon this bond by reason of any alteration of the said contract, unless such alteration shall be represented by formal written instrument, duly executed, between the City and Interborough Company or said McDonald, as the case may be, which shall have been duly authorized by a vote of the Board, and that in case of such alteration, however made, the same shall be a defense to the sureties only to the extent of the actual injury or damage caused to the sureties by said alteration.

It is expressly agreed between the City and the sureties that the sureties hereby assume all the obligations prescribed for sureties upon bonds like this by chapter 4 of the Laws of 1891 and the various acts amendatory thereof (all such acts together being known as the "Rapid Transit Act").

This bond shall be a continuing security to The City of New York for the entire term of fifty (50) years after the complete construction and equipment of the Rapid Transit Railroad, as prescribed in the said contract and the several modifications thereof, and the declaration of the Board that the said railroad and its equipment are so complete.

And whereas, the said John B. McDonald deposited with the City the sum of one million dollars ($1,000,000) in cash or securities approved by the Board as security for the performance by the said McDonald of some of the acts and things, the performance of which is secured hereby; and

Whereas, Contemporaneously with the delivery and execution of the Rapid Transit Contract above referred to, the said John B. McDonald also delivered to The City a bond in the sum of five million dollars ($5,000,000) as further security for the performance by him of some of the acts and things, the performance of which is secured hereby;

Now, therefore, it is further expressly agreed between the City and the Sureties that the City shall be at liberty, in case of any default by the said John B. McDonald, or by the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, against whom this bond is given as security, to collect the loss or damage to the City caused thereby either from the sureties on this bond or the sureties on such other bond or bonds, or out of the said deposit, or out of all such securities as the City may elect.
