

COIB February Public Service Puzzler

It's Pun Time! get it?

For this month's puzzler contest you do all the work. We'll give you two conflicts of interest related words and you'll have to provide as many clever puns as you can for each.

Words to pun with:

"Moonlighting" and "Appearance"

For example:

(No memes necessary.)

Enter to win by emailing your puns to contest@coib.nyc.gov by February 17th. The winner will be chosen by our esteemed panel of expert judges.

What is your City/office title?

Program Analyst for the B2H Medicaid Waiver Program at the Administration for Children's Services.

What do you do in your job?

We work with developmentally challenged foster children to help cover the costs of medical expenses that Medicaid would not cover. I ensure that our HCAs are able to bill accordingly for all services rendered to children in care, run and design queries and reports, assign caseworker; investigate case records, and supervise eligibility coordinators and clerical associates.

How long have you been working for the City?

I've been working for the City for just over 2 years now.

Name a special interest or hobby.

I love to travel. I've been to 32 countries over 5 continents, and I hope by the end of this year, the number will have gone up to 34 countries over 6 continents.

What's your favorite thing about City service?

My favorite thing about City service is that I truly feel like I am helping the vulnerable in our great City. It's a great feeling, knowing that my job helps out children who are unable to seek out services for themselves.
