COMMISSION DIRECTIVE

Dear Licensees and Registrants:

On Sunday, April 30, 2017, the March of Dimes will be holding their annual event “March for Babies.” In anticipation of this event, the New York City Police Department will temporarily close 65th Street between Lexington Avenue and Amsterdam Avenue, as well as, Lexington Avenue between 65th Street to 24th Street to all motor vehicles, including trade waste collection vehicles.

Accordingly, all licensees and registrants are hereby directed to complete waste collection and remove their respective containers along the event route before 6:00 a.m. on April 30, 2017. Collection may resume at 3:00 p.m. on April 30, 2017. Moreover, all licensees and registrants must notify all customers along the event route that no waste or containers may be placed on the curbside between 12:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. on Sunday, April 30, 2017.

Business Integrity Commission enforcement agents will be on the event route to ensure compliance with this directive. Failure to comply with this directive may result in administrative penalties and/or fines up to $10,000. See 17 RCNY 1-09. Failure to comply with this directive may also affect your company’s licensing or registration status before the Commission.

Sincerely,
