court or area drain trap which need not be vented. 58—Subsoil drains should discharge into a sump or receiving tank, the contents of which if discharged by gravity may be discharged into a rain leader, yard, court or area drain behind the trap controlling same or may be discharged through a properly trapped and vented, water supplied receptacle. Where mechanical force is required to discharge the contents into the plumbing and drainage system a proper automatic cut off or check valve must be provided on the connection between house-

drain and apparatus used for raising the contents of sump-pit. 59-The contents of settling chamber or dust receptacles for vacuum cleaners may be discharged into a Plumbing and Drainage system, the same as sub-soil drain

60—Every building shall be kept provided with proper metallic gutters and rain leaders for conducting water from all roofs in such manner as shall protect the walls and foundations from injury. In no case shall the water from any rain leader be allowed to flow upon the sidewalk or adjoining property, but the same shall be conducted by proper pipes to the sewer. If there be no sewer in the street upon which the building fronts, then the water from said leaders may be conducted by proper pipes laid below the surface of sidewalk to the street gutter, or may be con- Branch waste for other fixtures...... 1½ inches.

136-Each water-closet and urinal must be flushed from a separate cistern, the water from which is used for no other purpose, or may be flushed through flushometer valves.

137-Where "Flushometers" are used, they must be supplied from tank pressure, unless otherwise permitted by the Superintendent of Buildings; the rising lines shall be at least one and one-half inches in diameter, and the branches shall be at least one and one-quarter inches in diameter for water-closets and three-quarter inch in diameter for urinals.

WATER SUPPLY FOR FIXTURES.

149-All water-closets and other plumbing fixtures must be provided with a sufficient supply of water for flushing to keep them in a proper and cleanly condition. Flush tanks must have a capacity of eight gallons for water-closets and five gal-

150-House service pipes must be connected to the street mains by means of taps, and a stop cock or valve placed under the sidewalk at the curb, in compliance with the rules and under the supervision of the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity. 151-A separate stop or valve must be placed upon the service pipe inside the front wall.

152-The diameters of street service pipes must not be less than three-quarter inch for dwellings and tenements occupied by six families or less; one inch for tenements or apartment houses occupied by more than six families and one and one-half inch for hotels, factories and other miscellaneous buildings, provided that in no case can the diameter of the service pipes be less than the diameter of the tap installed under

The diameters of all rising lines must not be less than 34 inch, but where lead or brass pipe is used the minimum diameter may be 1/2 inch. 154—Diameters of branches to any fixtures must not be less than 1/2 inch, except when used to supply water-closet, cisterns or lavatories. When the material used is lead or brass pipe, the minimum diameter may be 3/8 inch. Branches for flush valves for water closets must not be less than 11/4 inch in diameter and for urinals not less than 34 inch in diameter.

155—Where a hot water supply system is installed, the distance between the hot and cold water risers should not be less than 6 inches. Where it is impossible to place them 6 inches or more apart, the hot water riser must be covered with an approved insulating material and a method of circulation provided that will insure a prompt delivery of hot water at the faucet when required.

156-All risers and branches must be properly fastened.

157-When the water pressure is not sufficient to supply freely and continuously all fixtures, a house supply tank must be provided of sufficient size to afford an ample supply of water to all fixtures at all times. Such tanks must be supplied from the pressure or by power pumps, as may be necessary; when from the pressure, ball cocks must be provided.

158-House supply tanks must be metal covered so as to exclude dust and so located as to prevent water contamination by gas and odors from plumbing fixtures. 159-House supply-tanks must be of wood or iron or of wood lined with tinned and planished copper. 160-House tanks must be supported on iron beams.

161-The overflow pipe should discharge upon the roof, where possible, and in such cases should be brought down to within six (6) inches of the roof, or it must be trapped and discharged over an open and water-supplied sink not in the same room, not over 31/2 feet above the floor. If the lime box and diluting sink is not used the acid waste must be extended to an earthen house sewer or separately and independently connected to a public or private sewer in street and provided with an accessible running trap located just inside of front wall of building. All branches and joints on lead acid wastes must be made by means of burnt lead joints. If earthenware pipe is used, vertical joints must be made with a mixture of asphaltum and cement. Each length of pipe on vertical runs and on horizontal runs when above the cellar floor must be supported at each hub by proper supports. All floor drains and fixture connections must be trapped and run as direct as possible.

SEWAGE LIFTS.

164-When it is necessary to use a sump system and sewage lift to receive the discharge from the waste or soil connection of fixtures, same shall be arranged to be accessible. If discharged with compressed air it shall be connected to the house drain on the sewer side of all leader or area drain traps and fixture connections or may be connected to house drain on the sewer side of house trap. When mechanical force is used to discharge the contents, the connection must be made by a Y branch | be classed as fixtures. htting on the sewer side of house trap.

167-No separate running trap need be provided on the drain entering oil separators, but a separate fresh air inlet and vent line must be provided to keep the system of drainage controlled by the oil separator entirely separate from the rest of plumbing and drainage system.

168-The size of fresh air inlet shall be determined by the size of inlet connection to oil separator, which shall be considered the same as the term house drain for determining the size of all fresh air inlets, which shall conform to the same requirements as regards size and arrangement of terminals for fresh air inlets as called for
