BOARD OF CITY RECORD.

BOARD OF CITY RECORD, CITY HALL, NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, 3 P.M., January 8, 1902.

The Hons. Seth Low, Mayor; George L. Rives, Corporation Counsel, and Edward M. Grout, Comptroller, the officers designated by section 1526, chapter 466, Laws of 1901, met this day.

The minutes of the meetings of December 31, 1901, and January 1, 1902, were approved

By concurrent action of all the members of the Board, the Supervisor was authorized to send out a circular letter to the Departments, etc., of Greater New York, requesting said Departments, etc., to furnish the Supervisor of the City Record with a list of all the officials and employees employed in any of the departments, bureaus or offices of the City Government and of the counties contained therein for publication in the CITY RECORD under the provisions of an extentional titled to the counties contained therein for publication in the CITY RECORD under the provisions of an extentional titled to the counties contained therein for publication in the CITY RECORD under the provisions of an extentional titled to the counties contained therein for publication in the CITY RECORD under the provisions of an extentional titled to the counties contained therein for publication in the CITY RECORD under the provisions of an extention of the counties contained therein for publication in the CITY RECORD under the provisions of an extention of the city counties contained therein for publication in the CITY RECORD under the provisions of an extention of the city counties contained therein for publication in the CITY RECORD under the provisions of an extention of the city counties contained therein for publication in the CITY RECORD under the provisions of an extention of the city counties contained the the city coun act entitled "An Act to amend section 1528 of the Greater New York Charter in relation to the printing of lists of officials in the CITY RECORD.

By concurrent action of all the members of the Board, the following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That the Department of Education be and hereby is authorized to publish in "School," on January 9th and 16th insts., a notice of the following proposals for bids or estimates, viz.: "For furniture at new Public School 184, Borough of Manhattan," "For improving the sanitary condition of Public School 20, Borough of Richmond."

The following was presented: OFFICE OF THE CITY RECORD, No. 2 CITY HALL, NEW YORK, January 6, 1902. To the Honorable the Board of City Record: GENTLEMEN-I beg to hand you herewith my resignation as Deputy Supervisor of the City

Record, and am Yours very truly, SOLON BERRICK. The resignation of Mr. Berrick was unanimously accepted.

Proposed forms of contracts for the year 1902, between the Board of City Record and the "corporation newspapers," were presented.

By concurrent action of all the members of the Board, the matter was referred to the Corporation Counsel.

On motion of the Comptroller, and by the concurrent action of all the members of the Board, a hearing was granted to parties interested in the matter of awarding the contracts for the publication of the CITY RECORD and for printing and stationery for the year 1902. Elek Ludvigh, representing the Martin B. Brown Company, said his firm submitted bids in the belief that the composition was to be done by hand labor. He asked for the privilege of submitting a new bid on the basis of machine work. William Irwin, representing the Mail and Express Company, submitted a brief, which related that the bids were not legally rejected, and that the Board of City Record had the power to grant the contract to the lowest bidder without readvertising.

Mr. Campbell, representing Typographical Union No. 6, appealed to the Board for hand labor instead of machine labor. He said if machine labor were used there would be hundreds of men thrown out of employment and left destitute. The Comptroller said he did not think the City authorities could advertise solely for hand work unless they got legislation from Albany.

William Irwin, representing the "Mail and Express," replied that if any of the printers of the Martin B. Brown Company should be thrown out of employment the corporation he represented would give them the preference and would employ them so far as possible.

The Comptroller stated that in his judgment it was not in the power of the Board to limit competition by saying how the work of publishing the CITY RECORD should be done, other than to say it must be done in a satisfactory manner.

On motion of the Mayor, the Board was adjourned to meet on Thursday, January 9, at 11 A. M.

BOARD OF CITY RECORD.

Minutes of proceedings of the Board of City Record at its meeting, January 9, 1902. The Chairman called the meeting to order at II A. M.

Present-The Mayor, the Comptroller, the Corporation Counsel.

The Chairman announced a public hearing on the subject of designating newspapers for publishing the city advertising and invited discussion and presentation of views.

Representatives from the "New York Press," "Jewish Daily News," "Jewish Daily Gazette,"
"New York Tribune," "New York Times," "New York Journal," "New York Daily News,"
"Evening Post," "Freeman's Journal," "Mail and Express," "Flushing Evening Journal,"
"Jewish Messenger" and the "American Herald" presented statements, showing the circulation and price per line for the city advertising.

After considering the propositions offered, the Board, on motion, duly seconded, passed the following resolution :

Resolved, That the resolution adopted on December 26, 1901, designating certain newspapers ter publication of the opening of books of Annual Record of Assessed Valuations of Real and Personal Estate for the year 1902 be rescinded.

Immediately after voting on the above resolution, the Corporation Counsel offered the following resolution, which was duly seconded by Mr. Grout and unanimously carried :

Resolved, That, in compliance with the provisions of sections 892 and 898 of the Charter of the Greater New York, the Commissioners of Taxes and Assessments be and hereby are authorized to advertise the opening of the books of Annual Record of Assessed Valuation of Real and Personal Estate for the year 1902, previous to and during the time said books are open for inspection, viz., from the second Monday in January (January 13, 1902) to March 31, inclusive, in the following Borough of Manhattan—"Commercial Advertiser," "Daily News," "Irish American,"

"Freeman's Journal," "New York Times," "Harlem Local Reporter," "New York Journal,"
"New Yorker Herold," "Jewish Daily News," "New York Press," "Journal of Commerce," " Jewish Messenger,"

Borough of The Bronx-"Bronx Borough Record," "Westchester Globe."

Borough of Richmond-"Staten Island Gazette."

Borough of Queens-"Flushing Evening Journal," "Jamaica Standard" and "Long Island Daily Star.'

Borough of Brooklyn-" The Eagle," "The Citizen," "The Standard Union," "Times" and " Freie Presse."

-such advertisements to be inserted daily in the CITY RECORD and in the corporation newspapers of the Borough of Brooklyn, and once a week in all other newspapers above designated. The motion was seconded by the Comptroller, duly stated by the Chairman and unanimously

A communication was received from Albert Frank & Co. offering to take charge of the City's advertising.

The Supervisor was empowered to place the advertising for opening the tax-books through the advertising agency of Albert Frank & Co. Mr. Rives—I move that pursuant to section 1526 of the Charter, the following newspapers be designated, until further order of the Board of City Record, for the publication of brief advertisements, calling attention to contracts to be awarded or bonds to be sold, namely :

Morning papers—"New York Tribune," "New York World."
Evening papers—"Mail and Express," "Evening Post."
Weekly papers—"Real Estate Record and Guide," "Harper's Weekly."

German paper-" Staats-Zeitung." The motion was duly seconded, stated and unanimously carried.

The Board at this point took up the continuation of the subject of printing of the CITY RECORD, left unhnished from the preceding hearing. In this connection affidavits were submitted by Messrs. Butler and Irwin on behalf of the "Mail and Express."

Mr. Irwin urged on behalf of the "Mail and Express," that, as a prerequisite to rejecting all bids, it must be deemed "for the best interests of the city" to reject them, and that there was nothing of record showing that it was deemed for the best interests of the city so to do.

Discussion on this subject continued until the Board set Monday next, at 2 P. M., as the date when they hope to announce their decision.

It was moved by Mr. Rives, seconded by Mr. Grout, and unanimously carried-

That the present provisional arrangement for the publication of the CITY RECORD, heretofore entered into, and expiring on Saturday, January 11, with Martin B. Brown Company, be extended for one week on the same terms and conditions.

The Comptroller submitted the following report from the Expert Accountant concerning the affairs of the City Record office, which was ordered to be printed.

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE, NEW YORK, January 8, 1902.

Hon. EDWARD M. GROUT, Comptroller:

SIR-As the result of an examination into the management of the office of the Board of City Record for several months previous to January 1, 1902, and of the procedure followed therein in the preparation of contract specifications, and the method adopted by the Supervisor in the purchase of large quantities of goods and supplies on so-called "open" orders, I respectfully beg to submit the following statement of facts, together with certain recommendations suggested by the

The scope of this investigation has been limited within narrow lines owing to the short time granted for the examination, and has included-

First—An examination of the disbursements on account of the appropriations made available for the use of the Board of City Record for printing and lithographing (except the appropriation for printing the CITY RECORD) for blank books and for stationery during 1901, and payments of arrearages out of said appropriations for these three classes of purchases.

Second-An analysis showing the number of items originally included by the various Departments and Bureaus in their annual requisitions for 1902 for both lithographing and printing which were not included by the Supervisor in the contract specifications for the annual lithographing and printing contract for said year, but let under "special" or "open" orders, to be paid for out of the various appropriations for 1902.

were opened December 16, 1901. Fourth-A general investigation as to the method of conducting the business of the office of the Board of City Record, as to the receipt of goods and the preparation for audit of bills for the DISBURSEMENTS DURING THE YEAR 1901 FOR PRINTING, LITHOGRAPHING, BLANK BOOKS, STATIONERY AND ARREARAGES. With the exception of one or two small payments during the latter part of December, 1901, the aggregate disbursements, on account of contracts made, and of purchases on open orders, through the Board of City Record, for printing and lithographing (except for printing the CITY RECORD), for blank books, for stationery, and for the arrearages on account of these three classes of purchases, as shown by the records of the Department of Finance, were $447,103.89. Of this amount, payments made on account of contracts let after advertising and public bidding were as follows:

Third-An analysis of the contract specifications for the stationery contract, bids for which

Blank books. Stationery	58,700 40
Miscellaneous	1,000 05
	THE REAL PROPERTY.

Total...... $215,821 05

Disbursements on account of "special" or "open" orders, and not on contract let after advertisement, were as follows :

Blank books..... 28,376 09 during 1900, for the payment of which the funds of that year were insufficient). 43,970 96

In view of the large aggregate cost of purchases on "open" orders, the amount being more than one-half of the total disbursements of this character by the Board, inquiry was made of the former Supervisor, William A. Butler, concerning his method of awarding such work among the various business houses in the City in a position to supply the goods desired.

He replied that orders were not generally given except after estimates had been furnished by a number of concerns, the order then being given to the lowest bidder. Mr. Butler failed to show any record of such competitive bids on open orders, although several times verbally requested to do so during this examination.

As a matter of fact, the persons or corporations receiving by far the largest proportion of the open orders at the hands of the Supervisor of the City Record appear, with one exception, to have been the successful bidders in these particular lines of goods on the annual contracts for 1901. The only exception is in the case of a firm which is reported to be in close business relations with the aforesaid contractors. If there was any actual competition for these special orders, the results do not show it.

The following table shows the successful bidders on the annual contracts for printing and lithographing, blank books and stationery, and the amount paid on their contracts for 1901, said contracts having been let after advertisement :

In addition to the above eight concerns there were ten other concerns which furnished goods on open orders during the year for small amounts, the total payments to all of the ten firms amounting to $2,686.61.

It will be seen, therefore, that the Martin B. Brown Company, which was the successful bidder on a part of the annual contracts for printing and lithographing for $60,422.64, and blank books for $55,579.41 (a total on contracts of $116,001.05), was paid on account of "open" orders and arrearages of "open" orders on similar work, in addition to the contracts, a total of $119,548.58.

The J. W. Pratt Company, the successful bidder on a part of the annual printing and lithographing contract, to the amount of $14,929.34, and also a successful bidder on a part of the blank book contract to the amount of $14,409.11, likewise received a very liberal share of the open orders during the year, the aggregate amount being $32,751.74.

The L. W. Ahrens Stationery and Printing Company, which obtained the annual stationery contract for $58,706.40, received practically all the open orders for stationery, which, with arrearages, amounted to $27,229.04.

The only other concern which had any large share in the open orders, and which, as it happened, was not a successful bidder on the annual contracts, was the firm of James H. English & Son, bookbinders, which received open orders to the amount of $31,162.49.

ANNUAL REQUISITIONS AND SPECIAL ORDERS.

Under date of July 11, 1901, William A. Butler, Supervisor of the City Record, transmitted to the various County and City departments and bureaus a circular letter which, it is stated, has been customarily sent for a number of years past, at about the same time of the year. The circular letter read in part as follows:

OFFICE OF THE CITY RECORD, No. 2 CITY HALL, NEW YORK, July 11, 1901.

"SIR-By direction of the Mayor, Comptroller, and Corporation Counsel, I respectfully request that you send to this office, prior to August 6, 1901, a requisition for such books (libers dockets, ledgers, journals, etc.), for all printed matter (blanks, forms etc.), for lithographic matter (mainly letter heads and envelopes bearing official, address) and for stationery supplies needed by your department during the year 1902.

"It is absolutely essential that the supplies for the entire year needed by your department be asked for immediately, as it is obligatory on this Board to present promptly to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment the annual estimate of its expenditures for 1902. Very little time remains for the preparation of this estimate, and it cannot be revised until we hear from your

"It is not customary for this Board to authorize any expenditures for stationery, blank books, etc., beyond what are called for in the annual requisitions, unless by reason of new legislation, or of some unforeseen emergency, exceptional action should be warranted in special cases.

"Herewith I send you two forms of requisitions for (1) books, (2) printed matter, (3) lithographed or stamped matter, and (4) stationery. Your requisitions should be made out in duplicate and a copy of each be kept by you as a record. The others must reach this office on or before August 6, 1901.

"It will be assumed that the department that does not follow the directions herein given as to time, has sufficient books, blanks and stationery supplies for the year 1902. In the past, dilatoriness on the part of some of the departments has intertered with the prompt letting of contracts and caused inconvenience to other departments and unnecessary expense to the City.

"It is the purpose of the Board to let the contracts for 1902 within sixty days, and as ample time is required to prepare the specifications and advertise for and receive proposals, you are urged to make immediate response to this circular.

"Such items as are necessary at the beginning of the year 1902 should be plainly indicated on our requisitions by a star in red ink. It is the desire of the Mayor and other members of the Board of City Record that the contracts shall provide promptly for the needs of the departments, and a special effort will be made to deliver articles which are in urgent demand. Therefore no item should be marked by a red star unless they are needed on or about January 1.

"The requisitions are to cover everything in the line of blanks, stationery, blank books and lithographed stationery needed by the respective departments during the entire year 1902; and it is particularly desired by the Board of City Record that the work of preparing the requisitions by the respective departments shall be intrusted to one person who can inform himself of the needs of his own department, so that responsibility for waste or extravagance may be readily

"Two samples of each printed form and lithographed letter and note head and envelope and of each kind of plain legal, foolscap and typewriter paper you require are necessary for use in this office. They should be sent here with your requisitions, carefully numbered and marked. "Carefully note directions concerning requisitions for books.

"Books printed for general or professional use, such as law reports, directories, etc., and such articles as typewriters, automatic time stamps, waste paper baskets, etc., must not be included in your requisition. They will not be supplied by the Board of City Record.

"Respectfully yours, "WM. A. BUTLER, Supervisor of City Record."

(Words underlined are in black face type in original communication.)

In response to this circular the various departments sent to the Board of City Record what are called annual requisitions. These annual requisitions differ from another form of requisition permitted under the practice of the City Record office (the latter being called special requisitions), in so far that the goods and supplies called for in the annual requisitions are supposedly to be made the basis for annual contracts to be let after public advertisement and competitive bidding. In case a department urgently requires any goods or supplies, a form of special requisition is furnished by the City Record, and the special requisition, when received by the Supervisor, is made the subject of an "open" order and the goods purchased in the open market.

The hasty examination permitted in this investigation shows that a large number of the items in the annual requisitions for 1902, which were ostensibly to be made a part of the annual contracts for the coming year, were not included in the specifications of said annual contracts, but were, in fact, made the subject of special or emergency orders during the last few weeks of

SPECIAL ORDERS MADE FROM ANNUAL REQUISITIONS.

To illustrate in the matter of lithographing: The annual requisitions for 1902, submitted by the various Departments in time to be included in the specifications for the annual contracts, called for 2,827,075 pieces of lithographed matter. Of these, 1,063,750 pieces were included by the Supervisor of the City Record in the specifications for the annual contract, bids for which were opened on December 6, 1901, and 1,763,325 pieces were not included in said specifications for the annual contract, but treated by the said Supervisor as special requisitions and open orders included by the same without public hidding. issued by him for supplying the same without public bidding.

In the matter of printing for 1902, the annual requisitions submitted by the various departments, in time to be included in the specifications for the annual contracts for 1902, called for 15,738,668 pieces of printed matter. Of these 7,398,350 pieces were included in the specifications for the annual contract, bids for which were opened on December 6, 1901, and 8,340,318 pieces were not included in said specifications for the annual contract, but treated by the Supervisor of the City Record as special requisitions and orders given for supplying the same without public bidding. Schedule A of this report shows the various Departments or Bureaus of the City from which annual requisitions for lithographing for 1902 were received, all or part of which annual requisitions were made "specials" by the Board of City Record; the date of the annual requisitions and the dates on which they were recorded as received in the office of the City Record; the firm to which the work was awarded and the estimated cost of the same.

Schedule B of this report presents a similar analysis of printing requisitions.

Schedule C presents a similar analysis of the requisitions for books.

In this wide expansion of the special order feature of his office, Mr. Butler proceeded in accordance with a series of resolutions passed by the Board of City Record which granted official approval to his acts, although only through a most intimate knowledge of the routine workings of the City Record could any member of said Board have understood exactly the effect of the resolutions which they approved.

The resolutions of the Board of City Record bearing upon said requisitions are as follows:

Resolutions Passed at the Meeting of October 9, 1901.

"Resolved, That the Supervisor of the City Record be and he hereby is authorized to procure, by direct order, the books and printed, lithographed or blank forms required for the use of the various, departments, courts and bureaus on January 1, 1902; and, "Resolved, That the Supervisor of the City Record shall submit to the Board of City Record for its confirmation, approval and ratification, the list of articles thus furnished on requisitions from said courts, departments, etc., and the orders by which they were obtained, also a schedule of the cost of such supplies, such cost to be subject to examination by, and the approval of, the Department of Finance; and be it further

"Resolved, That, in case there should be any change in the specifications for the books required before January 1, 1902, by any of the departments, courts and county offices, as per the lists submitted, or if a smaller or larger number should be required than that embraced in the lists submitted, the difference in price shall be adjusted by the Supervisor of the City Record, subject to the approval of the Board of City Record.

"Resolved, That the Board approve the annual requisitions received from the various departments, bureaus, courts, and county offices of the several counties included in The City of New York for the year 1902, as revised by the Supervisor of the City Record, and that the said Supervisor be directed to prepare and print, with the approval of the Corporation Counsel, forms of estimates and contracts for furnishing supplies of stationery, blank books, printed, lithographed and stamped blank forms, and the indices of the Health Department, as called for during the ensuing year 1902.

Resolution Passed at the Meeting held November 27, 1901. "Pursuant to the resolutions adopted by the Board of City Record at a meeting held October 9, 1901, the Supervisor presented to the Board of City Record, for its confirmation, approval and ratification, the requisitions for supplies of books, printed, lithographed or blank forms, and stationery required on January 1, 1902; also estimates and schedules of the cost of

"By concurrent action of all the members of the Board, the report of the Supervisor referring to said requisitions was approved, and the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That the Supervisor of the City Record be and he hereby is authorized to procure by direct order, that is, without contract let after advertisement, the articles called for by the following requisitions allowed at this meeting, not exceeding the estimates this day submitted by the Supervisor, as shown by schedules this day signed by the members of the Board of City Record, that course being deemed to be for the best interests of the City."

It will be observed from an examination of Schedules A, B and C that there is the same apparent lack of competition in the award of these special orders to be paid out of the appropriation for 1902 as was found in the case of special orders payment for which was made out of the 1901 appropriations.

Mr. Butler, in the present case, has awarded special orders to the Martin B. Brown Company to the amount of $26,971.29; to the J.W. Pratt Company, $20,408.43; to James H. English & Son, $50,547.09, and to the L.W. Ahrens Stationery and Printing Company, $7,600.83 out of the annual requisitions.

OTHER SPECIAL ORDERS IN DECEMBER. In addition to the special orders taken from annual requisitions, as shown in Schedules A, B and C, special orders were awarded to the following firms on resolutions passed by the Board of City Record at meetings held December 16, December 24 and December 26, 1901:

	DEC. 16.	DEC. 24.	DEC. 26.	TOTAL.

The open orders, as indicated in Schedules A, B and C, together with the above item of $8,106.64, aggregate $114,984.03, or nearly one-quarter of the annual appropriations (see Appendix C of this report) for these purposes.

SUPERVISOR BUTLER'S EXPLANATION OF WHY HE MADE SPECIAL ORDERS OUT OF ANNUAL REQUISITIONS.

The reason given by Supervisor Butler for taking such a large number of items out of the annual requisitions and making them the subject of special or emergency orders, was that he did so to accommodate the departments which required their printing, lithographing, stationery or other supplies on the first of the year; and that such early delivery would have been impossible except on special order.

Where certain supplies were required for the first of the year, the department or bureau letter. heads transmitting the annual requisitions were requested, in a paragraph of the circular letter of the Supervisor quoted above, to mark such items on the annual requisitions with a red star.

The paragraph in the Supervisor's letter is as follows:

"Such items as are necessary at the beginning of the year 1902 should be plainly indicated on our requisitions by a star in red ink. It is the desire of the Mayor and other members of the Ledger and so water-marked, but is stamped Acme No. 24.

Board of City Record that the contracts shall provide promptly for the needs of the departments, and a special effort will be made to deliver articles which are in urgent demand. Therefore, no item should be marked by a red star unless they are needed on or about January 1."

It does not appear that even this was a sufficient justification for the Supervisor's act, as the paragraph in question did not imply that the items marked with the red star should not be a part of the contract, but that the contractor merely should be notified to furnish them in advance of other goods contracted for.

The Supervisor, however, seems to have taken a very broad view of the situation and to have arbitrarily caused to be ordered many thousands of dollars worth of supplies on open orders, where, under ordinary administration of his office, the annual requisitions were received in ample time to have been made the subjects of contracts, bids for which should have been advertised for and contracts let many weeks before the time for the goods to be required for the departments.

Schedules A and B show that a large proportion of the annual requisitions were received before the 1st of October, and very many of them before the 1st of September. Nevertheless, the letting of contracts was delayed until the last few days of the year, thus creating, where it otherwise would not have existed, an actual emergency need for a large amount of supplies, which were then purchased as above indicated.

RED STARS ADDED AFTER REQUISITIONS LEFT THE DEPARTMENTS. This examination has disclosed evidence that in a number of instances items on the annual requisitions of departments, for printing and lithographing, were marked with red stars, to indicate a request that the articles be delivered on the first of the year, where the heads of such departments, or the clerks charged with making out the requisitions, had no knowledge what-ever that such stars had been placed on the requisitions.

The effect of increasing the number of red star marks on the annual requisitions was, as shown by this examination, to increase the number of items which were made the subject of special orders and given out to certain persons or corporations by the Supervisor, apparently without competition.

Some of the instances in which red star marks were inserted in requisitions without the knowledge of the department transmitting the requisition, according to statements made to representatives of the Department of Finance by responsible officials in said department, were

City Clerk's Office, Manhattan—Red stars placed against items in the annual requisition for lithographing, unauthorized by City Clerk Scully or any clerk in his office.

Coroner's Office, Brooklyn-Items starred on requisitions without authority of said office, according to statement of Chief Clerk Kelly.

Law Department, Bureau of Street Openings—Requisitions starred without authority, according to statement of Chief Clerk Morrison, who possesses sole authority in such matters. Sheriff, Kings County-Statement by William Walton, Sheriff, who stated that neither he nor the clerk making up the requisitions ever "starred" the items on his Departmental requisi-

Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity, Bureau of Lamps and Gas-Mr. Beardsley, who forwarded the requisition to the City Record office, stated that he did not "star" items or make a request to have same made special.

Sheriff, Richmond County-Same statement by Sheriff Vitt.

County Clerk, Richmond County - Same statement by County Clerk Muller. Court of Special Sessions, First Division, Manhattan - Clerk of Court Jones stated that he had ample lithographed matter on hand and consequently made no request that his lithographing be made special.

Surrogate, Richmond County-Denied by Judge and Chief Clerk that any request had been made to the City Record to make their lithographing requisition "special."

ANNUAL REQUISITIONS OF NEW YORK SUPREME COURT MADE SPECIAL. A conspicuous instance of the expansion of the "special" order idea by former Supervisor Butler, of the City Record, not accounted for either by the starring of items or by any request that the department made for the same, is furnished by his disposition of the annual requisition of the Supreme Court, New York County, for printing, stationery and books for use in 1902. These requisitions, which are paid for out of a special appropriation, were prepared and transmitted to the Commissioner of Public Buildings, Lighting and Supplies June 21, 1901, that Commissioner, it appears, having previously furnished these supplies to the Supreme Court. These purchases, however, for 1902, were made a part of the work of the Supervisor of the City Record. According to the records of the latter's office, the said requisitions reached the Supervisor in September, 1901. There they were held until November 27, 1901, and on that date distributed by the Supervisor on special orders, although ample time had been granted for advertisement and letting on contract after competitive bidding. The totals of the open orders for Supreme Court supplies thus given out by the Supervisor aggregate $7,600.83 for stationery awarded to the L. W. Ahrens Stationery and Printing Company, (noted in the recapitulation statement accompanying Schedules A, B and C of this report) and $706.31 for printing, and $2,548.40 for books (the two latter items being noted in Schedule B and Schedule C, respectively, of this report), the whole amount being $10,855.54.

SPECIFICATIONS FOR STATIONERY CONTRACT FAULTY AND MISLEADING.

In connection with the examination made into the matter of specifications prepared by the Supervisor of the City Record for prospective bidders on the contract for supplying stationery and paper for the use of the courts and the departments and bureaus of the City government during 1902, proposals for which were opened in the office of the Board of City Record on Monday, December 9, 1901, I beg to include in this report the substance of a preliminary report made to the Comptroller under date of December 16, 1901, together with such other facts as subsequent investigation has disclosed.

In this relation an examination was made of the samples of paper for typewriting, pads, letters, record, analyses, etc., as found in the books of samples that were exhibited for the inspection of prospective bidders at the office of the Board of City Record during the ten days prior to the date set for the receiving and opening of the bids. Comparison was also made between the supplies called for in the requisitions of the various departments and bureaus of the City government and the specifications upon which bids were asked.

As a result of this examination, it was found that in a great number of instances the samples of paper shown in the book of samples exhibited for bidders were of a different character from that described in the departmental requisitions; in some cases journal ruled bond paper being shown as a sample of the paper required, when legal-size typewriting paper was specified in the requisition. In other cases the size of paper specified and asked for by certain departments was variance with the size shown in the book of samples.

The most convincing indication that the specifications and samples shown formed an unfair basis of competition for public bidders, however, was the fact that in a number of instances the sample of paper shown was stamped as to quality and weight differently from that indicated by water-marks found on the identical samples. Examination and comparisons made of the samples, as called for in several departments and bureaus, indicated that paper of the same grade and quality was variously marked.

Copies of affidavits by attachees of the office of the Board of City Record, attached to this report and marked Appendix A, are to the effect that the samples of paper shown in the book of samples displayed for public inspection were marked as to grade, quality and weight by employees and representatives of the 1. W. Ahrens Stationery and Printing Company, a contractor for the Board of City Record during 1901 and a prospective bidder for the contract under consideration.

Following are a few items showing discrepancies between the requisitions from Department

Following are a few items showing discrepancies between the requisitions from Department heads and the advertised specifications, as well as the stamping and marking of paper samples:

Board of Assessors—Item No. 6—Requisition calls for plain white pads; sample shows cross section ruled on both sides and marked Whiting's 36-pound ledger—water-marked linen ledger.

Board of Estimate and Apportionment—Item No. 1—Requisition calls for Whiting's No. 7; samples stamped Whiting's No. 9; sample water-marked Brunswick linen; Whiting's No. 9 is an Argyle paper; Whiting's price list shows no No. 9 Brunswick.

City Chamberlain—Item No. 1—Requisition calls for "Fools Cap"; sample as shown is ruled for dollars and cents and only size of half sheet of Fools Cap. Item No. 2—Requisition calls for Legal Cap; sample as shown is Journal paper, ruled on one side. Item No. 3—Requisition specifies "Plain Seconds" letter sheets, Holyoke Bond No. 25; sample shown is water-marked and stamped Whiting's Linen Ledger, ruled in 8 columns for dollars and cents (14 by 17), full cap size. Item No. 4—Requisition specifies plain legal size sheets for typewriter seconds, Holyoke No. 25, Item No. 4—Requisition specifies plain legal size sheets for typewriter seconds, Holyoke No. 25, size 8 by 13; sample shown is stamped and water-marked Whiting's Linen Ledger, 20 lbs., Journal ruled on one side, size 14 by 17.

Department of Bridges, The Bronx—Item No. 14—Requisition calls for "Letter following sheets"; sample shown is Journal ruled paper, stamped Crane's Bond No. 29, and is actually water-marked Bond No. 16. Item No. 15—Requisition calls for Bristol Boards, 22 by 28. Sample shown is cross section paper, so ruled on both sides and cap size, 14 by 17, is stamped Whiting's Linen Ledger, 36 pounds.

Department of Water Supply, Brooklyn—Item No. 10—Requisition calls for typewriting paper; sample shown is Journal ruled paper, stamped Bond No. 25 and is water-marked Bond No. 16.

Department of Street Cleaning, Queens—Item No. 8—Sample shown is stamped Bond No. 25; water-mark shows it to be Chancellor Bond.

water-mark shows it to be Chancellor Bond. Department of Public Charities, Brooklyn-Item No. 17-Sample stamped Crane's Bond No. 29; water-mark shows it to be No. 16 Bond.

water-mark shows it to be Bond No. 16. Fire Department, Brooklyn and Queens—Item No. 10—Sample stamped Crane's Bond No.

Department of Correction, Manhattan-Item No. 44-Sample stamped Crane's Bond No.

Fire Department, Manhattan and The Bronx-Item No. 10-Sample is Greylock Linen

Coroner's Office, Brooklyn—Item No. 2—Requisition calls for typewriting paper; sample in book is marked Whiting's Bond No. 2; a duplicate of original sample obtained by Finance Department Examiner from Chief Clerk of Brooklyn Coroner's Office shows quality of paper required to be Argyle Linen.

Court of General Sessions - Item No. 7-Requisition calls for light paper, testimony size; sample shown is stamped Crane's Bond No. 25 and is Journal ruled; water-mark shows it to be Bond No. 16.

Municipal Court, Tenth District, Manhattan-Item No. 4-Requisition calls for Jury Box Cards 3 by 41/2; sample shown is 9 by 6.

Municipal Court, Second District, Queens—Item No. 1—Sample is stamped Whiting's Argyle Linen No. 7; water-marked Linen Bond Invincible.

The above items are selected because the discrepancies are so glaring as to be obvious in the most casual examination and not requiring any expert knowledge of the various grades of paper.

From a superficial examination made by two expert stationers of the samples shown in the sample books it is the opinion of these experts that a very large proportion of all said samples were incorrectly stamped as to weight and quality by those who were employed to do such stamping by the Supervisor of the City Record, whether the stamping was done by the employees of the Board of City Record or otherwise.

It is my opinion, therefore, that the books of paper samples, as prepared for the use of hidders on the contract in question, were so made up as to preclude free competition or make calculations upon the same anything more than an uncertain hazard as to the goods actually Examination as to Stationery Articles other than Paper.

An examination made as to the various classes of stationery included in the departmental requisitions other than paper discloses the fact that, in the preparation of the contract specifications there were many instances of discrimination against certain manufacturers and corresponding preferences shown to other manufacturers in the same lines of trade. Not only was it shown that preference had been given to certain manufacturers in instances where the departmental requisition omitted to specify any particular make of article required, but that, in a large number of cases, the name of the manufacturer of the goods asked for in the requisitions had been erased and that of another manufacturer substituted.

The annual stationery requisitions in this examination were subjected to a careful comparison with the specifications in the stationery contract as prepared by the employees of the City Record. Some of the results of this comparison indicate the methods in vogue in said office along the lines of substitution and apparent favoritism of certain manufacturers of goods. The record of a number of typical instances of such substitution of inks, pens, rubber bands, etc., is made a part of this report and marked "Appendix B."

FAULTY METHOD OF PREPARING CITY RECORD BILLS FOR AUDIT.

The methods of the City Record office in preparing bills for audit, as observed during this examination, appear to be objectionable in some features. That method, as explained by subordinates in said office, is as follows:

All open orders are based on items taken from requisitions forwarded by the various departments to the Supervisor of the City Record. In the past these orders ostensibly have been given out by the Supervisor only after they have been approved by the Board of City Record. As a matter of practice, I am informed, orders in a large number of cases have been given out long in advance of such authorization by the Board to the printers, stationers, etc., selected by the Supervisor, with the understanding that said firms filled such orders at their own risk of the Board later failing to authorize the same.

Upon the delivery of goods by the tradesmen to the office of the City Record a receipt is given after an inspection by City Record Inspectors as to the character and quality of the goods received. This inspection, however, is apparently made, in most cases, without reference to the original departmental requisition upon which the goods were ordered, nor with any particular attention being paid to samples which may have formed a part of said requisition.

From the City Record office the goods are sent to the Department for which they are intended, accompanied by a receipt from the City Record office. This receipt is ostensibly for the signature of some one in authority in the department receiving the goods, but, on a number of such receipts which came under my observation, no especial care appeared to have been taken in this direction, the receipts being signed in some cases by persons who could have had no adequate idea of what they were receipting for.

From time to time, these receipts from departments for the delivery of goods, together with the tradesmen's bills for the same, are transmitted to the Examiner in the Department of Finance for his examination. After he has checked up the bill with the said receipt, he returns both to the City Record office, where the receipt is made a part of the permanent record of the Supervisor's office, and the bill is retained until a number of such bills, payable to an individual tradesman, have accumulated.

When the orders for a number of these bills have been formally approved by the Board of City Record, they are entered in an order book, each page provided with duplicate order blanks. One of each of these duplicate orders is retained by the Supervisor of the City Record and the others attached to the tradesmen's bills, after they have been first returned from the Department of Finance, and the bills and orders, sometimes a dozen or twenty at a time, are then entered on schedules at the office of the City Record and returned for final audit to the Department of

This system appears faulty in several particulars, especially with reference to the record which is finally returned to the Department of Finance for final filing here. As now provided, there is no record in this office to show that the goods were actually delivered or that they were in quality equal to the grade charged for in the bill.

The system also permits of the examination of a bill of goods by the Department of Finance before the resolution authorizing the same is passed by the Board of City Record, a fact which, in my judgment, is sufficient in itself to condemn the plan.

RECOMMENDATIONS AND CONCLUSIONS.

CONTRACTS. Contracts for furnishing stationery, blank books and printing supplies should be let sufficiently early in the year so that all goods required by the departments on the 1st of January following could be turnished on such contracts, thus doing away, to a very large extent, with the open order system which appears to be one of the chief evils in the past administration of the office of the Board of City Record. This idea could be further extended by abandoning the annual contract and making the necessary purchases of goods the subject of quarterly contracts. While that would increase the work of the City Record office to some extent, it would undoubtedly result in a large reduction of the cost of supplies to the City and keep alive the spirit of competition among those who desire to bid for the City work.

OPEN OR SPECIAL ORDERS.

Orders awarded without letting after public advertisement, for supplying any goods or materials or for performing any services for the Board of City Record, should be awarded only after bids for the furnishing of said goods or the performance of said services have been solicited from a number of reputable firms.

I would suggest that the Board of City Record make up official lists including at least a dozen persons or corporations in each one of the lines of goods, or performing the kinds of services called for by the City Record, and require that each of said persons or corporations must be notified by the Supervisor of the City Record and invited to submit bids when orders are to be given in their respective lines.

In cases where bids are solicited on open orders, these bids should be sealed in every case and opened by the Supervisor, in the presence of the bidders, at a certain time of the day on a date fixed upon, so that no opportunity be given for any subordinate of the Board to notify any favored bidder of the prices submitted by others and thereby give said favored bidder an opportunity to quote a lower price and thus secure the work.

All bids so received should be recorded in a permanent record book and the job awarded to the person or corporation offering the lowest bid.

CONTRACT SPECIFICATIONS AND SAMPLES.

That both in contract specifications and in open orders for paper a complete and accurate description of the goods desired should be furnished by the Supervisor of the City Record, so that as little doubt as possible may subsequently arise as to exactly what is called for; that where samples are necessary for the information of the bidder these samples, not only in stationery but in printing and lithographing, should bear, for purposes of identification, the signature of the head or chief clerk of the department from which the sample is received, together with a sufficient description on each sample to clearly indicate what is desired by the department. These samples should be furnished in triplicate sets, one set of which should be transmitted to the Finance Department for its use during the subsequent audit of any bill for said goods, and the others for the use of the Board of City Record.

In connection with the furnishing of samples by the various departments, accompanying their requests for supplies of stationery and printing, which I discussed with the present Supervisor of the City Record, Mr. Philip Cowen, he added the further suggestion, which I believe would be another safeguard to the City, namely, that one set of all such samples furnished by the Departments should be filed away, with the proper entries on the same, as a part of the permanent records of the Board of City Record, and only destroyed after a period of years, when any possible use for them would be at an end.

In this connection, also, Mr. Cowen made a suggestion that the person furnishing the goods or supplies in every case should transmit a sample of the goods furnished to the Board of City Record, with a certificate attached that all of the said goods were up to sample, and that, in case goods inferior to the sample should be found to have been furnished, the person or contractor should be excluded from furnishing any further supplies for some period of time to be fixed by the Board of City Record, as a penalty for such action.

I would suggest for the consideration of the Board of City Record the advisability, in awarding contracts for stationery, printing and blank books, that the contracts be awarded on items rather than on schedules, as is now the case. While this might increase the number of contractors, it would not necessarily do so, and would undoubtedly result in a saving to the City.

FORM OF RECEIPT FOR AUDIT.

A form of receipt blank for all goods furnished should be used by the Board, upon which should be entered the following: First-An exact copy of the requisition upon which the goods represented in the receipt were

Second—Certification by an Inspector of the Board of City Record that the goods indicated have been duly received by the Board. Third—A certificate by some person in due authority in the department or bureau to which the goods are finally delivered that said delivery is correct and the goods according to requisition; and also according to sample where samples are furnished. These receipt sheets should be signed in duplicate for each order, one to be attached to the voucher to be placed on file in the Department of Finance and the other for filing in the office of the Board of City Record. It should further be made a rule of the Department of Finance that no bill for goods should be examined or approved by any subordinate of this Department except upon the certification of the Supervisor of the City Record thereon that the order for said bill of goods has been approved by resolution of the Board of City Record and the order awarded in accordance with the rules of the Board of City Record. STEEL DIES TO BE OWNED BY THE CITY.

Where steel engraving appears to the Board of City Record to be demanded for letter heads, envelopes and for ordinary departmental work, the steel dies should be owned by the City and loaned to the successful bidder on the job or contract in which the steel plates are to be used.

LITHOGRAPHING TO BE DISPENSED WITH WHERE POSSIBLE. Lithographing should be dispensed with as far as possible in the City printing and be discontinued altogether in connection with stationery, note heads, envelopes, etc., and, in a great many instances, where steel plate or lithograph work is used upon stationery, ordinary printing would answer the purpose equally well and reduce the cost by a very large percentage.

In the printing of bonds, warrants, checks, etc., and the preparation of other material for use in the collection and disbursement of money, where the use of lithograph and steel plate work on a large scale is necessary, for making safety paper, etc., some arrangement with the trade should be made, giving opportunity for a reasonable amount of competition in doing the work. Printers of whom inquiry has been made state that it would not be practical for the City to own lithographing stones, owing to their weight and the care required to keep them in condition.

PRICE SCHEDULES FOR WORK AND SUPPLIES SHOULD BE AMENDED. The price schedules and rates for payments, fixing the maximum prices to be paid on open orders now used by the City Record, should be thoroughly revised and based upon current prices obtained from a large number of concerns in the various lines of business.

SUBJECTS NOT COVERED IN THIS EXAMINATION. This examination has not considered in any particular work on account of the publication of the CITY RECORD, nor does any item of this report include any disbursement for said

This report does not determine anything as to whether prices charged on open orders by persons or corporations receiving said open orders from the Supervisor of the City Record are either just or reasonable or otherwise, nor whether the goods ordered have been actually delivered or whether they are of the grade and quality charged for.

Yours respectfully. CHARLES S. HERVEY, Expert Accountant.

Details disclosed by an examination of the annual departmental requisitions for 1902 for stationery, other than paper, as compared with the contract specifications prepared by the Supervisor of the City Record for furnishing the same, showing preference for certain manufacturers of goods and materials.

U. G. S., meaning Underwood's Golden Seal, is frequently preferred and, in some instances, substituted in contract specifications where other inks are specified in departmental requisitions. U. G. S. is a brand alleged to have been originated by the L. W. Ahrens Stationery and Printing Company. It is said to be manufactured by Underwood for the L. W. Ahrens Company, but does not appear on Underwood's trade lists.

Where Stafford's Carmine is called for in requisitions, Carter's Red is substituted. Pens.

Either Esterbrook or "Defiance" pens have been given the preference throughout where the departmental requisitions fail to specify the pen of any particular manufacturer. In most cases the preference is given to "Defiance." Spencerian, Crawford's and Gillott's were trequently cut out of requisitions where specified and in the contract specifications either Esterbrook's or "Defiance" were substituted. One jobber quoted a list price of $2.50 a gross and $1.25 net to a representative of the Department of Finance on these pens. This is seen, upon examination, to be fifty per cent. more than the price charged the City by the L. W. Ahrens Stationery and Printing Company.

A bill of the L. W. Ahrens Stationery and Printing Company, dated January 28, 1901, for goods delivered on open orders, includes this item :

"Twelve Gross Defiance No. 50 (Falcon) pens at 60 cents, $7.20." Esterbrook No. 048 (Falcon) can be bought in the trade for 40 cents per gross. The L. W. Ahrens Stationery and Printing Company in its bid for the 1902 stationery contract with the City, offers to furnish Esterbrook No. 048 (Falcon) at 34 cents per gross.

Besides the Falcon pen, The L. W. Ahrens Stationery and Printing Company has about twenty different varieties of pens, all made in imitation of popular designs.

Rubber Bands. E. Faber's rubber bands are preferred everywhere in contract specifications. Peerless Para (American News Company) and Monarch Brand (B. F. Goodrich), when specified in departmental requisitions, are erased and E. Faber's are substituted. Rubber Erasers.

E. Faber make preferred; other kinds, when called for in departmental requisitions, in several instances are erased and in no instance is E. Faber's changed when specified in a requisition. Elliott & Hatch, as well as Dixon's, are erased from requisitions and E. Faber's substituted. In one instance Eagle (Eagle Pencil Company, manufacturer) Eraser Nos. 486 and 489, are called for in departmental requisition. E. Faber's No. 1051 and No. 1050 respectively were substituted. Eagle No. 486 is an oblong ink and pencil eraser, all rubber. E. Faber's No. 1051, which is substituted, is made of two pieces of flat rubber about half of an inch in thickness, one grade for pencil, the other for ink, and has a polished cedar wood centre. E. Faber's list shows their No. 1051 price to be $25.50 per gross, while the Eagle Pencil Company's list quotes No. 486 eraser at $5.40 per gross.

Steel Ink Erasers. Preference is given to Wiebush & Hilger, where no particular make is specified in requisition. E. Faber's steel ink eraser is also shown preference in some instances. Rulers.

E. Faber's and Tingley's rulers are preferred; but few of the departmental requisitions specify any particular make. 255 Tingley's boxwood rulers, an expensive variety, called for in 1902 contract specifications for stationery, although the requisitions in no instance specify that boxwood rulers are required. The contract of the L. W. Ahrens Stationery and Printing Company with the City, dated January 23, 1901, specified 370 Tingley Boxwood rulers.

Typewriter Ribbons.

Remington record (Wyckoff, Seamans & Benedict, manufacturers), called for in requisitions. Underwood's ribbons substituted and in instances where no particular make is specified, Underwood's are preferred, as shown by the contract specifications.

Eagle Pencil Company and American Pencil Company penholders are erased in some requisitions and E. Faber's substituted. Discrimination is shown against all others than E. Faber's.

Day's rubber penholder is called for in one requisition and E. Faber's rubber penholder is substituted.

E. Faber's preferred in all instances where make is not specified in requisitions, and Dixon's and Eagle are reduced in quantities in many instances, quantities being made up by substitution of E. Faber's.

Mucilage.

Carter's mucilage preferred and in some instances substituted in requisitions for Stickwell's and Higgins & Sandtord's.

Files.

Contract specifications call for bids on 16,194 Willis files as follows: On which U. S. Trading Co. bid. 4,622 $1,848 80 6,072 2,428 80 Kings County Departments, see page 73, of 1902 specifications...... 5,500 2,200 00

Totals 16,194 $6,477 60 It will be seen that the bid of U. S. Trading Company, $6,477.60 tor 16,194 Willis files, is at an average price per piece of 40 cents. All other bidders on 1902 contract omitted to bid on Willis files, namely: The L. W. Ahrens Stationery and Printing Company, Joseph N. Early, and The American News Company.

In the contract with the L. W. Ahrens Stationery and Printing Company, dated January 23, 1901, were included specifications for 11,532 Willis files as follows: and paid. $3,603 06 4,004 12 Totals...... 11,532 $7,607 18

The price paid for Willis files to The L. W. Ahrens Stationery and Printing Company on 1901 contract, averaged 65 9-10 cents a piece.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONERS OF ACCOUNTS,) STEWART BUILDING, No. 280 BROADWAY, NEW YORK, January 14, 1902.

SUBJECT-CHANGE IN SPECIFICATIONS FOR ASPHALT PAVEMENTS FROM PRESENT FORM OF SUCH SPECIFICATIONS IN PAVING CON-

Hon. SETH LOW, Mayor:

DEAR SIR-In accordance with your recent request we herewith transmit you proposed specifications for Asphalt Pavements in paving contracts, to be used in lieu of present specifi-

The proposed new specifications are the result of the experience and investigations of our Chief Engineer, Mr. Otto H. Klein.

An elaborate report by the Commissioners of this Department to your predecessor in office, reviewed at great length, and in printed form, the Asphalt Paving Contracts of the City, and for your general information, we now direct your attention to that report, which was made under

We transmit a printed copy of that report herewith, and in the printed report, pages 59 to 63, you will find criticisms of the specifications now in use in asphalt paving contracts.

For your convenience we have had the proposed specifications, which we now submit to your Honor, placed in tabulated form, with the present specifications shown in the left hand columns, the proposed corresponding specifications in the right hand columns, and the criticisms of the old specifications and explanations of the new ones placed under the specifications, as proposed under the title:

" Reasons for Changes." We trust that you will find the form in which thi smatter is submitted convenient for purposes of reference and comparison. The work of preparing these specifications necessarily has been somewhat hastily done, but the changes proposed are the result of much study and consideration upon the part of our Chief Engineer.

As the proposed specifications in nearly every detail involve technical knowledge of which we are not personally possessed, we submit them upon the responsibility of our Engineering Department; at the same time we beg leave to say to your Honor that we are fully satisfied of

Mr. Klein's special qualifications for the preparation of such specifications. We have reason to believe that the adoption of the proposed specifications in lieu of the present ones will result in creating free and open competition for Asphalt Paving contracts in this

The natural result will be a reduction in the cost of such paving without any deterioration in quality, and, in the aggregate, a great saving and great advantage to the City will follow.

We stand ready to instruct our Chief Engineer to confer with the heads of other departments, or the engineers representing them, regarding these proposed specifications. They will, of course, before being finally adopted, be submitted for approval as to legal form, to the Counsel to the Corporation.

We shall hold ourselves and our Engineers at the command of your Honor or of any head of Department for the purpose of preparing a new form of paving contracts embracing these speci-

We transmit you herewith a printed copy of the form of contract now in use, from which the present specifications in our tabulated statement are taken. We limit this report and our proposed specifications to the matter of Asphalt Pavements.

We annex hereto copy of the brief statement made by Mr. Klein in submitting the proposed new specifications to us. Respectfully submitted, (Copy.) ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT-PHYSICAL AND CHEMICAL LABORATORY, COMMISSIONERS OF ACCOUNTS, NEW YORK, January 14, 1902.

EDWARD OWEN,

WM. HEPBURN RUSSELL, 1 Commissioners of Accounts.

Hon. Commissioners of Accounts, New York City:

GENTLEMEN-Owing to the short time allowed and the pressure of other work, these accompanying revised specifications for asphalt street surfaces have only been revised in respect to use of the different variety of asphaltic materials, and their preparation show, as to admit free

All other matters, such as concrete foundation, curbing, etc., etc., and other considerations relating to the engineering, supervision and construction of streets, remain to be reported upon

Very respectfully, d) OTTO H. KLEIN, (Signed) Chief Engineer, the Commissioners of Accounts.

SPECIFICATIONS FOR ASPHALT PAVEMENTS.

Owing to the short notice given and to the important work for the Corporation Counsel in connection with the suit, William E. Dean against the Mayor, which is being tried at the present time, those sections of the specifications not relating to asphalt, have not been especially considered.

No Coal Tar, Blast Furnace Tar, Coke Oven Tar, nor any product obtained therefrom, shall be allowed in any of these mixtures above enumerated. Nor shall any solid or semi-solid residuum from the distillation of Petroleum be allowed. Nor shall any liquid residuum from petroleum of any kind be used for any other purpose than as a bituminous flux.

All of these samples will be considered to be fair average samples, of their kind, of the materials to be used upon the work bid for. In case a bidder is allowed a contract, he shall deposit a duplicate set of the above-named samples with the Commissioners of Accounts, before any contract shall be signed.

REASONS FOR CHANGES.

Page 5, paragraph 11, is changed as submitted so as to make a specific requirement that samples of all the materials that will be allowed in any asphalt street, of whatever material and in whatever manner it may be constructed shall be submitted, both for examination and reference, The provisions of paragraph 11 which, it is recommended, shall be replaced are, in many respects, vague and too open to construction. Our aim has been to remove those objections, and to state definitely not only the materials that will be allowed and which have been proved by use to make good streets, but also to exclude those materials which have been proved to be bad or have not been proved to be good.

To do this the entire paragraph has been rewritten and each kind of material that will be allowed is named and its use clearly specified when any ambiguity is possible. The changes have been made in the line of clearness of statement rather than to change the intent of the original work.

PRESENT SPECIFICATIONS. . If the bidder purposes using rock asphalt, samples 3, 4, 5 and 6 will not be required.

PROPOSED SPECIFICATIONS. If the bidder purposes using rock asphalt, samples 1bcd, also 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 11f will not be required.

Paragraph 12 has been changed so as to make the numbers conform to the changes in paragraph II.

PRESENT SPECIFICATIONS.

Asphalt not Heretofore Used. Any bidder purposing to offer a material for asphalt paving not heretofore used on streets paved under the jurisdiction of the Department of Highways must, in addition to the above requirements, file an original certificate, with a certified copy of the specifications whose terms it fulfilled, four (4) full days (excluding Sundays and holidays) before the time of making his hid which certificate must then his bid, which certificate must show some other city or cities, and the specific street, avenue or highway therewith, where pavement of such material has been laid, its area, which must be at least 10,000 square yards, the date at which it was accepted, which must have been at least two (2) years previous to the issuance of the certificate, and that the said pavement has worn well and satisfactory; to be signed and duly acknowledged by the chief municipal officer having charge of such work in the city or cities where such pavement has been laid and by the City Engineer under whose direction it was laid. Also a statement of the location and capacity, in square yards per day, of the works or factory where the paving material is to be prepared.

PROPOSED SPECIFICATIONS.

(Omitted.)

REASONS FOR CHANGE OR OMISSION.

The paragraph that follows it relating to "asphalt not heretofore used," has been rendered unnecessary by the more definite statements introduced above, and it is therefore omitted. As a further reason for omitting it, it contained provisions that have provoked much objection and tend to discourage free competition.

Maintenance period, ten years. | Maintenance period, five years.

REASONS FOR CHANGES.

Paragraph 17. Experience has proved that a guarantee of five years is sufficient, considering the high rate of interest that the City has to pay indirectly for bonds for longer maintenance, provided that the contractor shall be required to put the street in good condition at the end of the five years. The work should be inspected before final acceptance and discharge from guarantee bond, and if not in good condition it shall be relaid. We would suggest that before the contractor is discharged from his guarantee bond the Engineer of the Highway Department should inspect the street and report it in good condition and repair.

Asphalt Pavement.

15. The pavement proper shall consist of a binder course one (I) inch in thickness and a crete foundation, six inches in thickness, conwearing surface two (2) inches thick and equal to the Standard Pavement Mixture hereinafter described

Before laying binder, the surface of the foundation shall be thoroughly swept and cleaned and all dirt and fine particles removed from the joints of blocks to such depth as may be directed by the Engineer.

Asphalt Pavement.

125. The pavement shall consist of a constructed of American Portland Cement of the best quality, clean sand and broken stone, as specified in paragraph 103.

126. Upon this foundation shall be laid a surface of either "Asphalt" or "Rock Asphalt."

127. If the surface be of "Asphalt," it shall consist of a "Binder Course" laid upon the concrete, one (I) inch in thickness, which shall be covered with a "Wearing surface" two (2) inches thick.

BINDER COURSE.

REASONS FOR CHANGE.

Paragraph 15 only partially describes the pavement that is to be laid. Paragraphs 125, 126 and 127 describe the whole pavement, which consists of a concrete foundation, a binder course, and a Wearing Surface, or omitting the binder course of Rock Asphalt only. The foundation is to be made of Portland Cement Concrete. The binder of Asphaltic Cement and Broken Stone, the Wearing Surface of Asphaltic Cement or of Rock Asphalt, as is described in the paragraph that follows:

PRESENT SPECIFICATIONS. BINDER COURSE. Quality and Size of Stone.

Section 16. § 1. The binder shall be composed of suitable clean broken stone passing a one and one-quarter (11/4) inch screen, not more than five (5) per cent. of which shall pass a No.

(a) crushed limestone, bluestone, trap or granite rock, passing a one and one-quarter manufactured from refined asphalt and heavy 10 screen.

Preparation of Mixture.

§ 2. The stone will be heated in suitable appliances, not higher than 300° Fahrenheit, and then thoroughly mixed by machinery with asphaltic cement equivalent in composition to that hereinafter set forth, at 300° to 325° Fahrenheit, in such proportion as shall be acceptable to the Commissioner of Highways. No cement composed of mixtures of asphalt and coal tar will be allowed.

May Have Life and Gloss.

The mixture will be so made that the resulting binder has life and gloss without an excess of cement. Should it appear dull from overheating or lack of cement, it will be rejected.

Delivery and Laying.

The binder must be hauled to the work and spread while hot upon the foundation to such thickness that after being immediately compacted by ramming and rolling in till it is cold, its depth shall be at no place less than one (1) inch and its upper surface shall be parallel to the surface of the pavement to be laid.

Improper Binder to be Removed.

Should the resulting course not show a proper bond, it shall be immediately removed and replaced by the Contractor, or should he fail to do so in twenty-four hours after written notice from the Commissioner of Highways it shall be removed and the cost charged against any moneys which may be or may become due the Contractor from the City.

No Hauling Without Permission.

No traffic or vehicles, except such as may be required in bringing on the top course, shall be allowed on the binder course without special permission of the Engineer; and no traffic or teaming of any nature shall be allowed unless the binder course shall have been thoroughly protected by planking furnished and laid by the Contractor.

REASONS FOR CHANGES.

To the paragraph numbered 16 we have added that the stone shall be sound (an important condition), and we have also specified the kinds of stone. The necessity of this specification has been made manifest by the examinations of binder made in our laboratory during the last three years. The next paragraph has been slightly changed to meet the more specific definition and description of asphaltic cement introduced further on. The words "life" and "gloss" are omitted because they have little significance in this connection.

REASONS FOR THE CHANGES IN REFERENCE TO WEARING SURFACE.

The present specifications contain a number of technical terms that are nowhere defined, but are left open to construction. We have rewritten the matter and have preceded it by clear definitions of these terms in such manner as to make the statements clear and definite, leaving out the necessity or possibility of construction as far as it may be possible. As these definitions are new they do not correspond to anything in the present specifications. (Page 35.)

PRESENT SPECIFICATIONS.

STANDARD PAVEMENT MIXTURE.

Section 17. § 1. The standard pavement mixture for the wearing surface shall be composed Refined asphalt. 1. Asphaltic cement Heavy petroleum oil or liquid asphalt.

2. Clean, sharp sand. 3. Finely powdered carbonate of lime, granite or quartz.

Requirements for Refined Asphalt.

Refined Asphalt-The asphalt for use in the manufacture of the asphaltic cement for the preparation of the Standard Pavement Mixture shall be obtained from the crude, natural material, and shall be in all respects satisfactory to the Commissioners of Highways.

§ 2. To accomplish this the crude asphalt must be refined until the product is uniform in composition, quality and specific gravity. The refined asphalt shall contain not less than fiftyfive (55) per cent. of bitumen soluble in carbon bisulphide, of which bitumen at least sixty-eight (68) per cent. shall be soluble in Pennsylvania petroleum naphtha of a specific gravity of 72° Beaume (boiling points—80° to 90° Centigrade), it shall soften at from 189° to 192° Fahrenheit, and flow at from 200° to 210° Fahrenheit; it shall volatilize from 21/2 to 3 per cent. of oil in 10 hours at a temperature of 400° Fahrenheit; it shall have a specific gravity of approximately 1.38, and shall be free from all manner and form of adulteration. After the evaporation of the solvent, the pure bituminous matter soluble in carbon bisulphide shall be adhesive, malleable and ductile at temperatures ranging from 70° Fahrenheit to its liquifying point. It shall soften at 168° Fahrenheit and flow at 180° Fahrenheit.

Requirements for Heavy Petroleum Oil.

§ 3. Heavy Petroleum Oil-The oil used in the manufacture of the asphaltic cement, as here-inafter described, shall be a petroleum from which lighter oils have been removed by distillation without cracking, until it has a specific gravity of 18° to 22° Beaume and the following properties:

(a) Flash test not less than 300° Fahrenheit. (The flash test shall be taken in a New York State closed oil tester.) (b) Fire test, not less than 350° Fahrenheit. (c) No appreciable amount of light oils or matter volatile under 250° Fahrenheit. (d) Distillate at 400° Fahrenheit for 30 hours, less than to 10 per cent. (The distillate shall be made with about 50 grammes of oil in a small glass retort provided with a thermometer and packed in asbestos.) (e) It shall be free from foreign matter and coke. (Page 36.)

petroleum oil agreeing in composition and properties with those described in the foregoing paragraphs, shall be prepared in the following Preparation of Asphaltic Cement.

To the melted asphalt, at a temperature of not over 325° Fahrenheit, the oil, after having been heated to at least 250° Fahrenheit, is to be added in suitable proportions to produce an asphaltic cement satisfactory to the Commissioner of Highways. To accomplish this from 18 to 21 pounds of oil per 100 pounds of refined asphalt will be required. As soon as the oil has begun to be added, suitable agitation by means of an air blast or other acceptable appliance shall commence and be continued until a homogeneous cement is produced. The appliances for agitation shall be such as to accomplish this in ten hours, during which time the temperature shall be kept at from 250° to 350° Fahrenheit, and no higher. If the cement then appears homogeneous and free from lumps and inequalities, it may be used. Should it not prove satisfactory, such deficiencies as may exist shall be corrected by the addition of hot oil or melted asphalt in the necessary propor-

Requirements for Asphaltic Cement.

Asphaltic cement shall fulfill the tests enumerated for heavy petroleum oil, and after being kept in storage must be thoroughly agitated when used, as must also all dipping kettles while in use. Samples of the asphaltic cement and of the heavy petroleum oil and refined asphalt shall be supplied to the Engineer when required in suitable tin boxes and cans, and he shall have access to all branches of the work at any time.

Requirements for Softening Agent.

Should a liquid asphalt or other softening agent be used as a substitute for a portion or for all the heavy petroleum oil in making the asphaltic cement, such softening agent must be approved by the Commissioner and shall fulfill the test enumerated for heavy petroleum oil; it must contain not less than ninety-five (95) per cent, of bitumen, and its acidity in terms of caustic potash must not exceed two (2) per cent. The softening agent shall be such that when added to the refined asphalt in proper proportion it will produce an asphaltic cement | its use will not be permitted, and, if already having essentially the same consistency and the | placed upon the street, it shall be removed and

PROPOSED SPECIFICATIONS. WEARING SURFACE.

The "Wearing Surface" shall be made and laid according to the following specifications, the materials which shall be used therefor shall Asphalt.

 Bituminous Flux.

3. Sand. Pulverized Rock.

4. Pulverized Rock.
These several words and terms shall be defined and construed throughout these specifications to mean as follows:

1. 136. The word "Asphalt" shall be construed to mean Refined Trinidad Pitch, Refined Asphaltum, Crude Asphaltum, that does not need refining—natural extracted bitumen—and nothing else. The Trinidad Pitch or Asphaltum shall be refined until homogeneous, and when so refined shall, with the natural Asphaltum or extracted Bitumen, be free from water and light oils. They shall be carefully refined, and shall not, at any time, be heated to a temperature high enough to injure them.

2. 137. The words "Bituminous Flux" shall be construed to mean what in Commerce is known as Petroleum Tar or heavy petroleum, or maltha prepared for use as a flux, by being freed from water and light oils. From whatever source it may be obtained it shall possess the following characteristics:

138. It shall not Flash below 300° Fahr, when tested in a New York State closed tester; it shall not yield when heated an appreciable amount of distillate below 250° Fahr. nor when heated for 30 hours at 400° Fahr., shall the distillate exceed 10 per cent. The distillation shall be made with about 50 grams of Flux in a small glass retort, provided with a thermometer, and packed entirely in asbestos. The residuum remaining in the retort after distilling must flow at 75° Fahr., and must not be coarsely crystalline on cooling. The more free it is from paraffine the better. It shall be free from an appreciable amount of coke.

3. 139. The word "sand" shall be construed to mean clean, hard-grained and sharp sand. On sifting, at least 15 per cent. shall be caught on a 40 mesh per inch screen, 25 per cent. shall pass an 80 mesh to the inch screen and 10 per cent. at least shall pass a 100 mesh to the inch screen. If the sand to be used does not contain the desired fine material, limestone, dust or other pulverized rock can be added to make up the deficiency. Sand containing clay or loam shall not be used.

4. 140. The words "pulverized rock" shall be construed to mean finely pulverized limestone, bluestone, granite or trap, the whole of which shall pass a 30 mesh to the inch screen, and at least 75 per cent. shall pass a 100-mesh-to-the-inch screen.

5. 141. The words "Asphaltic Cement" shall be construed to mean "Asphalt" which has been softened and tempered with "Bituminous Flux " in such manner as to properly prepare it for use in the "Asphalt Paving Mix-ture." When the "Asphalt," whether previ-ously refined or not, is not already of the proper consistency, it shall be tempered with "Bituminous Flux " at a temperature not to exceed 350° Fahrenheit. To accomplish this they shall be combined in proportions not to exceed 25 pounds of "Bituminous Flux" to 100 pounds of "Asphalt." The "Asphalt" shall be melted at a temperature not to exceed 350° Farhenheit, and the "Bituminous Flux," after having been heated to at least 250° Fahrenheit, shall be added slowly and the mixture agitated by an air blast, or other suitable means, until a complete blending of the two ingredients is effected, resulting in a homogeneous cement. When "Asphaltic Cement" contains more than 10 per cent. of mineral matter it must be thoroughly agitated when used, as must all dipping kettles when in use.

6. 142. The words "Asphalt Paving Mixture" shall be construed to mean a mixture of 12-15 per cent. asphaltic cement,

83-70 per cent. sand,

5-15 per cent. pulverized rock.

The proportions of these ingredients shall be determined by weight and shall depend upon their kind and quality and the traffic upon the street. The mixture shall conform to the following requirements, viz.: It shall be homogeneous and tenacious, free from brittleness at ordinary temperatures and it shall not be too soft to sustain the traffic in hot weather nor so hard as to be brittle in cold weather; it shall not contain less than nine (9) per cent. nor more than twelve (12) per cent. of total bitumen, including the flux, that will dissolve in carbon bisulphides. It shall be compounded after the following manner: The sand, or the mixture of sand and stone dust and the "Asphaltic Cement," shall be heated separately to about 300° Fahr. The "Pulverized Rock" while cold shall be mixed with the hot sand in the required proportions, and then mixed with the "Asphaltic Cement," at the required temperature and in the proper proportions in a suitable apparatus, so as to effect a thoroughly homogeneous mixture. Sand boxes and asphalt gauges must be weighed in the presence of in-spectors as often as may be desired. The paving mixture, of whatsoever materials or in whatsoever proportion it shall be compounded, shall be compounded according to the demands of the best state of the art and in a skillful and workmanlike manner. If the proportions of the mixture are found to be improper or the mixture is unskillfully prepared, it will be condemned, same properties as that made of refined asphalt and heavy petroleum oil, as hereinbefore described, or properties that shall be considered and accepted by the Commissioner of Highways as equivalent or superior thereto.

Sand—The sand to be used shall be hard grained, moderately sharp and clean, not containing more than I per cent. of clay or loam. On sifting, the whole of it shall pass a 10-mesh screen, 20 per cent. shall pass an 80mesh screen, and at least 7 per cent, shall pass a 100-mesh screen.

replaced by materials in the proper proportions and of the required quality at the expense of the Contractor.

143. The asphalt paving mixture shall not contain any coal tar or blast furnace tar or coke oven tar nor any product prepared from them. Nor shall it contain any solid or semi-solid residuum of petroleum nor any liquid residuum of petroleum other than is contained in the bituminous flux, but it shall be compounded of asphaltic cement, sand and pulverized rock, as above described, and nothing else.

REASONS FOR CHANGES.

PAGE 35, SECTION 16, PARAGRAPH 7

-of present specifications reads as follows: Upon this binder course must be laid the wearing surface, or pavement proper, the basis of which or asphaltic cement must be refined asphalt unmixed with any of the products of coal tar."

This excludes the products of coal tar from admixture in the wearing surface, but does not exclude a number of other things-pitches and residuums equally objectionable.

PAGE 35, SECTION 16, PARAGRAPH 7.

The term "Refined Asphalt" is ambiguous and open to construction. The same term is used on page 5 in paragraph 2, where the language is "a sample of not less than five ounces of Refined Asphalt."

In section 17, paragraph 1, it is directed that the wearing surface shall be composed of Asphaltic Cement, in turn composed of Refined Asphalt and Heavy Petroleum Oil.

Then follows what at first sight appears to be a definition and explanation of Refined Asphalt. This explanation is, like the matter it explains, ambiguous and open to construction. If, as seems probable, the word "Asphalt" is used synonymously with "Asphaltum" a fundamental error is introduced.

"Asphaltum" is a word used from time immemorial to designate the solid, nearly pure form of bitumen, as it occurs in nature. "Asphalt," on the contrary, is used to designate the mixtures of limestone or sandstone with bitumen in all proportions as they occur in nature.

IT IS AN INEXCUSABLE BLUNDER TO USE ONE WORD WITH THE MEANING OF THE OTHER IN A LEGAL DOCUMENT.

to misconstruction. Section 17 starts out with a specific declaration that the Standard Pavement mixture shall be

These specifications, that are supposed to remove all difficulty, are still ambiguous and open

1. Asphaltic Cement, consisting of Refined Asphalt and Heavy Petroleum Oil or Liquid

2, Clean, sharp sand.

3. Finely powdered carbonate of lime, granite or quartz.

While the second and third constituents are clearly stated, the first constituent, on the other hand, is defined under two heads, viz.:

"Refined Asphalt," and "Heavy Petroleum Oil,"

-both of which phrases are open to construction, as we will show in the next paragraph.

PAGE 35, SECTION 17, PARAGRAPH I. Refined Asphalt-Is nowhere defined or described. The formula given above does not require ASPHALT.

This language does not define or describe anything, nor does it specify anything. It does not even state the source of the crude material. Of course the crude material must be natural as no material may be obtained outside of nature. Under this form of words anything may be used that may be obtained from "the crude, natural material." What material? Coal, petroleum, maltha, asphaltum, asphalt. In what way? Any way. Nothing is excluded from these specifications but coal tar and its products, and a few unusual by-products of the arts like candle-tar. The "Pitch of Blast Furnace Tar" and "Coke Oven Tar" are not excluded. "Coke Pitch" and the "Residuums of Petroleum" are not excluded, nor is "Pittsburg Flux" made from either Eastern or California Petroleum nor Blyerite. They are all obtained from crude, natural material; provided, that they "shall be in all respects satisfactory to the Commissioner of Highways."

Accomplish what? Refined Asphaltum or refined Trinidad Pitch is never uniform in the same barrel, except within limits. This requirement is impracticable,

Again, no crude asphalt is required in the above formula, nor is any kind of asphalt required as the crude material.

No form of words could be more ambiguous or mean less.

This requirement is wholly arbitrary. It cannot apply to any Asphalt as the richest Asphalts contain only about 12 per cent. of bitumen.

It cannot apply to asphaltums, for they all contain more than 80 per cent. of bitumen. It must apply only to Trinidad Pitch, which is a unique substance, neither an Asphalt nor an Asphaltum.

The number 55 as applied to "Refined Trinidad Pitch" is purely arbitrary and has no significance as a constant by which the fitness of material may be determined for the construction

It has been found by years of experience, that no practicable difference is to be observed in the use of well washed and dried samples of Gasoline as they are found on the market. Such specific directions as to the specific gravity and boiling point are therefore of no value. The percentage soluble in Pennsylvania petroleum ether (sixty-eight) is too high.

It rigidly applied, that percentage would exclude nearly everything now on the market, except Trinidad Pitch, that has been oiled in refining, and Ventura Flux and Kentucky Rock.

Very few street surfaces, even with their content of Petroleum tar, yield such a large percentage as 68 per cent., and the larger proportion of "Refined Trinidad Pitches," including many Lake Pitches of unquestionable good quality, fall below 68 per cent.

We lately have seen a table which included 65 analyses of 25 crude and refined asphaltums, asphalts and residuums, including Trinidad Pitch. Of the 65 specimens, but 21 yielded 68 per cent. of total bitumen, soluble in petroleum ether.

Of the 65 analyses, 51 gave more than 60 per cent. so soluble. Of 11 analyses of Refined Trinidad Pitch, 3 were above 70 per cent., all of which were oiled in refining; 5 were above 68 per cent., including the 3 last mentioned, and all were above 62 per cent. They were all samples of good refined Trinidad Pitch. The 21 samples mentioned above that were above 68 per cent., included 10 varieties of the 25 that were represented. Seyssel Rock, Gilsonite, Bermudez and California Asphaltums, are excluded by this requirement and Ventura Flux and other California Residuums are admitted.

The requirement is wholly arbitrary and in the interest of the Trinidad Lake Monopoly.

* "It shall Soften at from 189° to 192° Fahrenheit."

" As all asphaltums and Trinidad Pitch soften with any increase of temperature, this requirement is perfectly useless, unless the word "soften" is carefully defined and limited."

* "And flow at from 200° to 210° Fahrenheit"?

This requirement is, like the softening, purely arbitrary, and of no value unless the word flow is defined.

* "It shall volatilize from 21/2 to 3 per cent, of oil in 10 hours at a temperature of 400° Fahrenheit." This is an absolute declaration leaving a possible variation of only 1/2 per cent.; such a requirement is wholly without significance unless the method of conducting the experiment is described and followed to the minutest detail. * "It shall have a Specific Gravity of approximately 1.38." This requirement applies to nothing on the market but Trinidad Pitch, and if rigidly enforced would exclude everything else.

* "And shall be free from all manner and form of adulteration." This requirement means absolutely nothing, following the vague and meaningless requirements that precede it.

"After the evaporation of the solvent, the pure bituminous matter soluble in carbon bisulphide shall be adhesive, malleable and ductile at temperatures ranging from 70° Fahrenheit to its liquifying point."

This is an absolutely meaningless requirement, and describes nothing. There is no bituminous material used in street pavement that is not soft enough at 70° to be adhesive. Malleable and ductile are terms applied to metals and have no meaning as used here.

"It shall soften at 168° Fahrenheit and flow at 180° Fahrenheit."

This requirement is positively absurd, as it could not be applied to any one brand of material on the market with which we are acquainted, and yet the requirement is an absolute declaration.

Heavy Petroleum-The Oil used in the manufacture of Asphaltic Cement as hereinafter described shall be a petroleum from which Lighter Oils have been removed by distillation without cracking, until it has a specific gravity of 18° to 22° Beaume and the following properties.

The substance herein described is Reduced Oil, prepared for use in lubricating the axles of railroad cars, and is not on the market for use in street paving. It contains usually a large percentage of paraffine.

The "petroleum tar" in use for street paving is a product of destructive distillation and should be as free as possible from Paraffine. It cannot be made without cracking.

(b) "Fire Test, not less than 350° Fahrenheit."

Both a flash and fire test are useless. Either one is sufficient.

"Asphaltic Cement-Asphaltic Cement, manufactured from Refined Asphalt and Heavy Petroleum Oil agreeing in composition and properties with those described in the foregoing paragraphs shall be prepared in the following manner."

No composition is stated in any of the foregoing paragraphs.

"To the melted Asphalt at a temperature of not over 325° Fahrenheit, the oil, after having been heated to at least 250° Fahrenheit, is added in suitable proportions to produce an Asphaltic Cement satisfactory to the Commissioner of Highways. To accomplish this from 15 to 21 pounds of oil per 100 pounds of refined Asphalt will be required. As soon as the oil has begun to be added, suitable agitation by means of an air blast or other acceptable appliances shall commence and be continued until a homogeneous Cement is produced. The appliances for agitation shall be such as to accomplish this in ten hours, during which time the temperature shall be kept at from 250° to 350° Fahrenheit and no higher. If the Cement then appears homogeneous and free from lumps and inequalities it may be used. Should it not prove satisfactory such deficiencies as may exist shall be corrected by the addition of hot oil or melted Asphalt in the necessary proportions."

These very elaborate directions for the preparation of Asphaltic Cement are after all vague and entirely inadequate.

The essential property of an Asphaltic Cement; namely, that the Asphaltic material and the oil shall be completely blended and dissolved in each other, is not mentioned.

It does not make a particle of difference what the proportions may be, how long they are blown and at what temperature below 400° Fahrenheit, whether or not the mixture is lumpy or whether or not it is satisfactory to anybody, if the blending of the two components is not

No test to ascertain this condition is mentioned, and, indeed, its fundamental importance does not appear to have been within the knowledge of the author of the specifications.

"Should a 'Liquid Asphalt' or other softening agent be used as a substitute for a portion or all of the heavy Petroleum Oil, * * * its acidity in terms of Caustic Potash must not exceed two (2) Per Cent."

Precisely what this means as it stands, or how it may be interpreted, we are unable to say. We have never encountered in chemical literature a parallel passage! It is possible that the author of this requirement knows what it means, but we doubt it.

It is possible that "Liquid Asphalt" may be found with an acid reaction, but what relation that may have to "Caustic Potash" that can be expressed in percentage terms, is, without further explanation, a mystery.

PRESENT SPECIFICATIONS.

(19) Rock Asphalt-Should any of the rock asphalts be used, the material shall be a natural bituminous limestone, and shall be prepared and laid in the following manner:

Preparation of Rock Asphalt.

The lumps of rock, after being mixed in the proper proportions, shall be finely crushed and pulverized, and the powder passed through a twenty (20) mesh sieve. Nothing whatever shall be added to or taken from the powder obtained by grinding the bituminous rock. The powder shall contain from 9 to 12 per cent. of natural bitumen.

Delivery and Laying.

This powder shall be heated in a suitable apparatus to 200° or 250° Fahrenheit and must be brought to the ground at a temperature of not less than 180° Fahrenheit in carts made for the purpose, and carefully spread as specified for refined asphalt pavement, to such depth that after having received its ultimate compression it will have a thickness of two and one-half (21/2) inches when laid on concrete. When the foundation is other than concrete it shall be laid on a one (1) inch binder course as heretofore described, and the net thickness of the rock asphalt wearing surface, after compression, shall be two (2) inches. The surface shall be rendered perfectly even by tamping, smoothing and rolling with heated appliances of approved design. No rock asphalt shall be laid on a grade exceeding one and a half (11/2) per cent. PROPOSED SPECIFICATIONS.

148. Rock Asphalt-Should any of the rock asphalts be used, the material shall be a natural bituminous limestone or sandstone or a mixture of the two, and shall be prepared and laid in the following manner:

These paragraphs are retained.

REASONS FOR CHANGES.

There are practically no natural bituminous limestones available for use in New York City. All such have to come from Europe or the Indian Territory.

There are, however, natural bituminous sandstones in Kentucky, that when mixed with bituminous limestone are used for street pavements, and are excluded from competition by Section 19.

PRESENT SPECIFICATIONS.

(20) General Requirement-The asphalt for use under contract shall be one agreeing in | composition and proportion with that described in the foregoing section, or one having com-position and properties which are equivalent or superior thereto, as determined by the Commissioner of Highways: But whatever may be the character of the asphalt used or the manner of manipulation and laying the pavement obtained must and shall conform to the following general requirements. The pavement when laid shall not be so soft as to be unfit for travel on the hottest days of summer, nor so hard as to disintegrate from the effects of frost. When laid, it shall be equal in consistency, surface and durability to the standard pavement made as here-inbefore described. It shall contain no water nor appreciable amount of light oils nor matter volatile at a temperature under 250° Fahrenheit. It shall yield, when extracted with bisulphide of carbon and after evaporation of the solven, not less than nine (9) nor more than twelve (12) | asphalt be used, the mineral matter shall be

151. General Requirement-Whatever may be the proportions or qualities of the Asphalt or Asphalt Rock used, or the manner of manipulation and laying, the pavement obtained shall conform to the following general requirements. The pavement when laid shall not be so soft as to be unfit for travel on the hottest days in summer, nor so hard as to disintegrate from the effects of the severest winter cold. When laid, it shall be equal in consistency, surface and durability, to the best pavement of its kind. It shall contain no water nor appreciable amount of light oils nor matter volatile at a temperature of 250° Fahr. It shall yield not less than nine (9), nor more than twelve (12) per cent. of matter soluble in carbon bisulphide. The extracted bituminous matter shall have a flash test of 300° Fahr. All of the mineral matter shall pass a 10 mesh per linear inch screen and not less than 15 per cent. shall pass a 100 mesh per linear inch screen. If rock per cent. of pure bituminous matter. The that which occurs in the natural product. In extracted bituminous matter shall have a firetest of 350° Fahrenheit, and shall not possess any marked acidity to caustic potash. All of the mineral matter shall pass a (10) mesh (per linear inch) sieve and not less than 15 per cent. shall pass a 100 mesh per linear inch sieve while the remainder shall be graduated between these limits. If rock asphalt be used the mineral matter shall be that which occurs in the natural product. In case of repairs, it will be required that such repairs shall match in color the original pavement and be made with a pavement mixture equal to the above described.

case of repairs, it will be required that such repairs match the original pavement in kind, quality and color.

REASON FOR CHANGES.

This Section (20) is a condensed summary of sections 16 and 17. While agreeing with them in the main, it is sufficiently different to lead to confusion if it is strictly interpreted, as it should be.

No composition is given in those sections for either Refined Asphalt or heavy petroleum oil. The properties enumerated are in the main exclusively those of Trinidad Pitch, and they are so stated as to exclude the natural California asphaltum on the one hand and Kentucky Rock on the other. The clause, "but whatever may be the character of the asphalt used," does not afford any relief to the requirements of the other clauses, which are mandatory.

These specifications are a rather clumsily devised scheme to restrict the use of natural bituminous minerals to Trinidad Pitch. While doing this practically, there is an apparent attitude of free competition that is without reality. There is also an apparent restriction to the use of natural bitumens that is only apparent. The several varieties of petroleum residues, and particularly those from California, are not excluded, either specifically, nor in general terms, whatever may have been intended. The properties of bituminous minerals that would be effective in securing good streets and excluding bad ones, are nowhere mentioned, while a number of properties common to all bituminous minerals are made mandatory in such vague terms as to be practically without value. On comparing these criticisms with the material submitted, we think it will be manifest that, while a large part remains unchanged, the specifications have been made broader, clearer, more specific, and less open to construction.
