DEPARTMENT OF PARKS.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PARKS, BOROUGHS OF MANHATTAN AND RICHMOND, FOR THE YEAR 1905.

Hon. GEORGE B. McCLELLAN, Mayor, The City of New York:

Sir—Pursuant to the provisions of the Charter, I send you herewith report of the operations and finances of the Park Department, Boroughs of Manhattan and Richmond, during the year ending December 31, 1905.

Very respectfully,

MOSES HERRMAN, Commissioner.

Report for the Year 1905.

The important feature of park work in the boroughs of Manhattan and Richmond for the year 1905 was undoubtedly the completion and throwing open to the public of two new parks and recreation centers. These parks are Thomas Jefferson Park at One Hundred and Eleventh to One Hundred and Fourteenth streets, First avenue to the East river, and DeWitt Clinton Park at Fifty-second to Fifty-fourth streets, Eleventh to Twelfth avenues.

In the line of the extension of park facilities was the substantial completion of the construction work of St. Gabriel's Park, between Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth streets, First and Second avenues.

Almost equal in importance, however, was the comprehensive and systematic work done in the matter of resoling, reshaping and restoring parts of Central Park, pruning trees, removing dead timber and permanent betterments of walks and drives.

The work of graveling the East Drive north of McGown's Pass to entrances at Sixth and Seventh avenues, also the entrance drive at One Hundred and Sixth street and Eighth avenue, the driveway around the Circle on the hill near One Hundred and Sixth street, and the West Drive road to Bridge 26 on about a line of One Hundred and Third street, was completed.

A great quantity of graveling work was also done along the Central Drive from the Statue of Commerce to that of Daniel Webster, and the upper portions of the East and West drives, in connection with the laying of asphalt gutters. In the several places where the basins were removed or locations changed it was necessary to restore the drive by banking up the basin frames with gravel and restoring the sod borders of the lawns.

The work of manuring the lawns was very thoroughly done. All the large lawns of Central Park, such as the Ball Ground, the Green, North and South Meadows, the lawn at Ninety-seventh street and Fifth avenue, Cedar Hill, Cherry Hill, and the lawns bordering on the drives, received a heavy coat of manure. The herbaceous beds along the west side of the East Drive from about Eighty-fifth to One Hundredth streets were covered liberally, as were the ornamental shrubs such as rhododendrons and magnolias.

Very considerable work was also performed on the bridle roads. The gravel, which in many places had worked into the gutters, was thrown back and the roads were kept harrowed and in good shape for use.

The extent and character of the work done can probably best be shown by a brief resume from the records of the Engineering Department:

Central Park.

The work of constructing a pipe sewer from the Mineral Springs to the City sewer south of the Dairy in Central Park was begun in 1904, but was not finished until the latter part of 1905. The length of the main trunk sewer is over one-half a mile. The excavations vary in depth, in some places reaching 22 feet, about one-half of the work being through solid rock. In connection with this main various sub-drains were run to the cottages and buildings along the line, increasing the length of the pipe laid to practically 4,000 feet.

The entire territory of the park between Seventy-second and Fifty-ninth streets has been taken care of, and all sewage and waste water which formerly discharged into the lakes is now carried to the City sewers. Further work should be done in this direction, and if the appropriation which has been asked for to cover the same will be made available the remaining buildings in the park will be taken care of.

The amount of work performed on the contract was:

Cubic yards of excavation of earth, rock or other materials and removal of same	9,000
Cubic yards of refilling for trenches over pipe sewer	9,000
Linear feet of 15-inch pipe sewer laid	974
Linear feet of 12-inch pipe sewer laid	1,497
Linear feet of 10-inch pipe sewer laid	722
Linear feet of 8-inch pipe sewer laid	694
Linear feet of 6-inch pipe sewer laid	30
Road basins built	3
Surface basin built	1
Receiving basins built	6
Square feet of sod laid	16,701

New Entrance to Park at Fifty-ninth Street and Seventh Avenue.

Demands were made on the Department for a permanent entrance to Central Park at Fifty-ninth street and Seventh avenue, to take the place of the temporary one which had been in use for some years and which had outlived its usefulness owing to its congested construction. The entire entrance was remodelled, a new drive was constructed on modern lines on a telford macadam foundation, with a gravel superstructure and asphalt block gutters. A new bridle road was laid out with connecting link from the north side of the drive to the existing bridle road in the valley. The entire topography to the east of the temporary road was remodelled and new walk systems were introduced, the said walks being of the rock asphalt type on concrete base with rubblestone foundations. A new drainage system was laid connecting with the old system, and the new basins for surface drainage were put in place. Steps were built and connecting walks formed crossing the drives and bridle road, and the entire slope territory was remoulded and resodded. The completion of this work opens a new entrance to the park and fills a long-felt want.

The following was the work done on the construction:

Square feet of walk area sub-graded by excavation and fill	5,507
Cubic yards of filling in roadways, walks and embankments	344
Cubic yards of rock excavation	10
Cubic yards of rubblestone in foundations for roadways and walks	131

Cubic yards of rubblestone foundation built for steps	10
Square yards of asphalt block pavement laid on Plaza at entrance and in gutters	277
Square yards of telford macadam roadway built	830

Linear feet of 6-inch fine-axed curb set	60
Square feet of sod laid	8,000
Cubic yards of mould spread	500

In connection with the branch bridle road at Fifty-ninth street and Seventh avenue, the connecting link between the drive and the bridle road in the valley, the work done follows:

Cubic yards of excavation and removal of same	150
Cubic yards of rubblestone foundation in bridle road	60
Cubic yards of clay spread over rubblestone	8
Cubic yards of bridle road gravel as superstructure	45
Square feet of asphalt block gutters laid	300
Square yards of bridle road constructed	2,130
Cubic yards of mould embankments	50
Square feet of sod laid on slopes	2,000

Entrance to Park at Sixty-sixth Street and Central Park West.

About six years ago a temporary entrance was constructed at Sixty-sixth street and Eighth avenue (Central Park West) to accommodate equestrians, and also for the use of light vehicles. The road was a narrow one and the Department received continued complaints on the subject. Owing to the heavy plantings and general topography of the ground the improvement as to laying out a new entrance was a difficult one. During the summer of 1905 the plans were fully prepared and approved and the work of construction begun. The entire section of park between the Transverse road and a point 300 feet north and between the West Drive and the Eighth avenue wall was remodeled. After the necessary excavations had been made for the slopes, drives, walks and bridle road, a new drive was constructed entering the park at the circular entrance at Sixty-sixth street and joining the West Drive at a point 150 feet north of the sheepfold. A bridle path was constructed running parallel to the drive for about half the length of the same and then, diverging to the north, with junctions or connections with the old bridle road system, joined the West Drive. A new rock asphalt walk on concrete base and rubblestone foundations was constructed from Sixty-sixth street, joining the walk adjacent to the West Drive.

It became necessary to remodel the entire drainage system, to reconstruct the parapet retaining walls at the entrance, to replant the entire territory and in general remodel that section of the park. The entrance has been open to the public for some time.

In connection with this improvement the following work was done:

Cubic yards of earth excavation.....	1,300

Laying Asphalt Gutters on Concrete Base in Place of the Stone Block Gutters of the Carriage Drives in Central Park.

The work of removing the old stone block gutters of the carriage drives in certain sections of Central Park and constructing new gutters with 2-inch rock asphalt mastic wearing surface and concrete base was continued during the year. The asphalt gutters laid under previous contracts warranted the continuing of the work, inasmuch as they proved that there was a saving of all cost for repairs. Embraced in this contract was the cleaning of the drain pipes and all basins along the line. The work of improving these gutters was made necessary through the continued resurfacing of the drives. When the work of asphaltting had been fully completed the quarters of the drives were brought to the new grade, and at least 8 feet in width of the roadway was gained, as in the old construction the quarters were too steep to permit of driving on the same. Eight miles of gutters were treated in this way.

Small sections of the drive gutters still remain unpaved, as well as the entire bridle road system. It is especially recommended that an effort be made to obtain the funds necessary to defray the expenses of reconstructing these gutters on modern lines and thereby obtain a better finish, an easier flow of water and a considerable saving of expense in the matter of repairs.

The work done on the contract follows:

Cubic yards of excavation of all kinds, including the taking up and relaying where required stone block gutters as subfoundation.....	1,550
Cubic yards of concrete in place as foundation for wearing surface.....	1,408
Square feet of 2-inch rock asphalt mastic wearing surface in gutters.....	73,378
Square feet of 1-inch rock asphalt mastic wearing surface in walks.....	7,324
Cubic yards of bituminous concrete binder as foundation for cross walks.....	4.6
Square yards of rock asphalt as wearing surface for cross walks.....	133

Concreting and Waterproofing the Floor of the Carpenter Shop in Central Park.

Work was begun during the latter part of the year and is being prosecuted rapidly to completion in the matter of a new concrete floor in the carpenter shop in Transverse road No. 3. Pools of water having formed under the floors, an investigation was made and it was found that this water was carried under the carpenter shop floor through channels or fissures under the foundations. The wooden floor was ripped out, the earth and rock excavated to a depth of between 12 and 15 inches, channels were formed and concrete gutters and tile drains laid in the shape of a new underground drainage system. A concrete floor of Portland cement concrete, on the surface of which a damp-proof course is to be laid, to be followed with a wooden floor, will complete the construction. The work done on this improvement during 1905 is as follows:

Cubic yards of excavation.....	60
Cubic yards of concrete (6 inches deep) deposited in place and flushed with cement.....	50
Linear feet of cement gutter laid with brick casing and broken stone filling....	240

New Water Supply for Department Buildings, Menagerie and Fire Purposes.

The work of laying a new cast-iron water main from Fifth avenue and Sixty-fourth street through and under the office building, diverging north and south to points fixed for fire hydrants and proper connections for service to Menagerie buildings and for filling the various tanks, was completed. In the office building new 2-inch feed pipes to the tanks with connections to the boiler room were connected. A sufficient supply of water is now obtained for all purposes required.

In connection with this improvement the following work was done:

Cubic yards of excavation.....	240
Ely connection with 36-inch main.....	1
Linear feet of 4-inch cast-iron water pipe laid.....	300
Linear feet of galvanized iron pipe laid, 2-inch.....	20
Linear feet of galvanized 1-inch water pipe laid.....	165

Square feet of walk pavement of rock asphalt mastic laid on concrete base over trenches.....	858
Square yards of asphalt roadway pavements restored on bituminous binder and concrete base.....	10 1/2
Cubic yards of concrete in foundations.....	17
Square feet of sod furnished and laid.....	900

New Walks of Asphalt Block and Rock Asphalt Mastic Laid in Menagerie Grounds.

The old tar walks in certain sections of the Menagerie Grounds had become badly worn and were dangerous to travel, as also some of the mastic work. Contracts were executed covering the repairs to the same and the total work done follows:

Square feet of asphalt block pavement on sand bed laid.....	6,500
Square feet of rock asphalt mastic walks laid.....	1,628
Cubic yards of concrete in foundations for same where required.....	2 1/2

In connection with this work it was found necessary to excavate the then existing pavements and remove the rubbish, to adjust the borders adjacent to the new walks by the spreading of mold and laying of sod.

The work done in this connection follows:

Cubic yards of excavation of old tar pavement, earth and other materials.....	75
Cubic yards of mold in reshaping lawns.....	5
Square feet of sod laid.....	1,000

Cathedral Parkway (One Hundred and Tenth Street, Between Seventh and Fifth Avenues and the Plaza at Fifth Avenue).

One Hundred and Tenth street, between Fifth and Seventh avenues, was widened 30 feet on the north side under the laws creating the parkway. The old roadway, 30 feet wide, was paved many years ago as a parkway, telford macadam foundation and gravel finish. Trucking and general wear and tear had placed the road beyond the possibility of repair. In conformity with the law the roadway was widened to 45 feet. The northerly sidewalk was made 25 feet and the park sidewalk 30 feet. This Department entered into a contract to set new 8-inch curbstone on a concrete base on both sides of the street from the Plaza at One Hundred and Tenth street to the Seventh avenue line, to redress and reset on concrete base the 6-inch curb at the Plaza, to make the necessary excavations, build the necessary drainage and to lay a concrete foundation with a cement mortar finish, and as a superstructure to pave with asphalt block. The work was fully completed in November. In connection with this widening the railroad company operating through this street removed the old-fashioned rails and substituted the modern girder rail.

This Department has entered into further contracts for improving the sidewalks of the Circle and Plaza and street proper between Fifth and Seventh avenues, but owing to the lateness of the season the work on the same will not be ordered on until the spring of 1906. The work done and embraced in the contract follows:

West Ninety-sixth Street, Between West End Avenue and the Hudson River Railroad.

This part of West Ninety-sixth street, which was placed under the jurisdiction or supervision of the Park Department by an act of the Legislature, was the source of continued complaints as to the dangerous condition of the pavements.

In order to properly pave this street it was found necessary to remove the existing paving blocks, fill in the pockets between the rock fill with concrete, regulate and sub-grade to its proper level the roadway, place thereon a 6-inch concrete foundation re-enforced with 1-inch iron bars laid on 3-foot centres and extending across the entire roadway from curb to curb. On top of this a 1-inch sand foundation was placed, and the granite blocks with tar and gravel joint were then laid. New curb

Improvement of Drainage in the Vicinity of One Hundred and Twenty-sixth Street.

The plumbing and sewerage system of Claremont Hotel at One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street and Riverside drive was the source of constant complaint and trouble and it became absolutely unsanitary. It was necessary to construct a new system. The entire plumbing and piping of the building was torn out and a new system was put in place on modern lines.

Three hundred and seventy feet of 12-inch vitrified stoneware drain pipe was laid and connections made with the City sewers.

The excavation for the laying of this pipe amounted to 550 cubic yards. The refilling of the trenches required a similar amount of material.

Thomas Jefferson Park.

This park, which has an area of about fifteen and one-half acres, is located in one of the most thickly populated districts of the City. Although the construction of the park proper was completed during 1904, the equipment of the playgrounds and gymnasium was not undertaken until 1905. Great care was exercised in arranging the various apparatus in the most condensed form, and at the same time so as to be serviceable, owing to the great demand made upon the Department for space.

The playgrounds and kindergartens have an area of practically 45,000 square feet and have been fully equipped with the necessary shelters. The area of the gymnasium grounds proper is approximately 36,500 square feet.

As a finish to the bulkhead, the easterly boundary of the park, an ornamental iron railing faced with a wire mesh screening is to be erected. The contract for this work is executed. It is recommended that some action be taken as to acquiring title to lands under water at the slips at the foot of East One Hundred and Eleventh and East One Hundred and Fourteenth streets, so that these streets may be regulated, graded and paved to the bulkhead line and not end abruptly, as they do now, at the slip.

The opening of Thomas Jefferson Park on October 7, 1905, before briefly alluded to, should have a more full and prominent record in the reports of the Department.

The exercises were obviously of great popular interest, as attested by the throngs in attendance. The occasion was further notable as being the last public appearance of the Hon. John J. Pallas, President of the Park Board, whose sudden death occurred soon afterward on October 16, 1905.

President Pallas had devoted considerable energy to furthering the opening of this park, and his attendance and hard work on the day of the opening were at the expense of his health, his physical condition having been even then considerably impaired.

The following is the programme of the exercises:

1. March Hon. John J. Pallas, President, Park Board, Presiding.
2. Invocation Right Rev. M. J. Lavelle, Vicar General, New York Diocese
3. Grand fantasia "America" Herbert

5. Benediction Rev. Robert Lewis Paddock
6. Chorus "Star-Spangled Banner" Key
7. Overture "William Tell" Rossini
8. Spanish ballad "La Paloma" Missinoo
9. Waltz, descriptive "Tally-Ho" Fahrbach
10. Cornet solo Single-Stick Drill, Gymnastic Exhibition.

DeWitt Clinton Park.

In 1904 the work on the construction and improvement of the small park known as DeWitt Clinton Park, between Fifty-second and Fifty-fourth streets, Eleventh and Twelfth avenues, was begun. The work was completed during the past year. In its layout this park differs considerably from the general city park construction. The centre feature is carried on practically a level plane, beginning at Eleventh avenue grade and ending at the brow of an embankment 62 feet from the Twelfth avenue line. The park slopes are formed from this centre feature running to the north and south to Fifty-second and Fifty-fourth streets, and from the brow of the slope to Twelfth avenue. The centre section of the park is taken up in the construction of the playgrounds, kindergartens, gymnasium and running track, and the pavilion or comfort station and the pergola building on the westerly end.

The gymnasium enclosure is equipped with modern apparatus and offers facilities for out-door recreation for the hundreds who wish to avail themselves of the privileges. The children's playgrounds are extensively used, and are a feature.

The pavilion is equipped with modern shower baths and other necessary features, and from the floor of the building proper a view of the entire park is obtained.

The pergola building on the westerly side of the park is to be used as a school and exhibition room in connection with the work of the farm gardens. The broad walks surrounding the pergola are 20 feet above the level of Twelfth avenue, and from the same a general view of the Hudson river is obtained.

The area of DeWitt Clinton Park is a little more than 7½ acres. It was thrown open to the public in the early part of November, 1905, and since that day it has been well patronized.

It might be of more than passing interest to note the amount of the different classes of work embraced in the contract for constructing this park. Omitting all mention as to excavation, regulating, filling, etc., as that work was embraced in previous reports, and dealing only with the superstructure or construction of park proper, the details are:

Construction of a 12-inch pipe sewer in concrete casing from the pavilion in DeWitt Clinton Park to the City sewer in West Fifty-fourth street.

Certain modifications in the construction of the cellars and sub-cellars of the pavilion at DeWitt Clinton Park necessitated the abandoning of the proposed drainage system from that building. A new contract was made to carry the general drainage from the pavilion to the City sewer in Fifty-fourth street. The general grade of the new sewer was from 6 feet to 25 feet below the finished surface of the park, the greater part of the work being through solid rock. Owing to the fact that the building had been erected it was found necessary to handle this rock excavation with great care.

The work embraced in the contract is as follows:

Cubic yards of dry rubblestone wall built over drains	121
Linear feet of 3-inch porous drain pipe laid	260

St. Gabriel's Park.

The work of constructing and improving the small park known as St. Gabriel's Park, located off the easterly side of the City, between Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth streets, First and Second avenues, was begun in 1904 and completed in 1905. The area of this park is not quite three acres. Though small, it was laid out on the lines of the more modern city parks. Playgrounds and gymnasium features were introduced, while the park treatment formed the border line. A site was determined upon and the place reserved for the erection of a proper comfort station. Plans were prepared for the same, but actual work was not begun.

The space allowed for playgrounds is approximately 14,300 square feet. The running track is 10 laps to a mile, and the area of the gymnasium grounds proper is 15,214 square feet.

These grounds are to be fully equipped with modern gymnasium apparatus and playground fixtures. It is to be hoped that money for this work will be available at the beginning of the coming year, so that the grounds may be thrown open to the public.

The amount of work done on the contract for constructing this park was:

The opening of DeWitt Clinton Park to the public on November 4, 1905, was planned and arranged for by the late John J. Pallas, but he did not live to take part in the exercises. They were carried out on the lines as planned by his successor, Samuel Parsons, Jr., who had, as Landscape Architect of the Department, joined heartily in the President's efforts to facilitate the work of completion.

Playgrounds.

During the past year playgrounds were in operation in the following parks:

- East River Park, with two playground attendants.
- John Jay Park, with two playground attendants and one gymnasium attendant.
- Tompkins Square Park, with three playground attendants and two gymnasium attendants.
- Hamilton Fish Park, with three playground attendants and two gymnasium attendants.
- William H. Seward Park, with three playground attendants and two gymnasium attendants.
- Corlears Hook Park, with one playground attendant and one gymnasium attendant.
- Seventeenth Street Park, with one playground attendant.
- Hudson Park, with one playground attendant and one gymnasium attendant.

Two playgrounds were opened the latter part of the year, one in Thomas Jefferson Park and one in DeWitt Clinton Park, making ten playgrounds now in operation under the jurisdiction of the Park Department.

The apparatus and equipment of these playgrounds have been fully described in previous reports.

The time set for opening and closing the playgrounds was arranged as follows:

During January, February and March the grounds were open from 11.30 a. m. until 5.30 p. m. During April, May and June from 11.45 a. m. until 6 p. m. July, August and September from 9 a. m. until 7 p. m. November and December from 11 a. m. until 5 p. m.

On Saturdays and holidays the playgrounds were opened at 9 a. m.

Boys' Playgrounds.

The work on the boys' playgrounds varied with the seasons. Although the club and organization work was carried on throughout the year and many games and sports were ever popular, the real interest and enthusiasm centred on the games of the season.

To meet this and to create a spirit of friendly rivalry, monthly schedules of inter-park competitive games of tennis, basket ball and indoor baseball were arranged, and a monthly statement of the scores and standing of the parks was posted at each playground.

The last Saturday of each month was devoted to athletics, except during the baseball season. Five entries were allowed from each park for each event.

These inter-park competitions stirred all to activity. It was every boy's ambition to make the team and be allowed to represent his park.

Intense enthusiasm was aroused. Thousands came to the parks to witness the games and to cheer for their respective teams.

In the baseball schedules two classifications were made, seniors and juniors; seniors not to exceed 120 pounds and the juniors not to exceed 95 pounds.

In basket ball schedules three classifications were made, teams to average 60, 90 and 110 pounds, with a 10-pound allowance.

The athletics were classified as, seniors (120 pounds), juniors (95 pounds) and midjets (85 pounds).

These classifications afforded every boy on the playground a chance to try for the team of his weight and gave a stimulus to the general work. Besides the enjoyment of the games and apparatus it gave the boys an aim and an incentive to come regularly to the playgrounds.

During the baseball season the Saturday afternoon games became the event of the week to the people living in the vicinity of the parks; the scores were watched and compared with as much interest as those of the National League games. On several occasions the game had to be called to await the arrival of the police to keep the crowds in check.

The competitive games were played every Wednesday and Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Each playground was scheduled to play four games each week, two seniors and two junior games.

As a feature to arouse the interest in the basket ball competition, challenges were sent to the several teams of the high schools and settlement houses.

Hamilton Fish Park was awarded the championship pennant for basket ball and baseball for the year 1905.

The general daily work on the playgrounds consisted in keeping every one busy. The teaching of graded exercises on the different pieces of gymnastic apparatus and elementary tumbling; the coaching and teaching of baseball, football, basket ball, volley ball, tennis, athletic and field events and the gymnastic games. The smaller boys were interested in the calisthenic and dumbbell drills and marching evolutions; ring pull, hustle ball, club hustle, pursuit races, ring toss, three deep, red and black, tag ball, catch ball, dodge ball and the potato races were the favorite games of the smaller boys.

Evening Work.

The indoor gymnasium at Hamilton Fish Park was open every evening to the young men's clubs of the neighborhood. The athletic tracks at Seward and Hamilton Fish Parks were open every evening from 7.30 until 9.30 to all athletes who had secured permits. Permits were granted to the clubs of the following institutions: Christodora House, Welcome House, Gospel Settlement, Educational Alliance, the Ironside Club and the New Era Club.

In connection with the club work among the boys a model city government was organized at Hamilton Fish Park to give the boys a greater interest and responsibility in the maintenance of order and good fellowship on the playground. In July a convention was held and a charter, modeled after the Charter of The City of New York, was adopted, the preamble to which is as follows:

"In order to insure the furtherance of clean athletics and manly sports and the development of good fellowship among us, we, the boys of Hamilton Fish Park, hereby constitute ourselves the 'Playground City' and adopt the following charter, etc."

The registration and election was carried on under the same rules and regulations as is a City election.

Nathan Kase defeated Samuel Melitzer for the office of Mayor by a vote of 177 to 122. The entire Kase ticket was victorious.

Girls' Playgrounds.

The girls' playgrounds have been the scene of great activity. Accommodations and amusements were provided for all. The baby swings, the large swings, the sand pits, the volley ball, tennis and croquet courts, the giant strides, and the kindergarten pavilion with its building blocks and social occupation work all afforded a variety suitable to the tastes and pleasures of the children.

The girls, too, became proficient in tennis, tether ball and volley ball. Match games were played by the girls of Tompkins Square, Hamilton Fish and Seward Parks.

The social occupation and kindergarten classes were largely attended. Basketry, paper folding, sewing cards and the splint work were immensely popular even to the boys. Those who had learned the rudiments assisted in the instructions of the beginners, who were equally anxious to learn. In this way the children spent many pleasant hours and completed some very handsome original work.

The little folks took to the kindergarten games and story corner and delighted in building subways in the sand pits.

All holidays and festive days were celebrated with appropriate exercises, which consisted generally of songs, drills, marches and recitations.

Arbor Day was celebrated on Tompkins Park by the children of all the playgrounds, assisted by the Children's Aid Society. The ceremonies included addresses, songs and recitations by the children and the planting of an elm furnished by the Department.

Even during the cold days of the winter, which was one of exceptional severity, the swings were always busy, and together with the snow work kept the children happy. Snow houses were erected, snow-men made and toboggans built.

The Opening of Tompkins Square Park.

On July 12 the 12-lap track at Tompkins Square Park was formally opened. The exercises consisted of addresses, a band concert and athletic games for the public and parochial school boys and the boys of the playgrounds. Public School 40 carried off the honors. Ten sets of gold, silver and bronze medals were awarded the winners. Two hundred souvenir medals were distributed to those entered in the events.

Thomas Jefferson Park.

On October 7 the opening exercises were held at Thomas Jefferson Park and made a gala occasion. The programme consisted of addresses, a band concert, choruses by 2,000 children, a mass flag drill by 200 children, a mass dumbbell drill by 200 boys, a gymnastic exhibition and athletic games. The boys of John Jay Park carried the meet, the standing being as follows: Hamilton Fish, 27; John Jay, 28; Tompkins, 19; Seward, 6; Corlears Hook, 1; Thomas Jefferson, —. Twenty sets of gold, silver and bronze medals were awarded to the winners. Five hundred souvenir medals were distributed and a celluloid souvenir button presented to each one of the children.

DeWitt Clinton Park.

On November 4 DeWitt Clinton Park was formally opened. The ceremonies were similar to those at the opening of Thomas Jefferson Park. Twenty sets of medals were awarded to the winners in the athletic events.

Hamilton Fish Park carried off the honors, the standing being as follows:

Hamilton Fish, 34; John Jay, 21; Tompkins, 6; Seward, 3; Corlears, 5; Thomas Jefferson, 1.

The repairing of the playground apparatus and material has been a big factor of the work, employing five men steadily.

The following improvements have been made on the playgrounds. A 12-lap cinder track was built in the Tompkins Square playground, the playground remodelled, the ground regraded and surfaced and a complete drainage system installed. The two playgrounds at Seward Park and one at Corlears Hook Park were regraded and surfaced. To prevent the children from wearing the surfacing from under the swing frames, wooden platforms were installed under the swings at Tompkins, Hamilton Fish and Seward Parks.

Attendance.

During fine weather over 10,000 children attend the several playgrounds daily.

The Children's Farm School Garden.

The garden is in and near the westerly side of DeWitt Clinton Park, at Fifty-third street and Eleventh avenue, New York City. Irregular in outline, the garden is 250 feet long, from north to south, and from 125 to 150 feet wide, from east to west, and contains about three-fourths of an acre.

In 1905 it provided:

Plots for girls.....	215
Plots for boys.....	243
Total.....	458

Each plot was 4 feet wide and 8 feet long. The vegetables were planted in five rows, running north and south, one row in centre, the next ones a foot away on each side, the others 8 inches outside of these, leaving 4 inches to edge of path. The small paths were 18 inches wide. The other paths were 3 feet, 4 feet, 5 feet and 6 feet, according to the amount of traffic.

In the centre of the garden was a 50-foot flagpole, carrying flag 20 by 12 feet. At the base of the pole there was a circular flower bed 18 feet in diameter. About the garden there were many small observation plots, in which were grown 32 vegetables, 22 flowers and 17 weeds.

Nearly all the observation plots were along the edge of the garden because here were small plots of land unsuitable for children's plots.

The children's plots were individual small farms, which belonged to the child from planting to harvesting (dependent upon good behavior), and which no one else was allowed to work upon. The sense of ownership, often a new thing to the child, added an importance to the tiny farm which nothing else could, and stimulated to a marked degree the interest in what was developing in the farm each day. On this farm the owner must do all the work alone. But seldom was it enough to use up their energies, so the surplus energy was given to the general work in the garden.

The observation plots were from a few square inches to several square feet in size, and were for the twofold purpose of growing other plants which could not be grown in the children's plots, and to furnish work for the children which should not be entirely for themselves. In other words, that they might learn to labor for the general good.

In the observation plots it was possible to grow a variety of plants which would be instructive and helpful to the many grown visitors who came to see the garden. These were of especial interest to teachers who were able to see and get specimens of growing plants which they used in their classrooms. They took advantage of this both by getting specimens and by bringing classes to the garden.

The house used in the garden in 1905 is the same one as in 1904. A cottage 32 by 12 feet, with a piazza 32 by 12 feet, located at the north end of the garden. Also the same tool house.

During 1905 the pergola was completed and will supersede the cottage in future work. The new pergola is open to the public on top. The building is 207 feet long and adjoins the garden on its west side. It contains rooms for work in household industry, a demonstration hall, capacity between 200 and 300 seats, with two sets of folding doors so that it can be divided into three separate rooms. Also a boiler room and steam heating plant, a tool and work room and a large room for the park laborers and their tools. The rooms are about 27 feet wide inside.

Insects—Friends and enemies. Cabbage worm and butterfly. Plant lice. Tomato worm and parasites. Lady bug and larvae and many others, captured and mounted for study. Flies and maggots.	Children learned to know a number of insects and captured and killed a great number of enemies, and when they learned of the use of the ladybugs, they caught them and put them on their own plots. Two insectaries were made by the children and butterflies and caterpillars kept in them and fed and watched.

PROPOSALS FOR BIDS AND ESTIMATES FOR THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS.

The person or persons making a bid or estimate for any services, work, materials or supplies for The City of New York, or for any of its departments, bureaus or offices, shall furnish the same in a sealed envelope, indorsed with the title of the supplies, materials, work or services for which the bid or estimate is made, with his or their name or names and the date of presentation to the President or Board or to the head of the Department at his or its office, on or before the date and hour named in the advertisement for the same, at which time and place the estimates received will be publicly opened by the President or Board or head of said Department and read, and the award of the contract made according to law as soon thereafter as practicable.

Each bid or estimate shall contain the name and place of residence of the person making the same, and names of all persons interested with him therein, and, if no other person be so interested, it shall distinctly state that fact; also, that it is made without any connection with any other person making an estimate for the same purpose, and is in all respects fair and without collusion or fraud, and that no member of the Board of Aldermen, head of a department, chief of a bureau, deputy thereof, or clerk therein, or other officer of The City of New York, is, shall be or become interested, directly or indirectly, as contracting party, partner, stockholder, surety or otherwise in or in the performance of the contract, or in the supplies, work or business to which it relates, or in any portion of the profits thereof. The bid or estimate must be verified by the oath, in writing, of the party or parties making the estimate that the several matters stated herein are in all respects true.

Each bid or estimate shall be accompanied by the consent, in writing, of two householders or freeholders in The City of New York, or of a guaranty or surety company duly authorized by law to act as surety, and shall contain the matters set forth in the blank forms mentioned below.

No bid or estimate will be considered unless, as a condition precedent to the reception or consideration of any proposal, it be accompanied by a certified check upon one of the State or National banks of The City of New York, drawn to the order of the Comptroller, or money to the amount of five per centum of the amount of the bond required, as provided in section 420 of the Greater New York Charter.

The certified check or money should not be inclosed in the envelope containing the bid or estimate, but should be either inclosed in a separate envelope addressed to the head of the Department, President or Board, or submitted personally upon the presentation of the bid or estimate.

For particulars as to the quantity and quality of the supplies, or the nature and extent of the work, reference must be made to the specifications, schedules, plans, etc., on file in the said office of the President, Board or Department.

No bid shall be accepted from or contract awarded to any person who is in arrears to The City of New York upon debt or contract, or who is a defaulter, as surety or otherwise, upon any obligation to the City.

The contract must be bid for separately. The right is reserved in each case to reject all bids or estimates if it is deemed to be for the interest of the City so to do.

Bidders will write out the amount of their bids or estimates in addition to inserting the same in figures.

Bidders are requested to make their bids or estimates upon the blank forms prepared and furnished by the City, a copy of which, with the proper envelope in which to inclose the bid, together with a copy of the contract, including the specifications, in the form approved by the Corporation Council, can be obtained upon application thereto at the office of the Department for which the work is to be done. Plans and drawings of construction work may also be seen there.
