JURORS. NOTICE IN RELATION TO JURORS FOR STATE COURTS. OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF JURORS, NEW COUNTY COURT-HOUSE, NEW YORK, June 1, 1879. APPLICATIONS FOR EXEMPTIONS WILL BE heard here, from 9 to 4 daily, from all persons hitherto liable or recently serving who have become exempt, and all needed information will be given. Those who have not answered as to their liability, or proved permanent exemption, will receive a "jury enrolment notice," requiring them to appear before me this year. Whether liable or not, such notices must be answered (in person, if possible, and at this office only) under severe penalties. If exempt, the party must bring proof of exemption; if liable, he must also answer in person, giving full and correct name, residence, etc., etc. No attention paid to letters. Persons "enrolled" as liable must serve when called or pay their fines. No mere excuse will be allowed or interference permitted. The fines, received from those who, for business or other reasons, are unable to serve at the time selected, pay the expenses of this office, and if unpaid will be entered as judgments upon the property of the delinquents. All good citizens will aid the course of justice, and secure reliable and respectable jurors, and equalize their duty by serving promptly when summoned, allowing their clerks or subordinates to serve, reporting to me any attempt at bribery or evasion, and suggesting names for enrollment. Persons between sixty and seventy years of age, summer absentees, persons temporarily ill, and United States and District Court jurors are not exempt. Every man must attend to his own notice. It is a misdemeanor to give any jury paper to another to answer. It is also punishable by fine or imprisonment to give or receive any present or bribe, directly or indirectly, in relation to a jury service, or to withhold any paper or make any false statement, and every case will be fully prosecuted. THOMAS DUNLAP, Commissioner, County Court-house (Chambers street entrance).

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, NEW YORK, January 30, 1880.

IN THE CASE OF MRS. MARY MOORE, complainant, against Albert Kraemer, a licensed auctioneer, the counsel for the complainant says, in a brief which was filed in the Mayor's office on December 22, 1879: 'What is desired is that the Mayor revoke the license and thus disqualify this auctioneer from further defrauding the public and also inflict such further punishment as under the law may be imposed.'

The sale attended by the complainant was falsely advertised as a sale of household property of Colonel C. X. Bonner, whereas the articles sold were received by Kraemer from manufacturers or dealers and sold at a house occupied by him as his place of business. In consequence of this deceptive advertisement and of representations made at the sale, Mrs. Moore purchased goods which were not of the character or value which she was led to ascribe to them by the advertisement and representations. The transaction was characterized by deceit on the part of the auctioneer, which was perpetrated under cover of his license. He should therefore be no longer allowed to do business as a city licensee. The fact that the sale occurred just previous to the granting of Kraemer's present license is no valid defense. Had the facts in this case been known to me the license now outstanding would not have been granted. As they are now established, it should be revoked.

The power of the Mayor to commit for trial under chapter 138 of the laws of 1853 has been questioned by the defense, and the counsel for the prosecution concedes that it may have been modified by subsequent statutes. A question has also been raised as to the method of forfeiting auctioneer's bonds and as to who should benefit by such forfeiture. I do not consider it necessary to pass upon these questions in this case. There is a serious conflict of testimony as to the value of the articles purchased by the complainant and the amount of loss sustained by her through Kraemer's deception, and the business of the auctioneer has already been broken up through the publication of the evidence in this proceeding. The primary object of the Mayor's jurisdiction in auction cases is not to award damages to individuals but to prevent the carrying on of licensed business by persons who practice deceptions upon the public. If the complainant desires to take further proceedings against the auctioneer she can do so in the courts. In view of these facts I think it proper to limit my action to the revocation of the license of the auctioneer. In virtue of the authority vested in me by law, I, Edward Cooper, Mayor of the City of New York, do hereby revoke and annul a certain license granted by me to Albert Kraemer on the fourteenth day of June, 1879, authorizing the said Kraemer to do business as an auctioneer in the City of New York for the period of one year from the fifteenth day of June, 1879.

EDWARD COOPER, Mayor.
