The President directed the following call to be read:

CITY OF NEW YORK—BOARD OF ALDERMEN, OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT, NEW YORK, September 26, 1895.

Hon. WILLIAM H. TEN EYCK, Clerk of the Common Council:

SIR—You are hereby directed to call a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen, to be held in the Council Chamber, Room 16, City Hall, on Monday, September 30, 1895, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of reconsidering the question of the reapportionment of the various Assembly Districts embraced in the Thirteenth Senate District, in accordance with the order of Justice Beckman of the Supreme Court, and to consider such other business as may be brought up.

Yours respectfully, JOHN JEROLOMAN, President, Board of Aldermen.

In connection therewith the following was read:

The People of the State of New York, on the relation of Charles R. Gleason, to the Board of Aldermen of the City of New York, Defendant, Greeting:

Whereas, An alternative writ of mandamus was issued out of and under the seal of this Court, on the 18th day of July, 1895, directed to the Board of Aldermen of the City of New York, requiring said Board to reconvene forthwith and reapportion the Thirteenth Senate District as established by the Constitution of the State of New York into three Assembly Districts, or show cause why said reapportionment should not be made; and

Whereas, A return to said writ having been filed August 22, 1895, the issues of fact raised by said pleadings came on to be tried before the Court without a jury at an Extraordinary Term of a Circuit Court held in and for the County of New York, at the County Court-house, in the City of New York, on the 23d day of September, 1895; and

Whereas, The allegations and evidence of the parties having been heard, the Court made its findings of fact and rendered a decision thereon in tavor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and the same have been returned to this Court and duly presented and filed, and the final order has been entered the recount of the court and duly presented and the same have been returned to this Court and duly presented and filed, and the final order has been entered thereupon directing the issue of a peremptory writ of mandamus pursuant to said

Now, therefore, we command you that you reconvene on the 30th day of September, 1895, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and forthwith divide the territory comprising said Thirteenth Senate District into three Assembly Districts as nearly equal in number of inhabitants, excluding aliens, as may be of convenient and contiguous territory in as compact form as practicable; such division to be made in such manner that no one of said Assembly Districts shall contain a greater excess in population over an adjoining district in the same Senate District than the number of inhabitants, excluding aliens, of an Election District, according to the State enumeration of 1892, therein adjoining such Assembly District; and Election Districts which from their location may be included in either of two districts shall be so placed as to make said districts most nearly equal in number of inhabitants, excluding aliens. inhabitants, excluding aliens.

We further command you that you make return to the Special Term of the Supreme Court of your obedience to the mandate of this writ and the manner of your performance of the directions herein contained at an Extraordinary Session thereof, to be held at the New Court-house in the City of New York, on the 2d day of October, 1895, at 10.30 o'clock in the forenoon, pursuant to the provisions of title 2 of chapter 16 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Witness Hon. Henry R. Beekman, Judge of the Superior Court of the City of New York, and Acting Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, at the New Court-house, in the City of New York, this 25th day of September, 1895.

By the Court.

By the Court. [SEAL.]

HENRY D. PURROY, Clerk of the City and County of New York and of said Court.

FRANK D. PAVEY, Attorney for Relator and People, No. 32 Nassau street, New York City.

Which was ordered on file.

Alderman Hall moved that the whole matter be referred to the Committee on County Affairs, that the Committee go into executive session forthwith, and that the Board of Aldermen take a recess until 1.30 o'clock P. M., at which time the Committee shall report.

Prior to deciding the motion of Alderman Hall, Alderman Goodman asked unanimous consent to introduce the following, no objection being made thereto:

Whereas, The members of this Board have been shocked and pained by the sorrowful intelligence of the sudden and unexpected death of the youngest son of the Hon. William Brookfield, Commissioner of Public Works, experiencing the deepest feelings of sympathy for the afflicted family: therefore Commissioner of Public Works, experiencing the deepest feelings of sympathy for the amilited family; therefore Resolved, That the Clerk of the Common Council be and he is hereby directed to communicate with the Hon. William Brookfield, tendering to him and to the members of his family an expression of our sincere condolence at the sad bereavement which has so unfortunately befallen them in the untimely death of their young son, Herbert.

The President put the question whether the Board would agree with said resolution of Alderman Goodman. Which was decided in the affirmative.

The President then put the question whether the Board would agree with said motion of Alderman Hall. Which was decided in the affirmative.

AFTER RECESS.
