NOTE: SATURDAY HOLIDAY WITH SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS

No Trash or Recycling Collection on Independence Day, Saturday, July 4, 2020

The New York City Department of Sanitation announced that in observance of Independence Day, there will be no trash or recycling collection on Saturday, July 4, 2020.

- Residents who normally receive Saturday trash collection should place their material out at curbside after 4 p.m. on Sunday, July 5.
- Residents who normally receive Saturday recycling collection should place their material out at curbside after 4 p.m. on Friday, July 10 for collection on Saturday, July 11.

Additionally, all Sanitation Department administrative offices will be closed on Friday, July 3, in observance of the holiday.

To help provide city residents with Sanitation-related service reminders, updates and special event schedules, the New York City Department of Sanitation has launched DSNY Info, its smart phone and tablet app. The app also includes tips to reduce, reuse and recycle, making it easier for New Yorkers send zero waste to landfills. The free app is available for both iOS and Android operating systems, and can be found by searching DSNY Info in the Apple App and Google Play stores.

About the New York City Department of Sanitation

The Department of Sanitation (DSNY) keeps New York City healthy, safe and clean by collecting, recycling and disposing of waste, cleaning streets and vacant lots, and clearing snow and ice. The Department operates 59 district garages and manages a fleet of more than 2,000 rear-loading collection trucks, 450 mechanical brooms and 705 salt spreaders. The Department clears litter, snow and ice from approximately 6,500 miles of City streets and removes debris from vacant lots as well as abandoned vehicles from City streets.
