LAW DEPARTMENT.

LAW DEPARTMENT.
NEW YORK, May 4, 1875.

Hon. E. DELAFIELD SMITH, the Counsel to the Corporation, has made the following retainer and assignment of Attorney and Counsel to the Board of Police, in pursuance of section 36, article 6 of chapter 335 of the Laws of 1875, and in further pursuance of law.

LAW DEPARTMENT—OFFICE OF THE
COUNSEL TO THE CORPORATION,
NEW YORK, May 4, 1875.

Mr. CHARLES FRASER MACLEAN:

DEAR SIR—Referring to our recent interviews with regard to the legal assistance required by the Police Department, you will please regard this letter as a retainer and an assignment of yourself to that Department as Attorney and Counsel, commencing on the 1st instant, and to continue until further notice.

This action is demanded by the exigencies of the public service; but the Commissioners and yourself will of course be at liberty to consult me and to receive my personal assistance in any matter where it shall be thought necessary or advisable to confer with me.

Versed in the learning of the law, it is fortunate that a gentleman of your scholarly attainments has promised to accept this retainer. Your name has been commended to my consideration by eminent members of the bar, and particularly by one most distinguished. My action has been deferred, and is now taken with hesitation, in view of the delicacy of my position. This you can well understand. It is known that you possess the special confidence of another jurist now occupying the highest position in the gift of the people of the state. Upon this subject I have had with him no communication direct or indirect. Whatever he may in future do with regard to the judicial question relating to myself now pending before him, there is certainly nothing in the consideration with which he has already treated me, to render it at all natural that I should disregard peculiar qualifications for the reason that their possessor has been the recipient of his confidence.

I am, dear sir,

With great respect and regard,
E. DELAFIELD SMITH,
Counsel to the Corporation.

LAW DEPARTMENT—OFFICE OF THE
COUNSEL TO THE CORPORATION,
NEW YORK, May 4, 1875.

To the Honorable the Board of Police Commissioners:

GENTLEMEN—From the enclosed copy of a letter addressed by me to Mr. Charles Fraser MacLean you will perceive that in pursuance of your requirement, made according to law, I have retained and assigned to your Department an Attorney and Counsellor at Law. I am sensible that the position referred to demands a lawyer of learning as well as of the highest integrity and character. I am satisfied that he will lighten your heavy responsibilities and aid you in the onerous labors which the law imposes upon the Board and the force.

I am, gentlemen,

Very respectfully yours,
E. DELAFIELD SMITH,
Counsel to the Corporation.

OFFICE OF CHARLES F. MACLEAN,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW,
12 WALL STREET,
NEW YORK, May 4, 1875.

SIR—In reply to your esteemed favor of this day and date, I beg to say, that I, with thanks, accept the therein proffered retainer and assignment of myself as Attorney and Counsel to the Police Department of this city.

Although I cannot hope so to acquit myself as to justify your expressed confidence in my fitness for the task to which I am so flatteringly preferred,

I shall zealously devote to it whatever of abilities and acquirements I can command. I undertake it with the less hesitancy because of the assurance that your acknowledged legal talents will still be at the service of the Commissioners, and that I shall have the assistance of your experienced counsel.

With renewed thanks for this unexpected trust, I am and remain, sir,

Very respectfully,

Your most obedient servant,

CHARLES F. MACLEAN.

To E. DELAFIELD SMITH, Esq.,
Counsel to the Corporation, etc.,
New York City.
