

Local Law 86: Quarterly and Semi-Annual Reporting of Individuals in DOC Custody

Second Quarter, 2016

Numbers are generated by the Department of Correction and New York Police Department and are reported to, and compiled by, the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice. Charts 1, 3, 14, and 15 are reported on a quarterly basis, and charts 2, 4-13, and 16 are reported semi-annually.

DOC population data is reported in two different formats:

Snapshot: the population of individuals in DOC custody on a given day

Admissions: a cumulative measure of individuals admitted to DOC custody over time

The 16 charts included in this report adhere to the following format:

* Defendants with no bail set are those with remands in all of their cases. Bail figures indicate any individual admitted with bail set on a case; bail may not be the sole reason for the detention.

 $1 bail is used to account for time spent in jail by a defendant who is already in jail for another case or hold.

Table 14: Percentage Breakdown of Bail Amounts Set for Pretrial Defendants in DOC Custody on Three Daily Snapshots

"Of the number of inmates in the custody of the department of correction on the final Friday* of each calendar month of the reporting period who were held on pending criminal charges, the percentage who had bail fixed in the following amounts: (a) $1; (b) $2-$500; (c) $501-$1000; (d) $1001-$2500; (e) $2501-$5000; (f) $5001-$10,000; (g) $10,001-$25,000; (h) $25,001-$50,000; (i) $50,001-$100,000; or (j) more than $100,000."

* Due to DOC data structure, data is from the last Thursday of each calendar month in the reporting period, not last Friday.

 Due to DOC data structure, bail amount is the cumulative amount of bail in all the defendant's cases.

†† Defendants with no bail set are those with remands in all of their cases.

Table 15: Percentage Breakdown of Time in Custody for Pretrial Defendants in DOC Custody, Snapshot on the Final Day of Q2

"Of the number of inmates in the custody of the department of correction on the final day of the reporting period who were held on pending criminal charges, the percentage who had been incarcerated for the following lengths of time: (a) 1-2 days; (b) 3-5 days; (c) 6-15 days; (d) 16-30 days; (e) 31-90 days; (f) 91-180 days; (g) 180 - 365 days; or (h) more than 365 days."
