Executive Summary

The Civilian Complaint Review Board ("CCRB") is an independent municipal Agency that investigates complaints of NYPD misconduct. Every month, the CCRB prepares an Executive Director report for its public meeting. Data for April 2018 included the following highlights:

1) Of the cases in the CCRB active investigations docket, 77% have been open for 4 months or fewer, and 93% have been open for 7 months or fewer (page 10). In April, the CCRB opened 333 new cases (page 4), and currently has a total open docket of 1,333 cases (page 11).

2) The CCRB substantiated allegations in 23% of its fully investigated cases (page 15).

3) The CCRB fully investigated 35% of the cases it closed in April (page 12) and resolved (fully investigated, mediated or attempted mediation) 50% of the cases it closed (page 16). The Agency's truncation rate was 49% (page 12). This is primarily driven by uncooperative complainants/alleged victims, or witnesses.

4) For April, investigations using video evidence resulted in substantiated allegations in 40% of cases - compared to 11% of cases in which video was not available (page 19-20).

5) The Monthly Report includes a breakdown of complaints and substantiations by NYPD precinct and borough of occurrence (pages 5-6, 24-25).

6) In April the Police Commissioner finalized 1 decisions against police officers in Administrative Prosecution Unit (APU) cases (page 31). The CCRB's APU prosecutes the most serious allegations of misconduct. The APU conducted 1 trial against members of the NYPD year-to-date; no trials were conducted against respondent officers in April.

Finally, the Monthly Report contains a Table of Contents, Glossary, and Appendix, all meant to assist readers in navigating this report. The CCRB is committed to producing monthly reports that are valuable to the public, and welcomes feedback on how to make its data more accessible.

Glossary

In this glossary we have included a list of terms that regularly appear in our reports.

Allegation: An allegation is a specific act of misconduct. The same "complaint" can have multiple allegations – excessive force and discourteous language, for example. Each allegation is reviewed separately during an investigation.

APU: The Administrative Prosecution Unit is the division of the CCRB that has prosecuted "charges" cases since April 2013, after the signing of a 2012 Memorandum of Understanding between the CCRB and NYPD.

Board Panel: The "Board" of the CCRB has 13 members. Of the 13 members, five are chosen by the Mayor, five are chosen by the City Council, and three are chosen by the Police Commissioner. Following a completed investigation by the CCRB staff, three Board members, sitting as a Board Panel, will make a finding on whether misconduct occurred and will make a recommendation on what level of penalty should follow.

Case/Complaint: For the purposes of CCRB data, a "case" or "complaint" is defined as any incident within the Agency's jurisdiction, brought to resolution by the CCRB. Cases/Complaints thus include truncations, fully investigated or ongoing cases, mediations, and completed investigations pending Board Panel review.

Disposition: The Board's finding as to the outcome of a case (i.e. if misconduct occurred).

FADO: Under the City Charter, the CCRB has jurisdiction to investigate the following categories of police misconduct: Force, Abuse of Authority, Discourtesy, and Offensive Language, collectively known as "FADO".

Intake: CCRB's intake team initially handles complaints from the public. Intake takes complaints that come via live phone calls, voicemails, an online complaint form, or in-person.

Investigation: CCRB investigators gather evidence and interview witnesses to prepare reports on misconduct allegations. An investigation ends when a closing report is prepared detailing the evidence and legal analysis, and the case is given to the Board for disposition.

Mediation: A complainant may mediate his or her case with the subject officer, in lieu of an investigation, with the CCRB providing a neutral, third-party mediator.

Truncation: When a complaint is withdrawn or there is no complainant/alleged victim available for an interview, the investigation is "truncated."

Complaints Received

The CCRB's Intake team processes misconduct complaints from the public and referrals from the NYPD. Under the New York City Charter, the CCRB's jurisdiction is limited to allegations of misconduct related to Force, Abuse of Authority, Discourtesy and Offensive Language. All other complaints are referred to the appropriate agency. Figure 1 refers to all complaints that the CCRB receives and Figures 2 and 3 refer to new cases that remain with the Agency. In April 2018, the CCRB initiated 333 new complaints.

Allegations Received

As described in the previous section, the CCRB has jurisdiction over four categories of NYPD misconduct. In comparing April 2017 to April 2018, the number of complaints containing an allegation of Force is down, Abuse of Authority complaints are down, Discourtesy are down and Offensive Language are down. Figures for the year-to-date comparison show that in 2018, complaints containing an allegation of Force are down, Abuse of Authority are up, Discourtesy are down and Offensive Language are down.

Closed Cases

Resolving Cases

In April 2018, the CCRB fully investigated 35% of the cases it closed, and resolved (fully investigated, mediated or mediation attempted) 50% of the cases it closed.

Dispositions

Cases fully investigated by the CCRB generally receive one of five outcomes:

- If the alleged misconduct is found to have occurred, based on the preponderance of the evidence, the allegation is substantiated.
- If there is not enough evidence to determine whether or not the alleged misconduct occurred, the allegation is unsubstantiated.
- If the preponderance of the evidence suggests that the event or alleged act did not occur, the allegation is unfounded.
- If the event did occur, but was not improper by a preponderance of evidence, the allegation is exonerated.
- If the CCRB was unable to identify any of the officers accused of misconduct, the case is closed as officer unidentified.

Additionally, a case might be mediated, with the subject officer and complainant discussing the incident in the presence of a neutral third-party moderator, or closed as mediation attempted, the designation for a case in which both the officer and the civilian agree to mediate, but the civilian fails to appear twice for the scheduled mediation session or fails to respond to attempts to schedule a mediation session Finally, a case that cannot be fully investigated due to complainant/alleged victim unavailability or lack of cooperation is truncated.

Case Abstracts

The following case abstracts are taken from complaints closed this month and serve as examples of what the different CCRB dispositions mean in practice:

1. Substantiated

A plainclothes officer interfered with a man recording a police interaction. It is undisputed the man entered the train system through the emergency gate without paying. The officers stopped the man and requested he provide ID. The man is an out of state resident and initially refused plainclothes officers' orders. When the man complied and handed the officers his ID he also began recording the incident on his phone. The first officer acknowledged the man recording the incident but denied interfering with the recording. The officer said the man kept putting his hand in his pocket, and when the man put his hand and phone in his back pocket, the officer said he immediately grabbed the man's other hand, even though he did not consider the man a threat. The video shows the officers talking to the man and at one point the frame of the camera is covered and the man says, "Don't touch my phone" as the screen goes blank and the video cuts out. The second officer confirmed the first office grabbed the man's camera and interfered with the recording. The investigation credited the man's account, which was corroborated by the second officer and recording. As a result, the Board Substantiated the interference allegation.

2. Unsubstantiated

An officer strip searched a man after they stopped him for making an illegal U-turn and driving without a valid driver's license. The man said the officer escorted him to the rear of the police car and placed him in handcuffs. During the search, the man said the officer pulled his shorts down to his thighs exposing his underwear. The officer said he patted the man down, incident to his arrest, to make sure he did not have any weapons, but did not pull his shorts down. Given the conflicting statements and a lack of video footage or independent witnesses, the investigation could not determine by a preponderance of evidence if the officer did or did not strip search the man. As a result, the Board Unsubstantiated the strip search allegation.

3. Unfounded
A man alleged that officers pushed his head into an exit door and kicked him when they ejected him from the subway station. The man said he was exiting a subway station, and as he approached the emergency exit gate an officer came from behind and pushed his head into the gate. Falling to the ground, the man said the officer began kicking him in the body and legs while he was on the ground. As a result of the officers' use of force, the man said he went to the hospital. An MTA cleaner called 911 to report the man sleeping on the platform and denied that the officers used force during the incident. Unable to provide his MetroCard and identification, the MTA worker said the officers helped the man to his feet and assisted him outside the station. The officers' testimony was consistent with the MTA worker in which they denied using force throughout the incident. The investigation found that the man provided inconsistent statements to medical personnel and throughout the investigation. Based on the consistent officer and independent witness statements, the investigation determined the force alleged by the man did not occur. As a result the Board Unfounded the force allegations.

4. Exonerated
A detective threatened to arrest a man for harassment. The man said the detective called and told him if he kept harassing his landlord he would be arrested. The detective said that after meeting with the landlord he generated a complaint report regarding the man sending threatening emails, voicemails, and showing up to the landlord's home to threaten him in person. The detective explained to the man that if he continued to contact the landlord he would or could be arrested. The detective testified he did not exactly remember if he said "would" or "could", but the man could have been arrested for harassment or aggravated harassment if he continued to contact the landlord. Given the detective could have arrested the man for committing a crime, the investigation found what the detective said a statement of fact and not an unjustified threat. As a result, the Board Exonerated the allegation.

5. Officer Unidentified
A sergeant hung up on a man when he called the stationhouse to request information about his arrest. The man said he called the stationhouse and was placed on hold until a sergeant who identified himself by rank and name answered the phone. The man wanted to file a Notice of Claim and requested the name of the officer who told him to remove his jacket during his arrest so he could add it to a claim form. The sergeant said he could not provide the man with the officer's information and suggested the man write "Transporter 1". When the man asked the sergeant to repeat the information, the sergeant abruptly hung up the phone. The officer that would have answered the phone had no recollection of the incident when provided context to the man's complaint. There were no officers with the last name provided by the man that work in that stationhouse. The sergeant on duty at the date provided by the man has no memory of the call and denied that he hung up the phone on any civilian on the date of this incident. The investigation was unable to identify the subject officer for this incident. Therefore, the Board closed the allegation as Officer Unidentified.

Administrative closure is a special category that deals with NYPD's Internal Affairs Bureau-referred cases or spin off cases with no complainant/alleged victim, and in which CCRB attempts to locate or identify a complainant/alleged victim has yielded no results.

Dispositions - FADO Allegations

"Allegations" are different than "cases." A case or complaint is based on an incident and may contain one or more allegations of police misconduct. The allegation substantiation rate is 12% for the month of April 2018, and the allegation substantiation rate is 11% year-to-date. The type of allegation the CCRB is most likely to substantiate is Abuse of Authority – substantiating 13% of such allegations during April 2018, and 13% for the year.

Substantiation Rates and Video

In general, investigations relying on video evidence from security cameras or personal devices result in much higher substantiation rates.

Board Discipline Recommendations for Substantiated Complaints

After a CCRB investigative team has completed its investigation and recommended the substantiation of a complaint against an officer, a panel of three Board members determines whether to substantiate the allegation and make a disciplinary recommendation.

- "Charges and Specifications" are the most severe form of discipline. A decision to assign Charges commences a process that may result in an administrative trial in the NYPD Trial Room. An officer may lose vacation days, be suspended, or be terminated from the Department if the officer is found guilty.
- "Instructions" or "Formalized Training" are the least severe discipline, often recommended for officers who misunderstand a policy. This determination results in training at the command level (Instructions) or training at the Police Academy or NYPD Legal Bureau (Formalized Training).
- "Command Discipline" is recommended for misconduct that is moderately serious, but does not rise to the level of that associated with Charges. An officer can lose up to ten vacation days as a result of a Command Discipline.
- When the Board has recommended Instructions, Formalized Training or Command Discipline, the case is sent to the NYPD Commissioner to impose training and/or other penalties. Cases where the Board recommends charges are prosecuted by the CCRB's Administrative Prosecution Unit.

* A complaint containing a number of substantiated allegations against a number of different officers will typically generate a variety of different disciplinary recommendations. To determine the disciplinary recommendation associated with the complaint as a whole, the CCRB uses the most severe disciplinary recommendation made. The order of severity is: 1) Charges 2) Command Discipline 3) Formalized Training 4) Instructions.

Board Discipline Recommendations for Officers with Substantiated Allegations

A substantiated CCRB complaint may generate multiple substantiated allegations against multiple officers. Each substantiated allegation will carry its own discipline recommendation from the CCRB Board.

The following table presents the number of officers against whom discipline recommendations have been made as a result of a substantiated CCRB complaint. Where there are multiple substantiated allegations with multiple disciplinary recommendations for an officer in a complaint, the most severe disciplinary recommendation is used to determine the overall recommendation for that officer.

Truncations

A "truncation" is a case that is not fully investigated, either because the complainant/alleged victim withdraws the complaint; is uncooperative with the investigation; is not available for the investigative team to interview; or is never identified. The CCRB constantly seeks to lower the number of truncations.

Complaints Against Officers Assigned to Police Service Areas

The Police Service Areas (PSA) are commands that police New York City Housing Developments throughout the five boroughs. PSA complaints are defined as complaints that contain at least one FADO allegation against an officer assigned to a PSA command.

A single PSA complaint may contain allegations against multiple officers assigned to multiple PSA commands. The following table breaks out the different PSAs and shows the number of officers assigned to each PSA against whom FADO allegations have been made.

Administrative closure is a special category that deals with NYPD's Internal Affairs Bureau-referred cases or spin off cases with no complainant/alleged victim, and in which CCRB attempts to locate or identify a complainant/alleged victim has yielded no results.

Mediation Unit

Whenever mediation between a complainant/alleged victim and subject officer is suitable, it is offered by CCRB investigators. If the complainant/alleged victim and subject officer both agree to participate, a neutral, third-party mediator facilitates a conversation between the parties. "Mediation Attempted" refers to a situation in which an officer agrees to mediate and the complainant becomes unavailable (after the complainant initially agreed to mediation). The chart below indicates the number of mediations and attempted mediations in April and this year.

Administrative Prosecution Unit

The CCRB's Administrative Prosecution Unit (APU) prosecutes police misconduct cases when the Board has recommended charges, in the NYPD Trial Room. The APU is also able to offer pleas to officers who admit guilt rather than going to trial. Following a plea agreement or the conclusion of a disciplinary trial, cases are sent to the Police Commissioner for final penalties.

*Retained cases are those in which the Department kept jurisdiction pursuant to Section 2 of the April 2, 2012 Memorandum of Understanding between the NYPD and the CCRB.
 When the Department keeps jurisdiction pursuant to Section 2 and does not impose any discipline on the officer, it is the equivalent of a category referred to as "Department Unable to Prosecute" (DUP). Cases are referred to as DUP when the department decides that it will not discipline an officer against whom the Board recommended discipline other than charges.
 In some cases, the Department conducts its own investigation and prosecution prior to the completion of the CCRB's investigation. In those cases, the APU does not conduct a second prosecution.
† Under the Board's reconsideration process, an officer who has charges recommended as the penalty for a substantiated allegation may have the recommended penalty changed to something other than charges or have the disposition changed to something other than substantiated. In those cases, the APU ceases its prosecution.

NYPD Discipline

Under the New York City Charter, the Police Commissioner makes the final decision regarding discipline and the outcome of disciplinary trials.

The first chart reflects NYPD-imposed discipline for cases brought by the APU (Charges).

The chart on the following page reflects cases referred to the Police Commissioner where the Board recommended Command Discipline, Formalized Training or Instructions.

 Instructions are conducted at the command level.
† Trial outcomes in non-APU cases typically involve MOS who turned down command discipline, prompting the police department to proceed with charges.
†† "Filed" is a term used when the police department is not required to take action against the subject officer because the officer has resigned or retired from the department, or has been terminated.
††† When the department decides that it will not discipline an officer against whom the Board recommended discipline other than charges, those cases are referred to as "Department Unable to Prosecute," or DUP.

Appendix

Over the years, the CCRB has made many types of data publicly available. In reorganizing the Monthly Report, we do not intend to remove any valuable information from the public domain. However, the Agency believes that some information is essential to place in the main body of the Monthly Report, while more granular charts and figures are better suited to the Appendix. We welcome you to contact the CCRB at www.nyc.gov or 212-912-7235 if you are having difficulty finding information on CCRB data that was formerly available.
