

From: Communications [<mailto:Communications@schools.nyc.gov>]
Sent: Wednesday, August 12, 2015 6:56 PM
Subject: NYC DOE - MEDIA ADVISORY - For Planning Purposes Only

MEDIA ADVISORY
For Planning Purposes Only

August 12, 2015

ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS TO GIVE HEALTH AND SAFETY READINESS UPDATE ON PRE-K FOR ALL

Senior administration officials will give a pen and pad briefing on Thursday, August 13 on the health and safety readiness of all sites hosting Pre-K for All, including recent inspection figures, violation updates and information on staffing levels. This coming September, all children will have access to free, high-quality, full-day pre-K for the first time.

WHEN: Thursday, August 13, 2015
11:30 AM

WHERE: Committee of the Whole Room, 2nd Floor, City Hall

WHAT: Senior administration officials will give a pen and pad briefing on the health and safety readiness of all sites hosting Pre-K for All, including recent inspection figures, violation updates and information on staffing levels.

WHO: Deputy Mayor Richard Buery
FDNY Commissioner Daniel Nigro
DOB Commissioner Rick Chandler
DOE Deputy Chancellor Josh Wallack
DOI Commissioner Mark Peters
DOHMH Assistant Commissioner Frank Cresciullo
ACS Deputy Commissioner of Early Care and Education Lorelei Vargas

###

Contact: Chancellor's Press Office (212) 374-5141

