OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF JURORS, New County Court-House, New York, June 1, 1877.

NEW YORK, June 1, 1877.) A PPLICATIONS FOR EXEMPTIONS WILL BE head here, from 9 to 4 daily, from all persons hitherto hable or recently serving who have become exempt, and all needed information will be given. Those who have not answered as to their liability, or proved permanent exemption, will receive a "jury enroll-ment notice," requiring them to appear before me this year. Whether liable or not, such notices must be an-swered (in person, if possible, and at this office only) under severe penalities. If exempt, the party must bring proof of exemption ; if liable, he must also answer in person, giving full and correct name, residence, etc., etc. No attention paid to letters.

full and correct name, resultince, etc., etc. for attendity paid to letters. Persons "enrolled" as liable must serve when called or pay their fines. No mere excuse will be allowed or interference permitted. The fines, received from those who, for business or other reasons, are unable to serve at the time selected, pay the expenses of this office, and if unpaid will be entered as judgments upon the property of the delinouents.

unpaid will be entered as judgments upon the property of the delinquents. All good citizens will aid the course of justice, and secure reliable and respectable juries, and equalize their clerks or subordinates to serve, reporting to me any attempt at bribery or evasion, and suggesting names for enrollment. Persons between sixty and seventy years of age, summer absentees, persons temporarily il, and United States and District Court jurors are not exempt Every man must attend to his own notice. It is a mis-demeanor to give any jury paper to another to answer. It is also punishable by fine or imprisonment to give or receive any present or bribe, directly or indirectly, in rela-tion to a jury service, or to withhold any paper or make any false statement, and every case will be fully prose-cuted.
