

From: DCPI [DCPI@nypd.org]

Sent: Sunday, August 23, 2015 11:32 PM

To: DCPI

Subject: 19 Pct. Assault on Member of the Service

Around 7:15 p.m. this evening a police officer, who is assigned to the Mayor's security detail, was struck in the back by an apparent BB/pellet near Gracie Mansion. Two individuals were taken into custody in the vicinity of 170 East End Avenue. They are being questioned.

There have been two previous reports of apparent BB/ pellets causing damage to windows in this same area. The Mayor was not in the area of Gracie Mansion at the time of this incident.

The police officer was transported to Lenox Hill hospital and her injuries are considered minor. She has been released.

Stephen Davis

NYPD

Deputy Commissioner Public Information