

NEW YORK CITY DEPARTMENT OF
HEALTH AND MENTAL HYGIENE
Michelle Morse, MD, MPH
Acting Health Commissioner

NYC DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND MENTAL HYGIENE'S MOBILE FOOD VENDING REPORT PURSUANT TO SECTION 17-325.2 OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE CODE, COVERING THE PERIOD FROM JUNE 1, 2024 TO MAY 31, 2025

- (i) Number of food vendor license renewals denied and the basis for each such denial, including but not limited to outstanding or multiple violations of the provisions of subchapter two of chapter three of title 17 of the Administrative Code:

One application for a mobile food vending supervisory license renewal was not submitted on time and was not renewed. The Department was able to issue the vendor a “regular” mobile food vending license because those requirements were met.

- (ii) Number of food vending pushcart or vehicle permit renewals denied and the basis for each such denial, including but not limited to outstanding or multiple violations of the provisions of subchapter two of chapter three of title 17 of the Administrative Code:

The Department did not deny any application to renew a mobile food vending permit that was complete, timely submitted and where the mobile unit passes an inspection.

Five (5) permit-holders did not complete permit renewal applications, and the permits were, accordingly, not renewed.

- (iii) Number of food vendor license suspensions pursuant to section 17-317 of the Administrative Code and the basis for each such suspension:

No food vendor licenses were suspended during the reporting period.

- (iv) Number of food vending pushcart or vehicle permit suspensions pursuant to section 17-317 of the Administrative Code and the basis for each such suspension:

No food vending pushcart or vehicle permit renewals were suspended during the reporting period.

- (v) Number of food vendor license revocations pursuant to section 17-317 of the Administrative Code and the basis for each such revocation:

No food vendor licenses were revoked pursuant to section 17-317 of the Administrative Code during the reporting period.

- (vi) Number of food vending pushcart or vehicle permit revocations pursuant to 17-317 of the administrative code and the basis for each such revocation:

No food vending pushcart or vehicle permit renewals were revoked during the reporting period.
