DEP Will Deliver and Plant Shrubs and Trees at City Garden atop Old Croton Aqueduct Historic Site in Upper Manhattan

Date:	Thursday, April 27, 2006
Time:	11:00 AM
Place:	West 153rd Street and just west of St. Nicholas Avenue
Event:	As part of DEP's efforts to assist City gardeners and enhance public spaces, DEP's Office of Environmental Management will deliver and plant shrubs, trees and flowers at a garden located directly above the historic Old Croton Aqueduct in upper Manhattan. The garden is tended and maintained throughout the planting and growing seasons by neighborhood seniors.

Reporters and photographers are welcome.
