THEO. W. MYERS, Comptroller.

From the few data at hand in regard to the construction of the present Croton dam, we agree that, although a large portion of the superstructure is of a substantial character, the foundation and especially the earth embankment at the north end are not built in such a manner as would be sanctioned by modern practice; the continuous joint between the supporting earth and the masonry and the absence of a core wall in the north embankment being features which have been avoided by the Department of Public Works and by the Aqueduct Commissioners in the construction of the dams in the upper part of the water-shed. It must be said, however, that the Old Croton dam has stood successfully for half a century, and that during that time heavy freshets have occurred, causing overflows which in two instances attained 77 and 81 inches in depth over the crest respectively, leaving between the higher level and the top of the earth embankment a margin of 1 foot 6 inches. The test of time is consequently the best recommendation in favor of the stability of the dam.

We submit herewith, for the information of the Commission, a copy of the only plan now on record as to the construction of the dam.

A flow of 6 feet 9 inches over the dam, if continued for twenty-four hours, would be equivalent to a sheet of water 1 $\frac{2}{3}$  inches deep over the whole water-shed. There are on record, however, several instances of rain-falls in this part of the country which would produce a much larger flow. Among others, in October, 1869, there fell in the Connecticut valley, on two consecutive days, 8 to 10 inches of rain over an area as large, if not larger, than the Croton water-shed, which would produce a much more abundant overflow.

In the Conemaugh valley the flow at the ill-fated dam above Johnstown was for several hours at the rate of more than 9,000 cubic feet per second, equivalent to 6,000 million gallons per 24 hours, although the water-shed is only about 56 square miles. It is true that the flow on a much smaller water-shed is comparatively larger.

In similar conditions, the earth embankment of Croton dam would have been overtopped and washed away. The same result would follow in case of the breaking of one of the upper dams.

In view of the fact that occurrences of this description are extreme cases, Messrs. Birdsall and McLean believe that they are not probable, and that the Croton dam is sufficient, to all intents and purposes, to fulfill the duties that it is called upon to perform. Mr. Fteley, however, is of opinion that when the magnitude of the interests at stake is duly considered, possibilities, however remote, ought to be given full weight and be amply provided for.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE W. BIRDSALL, Chief Engineer, Croton Aqueduct.
EUGENE E. MCLEAN, Engineer, Finance Department.
A. FTELEY, Chief Engineer, Aqueduct Commissioners.

On motion of Commissioner Scott, the same were ordered spread in full on the minutes and filed.

The Committee also presented the following:

NEW YORK, January 6, 1891.

To the Aqueduct Commissioners:

The Committee on Construction, to whom was referred the report of the Chief Engineer, relative to the building of a high dam on the lower part of the Croton river, hereby reports:

That the said report of the Chief Engineer was printed by order of the Commission, and a public hearing had thereon, in conformity to the requirements of section 2, chapter 490, Laws 1883. At this public hearing, of which notice was duly given by advertisement in the daily papers, no one appeared in opposition to the dam proposed by the Chief Engineer, and those citizens who did appear, warmly advocated the building of such dam.

The matter having been referred back to the Committee on Construction, a meeting of the Committee was held on November 12, 1890, for the consideration of the report.

At this meeting the Commissioner of Public Works presented a report made to him by Mr. George W. Birdsall, the Chief Engineer of the Croton Aqueduct, in which he opposed the proposed dam.

There was also presented and read a reply to Mr. Birdsall's report, made by the Chief Engineer of the Aqueduct Commission.

The Comptroller also presented a report made to him by Major E. E. McLean, coinciding, in the main, with the results reached by Mr. Birdsall.

The Committee then adopted a resolution referring to Messrs. Fteley, Birdsall and McLean the duty of investigating and reporting upon the safety of the present Croton Dam, and these gentlemen made such investigation and report.

All the reports above referred to have been printed by direction of the Committee and are submitted herewith.

Subsequently a second report on the same subject was made by Mr. Birdsall to the Commissioner of Public Works, and by the latter submitted to this Committee. This last-mentioned report is also submitted herewith.

The Committee have given to all the reports above mentioned the most careful consideration. They deal with the most important question yet to be determined, regarding the water-supply of this City.

To discuss this question intelligently, it is necessary to briefly revert to the history of the "Aqueduct Act" and the work already done and projected by the Aqueduct Commission.

The "Aqueduct Act," under which the Commission exists, known as chapter 490 of the Laws of 1883, is entitled "An Act to provide new reservoirs, dams and a new aqueduct, with the appurtenances thereto, for the purpose of supplying the City of New York with an increased supply of pure and wholesome water."

It was passed by the Legislature in response to the pressing demands of the public authorities of the City, and after the necessity for such an act had been certified to by an intelligent and impartial Commission of well-known citizens appointed under a resolution of the State Senate.

That Commission, after a careful examination of the whole subject, reported strongly and emphatically in favor of an immediate increase in the water supply of the City.

The act above referred to imposed upon the Aqueduct Commission two equally important duties:

First—To provide a New Aqueduct to bring water from the Croton river to this city.

Second—To provide sufficient dams and reservoirs to insure at all times a plentiful supply of water to flow through the aqueduct.

When the present Commission assumed office in August, 1888, substantial progress had been made only in the direction of discharging the first of these duties.

The New Aqueduct was apparently approaching completion, but already doubts had arisen as to the manner in which the work upon it had been done—doubts which subsequent investigation unhappily developed into certainties.

No progress had been made in the direction of supplying additional storage, except to put under contract one of the two dams necessary for the creation of the double reservoir at Sodom, in Putnam County.

The present Commission, in addition to taking such steps as were necessary to complete and repair the aqueduct so as to make it as good as required by the contracts for its construction, at once took up the question of furnishing an additional supply of water to flow through the aqueduct when completed.

As soon as possible a contract was let for the second dam necessary to complete the double reservoir at Sodom.

In considering what further provision should be made, the Commission learned that two projects or systems had for a long time been under consideration. One was to build a number of comparatively small dams throughout the water-shed of sufficient strength to assure permanent stability and safety.

The other was to build the much-discussed Quaker Bridge Dam, a structure of unexampled magnitude, which would conserve in a single reservoir enough water to insure for many years a sufficient daily supply, and which could be supplemented from time to time, as necessary, by the erection of smaller subsidiary dams in the upper water-shed.

This second plan had been for years earnestly advocated by the Department of Public Works, and by many distinguished engineers; and if it could have been begun at the same time that the aqueduct was begun would have been worthy of most serious consideration.

Upon inquiry, however, the Commission became satisfied that the erection of this dam would not only be very expensive, but would take a very long time, and that meanwhile the supply of water to the City would not be sufficiently increased for present necessities. Being convinced that the City's needs imperatively demanded an adequate supply of water at the earliest possible moment, the Commission felt itself compelled to adopt the plan which would most quickly achieve the desired end, and as soon as the necessary preliminary steps could be taken, executed contracts for two dams in the upper water-shed, one in the Titicus river at Purdy's Station, and the other in the west branch of the Croton river at Carmel. Meanwhile the Department of Public Works had evinced its apprehension as to the amount of water required by the City, by providing, independently of the Commission, for the construction of a reservoir on the Muscoot river.

The reservoirs projected and now under construction, as above recited, with those already in use, will serve to conserve substantially all the water that can be secured from the upper half of the water-shed.

The question now presented to the Commission is how best to conserve the water that can be obtained from the lower half of the water-shed.

As has been said, the project which has always been favored by the Department of Public Works has been the erection of the great Quaker Bridge Dam.

The Mayor's Commission of 1883, and the successive Boards of Aqueduct Commissioners, since the passage of the act of that year, including the present Commission, have taken much testimony relative to that proposed dam. From that testimony it appears that the work, while undoubtedly feasible, would be of extraordinary magnitude and difficulty, and would involve a very large expenditure of money and time.

Having arrived at the conclusion that the subsidiary dams at Sodom, Purdy's and Carmel should be built at once, the Commission instituted an exhaustive exploration of the bed of the Croton river from the present Croton Dam site to the proposed Quaker Bridge Dam site, with a view to determining whether a smaller and less expensive dam than the proposed Quaker Bridge Dam could not be built. These explorations were carefully conducted under the direction of the Chief Engineer, and have resulted in the selection of two available sites for large dams in addition to the proposed Quaker Bridge site.

Their respective characteristics and relative advantages are fully set forth in the report of the Chief Engineer, dated October 8, 1890, and herewith submitted. As will be seen in a perusal of that report, the Chief Engineer recommends the erection of a dam at the site designated as Location 2, a little less than a mile below the present Croton Dam, and it is upon the plan for a dam at that site that the public hearing has been had and this report is made.

The discussion upon the subject soon developed as the questions to be decided:

First—Should any dam be presently built at or near the present Croton Dam, or between it and the mouth of the Croton river?

Second—If such dam should be built, should it be located at the site recommended by the Chief Engineer, or at a point further down the river?

The determination of the first question involved two inquiries:

First—Whether a dam was needed for additional storage?

Second—Whether such a dam was needed for security against the disastrous consequences that would result from the destruction of the present Croton Dam; and this latter inquiry, in turn, involved the question as to the security of the present Croton Dam.

It will be observed that in his report of October 8 the Chief Engineer said:

"An additional and weighty argument in regard to the location of such a reservoir is that, although the present Croton Dam has rendered good service for half a century, it must be conceded that it is not built in such a manner as a structure should be on which depends the very life of New York, and it is necessary that it be replaced by a more substantial one."

The records of the Mayor's Commission of 1883, and of the Aqueduct Commission, show that one of the reasons most strongly urged by the advocates of the Quaker Bridge Dam why it should be built without delay, had been that the City should not be left dependent for its supply of water upon the stability of the old Croton Dam. It was with some surprise, therefore, that the members of the Construction Committee found two avowed advocates of the ultimate erection of the Quaker Bridge Dam challenging the Chief Engineer's statement as to the danger of relying upon the stability of the present dam.

The Croton Dam is to-day all that stands between the City of New York and an absolute water famine. If it were to be destroyed the aqueducts, both old and new, would be useless, and the storage reservoirs in the upper part of the water-shed would be of no value. The sole reliance of the city, until the dam could be repaired or a temporary dam constructed, would be the amount that might happen to be at the time in the Central Park Reservoir, and the small supply (about fifteen millions per day) received from the Bronx river.

The consequences that must necessarily follow from such a catastrophe need not be suggested in this report.

So important did this phase of the question seem to the Committee, that an investigation of the strength and stability of the old dam was ordered to be made by the Chief Engineer of the Commission, the Chief Engineer of the Croton Aqueduct and Major E. E. McLean, the adviser of the Comptroller on engineering questions.

These gentlemen concurred in a report dated November 19, 1890 (herewith presented), in which they agreed that "the foundation and especially the earth embankment at the north end, are not built in such a manner as would be sanctioned by modern practice," and that the best that can be said in favor of its stability in the future is, that it has not yet failed.

They also agree that if the conditions that prevailed in the Conemaugh Valley, in June, 1889, and produced the frightful Johnstown disaster, were reproduced in the Croton water-shed, or if one of the upper dams should break, the Croton Dam would inevitably be over-topped and carried away.

Messrs. Birdsall and McLean, however, express the opinion, that inasmuch as such disasters are rare and therefore improbable, the City can afford to take the chance. Mr. Fteley, on the other hand, expresses it as his opinion that, in view of the magnitude of the interests at stake, even possibilities should be guarded against.

The latter view is the one which commends itself to your Committee, and which has been indorsed by the highest engineering talent.

Mr. James B. Francis, a very eminent and well-known hydraulic engineer, testified before the Mayor's Committee on February 6, 1883, as follows:

"Q. By Commissioner Agnew—Then you do not think the present Croton Dam is secure?"

"A. I don't think it is a perfectly safe dam, as it would be if it was on the rock as it should be. I worked over that a good many years ago, and the quantity of water that fell in the water-shed. We had a great storm in 1859 that spread over the country that did a great deal of damage—more than any storm that we have had since—and I took pains, through the Smithsonian Institute and all the means I could, to get at the rainfall in different parts, and I found in an area of ten thousand square miles there were nine inches or more of water fell in about twenty-four hours. Now, if you should have such a rain as that in this water-shed, and you are just as liable to as not, it would carry away that dam."

Mr. Robert K. Martin, an engineer, who constructed the Baltimore water-works and tunnel, testified as follows before the same Committee, on February 7, 1883:

"Q. Have you examined the present Croton Dam?"

"A. I know its construction."

"Q. What do you think of its stability?"

"A. I think it is liable at any time to be carried away by a freshet."

Gen. George S. Greene, Sr., an engineer of acknowledged ability, once Chief Engineer of the Croton Aqueduct, testified before the same Committee on February 8, 1883, as follows:

"Q. What is your opinion as to the present Croton Dam, as to its stability?"

"A. Under ordinary circumstances it is very safe, but it is not safe against any extraordinary flood."

The Construction Committee can reach but one conclusion in the face of such evidence as this. In its opinion, to halt now and leave the City open to a disaster which can be so easily averted would be fatuous, and would render the Commission open to well-deserved censure. Nothing short of absolute and unquestioned safety should be accepted as sufficient.

The conclusion that the Committee have reached on this question leaves it comparatively unimportant to discuss the question whether the proposed new dam is needed for storage purposes.

In the opinion of your Committee, however, a dam, at or near the point indicated, will be found necessary in the near future to secure an ample supply of water for the City.

Many statements and estimates have been laid before the Aqueduct Commission, from time to time, as to the amount of storage necessary for New York. These have varied widely.

Since the opening of the New Aqueduct in July last the consumption of water has increased about 33 per cent.; that is, from 115 million gallons a day to 150 millions; and complaint is still heard from large sections of the City that the supply of water is insufficient.

When the arrangements now understood to be in progress for increasing the supply in the "High Service" districts of the City shall have been completed, it is reasonable to assume that the consumption will be further increased.

It is conceded on all hands that a daily supply of at least 216 million gallons per day will be needed within a comparatively few years. But in case of a recurrence of a dry year, such as that which began in February, 1880, and ended in February, 1881, the whole yield of the river which could be conserved by the reservoirs now built or building would not aggregate 180 millions of gallons a day. So that to be abundantly sure of a sufficient supply a few years hence it will be imperatively necessary to construct a storage reservoir at some point in the lower water-shed. It may indeed be, that for a few years the dam now recommended will provide more water than is absolutely needed; but it is not probable that this condition will prevail for long, and while it does last, it will be a novel but not unwelcome experience to the people of this City to know that they are enjoying the benefits of a superabundant water supply.

Experience has shown that no community has yet been found to complain that it receives too much water.

Having reached the conclusion that a dam should be built near the mouth of the Croton river, both for security and for abundance, the only question left, is whether that dam should be the one recommended by the Chief Engineer, or the much-discussed Quaker Bridge Dam.

On this point the reasoning of the Chief Engineer commends itself to your Committee. The New Croton Dam will assure a sufficient supply for at least a generation, and for considerably more than that time, if the extremely conservative views of Mr. Birdsall be adopted. By that time the cost of the proposed dam will have been more than offset by the saving of the interest in the difference between the cost of the New Croton Dam and that of the Quaker Bridge Dam, and at the end of that time, experience will have taught us whether a further water supply should be sought by building the Quaker Bridge Dam, or by seeking elsewhere for a water-shed.

The Aqueduct Commission has performed but a part of the duty for which it was created, and that part is as yet uncompleted. The Aqueduct has been put into condition to run water, but there are a number of appurtenances and appliances yet to be finished. The other part of our duty, that of "providing new reservoirs, * * * for the purpose of supplying the City of New York with an increased supply of pure and wholesome water," is being performed with diligence, and is not yet completed.

In the opinion of your Committee, a dam, such as is recommended by the Chief Engineer, near the site of the present Croton Dam, constitutes the keystone of the water supply of this City, and its construction should not be delayed one moment longer than necessary.

We therefore recommend the immediate erection of an earth and masonry dam, to be known as the "New Croton Dam," at the point indicated by the Chief Engineer in his report of October 8.

J. C. DUANE, Chairman Construction Committee.

On motion of Commissioner Cannon, the report was approved and adopted and ordered spread in full on the minutes.

In connection therewith, the Committee recommended the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the report of the Committee on Construction relative to the construction of a high dam on the Croton river near the present Croton dam be and hereby is adopted, and that the plans and location recommended therefor by the Chief Engineer be and hereby are adopted and approved; and the Chief Engineer be and hereby is directed to take the necessary steps for the immediate construction of said dam.

Commissioner Scott then stated that as the Comptroller had sent word to the Aqueduct Commissioners that he was ill and unable to be present, and had expressed a desire to be in attendance when the subject-matter referred to in the foregoing report was discussed, he moved that the resolution be laid on the table until the next meeting. Carried.

The Committee also presented the following communication received from the Chief Engineer:

NEW YORK, November 26, 1890.

To the Honorable the Committee on Construction:

GENTLEMEN—There are at present in the employ of the Commissioners thirty-six Inspectors. From twelve to fourteen men only are wanted to do the work now performed by Inspectors, the largest number of whom should be employed on the dams now under construction. Of the thirty-six Inspectors now on the pay-roll, fifteen are veterans of the late war, who, I understand, claimed to have a legal right to be employed in preference to all others. The result of the exclusive employment of the veteran Inspectors would be the simultaneous removal from the work on the dams and from special work on the line of men who have been for several years familiar with it at a time when, owing to the approach of winter and to the necessity of completing before the end of the year certain parts of the dams, especial care is needed. In view of the necessities of the work, I cannot recommend to the Commissioners to make such a sweeping change in their personnel, especially as there are among the veteran Inspectors men who do not, in my opinion, possess the superior requirements of ability and reliability desirable for the description of work now under construction.

On the other hand, the retention of the Inspectors, other than veterans now employed, would entail the continued employment of men whose services could now be dispensed with.

In view of the fact that the superintendence of dam work requires a higher grade of efficiency, the Commission has recently created the rank of Superintendents of Dam Construction, in connection with which it has submitted a number of names to the Municipal Civil Service Board for examination.

I beg to suggest that the necessary appointments be made from the eligible list now in the hands of the Civil Service Board. If such action were taken, I would recommend at the same time the appointment of five Foremen or Overseers for the supervision of the service of the Aqueduct.

I beg also to report that the services of J. P. R. Taaffe, Leveler, on Division No. 5, can be dispensed with on December 1, 1890.

I am, very respectfully,

A. FTELEY, Chief Engineer.

On motion of Commissioner Scott, the same was ordered spread in full on the minutes and filed.

The Committee also presented the following:

Rules and Regulations Defining the Duties of Superintendents of Dam Construction under the Aqueduct Commissioners.

Promotion, assignment to duty, suspension and transfer. First—Superintendents of Dam Construction, on receiving notice of their promotion, shall immediately report in person to the Chief Engineer, who will assign them to duty in his discretion when necessity for their services arises, their pay to commence when they, severally, begin their duties under such assignment.

Report to Division Engineer. After having been assigned to duty by the Chief Engineer, Superintendents of Dam Construction will report immediately for duty to the proper Division Engineer and receive instructions.

Agreement. The Chief Engineer may, from time to time, in his discretion, temporarily suspend any Superintendent of Dam Construction if the necessity for his services ceases, or transfer any such Superintendent from one dam to another.

Residence. Second—All Superintendents of Dam Construction who accept promotion, shall, before being assigned to duty, execute an agreement with the Aqueduct Commissioners, binding themselves to faithfully perform their duties according to these Rules and Regulations, and obey the orders and instructions given to them by the Chief Engineer and his assistants in charge of the work. Such agreement shall be indorsed upon a copy of these Rules and Regulations, and shall refer to them as expressing the terms of the contract between the City and said Superintendents.

To be furnished with specifications. Third—Superintendents of Dam Construction will be expected to arrange for their boarding-places, which must be located as near the work as possible, and make their residences known to the Division and Assistant Engineers directly in charge of the work where they shall be employed, so that they can be constantly in communication with the Division Engineer and with his assistants.

Pay. Fourth—Each Superintendent of Dam Construction will be furnished with a copy of the specifications for the several kinds and description of work pertaining to the dam upon which he is assigned to duty, and he is expected to familiarize himself with the requirements of said specifications.

Hours of duty. Fifth—Superintendents of Dam Construction shall be paid at the rate of four dollars per day of eight (8) hours' work for the time actually occupied. Their pay to commence when they assume duties under the assignment of the Chief Engineer.

The hours of duty in each day are not limited to eight hours; the Superintendents being required to work as many hours per day as they shall be required by the Chief Engineer or by his assistants.

In case any Superintendent be required to work more than eight hours, he shall be paid at the rate of fifty cents per hour for each hour overtime.

No Superintendent of Dam Construction shall engage in any other business or occupation while assigned to duty, and the Superintendents shall hold themselves in readiness, that they may be assigned to any work in progress; and in order that no work may be done in their absence, it will be their duty to notify the Division Engineer through the assistant in charge of the work where they are employed of the progress of the work during regular daytime, or during extra time made by the contractors' workmen.

Absence. Sixth—No absence during temporary stoppage of work by the contractors will be allowed without leave obtained from the Division Engineer or Assistant Engineer.

Diaries. Seventh—Each Superintendent of Dam Construction will provide himself with a blank book, called a diary, which will be furnished by the Division Engineer, in which will be entered the name of the Superintendent, his residence, the date of his promotion, the dates when ordered to go on the work and where. They will state under each day's date upon what work they have been engaged for the day, the number of men employed daily upon the work as masons, laborers or otherwise; any interruption or suspension of the work, and the reason therefor; the progress of the work and the day of completion of such part of the work as the Superintendent may have been engaged upon.

Each Superintendent shall deliver every Monday to the Assistant Engineers in charge of the work where they have been employed, their diaries, and receive others to take their places.

All Superintendents who may be suspended or discharged shall deliver to the Division Engineers all books and papers relating to the work, and no Superintendent shall be entitled to pay or to have his name put on the pay-roll until all such books and papers have been surrendered to the Division Engineer on whose division he may have been employed.

All notes and memoranda in the Superintendents' diaries shall be neatly kept, and especial care shall be taken in this respect.

Work to be superintended. Eighth—Superintendents of Dam Construction shall superintend the work to which they are assigned, both of excavation and construction, and shall see that all work of every kind and all materials used conform in all particulars to the specifications; and that all earth-work and embankments conform, both as to the materials used and their disposition, to the specifications; and that all special instructions of the Division Engineer or his assistants, as to the plans and methods of doing the work, and materials used, are complied with.

Imperfect work. Ninth—Superintendents will report to the Division Engineer or Assistant Engineer, promptly, any attempt to use rejected materials which the contractor may persist in attempting to use after being notified, and the locality of all imperfect work that he may discover, so that the Division Engineer may issue proper instructions relative thereto.

Neglect on the part of contractors. Tenth—Superintendents will immediately report any neglect or refusal on the part of the contractor or his representatives to conform to the specifications of the contract, also any damage or injury to persons or property done by the contractor or his representatives; how caused, and whether such damage was occasioned by the neglect or carelessness of the contractor or his men, or otherwise.

Doubts as to work.

Eleventh—In case of any doubt on any matter pertaining to the work, Superintendents shall immediately consult the Division Engineer or one of his assistants, and ask for instructions.

Disciplinary action.

Twelfth—Neglect on the part of any Superintendent to comply with the above rules will be considered sufficient reason for his dismissal; and should any Superintendent neglect his duties or pass any work as good which is inferior to the requirements of the contract, he shall, on it being discovered, be suspended and reported by the Division Engineer, through the Chief Engineer, to the Commissioners for discharge, or other disciplinary action.

Attendance.

Thirteenth—Each Superintendent shall be upon his work during the hours directed by the Division Engineer, or until relieved by another Superintendent.

On motion of Commissioner Scott, the same were adopted.

The Committee also presented the following communication received from the Chief Engineer:

NEW YORK, January 7, 1891.

To the Honorable the Committee on Construction:

GENTLEMEN—In reference to my report of November 26, 1890, as to the Inspectors employed on this work, and in view of the fact just made known to me by the President of the Aqueduct Commissioners that an eligible list of the candidates for the position of Superintendent of Dam Construction has been submitted to your Secretary by the Municipal Civil Service Board, I beg to recommend that all the Inspectors named on such list, with the exception of A. J. Sparrow, H. O. Cole and J. F. McDonough, be promoted to the office of Superintendent of Dam Construction; their pay to begin on the date that they are assigned to duty by the Chief Engineer. The eligible list referred to is herewith submitted.

I am, very respectfully,

A. FTELEY, Chief Engineer.

—and recommended the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That upon the recommendation of the Chief Engineer the following-named Inspectors of Masonry be and hereby are promoted to the position of Superintendent of Dam Construction, they having been certified by the Civil Service Commission as eligible for such promotion, viz.:

J. H. Slingerland,
Rollin B. Vose,
J. J. Gaynor,
John R. Soper,
Isaac Rosell,
Gerald McMurray,
George L. Tillotson,
Thomas Graham,
A. L. Crosby,

Frank McCaffrey,
Patrick Daly,
W. N. Cook,
Andrew McCarthy,
James McCartney,
A. J. Fleming,
Timothy Capper,
Robert J. Gudeon,
T. J. Powers,

Daniel Clancy,
P. J. Moynihan,
W. H. Langler,
Daniel Murray,
John Holohan,
Isaac Thomas,
John McKeon,
M. Storen.

On motion of Commissioner Scott, the resolution was adopted.

The Committee also recommended the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the grade or rank of Inspector of Masonry on the New Aqueduct be and hereby is abolished from and after the 15th day of January, 1891.

On motion of Commissioner Scott, the same was adopted.

The Committee also presented the resignation of Henry N. Hamilton, Assistant Engineer, to take effect on January 15, 1891.

On motion of Commissioner Tucker, the same was adopted.

The Committee also presented the following opinion rendered by Mr. Justice O'Brien:

By O'Brien, J.—Brown vs. Duane, as President, and others as Aqueduct Commissioners—The objections presented by respondents must result in the denial of the application. Unless the right to a writ of mandamus be clearly established, it will not be granted (People vs. Newton, 112 N. Y., 403). The petitioner does not show that he ever applied to the Aqueduct Commissioners for either his appointment to the position of Superintendent of Dam Construction or for an examination to said Commissioners or the Civil Service Board. "A subordinate body can be directed to act, but not how to act, in a matter as to which it has a right to exercise its judgment" (People ex rel. Francis vs. Troy, 78 N. Y., 41). Section 40, chapter 490, Laws of 1883 provides: "No person shall be appointed by the said Aqueduct Commissioners as Inspector or Superintendent who shall not be certified by at least three members of the Commission to be competent and fit for the duties of the position for which he is an applicant, and experienced in the subject-matter of the employment." The Aqueduct Commissioners Act (chapter 490, Laws of 1883), being a special and local statute, in the absence of a clear and unmistakable intent is not repealed by the subsequent general statute relating to veterans (McKenna vs. Edmundstone, 91 N. Y., 233). The Legislature placed the power to grant or refuse such certificate to any applicant in the discretion of the Commissioners, and with the exercise of such a discretion the Courts will not interfere (People ex rel. Hall vs. Village of Little Falls, 29 State Rep., 723). It must be remembered, however, that the question here presented has reference to a promotion and not to an original appointment. Taking, therefore, the Civil Service regulations bearing on promotions (chap. 354, Laws of 1883, amended by chap. 410, Laws of 1884, secs. 52, 53, 54 and 55), in connection with the original Veterans Act (chap. 312, Laws 1884, as amended by chap. 29, Laws 1886, and chap. 404, Laws 1887), the same question is presented as was decided in the case of the "application of Patrick McGuire for a mandamus" (19 N. Y. St. Rep., 431). The Court after commenting on these several acts says: "These provisions of law evince the intention and understanding of the Legislature to have been in the use of the word 'appointment,' as that has generally been employed in this legislation, it was intended to limit it to appointments as distinguished from promotions. The words themselves are generally so understood, when they are employed in this manner, a promotion being the advancement of an official or employee to a higher position, who had previously been appointed to one of an inferior degree. The language has been so employed in this legislation as to contrast one position with the other, and to designate by the word 'promotion,' a different office from that described or intended to be included within the word appointment, and in the construction of the law the Court is bound to carry out this theory as long as it has been evinced in this manner in its enactment. The intention of the Legislature is to be followed, and that intention is to be discovered by the language employed in the enactment of the statutes and their various provisions." This is a direct and binding decision which requires me to refuse the application. Denied, with costs.

On motion of Commissioner Cannon, the same was ordered spread in full on the minutes and filed.

On motion of Commissioner Tucker, the following report, laid on the table on December 17, 1890, was taken from the table and read:

The Construction or Executive Committee present the following communication received from the Chief Engineer:

NEW YORK, December 16, 1890.

To the Honorable the Committee on Construction:

GENTLEMEN—Herewith please find bills for the following-named parties: Hugh Getty, Nelson Warren, C. A. Bishop, O'Brien & Clark and Washburn, Shaler & Washburn.

The bill of $28.90 for Hugh Getty is for carpenter work and repairs to window sash, and for glass set at One Hundred and Thirty-fifth Street Gate-house.

The bill of Nelson Warren for $35.40 is for making and sharpening tools for use of the stone-cutters engaged in trimming the stop-plank grooves at Pocantico Gate-house.

The bill of $17.55 for C. A. Bishop is for sundry small articles of hardware, etc., which were obtained as required, and for the use of the Engineer Corps of the Second Division.

The bill of $31.26 for O'Brien & Clark is for shifting the west pipe line at One Hundred and Fourteenth street. This work was necessary, and could not be required under the contract. Their bill for $74.61 is for caulking and leading 48-inch manhole covers in One Hundred and Thirty-fifth Street Gate-house.

The bill of Washburn, Shaler & Washburn for $25.75 is for work done in hauling stone and sand for repairs for the cement testing-house at Reservoir M; also for delivering cord-wood at the office of Reservoir M; and for distributing boundary stones in Reservoir M. This work was necessary, and could not be required under the contract.

All of the above work was ordered by me.

I respectfully request that these bills be approved.

I am, very respectfully,

A. FTELEY, Chief Engineer.

—and recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That upon the recommendation of the Chief Engineer, the above-mentioned bills of Hugh Getty, amounting to twenty-eight dollars and ninety cents; Nelson Warren, amounting to thirty-five dollars and forty cents; C. A. Bishop, amounting to seventeen dollars and fifty-five cents; O'Brien & Clark, amounting to thirty-one dollars and twenty-six cents, and seventy-four dollars and sixty-one cents, respectively, and Washburn, Shaler & Washburn, amounting to twenty-five dollars and seventy-five cents, be and the same are hereby approved and ordered certified to the Comptroller for payment.

The same was then adopted by the following vote:

Affirmative—Commissioners Duane, Tucker, Scott and Cannon—4.

The Secretary gave notice of the filing of a lien by the Warren Foundry and Machine Company against O'Brien & Clark for material furnished in the construction of Section 16 of the New Aqueduct, amounting to $51,700. Which was ordered filed.

Commissioner Scott then moved that a vote be taken at the next meeting of the Commissioners on the dismissal of Inspectors Edward R. Scott and James L. Vallely, who were some time since given a hearing on charges preferred against them; and that the Secretary be directed to notify said Inspectors of this action, in order to enable them to be in attendance with their counsel at that time. Carried.

The Commissioners then adjourned.

J. C. LULLEY, Secretary pro tem.

BOARD OF CITY RECORD.

OFFICE OF THE CITY RECORD,
No. 2 CITY HALL,
NEW YORK, January 12, 1891.

PROPOSALS FOR FURNISHING STATIONERY FOR THE USE OF COURTS AND DEPARTMENTS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

TO STATIONERS.

SEALED ESTIMATES FOR SUPPLYING THE City Government with Stationery, Paper, Ink, Pens, Pencils, Penholders, Rubber Bands, etc., will be received at the office of the Supervisor of the City Record, until 12 o'clock M. of Monday the 26th day of January, 1891, at or about which time said estimates will be publicly opened and read in the office of the Mayor.

Each person making an estimate shall inclose it in a sealed envelope, indorsed "Estimate for Furnishing Stationery," and with his name and the date of its presentation.

Each estimate shall state the name and place of residence of the person making it; if there is more than one such person, their names and residences must be given; and if only one person is interested in the estimate it must distinctly state that fact; also, that it is made without any connection with any other person making an estimate for the same purpose, and is in all respects fair and without collusion or fraud; and that no member of the Common Council, head of a department, chief of a bureau, deputy thereof or clerk therein, or other officer of the Corporation is directly or indirectly interested therein or in the supplies or work to which it relates, or in any portion of the profits thereof. The estimate must be verified by the oath, in writing, of the party or parties making the estimate that the several matters stated therein are in all respects true. Where more than one person is interested it is requisite that the verification be made and subscribed by all the parties interested.

Each bid or estimate shall be accompanied by the consent, in writing, of two householders or freeholders in the City of New York, with their respective places of business or residence, to the effect that if the contract be awarded to the person making the estimate, they will, upon its being so awarded, become bound as his sureties for its faithful performance; and that if he shall omit or refuse to execute the same, they will pay to the Corporation any difference between the sum to which he would be entitled upon its completion, and that which the Corporation may be obliged to pay to the person to whom the contract may be awarded at any subsequent letting; the amount in each case to be calculated upon the estimated amount of the work by which the bids are tested. The consent above mentioned shall be accompanied by the oath or affirmation, in writing, of each of the persons signing the same, that he is a householder or freeholder in the City of New York, and is worth the amount of the preliminary security required, and in the proposals stated, over and above all his debts of every nature, and over and above his liabilities as bail, surety and otherwise; and that he has offered himself as a surety in good faith and with the intention to execute the bond required by law. The adequacy and sufficiency of the security offered will be subject to approval by the Comptroller of the City of New York after the award is made and prior to the signing of the contract.

The amount of security required upon the execution of the contract will be in each case fifty per cent. of the cost of the articles awarded to each contractor; the amount of preliminary security to be given until each award, and in which the sureties shall justify, shall be SEVEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY DOLLARS.

Should the person to whom the contract may be awarded neglect or refuse to accept the contract within five days after written notice that the same has been awarded to his bid or proposal, and that the adequacy and sufficiency of the security offered has been approved by the Comptroller, or if he accept but do not execute the contract and give the proper security, he shall be considered as having abandoned it and as in default to the Corporation, and the contract will be readjusted and relet, as provided by law.

No estimates will be accepted from, or a contract awarded to, any person who is in arrears to the Corporation upon debt or contract, or who is a defaulter, as surety or otherwise, upon any obligation to the Corporation, and no estimates will be accepted from, or a contract awarded to, any person not having at the time of making his estimate, full, suitable and sufficient facilities for performing the work specified in his estimate.

No estimate will be received or considered unless accompanied by either a certified check upon one of the National or State banks of the City of New York, drawn to the order of the Comptroller, or money to the amount of fifty per centum of the amount of the preliminary security required for the faithful performance of the contract. Such check or money must not be inclosed in the sealed envelope containing the estimate, but must be handed to the Supervisor of the City Record who has charge of the estimate-box; and no estimate can be deposited in said box until such check or money has been examined by said Supervisor and found to be correct. All such deposits, except that of the successful bidder, will be returned to the persons making the same within three days after the contract is awarded. If the successful bidder shall refuse or neglect, within five days after notice that the contract has been awarded to him, to execute the same, the amount of the deposit made by him shall be forfeited and retained by the City of New York as liquidated damages for such neglect or refusal; but if he shall execute the contract within the time aforesaid, the amount of his deposit will be returned to him.

Permission will not be given for the withdrawal of any bid or estimate, and the right is expressly reserved by the undersigned city officers to reject any or all bids which may be deemed prejudicial to the public interests.

A separate contract will be made with the lowest bidder for each and every class of Stationery involving an expenditure of more than five hundred dollars, and the Board of City Record expressly reserves the right to make a contract with the lowest bidder on any class involving the expenditure of a lower sum.

The stationery is to be put up in packages according to schedules to be furnished to the contractors by the Supervisor of the City Record, and according to the most approved methods followed in the stationery trade for the preservation of goods. The contractors must complete the delivery of the goods at the office of the City Record within fifteen days from the execution of the contracts.

THE BOARD OF PUBLIC CHARITIES AND CORRECTION RESERVES THE RIGHT TO REJECT ALL BIDS OR ESTIMATES IF DEEMED TO BE FOR THE PUBLIC INTEREST, AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 64, CHAPTER 410, LAWS OF 1882.

No bid or estimate will be accepted from, or a contract awarded to, any person who is in arrears to the Corporation upon debt or contract, or who is a defaulter, as surety or otherwise, upon any obligation to the Corporation.

The award of the contract will be made as soon as practicable after the opening of the bids.

Delivery will be required to be made from time to time, and in such quantities as may be directed by the said Commissioners.

Any bidder for this contract must be known to be engaged in and well prepared for the business, and must have satisfactory testimonials to that effect, and the person or persons to whom the contract may be awarded will be required to give security for the performance of the contract by his or their bond, with two sufficient sureties, in the penal amount of fifty (50) per cent. of the ESTIMATED amount of the contract.

Each bid or estimate shall contain and state the name and place of residence of each of the persons making the same; the names of all persons interested with him or them therein; and if no other person be so interested, it shall distinctly state that fact; also that it is made without any connection with any other person making an estimate for the same purpose, and is in all respects fair and without collusion or fraud; and that no member of the Common Council, head of a department, chief of a bureau, deputy thereof or clerk therein, or other officer of the Corporation, is directly or indirectly interested therein, or in the supplies or work to which it relates, or in any portion of the profits thereof. The bid or estimate must be verified by the oath, in writing, of the party or parties making the estimate, that the several matters stated therein are in all respects true. Where more than one person is interested, it is requisite that the verification be made and subscribed by all the parties interested.

Each bid or estimate shall be accompanied by the consent, in writing, of two householders or freeholders in the City of New York, with their respective places of business or residence, to the effect that if the contract be awarded to the person making the estimate, they will, on its being so awarded, become bound as his sureties for its faithful performance, and that if he shall omit or refuse to execute the same, they will pay to the Corporation any difference between the sum to which he would be entitled upon its completion and that which the Corporation may be obliged to pay to the person or persons to whom the contract may be awarded at any subsequent letting; the amount in each case to be calculated upon the estimated amount of the work by which the bids are tested. The consent above mentioned shall be accompanied by the oath or affirmation, in writing, of each of the persons signing the same, that he is a householder or freeholder in the City of New York, and is worth the amount of the security required for the completion of this contract, over and above all his debts of every nature, and over and above his liabilities as bail, surety or otherwise; and that he has offered himself as a surety in good faith and with the intention to execute the bond required by section 11 of chapter 7 of the Revised Ordinances of the City of New York, if the contract shall be awarded to the person or persons for whom he consents to become surety. The adequacy and sufficiency of the security offered to be approved by the Comptroller of the City of New York.

No bid or estimate will be considered unless accompanied by either a certified check upon one of the State or National banks of the City of New York, drawn to the order of the Comptroller, or money to the amount of five per centum of the amount of the security required for the faithful performance of the contract. Such check or money must NOT be inclosed in the sealed envelope containing the estimate, but must be handed to the officer or clerk of the Department who has charge of the estimate-box, and no estimate can be deposited in said box until such check or money has been examined by said officer or clerk and found to be correct. All such deposits, except that of the successful bidder, will be returned to the persons making the same within three days after the contract is awarded. If the successful bidder shall refuse or neglect, within five days after notice that the contract has been awarded to him, to execute the same, the amount of the deposit made by him shall be forfeited and retained by the City of New York, as liquidated damages for such neglect or refusal, but if he shall execute the contract within the time aforesaid, the amount of his deposit will be returned to him.

Should the person or persons to whom the contract may be awarded neglect or refuse to accept the contract within five days after written notice that the same has been awarded to his or their bid or proposal, or if he or they accept but do not execute the contract and give the proper security, he or they shall be considered as having abandoned it and as in default to the Corporation, and the contract will be readjusted and relet as provided by law.

The quality of the articles, supplies, goods, wares and merchandise must conform in every respect to the samples of the same on exhibition at the office of the said Department. Bidders are cautioned to examine the specifications for particulars of the articles, etc., required, before making their estimates.

Bidders will state the price for each article, by which the bids will be tested.

Bidders will write out the amount of their estimate in addition to inserting the same in figures.

Payment will be made by a requisition on the Comptroller, in accordance with the terms of the contract, or from time to time, as the Commissioners may determine.

The form of the contract, including specifications, and showing the manner of payment, will be furnished at the office of the Department, and bidders are cautioned to examine each and all of its provisions carefully, as the Board of Public Charities and Correction will insist upon its absolute enforcement in every particular.

TO OWNERS OF LANDS ORIGINALLY ACQUIRED BY WATER GRANTS.

ATTENTION IS CALLED TO THE RECENT act of the Legislature (chapter 449, Laws of 1889), which provides that whenever any streets or avenues in the city, described in any grant of land under water, from the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty, containing covenants requiring the grantees and their successors to pave, repave, keep in repair or maintain such streets, shall be in need of repairs, pavement or repavement, the Common Council may, by ordinance, require the same to be paved, repaved or repaired, and the expense thereof to be assessed on the property benefited; and whenever the owner of a lot so assessed shall have paid the assessment levied for such paving, repaving or repairing, such payment shall release and discharge such owner from any and every covenant and obligation as to paving, repaving and repairing, contained in the water grant under which the premises are held, and no further assessment shall be imposed on such lot for paving, repaving or repairing such street or avenue, unless it shall be petitioned for by a majority of the owners of the property (who shall also be the owners of a majority of the property in frontage) on the line of the proposed improvement.

The act further provides that the owner of any such lot may notify the Commissioner of Public Works, in writing, specifying the ward number and street number of the lot that he desires, for himself, his heirs and assigns, to be released from the obligation of such covenants, and elects and agrees that said lot shall be thereupon liable to be assessed as above provided, and thereupon the owner of such lot, his heirs and assigns shall thenceforth be relieved from any obligation to pave, repair, uphold or maintain said street, and the lot in respect of which such notice was given shall be liable to assessment accordingly.

The Commissioner of Public Works desires to give the following explanation of the operation of this act: When notice, as above described, is given to the Commissioner of Public Works, the owner of the lot or lots therein described, and his heirs and assigns, are forever released from all obligation under the grant in respect to paving, repaving or repairing the street in front of or adjacent to said lot or lots, except one assessment for such paving, repaving or repairs, as the Common Council may, by ordinance, direct to be made thereafter.

No street or avenue within the limits of such grants can be paved, repaved or repaired until said work is authorized by ordinance of the Common Council, and when the owners of such lots desire their streets to be paved, repaved or repaired, they should state their desire and make their application to the Board of Aldermen and not to the Commissioner of Public Works, who has no authority in the matter until directed by ordinance of the Common Council to proceed with the pavement, repavement or repairs.

Commissioner of Public Works.

N. B.—As the above-mentioned quantities, though stated with as much accuracy as is possible, in advance, are approximate only, bidders are required to submit their estimates upon the following express conditions, which shall apply to and become a part of every estimate received:

1. Bidders must satisfy themselves, by personal examination of the location of the proposed work and by such other means as they may prefer, as to the accuracy of the foregoing Engineer's estimate, and shall not, at any time after the submission of an estimate, dispute or complain of the above statement of quantities, nor assert that there was any misunderstanding in regard to the nature or amount of the work to be done.

2. Bidders will be required to complete the entire work to the satisfaction of the Department of Docks, and in substantial accordance with the specifications of the contract and the plans therein referred to. No extra compensation, beyond the amount payable for each class of the work before mentioned, which shall be actually performed, at the price therefor to be specified by the lowest bidder, shall be due or payable for the entire work.

The work to be done under the contract is to be commenced within five days after the date of the contract, and all the work contracted for is to be fully completed on or before the thirty-first day of May, 1891, and the damages to be paid by the contractor for each day that the contract may be unfulfilled after the time fixed for the fulfillment thereof has expired, are, by a clause in the contract, determined, fixed and liquidated at Fifty Dollars per day.

All the old material taken from the said pier and crib-bulkhead to be removed under this contract will be relinquished to the Contractor, and bidders must estimate the value of such material when considering the price for which they will do the work under the contract.

Bidders will state in their estimates a price for the whole of the work to be done in each class, in conformity with the approved form of agreement and the specifications therein set forth, by which prices the bids will be tested. These prices are to cover all expenses of every kind involved in or incidental to the fulfillment of the contract, including any claim that may arise through delay from any cause in the performing of the work thereunder. The award of the contract, if awarded, will be made to the bidder who is the lowest for doing the whole of the work comprised in both classes, and whose estimate is regular in all respects.

Bidders will distinctly write out, both in words and in figures, the amount of their estimates for doing each class of the work.

The person or persons to whom the contract may be awarded will be required to attend at this office with the sureties offered by him or them, and execute the contract within five days from the date of the service of a notice to that effect; and in case of failure or neglect so to do, he or they will be considered as having abandoned it, and as in default to the Corporation; and the contract will be re-advertised and relet, and so on until it be accepted and executed.

Bidders are required to state in their estimates their names and places of residence; the names of all persons interested with them therein; and if no other person be so interested, the estimate shall distinctly state the fact; also, that the estimate is made without any connection with any other person making an estimate for the same work, and that it is in all respects fair, and without collusion or fraud; and also, that no member of the Common Council, head of a department, chief of a bureau, deputy thereof, or clerk therein, or other officer of the Corporation, is directly or indirectly interested therein, or in the supplies or work to which it relates, or in any portion of the profits thereof; which estimate must be verified by the oath, in writing, of the party making the estimate, that the several matters stated therein are in all respects true. Where more than one person is interested, it is requisite that the verification be made and subscribed to by all the parties interested.

Each estimate shall be accompanied by the consent, in writing, of two householders or freeholders in the City of New York, with their respective places of business or residence, to the effect that if the contract be awarded to the person or persons making the estimate, they will, on its being so awarded, become bound as his or their sureties for its faithful performance; and that if said person or persons shall omit or refuse to execute the contract, they will pay to the Corporation of the City of New York any difference between the sum to which said person or persons would be entitled upon its completion, and that which said Corporation may be obliged to pay to the person to whom the contract may be awarded at any subsequent letting; the amount in each case to be calculated upon the estimated amount of the work to be done in each class, by which the bids are tested. The consent above mentioned shall be accompanied by the oath or affirmation, in writing, of each of the persons signing the same, that he is a householder or freeholder in the City of New York, and is worth the amount of the security required for the completion of the contract, over and above all his debts of every nature, and over and above his liabilities as bail, surety and otherwise; and that he has offered himself as surety in good faith and with the intention to execute the bond required by law. The adequacy and sufficiency of the security offered will be subject to approval by the Comptroller of the City of New York after the award is made and prior to the signing of the contract.

No estimate will be received or considered unless accompanied by either a certified check upon one of the State or National banks of the City of New York, drawn to the order of the Comptroller, or money to the amount of five per centum of the amount of security required for the faithful performance of the contract. Such check or money must not be inclosed in the sealed envelope containing the estimate, but must be handed to the officer or clerk of the Department who has charge of the estimate-box, and no estimate can be deposited in said box until such check or money has been examined by said officer or clerk and found to be correct. All such deposits, except that of the successful bidder, will be returned to the persons making the same within three days after the contract is awarded. If the successful bidder shall refuse or neglect, within five days after notice that the contract has been awarded to him, to execute the same, the amount of the deposit made by him shall be forfeited and retained by the City of New York, as liquidated damages for such neglect or refusal; but if he shall execute the contract within the time aforesaid, the amount of his deposit will be returned to him.

Bidders are informed that no deviation from the specifications will be allowed, unless under the written instructions of the Engineer-in-Chief.

No estimate will be accepted from, or contract awarded to, any person who is in arrears to the Corporation, upon debt or contract, or who is a defaulter, as surety or otherwise, upon any obligation to the Corporation.

THE RIGHT TO DECLINE ALL THE ESTIMATES IS RESERVED, IF DEEMED FOR THE INTEREST OF THE CORPORATION OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

Bidders are requested, in making their bids or estimates, to use the blank prepared for that purpose by the Department, a copy of which, together with the form of the agreement, including specifications, and showing the manner of payment for the work, can be obtained upon application therefor at the office of the Department.
