OFFICIAL JOURNAL.

VOL. IV.

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1876.

NUMBER 1,054.

PROCLAMATION.

The 30th day of November having been set apart by the President of the United States, and by the Governor of the State of New York, as a day of thanksgiving and praise, I commend its observance to the people of this city.

We have occasion for devout gratitude that, through all the changes and fluctuations of the year, the mercies of God have been sure and steadfast; that of His gifts necessary to life, not one has failed.

"He giveth rain, both the former and the latter rain, in his season."

We may rightly congratulate ourselves as citizens that no disorders have disturbed the peace of our city, and that the public service in its schools, charities, and trusts has been unimpaired.

And, within our homes, let us recall the mercies and joys unnumbered which have been bestowed upon us as individuals, and as families. The day should recall to us its own obligations and opportunities.

"Thou shalt open wide thine hand to thy poor brother, and to the needy in the land."

"He that considereth the poor, happy is he."

If we keep the day in its ministries of praise and charity, we may fitly pray for the continuance of the Divine blessing upon our homes and upon our city.

Given under my hand, and the seal of the Mayoralty, this 27th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

WILLIAM H. WICKHAM, Mayor.
