The Honorable Michael R. Bloomberg

THE CITY OF NEW YORK
OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
NEW YORK, N.Y. 10007

September 2008

Dear Friends:

It is a great pleasure to send greetings to readers of the National Protocol Directory 2009.

I have always thought that what makes New York City so great is not just our diversity—it's that all of our residents thrive together. In perhaps no other City in the world can one take part in such a productive exchange of ideas and cultures. So it comes as no surprise that the international community feels at home in the Big Apple, a place that derives a great deal of economic vitality, cultural vibrancy, and civic progress from all of its residents and visitors.

On behalf of the City of New York, I am pleased to present this valuable protocol resource for members of the diplomatic community, government officials, and private citizens.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Michael R. Bloomberg".

Michael R. Bloomberg
Mayor

The Honorable Marjorie B. Tiven

NEW YORK CITY COMMISSION FOR THE UNITED NATIONS,
CONSULAR CORPS AND PROTOCOL
MAYOR'S OFFICE FOR PROTOCOL
100 GOLD STREET, 2ND FLOOR, NEW YORK, NEW YORK 10007

September 2008

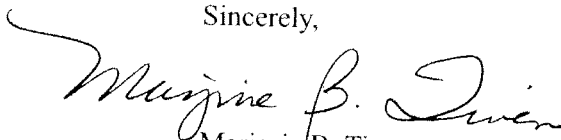

Dear Friends:

It has been my pleasure to serve as Chief of Protocol for the City of New York during nearly seven years of the Bloomberg administration as the City hosts the largest diplomatic community in the world.

Along with the United Nations, its 192 permanent missions, and now 110 consulates, we have continued to nurture the international flavor of New York City. In addition, we have established NYC Global Partners, Inc. to share information and best practices with major cities around the world through summits and a resource bank that was launched online to coincide with our latest summit in June 2008, "Public Health and Climate Change: The Urban Policy Connection." Delegations from 30 cities attended the summit to hear a keynote from Mayor Michael R. Bloomberg, a luncheon address from Nobel laureate Dr. R.K. Pachauri, and learn from panel discussions and meetings.

Once again, the Mayor's Office for Protocol is pleased to publish the National Protocol Directory for 2009. As the final Directory for the Bloomberg administration, we have included a photo montage of some of the protocol events from the past several years in addition to information that has always made this guide an invaluable resource for members of the diplomatic community, government officials, and private citizens.

Sincerely,

Marjorie B. Tiven
Commissioner

PREFACE

The National Protocol Directory 2009 is prepared by the Office for Protocol of the New York City Commission for the United Nations, Consular Corps and Protocol. It includes listings of United States Government offices, protocol offices throughout the fifty states and territories, United Nations missions, embassies, and consulates.

Great effort was made through telephone calls and correspondence to keep the listings in the Directory accurate and current. Changes of which we were not informed or that may have occurred after printing will not be noted.

All communications should be directed to this office, the address of which is found on the Update and Order Forms in the back of this book.

For additional information, please dial 311, the Citizen Service Center, for responses to inquiries in over 170 languages, or visit our homepage on the New York City website at www.nyc.gov/international
