OPINIONS OF THE COUNSEL TO THE COR-FORATION.

The agreement made in 1871 by the Comm ssioners of the Sinking Fund in the City of New York, to convey to the New York and Brooklyn Bridge Company, at a fixed valuation, lands belonging to New York, lying under water on both sides of the East river, is binding upon the city of New York ; and the Bridge Company is entitled to receive a deed of conveyance, notwith-standing certain provisions of law, having for their object the restriction of sales of city property except at public auction, to the highest bidder

LAW DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF THE COUNSEL TO THE CORPORATION

NEW YORK, October 25, 1873. Hon. Andrew H. Green, Comptroller of the City of New York :

SIR :- The New York Bridge Company was incorporated for the purpose of constructing and establishing a bridge from New York to Brooklyn. The act of incorporation (see section 2 of chapter 399 of the laws of 1867) empowers the company to purchase, acquire and hold as much real estate as may be necessary for the site of the bridge ; and by section 11 of the same act, in case the company shall be unable to agree with the owners of land required for its purposes, the company may take such proceedings to acquire the same as are usual when public improvements are made by private corporations.

In 1870 and 1871 the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, according to law, fixed the value of the premises required by the bridge ; those belonging to the city of New York in Brooklyn being appraised at $160,000, and the pier property required in New York being valued at $42,000.

The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund then agreed to convey to the Bridge Company, on payment of those amounts, all the lands so required by them; and now, in pursuance of that agreement, a deed of conveyance of the property in question has been prepared and is awaiting delivery at the Comptroller's office.

An official communication from you requests my opinion whether the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund or the Corporation of the City are the owners of the premises, and if so, whether they could enter into any agreement for the sale of real estate except by public auction and in the manner pointed out by the laws and ordinances relating to such commission. You further request my judgment whether the deed now retained by you can be lawfully delivered upon payment of the consideration agreed upon.

As the agreement to convey was made in 1871, it is not necessary for me to consider whether such a contract could be legally made at the present time in view of the provisions of section 102 of the charter of 1873, as amended by sec-17 of chapter 757 of his same year. provisions of the acts of 1873 empower the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund to sell or lease for the highest marketable price or rental, at public auction or by sealed bids, and always after public advertisement and appraisal, under the direction of the Board, any city property except wharves and piers, and subject to certain conditions in relation to market property. The agreement which we are now considering having been made several years ago, the validity of a deed made in pursuance thereof cannot be affected by legislation subsequent in point of time to the making of such agreement.

In 1844 the Common Council of New York adopted an ordinance containing provisions as follows : In all cases of grants hereafter to be made of lands under water on the shores of the "City of New York, and especially land under 102), thus specially preserving all the powers of

Island of New York or on the shores of Long Island, and within the limits of the various charters of the city of New York, and in all cases of extensions of grants previously made, it shall be the duty of the Comptroller and the Street Commissioner of the city of New York to report to the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund what sum of money shall, in their judgment, be charged as consideration for such grant, and if the said Commissioners, or a majority of them, shall agree to the terms reported by the Comptroller and Street Commissioner, then the Comptroller shall be and he is hereby authorized to cause such grants to be issued to the parties who may be legally entitled to the same. This ordinance, originally passed February 22, 1844, was in the year 1854 made a law of the State irrevocable by the city. (See the act of the Legislature, chapter 225, laws of 1854. And see, also, section 29 of chapter 9 of the revised ordinances of 1859, in which revision this ordinance reappears as expressly recognized and legalized by the Legislature in a statute which has never been repealed.)

According to the legal boundaries of the city of New York, as defined in several statutes and charters, the lands referred to by you, originally being under water on both the Brooklyn and New York sides of the East River, unquestionably belong to this city, and come within the purview of the ordinance to which I have referred as adopted by the Common Council and re-enacted by the Legislature. The 16th section of the charter of 1870, as amended by section 9, chapter 573, of the laws 1871, provides, First, That there shall continue to be, as already provided and recognized by special laws and ordinances, a Board of Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, with all the powers and duties assigned, designated and rati fied by existing laws and ordinances. And, Second, That the Board above mentioned shall have power to sell or lease, for the highest marketable price or rental, at public auction or by sealed bids, and always after public advertisement and appraisal, under the direction of said Board, any city property.

Construing these two paragraphs together and giving effect to both, as we are bound to do by the legal rules of construction, it is my judgment that the ordinance of 1844, affirmed by the act of 1854, is in force, re-affirmed by the clause in the acts of 1870 and 1871 above cited and marked "First," and unrepealed by the clause marked "Second." In other words, at the time the agreement in question was made, and probably also even since the enactment of the charter of 1873, the sale of lands belonging to the city under water was governed by the ordinance of 1844 and the act of 1854, without the process of advertisement and auction

The premises which in 1871 the Commissioners ot the Sinking Fund agreed to convey to the the ordinance. Bridge Company appear from the description in the proposed deed of conveyance to be lands under water within the meaning of the ordinance of 1844; and assuming that the necessary steps were taken by the company to acquire the lands in accordance with section II of the act of incorporation, and assuming, also, that the terms of the old ordinance were complied with, it is my judgment that without further proceedings or delays the deed should be delivered upon receiving the considerations therein expressed, and it will unquestionably convey title to the company.

I am, sir, very respectfully yours, E. DELAFIELD SMITH,

Counsel to the Corporation.

Sales of land under water, where the owner of the upland has a conditional pre-emptive right to purchase, may be made by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund of the City of New York, without advertisement, under the ordinance adopted by the Common Council in 1854, confirmed and enacted into law by the Legislature of 1854. Those sales are not governed by the provisions of after advertised proposals.

LAW DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF THE COUNSEL TO THE CORFORATION, NEW YORK, October 25, 1873.

Hon. Andrew H. Green, Comptroller. SIR :- You request my opinion " in relation to "the power of the Commissioners of the Sinking said Commissioners. "Fund to sell the real estate belonging to the "water; whether the sales should be conducted " under the provisions of the ordinances relating "to such Commissioners, or only in the manner "pointed out by section 102 of the charter of " 1873, as amended by section 17 of chapter 757 " of the laws of 1873."

The present ordinance defining the powers of the Commissioners of the Sinling Fund, was adopted on the 22d of February, 1844. By its provisions, revenues derived from various enumerated sources are reserved to the sinking fund for the redemption of the city debt. In section 29, article 4, this ordinance provides that in all cases of grants thereafter to be made of land under water, it shall be the duty of the Comptroller and Street Commissioner to report to the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund what sum of money shall be charged as consideration for such grants, and if the Commissioners or a majority of them agree to the terms of the report, the Comptroller shall cause grants to be made to the persons entitled thereto. Section 35 of article 4 of this ordinance provides that the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund may sell all real estate belonging to the Corporation and not in use or reserved for public purposes, at public auction, at such times and on such terms as they may deem most advantageous to the public interest, provided that such property shall not be sold for a less sum than that affixed to the property by appraisement by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund and the Street Commissioner, or a majority of them, at an appraisement made within one month prior to the sale, and that thirty days previous notice of such sale shall be published in the Corporation newspapers.

In 1845 an act was passed in relation to the creation of a public fund called the Croton Water Stock, in which it was enacted that the ordinances in force and approved on the 22d February, 1844, in relation to the sinking fund, should not be amended without the consent of the Legislature first had and obtained, except by setting apart additional revenue thereto; and that said ordinances should continue in force until the whole of the debt created for the introduction of the Croton water into the City of New York, after the 10th of May, 1836. should be fully redeemed.

In subsequent acts in 1849 and 1851, providing for the creation of Croton water stock, these provisions in relation to the sinking fund ordinance are repeated and re-enacted.

Similar provisions are contained in chapter 501 laws of 1853, chapter 372, laws of 1860, and chapter 285, laws of 1865.

The power conferred upon the Commissioners to dispose of the real estate of the Corporation, in conformity to the provisions of the ordinance, thus became immutable without the consent of the Legislature ; and unless the Legislature by subsequent legislation have modified such powers, they now remain the same as defined in the

The subsequent legislation concerning the sale of public property is contained in various enactments called charters of the city.

The charter of 1853 provides that all leases and sales of public property and franchises (other than land under water, to which the owner of the upland shall have a pre-emptive right), shall be made by public auction, and to the highest bidder who will give adequate security. (Section 7, chapter 217, laws of 1853.) The charter of 1857 contains the same provision. (Section 41, chapter 446, laws of 1857.)

The charter of 1870, chapter 137, laws of 1870, section 116, as amended by section 9, in the possession of parties formerly connected chapter 573 of the laws of 1871, provided that with this Department and promotive returned hapter 573 of the laws of 1871, prov there should continue to be as then provided by special laws and ordinances, a Board of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, with all the powers and duties assigned, designated and ratified by existing laws and ordinances; and that the said Board should have power to sell or lease the charter requiring that conveyance of city property for the highest marketable price or rental at nust be made only to the highest bidder at auc ion public auction, or by sealed hids, and abrave public auction, or by sealed bids, and always after public advertisement and appraisal, under the directions of said Board, any city property. Section 102 of the present charter, chapter 335, laws of 1873, contains the same provisions as those last cited, and further excepts wharves and piers from the property to be sold by the The provision of the charter of 1873, (section the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund as de" fined in existing laws and ordinances, expresses the intent of the Legislature that the ordinance of 1844 shall remain in full force and effect, and that the powers thereby vested in the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund shall continue. The subsequent clause of section 102, which provides that the Board shall have power to sell or lease any city property for the highest marketable price or rental at public auction, or by sealed bids and always after public advertisement and appraisal under the direction of said Board, is in my opinion, modified by the previous clause preserving the powers of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund so far that grants of land under water may still be made by the Commissioners in the manner prescribed in the ordinance.

I am, therefore, of the opinion that sales of land under water, where the owner of the upland has a preemptive right, may be made by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund in the manner provided by the special ordinance in that behalf, and sales of other real estate under their jurisdiction in the manner provided by section 102 of the charter.

> I am, sir, Very respectfully yours, E. DELAFIELD SMITH,

Counsel to the Corporation.

A claim accrued to the city before the adoption of the Code of Procedure, as well as one subsequently becoming payable, may, after suit thereon has become barred by statutes of limitation, be revived by part payment or by written acknowledgment made at any time within twenty years next preceding the present time.

LAW DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF THE COUNSEL TO THE CORPORATION, NEW YORK, October 22, 1873. Hon, Andrew H. Green, Comptroller.

SIR :- By your letter of October 17th, the Bond and Mortgage of R. M. Williams (which cannot be found in this office,) appears to have been dated on the 5th of August, 1835, payable on the 10th of May, 1836, and default in payment of both the principal and interest having been made, the right of action accrued at once,

In this case the right of action accrued prior to the adoption of the Code; and the provisions of the Revised Statutes contained at that time a saving clause in substance that after the expiration of twenty years from the time a right of action shall accrue upon any sealed instrument for the payment of money, such right shall be presumed to have been extinguished by payment, but such presumption may be repelled by proof of the payment of some part, or a written acknowledgment of such right of action within that period.

(Revised statutes, 2, 301, section 48.) The Code limits the time within which an action upon a sealed instrument shall be commenced to twenty years after the cause of action shall have accrued. (Voorhis' Code, 10th Ed. pp. 74-So.) But the effect of any payment of principal or interest is not altered by the Code, and this cause of action having accrued prior to its adoption, its provisions do not apply. (Coe vs. Mason, 41 Barbour, 612.)

Hence, if it can be made to appear that at any time during the last twenty years any interest or any part of the principal has been paid, or any acknowledgment in writing has been made that a cause of action still exists, a cause of action does now exist. Otherwise, the corporation is barred from proceeding.

With reference to the Bond and Mortgage of Thomas F. Riley, the papers have been found with this Department and promptly returned with explanation, and steps have already been taken to foreclose the same.

I am, sir,

Very respectfully, yours, E. DELAFIELD SMITH, Counsel to the Corporation.

Correction: GENTLEMEN:—The signs of the times but a winter of great suffering and destitution among the large class of our pepulation who are de-pendent for their support by their daily labor and upon an uninterrupted employment. We all know that an overwhelming majority of our laborers, journeymen, clerks, and factory hands, have not the foresight to provide in times of prosperity and fulness for a time of want and dearth. They live from week to week upon their earnings, and never think during the days of bright sunshine of the rainy season that may drop in.
