The Honorable Michael R. Bloomberg

THE CITY OF NEW YORK
OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
NEW YORK, NY 10007

January 2011

Dear Friends:

It is a great pleasure to send greetings to the readers of the National Protocol Directory 2011.

New York City has always been proud to be the world's second home, a place where nearly 200 languages are spoken and people from many different cultures live side by side - tapping into the wealth of opportunity available here and pursuing the best possible lives for themselves and their families. This dynamic diversity defines and strengthens our City, and from Staten Island to Harlem to Flushing - and all points in between - our residents and visitors continue to make history here in the world's greatest city. In that spirit, we remain committed to welcoming the international community and providing them with the tools they need to thrive.

On behalf of the City of New York, I am pleased to provide this valuable protocol resource to members of the diplomatic corps, government officials, and private citizens - to help them in their efforts to guide those they serve and to encourage the cooperation so instrumental in our continued success.

Sincerely,

Michael R. Bloomberg
Mayor

The Honorable Marjorie B. Tiven

NEW YORK CITY COMMISSION FOR THE UNITED NATIONS,
CONSULAR CORPS AND PROTOCOL
MAYOR'S OFFICE FOR PROTOCOL
100 GOLD STREET, 2ND FLOOR, NEW YORK, NEW YORK 10007

January 2011

Dear Friends:

Throughout its history, New York City has proudly celebrated its cultural diversity and its international population. We are honored to host the largest diplomatic community in the world. The United Nations, 192 permanent missions to the United Nations and more than 100 consulates call New York City home. But New York's reputation as a world-class city has many facets: its history as a melting pot of people from all over the world; its attractiveness to foreign trade organizations that have established offices here and determined that New York is the place to do business; and as a destination that sees more than nine million international tourists annually.

Through the work and support of New York City Mayor Michael R. Bloomberg, New York has welcomed international visitors, government leaders and foreign nationals from every country in the world. As the photo montage included in the directory demonstrates, New York takes pride in its international relationships and values its position as a global partner.

As Chief of Protocol for the City of New York, it is my pleasure to present the 2011 edition of the National Protocol Directory, which is published by the Mayor's Office for Protocol as an important guide for governmental offices, business leaders and private citizens.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Marjorie B. Tiven".

Marjorie B. Tiven
Commissioner

PREFACE

The National Protocol Directory 2011 is prepared by the Office for Protocol of the New York City Commission for the United Nations, Consular Corps and Protocol. It includes listings of United States Government offices, protocol offices throughout the fifty states and territories, United Nations missions, embassies, and consulates general.

Great effort was made through telephone calls and correspondence to keep the listings in the Directory accurate and current. Changes of which we were not informed or that may have occurred after printing will not be noted.

All communications should be directed to this office, the address and email for which are found on the Update and Order Forms in the back of this book.

For additional information, please dial 311 or 212-NEW YORK, the Citizen Service Center, for responses to inquiries in over 170 languages.
